It's time for a Governor who will represent people... George Moscone will be that kind of Governor

GEORGE MOSCONE is not a pre-election, johnny-come-lately friend of the working men and women of our state. As a San Francisco Supervisor, State Senator and Democratic Floor leader he has not only compiled a 100 per cent labor record by voting "Aye" — but he has given leadership on the floor and in committee speaking and working for programs supported or initiated by labor. The Senator believes that what is good for labor is good for the great majority of the people of California.

GEORGE MOSCONE is the only potential candidate for Governor, with a legislative background, who has a 100 per cent voting record — from the beginning.

GEORGE MOSCONE is a winner. With the help of Labor he captured 76 per cent of the vote of San Francisco in the general election of 1970. A recent San Francisco poll shows the Senator leading the Mayor by 59.3 to 40.7 per cent.

GEORGE MOSCONE has, since early 1971 traveled throughout the state, meeting with and listening to people—without neglecting his heavy legislative program. He has gained supporters in every community, from all walks of life, ready to spring into his campaign when he announces his candidacy.

GEORGE MOSCONE is the kind of candidate who can in 1974 unite the Democrats of California, who can forge the kind of coalition that will win. His is the rare personality that can bring people together, rather than divide them. He inspires confidence. He is trusted.

GEORGE MOSCONE deserves the support of the labor movement. If it is true that Samuel Gompers' warning to workers to remember to "reward their friends" is still alive — then George Moscone is that friend.

GEORGE MOSCONE, during six years of leadership, has fought for comprehensive health care, for collective bargaining for public employees, for improved social insurance programs, for fair tax programs and opposition to increased sales taxes. He will continue the fight against the special interests who devise tax programs to benefit the rich and soak the working men and women of California.
