

9-1976

Peoples Temple pamphlet

Jim Jones

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/mayor-moscone>

Part of the History Commons, Religion Commons, and the Sociology of Religion Commons

Recommended Citation

Jones, Jim, "Peoples Temple pamphlet" (1976). Mayor Moscone. 3.
<https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/mayor-moscone/3>

This Pamphlet is brought to you for free and open access by the The George Moscone Collection at Scholarly Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in Mayor Moscone by an authorized administrator of Scholarly Commons. For more information, please contact mgibney@pacific.edu.

PEOPLES TEMPLE
CHRISTIAN CHURCH
JIM JONES, PASTOR

JESUS SAID,

*For I was an hungered and ye gave me meat;
I was thirsty and ye gave me drink;
I was a stranger and ye took me in;
Naked, and ye clothed me;
I was sick and ye visited me;
I was in prison and ye came unto me.*

Then the righteous shall answer him, saying,

*When saw we thee an hungered and fed thee?
Or thirsty and gave thee drink?
When saw we thee a stranger and took thee in?
Or naked, and clothed thee?
Or when saw we thee sick,
Or in prison and came unto thee?*

*Verily I say unto you,
Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one
of the least of these...
Ye have done it unto me.*

Matthew 25: 35-40

JIM JONES, PASTOR, PEOPLES TEMPLE...

SAVING MANY SOULS THROUGH HUMANITARIAN DEEDS & ACTIONS

Peoples Temple is an extensive ministry based on the practical teachings of Jesus as literally set forth in Matthew 25, in which He admonishes us to feed the hungry, shelter the homeless, and minister to the sick and imprisoned. The Temple reaches out to meet every type of human need. Through its programs significant things are being done for humanity. The Peoples Temple has rehabilitated over 200 young people from drug habits. More than 100 students, many of whom live in dormitories provided by the church, are being financed in medicine, law, teaching, and other human service fields. The Temple provides care in its own facilities for senior citizens, medical convalescents, orphans, and disabled children. These and other humanitarian efforts demonstrate the conviction in Peoples Temple that the highest worship of God is service to one's fellow man.

Rev. Jim Jones is an officially ordained minister of the 1.4 million-member Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) denomination. He is a graduate of Butler University and has been pastor of his church for almost 25 years. He has served as a public school teacher and also has been very successful in business. Pastor Jones spent two years on sabbatical as a foreign missionary, establishing programs for orphans. More recently, he has begun a foreign agricultural mission on thousands of acres to produce food for distribution to critical hunger regions. He travels many hundreds of miles each week with the Temple fleet of Greyhound-type buses to minister to the three Peoples Temple churches in Redwood Valley, Los Angeles, and San Francisco.

Pastor Jones' steadfast support of the Constitution and encouragement of responsible citizenship have led to his serving with acclaim in many civic posts. These include Grand Jury foreman and Executive Secretary of the Human Rights Commission of a large mid-western city. He has received numerous commendations for his work, including a special award for civic leadership presented by the President of the National Newspaper Publishers Association. Pastor Jones and his wife, Marceline, who is a state official, live modestly in a cinder-block house in Redwood Valley, California. Their home is next to one of the Temple's large refuge shelters where they take in and care for sick and abandoned animals of every kind. Pastor Jones and his wife have one natural born son, and have adopted many impoverished children of different racial and ethnic backgrounds.

Pastor Jones and his dedicated wife Marceline with their adopted family and natural-born son.

HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION - "He Was Superb"

"The Rev. James Jones will be sorely missed as executive secretary of the Mayor's Commission on Human Rights. He was hired after long search. He was superb. He went about his job diplomatically, but thoroughly, and produced results."

. . Editorial, Scripps-Howard Newspaper

STATEMENT OF THE PRESIDENT OF THE NORTHERN CALIFORNIA - NEVADA REGION OF CHRISTIAN CHURCHES:

"The ministry and witness of Pastor Jones and the members of Peoples Temple has great meaning for the denomination, perhaps the most meaning of any single incident or event that's happened in the days of my ministry for 20 years as a pastor in this part of the church known as the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ). The ministry of Jesus Christ, which is the action of God in the midst of the world, has been more clearly revealed probably by the Peoples Temple than any other member church of the Disciples of Christ. That's an awesome thing and I just praise God for you."

. . Dr. Karl Irvin, Jr.

Peoples Temple in Redwood Valley.

SUPPORT FOR PEACE OFFICERS:

"Peoples Temple Christian Church, which has a congregation in the Fillmore District, has started a fund to aid the families of slain policemen. 'We are utterly horrified by this move to murder police all over the nation,' the Reverend James Jones . . . told the Chronicle yesterday. The Disciples of Christ congregation started off the fund . . . the money collected will go to the families of a Berkeley officer and two officers killed last weekend. . . ."

. . . San Francisco Chronicle

San Francisco Temple members contribute their skills in finishing construction work on their church building.

The Los Angeles Temple hosts one of the largest congregations in the area. The building itself is an historical landmark and a highly inspirational structure inside and out.

DISCIPLES OF CHRIST LEADER IN AN OFFICIAL REVIEW OF TEMPLE PROGRAMS:

"Peoples Temple is an interracial, vibrant, exciting congregation, called into being by God through its Pastor, Jim Jones. It is apparent that no human need is expressed without an honest attempt being made to meet that need. I have the impression the congregation is ready, willing and able to assist any human being with almost any problem. The membership comes from a wide range of humanity . . . One gets the impression of being in the midst of the human race at its best; a community of people whose primary concern is to love and to serve Peoples Temple is led by a man of deep integrity and sensitivity."

. . . Rev. Gerald McHarg, Associate Regional Pastor, Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) for Southern California

Children are given the opportunity to work and play in pleasant outdoor settings. They even find that work projects can be fun!

VIEW OF METHODIST DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENT:

"Peoples Temple is a caring community of people of all races and classes. They bear the mark of compassion and justice — compassion for the hungry and jobless, lonely and disturbed, and also for the earth and her offspring."

. . . Dr. John Moore, District Superintendent of the United Methodist Church for Oakland and the East Bay, California.

VIEW OF FORMER NEWS BUREAU CHIEF FOR CBS TELEVISION AFFILIATE:

"When I came to do a film documentary for television on Peoples Temple, I discovered the most dedicated group of people to the cause of humanity I had ever encountered. I soon found it was due to the magnificent example set by the church's pastor, Jim Jones, whose motives and humanitarian principles are truly noble. He exemplifies the life of Christ by working day and night to stand courageously against all forms of injustice, to relieve human suffering of every kind, and to establish brotherhood among peoples of wide-ranging backgrounds wherever he can. I became so impressed with the character and integrity of this selfless man that I gave up my position in broadcasting to work full-time for this phenomenal program."

. . . Michael Prokes, former CBS-TV affiliate News Bureau Chief

At the Redwood Valley Temple children swim in the indoor heated pool.

Some of the Peoples Temple members visiting the Chicago Museum as they travel across the United States.

PEOPLES TEMPLE SUMMER VACATION

During the past couple of summers, Pastor Jones took hundreds of members from all three churches on a tour of the country, stopping at major cities along the way to spread the word of truth to many eager souls.

The incredibly cooperative spirit that Pastor Jones has infused into his church amazed people all along the way. Everyone in the 18-vehicle caravan was organized and had a specific function. Bus drivers, hostesses, nurses, food preparation units, clean-up crews and helpers of all sorts worked together in highly coordinated and disciplined fashion to insure the group comfort and security at all times.

THE WELCOME TOURISTS

"The hands-down winners of anybody's tourists-of-the-year award have got to be the 660 wonderful members of the Peoples Temple Christian Church of Redwood Valley, California, who bend over backwards to leave every place they visit more attractive than when they arrived. Like thousands of other tourists, they went calling on the U.S. Capitol the other day, but unlike others who tramp through our town spreading litter helter-skelter, this spirited group of travelers fanned out from their 13 buses and spent about an hour cleaning up the grounds."

. . . Washington Post

"PROBABLY THE LARGEST":

"Peoples Temple ranks as probably the largest Protestant congregation in Northern California, according to various estimates by officials in several Protestant denominations."

. . . Sacramento Bee

FIERY, HUMBLE, ERUDITE, LOVING:

"The man who pastors this flock of 'brothers' is a cross between a fiery archangel, a humble servant of humanity, an erudite wit, a loving family man with all the usual longings for a 'better life' for his children — and a plain human being who sometimes finds the battle 'heavy going.'"

. . . Ukiah Daily Journal

PROTECTION OF INDIVIDUAL LIBERTY:

"This church, the Peoples Temple of the Disciples of Christ, has a distinguished pastor, Reverend James Jones, and they have never failed to respond to public or private appeals for assistance in the pursuit and protection of individual liberty and freedom."

SPECIAL CITIZENSHIP AWARD:

"It gives me extreme pleasure to announce that you [Jim Jones] have been selected as recipient of the Sun Reporter SPECIAL MERIT AWARD. . . Your acquaintances speak glowingly of your numerous social concerns, involving efforts to rehabilitate drug addicts, provision of housing and health care for senior citizens, the development and maintenance of an animal shelter, and your multi-racial adopted family all of which we believe is encompassed in the Judeo-Christian ethic that man is his brother's keeper. These are tumultuous times, requiring that each individual be ever mindful of the prophetic words of Edmund Burke, spoken in the 18th Century: 'All that is necessary for evil to triumph in the world is for enough good men to do nothing.'"

. . . Carlton B. Goodlett, Ph.D., M.D.,
President, National Newspaper Publishers
Association.

Vacation tour was not complete without a stop at the Capitol building in Washington, D.C., the seat of America's government. Here Pastor Jones and members of Peoples Temple visited with their local Congressional Representatives.

THE CONGRESSIONAL RECORD:

"Peoples Temple Christian Church Supports First Amendment" is the title of extended remarks in which a prominent legislator stated on the floor of Congress. "Mr. Speaker . . . I would like to commend the Rev. James Jones, who is pastor of the church, and every member of his congregation for the outstanding demonstration of their commitment to the principles on which this country was founded."

. . . Congressional Record

Over the 1975 Labor Day weekend Pastor Jones took hundreds of Peoples Temple members to Disneyland. Everyone enjoyed an entire day of activities and rides at the world famous amusement center.

Youngsters gather in the San Francisco Temple to learn about their history. Through the skillful guidance of trained counsellors the children find that study can be fun.

VIEW OF LOCAL CLERGY:

"Progress in meeting the needs of people . . . is perhaps seen most dramatically in the seven-day-a-week program of the Peoples Temple with its team of teachers and lawyers, to mention just a few, who strive in the name of Christ, to serve their fellow men."

. . . Dr. Elmer Schmitt, President of the Ukiah Ministerial Association
(Ukiah Daily Journal.)

In this large, well-equipped garage, experienced Temple mechanics train young people in the skills of auto and diesel engine maintenance. The Temple's eleven air-conditioned Greyhound-type buses are regularly serviced here. Pastor Jones has always insisted upon maintaining a high standard of safety with the buses. As a result there has never been a serious accident or injury over the millions of miles the Temple's buses have logged on the highways!

Out-of-town members tour the grounds of one of the church facilities. This rest home, typical of other Temple facilities, has earned highest awards for excellent care.

This home for mentally disabled children is located on a beautiful 40 acre stretch of land bordering a river. Here Temple members supervise recreational activities and a regular study program for young people who are being taught to live productively in society.

A PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON SPEAKS:

"I have known Pastor Jim Jones to be absolutely truthful in every respect. He teaches Christianity, brotherly love, kindness, and willingness to help friends in need at all times. He teaches all of these things to his members, and insists that they live this type of life every minute of every day. Pastor Jones is unique in his performance. He should be seen and heard by people of the entire world. This world will be a better place in which to live because of Pastor Jim Jones."

. . . Dr. J. Bruce Massey, M.D.

Peoples Temple nurses with a member in the churches' health examination room, established by Pastor Jones and operated under the direction of a prominent doctor. The Temple has a program of both preventive medicine and physical therapy which is administered by a staff of professionals with wide-ranging skills in many areas of the medical field.

PEOPLES TEMPLE... AGRICULTURAL MISSION

Throughout the years Peoples Temple has sent food and supplies to help those who face disease and starvation, both at home and abroad. The church has felt very deeply that wherever there is a need dedicated Christians must step forward to help! This human service ministry of Peoples Temple is so highly regarded throughout the world that the government of a South American country has made available to us several thousand acres of fertile land to begin our Agricultural Missionary Program.

Temple members prepare a shipment of supplies and equipment to send to the mission project.

