Updates from the Assistant Provost for Research

Assistant Provost for Research David Ojcius would like to share the news that the Office of Research and Sponsored Programs has moved to the 3rd floor of the library.

We invite you to join us on March 15, in the “interdisciplinary meeting room (3rd floor of the Library, Room 303), to discuss the internal Call for Proposals in Interdisciplinary Research, and to share feedback with us regarding obstacles to research here at Pacific. We will be holding regular meetings with the assistant provost in this space every third Tuesday of the month, from 1 to 2 pm. Come and speak with us about concerns, questions, or internal or external funding opportunities.

Funding Opportunity with Burroughs Wellcome Fund

The Burroughs Wellcome Fund has an opportunity for seed funding for research on climate change and human health. This is an opportunity for grants of $2,500 - $50,000. There are rolling deadlines through 2023, with the next deadline in April. Here’s the description:

- Topics of interest include linking basic/early biomedical science to climate-focused thinking; sustainability in healthcare systems, healthcare delivery outside institutions, and biomedical research; health impacts and health systems impacts of extreme weather events and other crises; and outreach, communication, and education around climate and human health.

For additional information about this opportunity, please visit

Virtual Events at the Global Health Alliance

The Bay Area Global Health Alliance connects, informs, empowers, and mobilizes more than 45 members to help them achieve their organizations' goals, foster partnerships, and strengthen the Bay Area and beyond as a health hub for innovation and impact. Pacific is now a member of this alliance, and we encourage faculty to participate in any of the upcoming events the alliance is hosting.

1. Consortium of Universities for Global Health (CUGH) Global Health Conference. Friday, April 1, 2022, 8:00 AM- Sunday, April 3, 2022, 5:00 PM. Conference is slated to be held in-person in Los Angeles, or online. Learn more and register.
2. UC Global Health Day. Saturday, May 7, 2022. 9:00 AM- 5:00 PM. This event will be hybrid, both in-person and virtual.

The Office of Research will defray costs for attendance of one in-person conference in Northern California per faculty member. More details will follow.
