Call for Proposals for Interdisciplinary Research

The next due date for the internal call for interdisciplinary research proposals in July 11. As a reminder, this call is limited to projects that address the following two themes: Sustainability: Research to understand and promote social, environmental, health, or economic aspects of sustainable development and Inequities / disparities: Research to understand differences in social, health, racial, or economic status between population groups.

New Director for Undergraduate Research

We are pleased to welcome Dr. Zach Stahlschmidt as the new Director of Undergraduate Research, effective this summer. Zach brings extensive experience with undergraduate research to this position, having mentored nearly fifty undergraduate students over the past decade. We also would like to thank Dr. Lydia Fox for her service as Director over two decades. She has been instrumental in the expansion of research opportunities for undergraduates and creation of some of our traditions at Pacific. Zach and Lydia will work together during the summer while Zach becomes better acquainted with the administrative responsibilities of the director position.

New FRC Chair

Congratulations to Dr. Josh Steimel, who has been elected as the next Faculty Research Committee (FRC) Chair. We look forward to working with him. We would also like to thank Dara Szyliowicz for serving as chair over the past year.

Funding Opportunity Highlight

Our Town is the NEA's creative placemaking grants program. Through project-based funding, the program supports activities that integrate arts, culture, and design into local efforts that strengthen communities. Our Town projects advance local economic, physical, or social outcomes in communities, ultimately laying the groundwork for systems change and centering equity. These projects require a partnership between a nonprofit organization and a local government entity, with one of the partners being a cultural organization. Grants range from $25,000 to $150,000, with a minimum cost share/match equal to the grant amount.
