University of the Pacific is accredited by the Accrediting Commission for WASC Senior College and University Commission (WSCUC), located at 985 Atlantic Ave., Suite 100, Alameda, CA 94501; (510)748-9001.

University Campuses

Procedures, rules, regulations, services, tuition, etc. vary on the three campuses of University of the Pacific. This catalog states those for the schools and colleges listed in this catalog. The university reserves the right to change fees, modify its services or change its programs at any time and without prior notice being given.

Statement of Non-discrimination

Pacific does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, ancestry, age, genetic information, sex/gender, marital status, veteran status, sexual orientation, medical condition, pregnancy, gender identity, gender expression or mental or physical disability.

In accordance with the above university policy and in compliance with all applicable laws, all educational services will be provided and all employment decisions (including recruitment, training, compensation, benefits, employee relations, promotions, terminations) will be made without regard to the individual's status protected by law. To the extent provided by law, the university will reasonably accommodate qualified individuals with disabilities that meet the legal standards for documentation, whenever the individual is otherwise qualified to safely perform all essential functions of the position.

This notice is given pursuant to the requirements of Title IX of the Educational Amendments of 1972, Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and amendments and other laws, orders and regulations governing discrimination. University of the Pacific has designated the Director of Human Resources to coordinate the university's efforts to comply with laws, orders and regulations governing discrimination. Any person having a complaint should contact in writing:

Director of Human Resources

About University of the Pacific

Preparing Our Students: Success After Graduation

University of the Pacific provides a superior, student-centered learning experience that integrates liberal arts and professional education to prepare students for lasting achievement and responsible leadership in their careers and communities.

At six months after graduation, more than 90 percent of class of 2019 survey respondents reported being employed or accepted to a graduate or professional school, completing a post-graduate internship or fellowship, or serving in a military or community service experience. In 2019, Pacific ranked No.7 for graduation rate among similar-sized public and private nonprofit colleges in California, according to the U.S. Department of Education Scorecard. The Wall Street Journal and Times Higher Education ranked Pacific No. 21 in the West for 2020 and the 2019 U.S. News & World Report Best Colleges ranking placed Pacific at No. 7 for Best Ethnic Diversity among private California universities.

Looking Back: Our Unique History

University of the Pacific was established in 1851 as California's first chartered institution of higher learning. It was founded by pioneering Methodist ministers and remains the only Methodist-related university in California. Originally located in Santa Clara, the university later moved to San Jose, and in 1924, moved to Stockton making it the first private four-year university in the Central Valley.

An innovator and leader in higher education, Pacific provided California with its first chartered medical school in 1858, its first coeducational campus in 1871, and its first conservatory of music in 1878. It was the nation's first to offer an undergraduate teacher corps program, the first to send an entire class to an overseas campus, the first to establish a Spanish-speaking inter-American college, and the first to offer a four-year graduation guarantee.

Pacific has enjoyed extraordinary stability in administration. Provost Maria Pallavicini currently serves as interim president following the retirement of Pamela A. Eibeck, the university's 24th and first female president. On Nov. 21, 2019, Pacific announced Christopher Callahan was chosen to become the university's 26th president. Callahan was selected after a nationwide search and a unanimous decision by the Board of Regents. His tenure begins July 1, 2020.

Looking Forward: Innovating with the Times

Today, University of the Pacific is a highly ranked national university that remains deeply committed to its personal, student-centered approach. Campuses in Stockton, Sacramento and San Francisco strategically position Pacific in three of California's, and the nation's, most important and dynamic markets. The university earns widespread recognition for its deep commitment to teaching and learning, its history of innovation and the accomplishments of its alumni.

Pacific has added more than a dozen new academic programs across its three campuses over the last three years. Once the exclusive homes to Pacific's law and dental schools, the Sacramento and San Francisco campuses now reach new students with graduate programs in data science, physician assistant studies, audiology, music therapy, education, public policy and public administration. These programs help address the region's critical need for leaders in technology, health care, education, government and nonprofit sectors.

In fall 2019, Pacific launched the School of Health Sciences that includes four new programs—accelerated master's degrees in clinical nutrition, nursing and social work, and a doctor of occupational therapy—as well as existing popular health programs. The university also introduced Benerd College, a merger of the Gladys L. Benerd School of Education and University College, to enhance access to education by providing innovative, flexible online and hybrid educational programs.

Beyond Academics: Pacific's Community Impact

In addition to academics, Pacific is making a positive community impact across the Northern California region through tens of thousands of hours of public outreach, innovative new programs and the efforts of students, faculty and staff across the university.

For example, the Thomas J. Long School of Pharmacy has provided more than a decade of outreach events through its Mobile Medicare Clinics that have saved more than 8,695 Medicare recipients nearly an estimated total of $8.65 million in prescription drug costs. Since 2010, more than 3,000 of the most vulnerable and underserved in our communities have received health care services through our Virtual Dental Home program, a revolutionary new care delivery system developed by Pacific's Center for Special Care. And, McGeorge's legal clinics on important topics, such as immigration law, benefit the community while preparing students through meaningful experiential learning.

Our Schools, Majors and Programs

Pacific's 11 schools and college on its three campuses offer students their choice of 80-plus programs of study, including 30 graduate programs and 10 accelerated program options. For example, students can go directly into certain professional programs, including pharmacy, dentistry and law, while accelerated programs in business, engineering and education make it possible to earn both undergraduate and graduate degrees in five years.

College of the Pacific (1851)

The College of the Pacific is the oldest and largest academic unit, encompassing 18 departments and 31 majors in the natural sciences, social sciences, humanities, and the fine and performing arts. Based upon its foundation of a rigorous liberal arts curriculum, the College champions experiential learning through undergraduate research and creative activity, fieldwork, internships, and study abroad. The College prepares graduating students to command a broad perspective in their professional careers, ready to assume the responsibilities of leadership.

Conservatory of Music (1878)

Pacific's Conservatory of Music has been delivering an outstanding music education for more than 140 years. Degree programs are offered in performance, composition, jazz, education, music industry studies, music therapy and history. Conservatory faculty artists/scholars provide a rigorous and supportive learning environment. Students have access to a recording studio and technology and composition labs. Seminars and master classes with accomplished alumni and visiting artists along with numerous performance and other experiential opportunities help prepare graduates for professions in music.

Arthur A. Dugoni School of Dentistry (1896)

The nationally renowned Arthur A. Dugoni School of Dentistry, named in honor of its dean of 28 years, is committed to providing a world-class dental education for its students and comprehensive, affordable patient care for adults and children. The Dugoni School is highly regarded for its humanistic model of education that respects the dignity of each individual and for innovation in dental curriculum, including comprehensive patient care and competency-based education. Its programs include an accelerated year-round pre-doctoral DDS program that enables students to complete four academic years of instruction in three calendar years and a high-demand Master of Physician Assistant Studies program.

McGeorge School of Law (1924)

McGeorge educates lawyers for large and small law firms, government agencies and corporate legal departments around the world. McGeorge's success is built on its distinguished faculty, high-quality students, committed and involved alumni, and beautiful, spacious campus with state-of-the-art classrooms and student facilities. McGeorge is a dynamic law school that is changing and growing to meet the challenges of the global economy and to educate the lawyers of the future.

Benerd College (1924)

Benerd College, a merger of the Gladys L. Benerd School of Education and University College, is Pacific's home for professional and continuing education. Students in Benerd College are prepared to deliver thoughtful, reflective, caring and collaborative services to diverse populations. The College offers relevant learning opportunities, flexible pricing and accessible program delivery to meet the needs of both the K-12 education community and adults across the region looking to advance their education and training.

Thomas J. Long School of Pharmacy (1955)

The Thomas J. Long School of Pharmacy is named in honor of the financial commitment of the Thomas J. Long Foundation and the Long family. The School offers a three-year accelerated pharmacy program. The School is committed to creating a leadership focused, success-centered environment for its diverse student body. Students are empowered to succeed through meaningful, experiential learning in state-of-the-art laboratories. The School's programs have received continuous national accreditation.

Graduate School (1956)

The Graduate School collaborates with University of the Pacific's academic schools and colleges to offer more than 30 master's, doctoral, and graduate certificate programs, serving graduate students on Pacific's Stockton, San Francisco and Sacramento campuses. The school serves as the central, student-centered resource for graduate admission, education and services at the university and works to promote and support the success and development of Pacific's diverse graduate population.

School of Engineering and Computer Science (1958)

The School of Engineering and Computer Science empowers its students to solve problems by developing their own projects and working alongside professors on contemporary research. The School's faculty take each student's education personally and are committed to mentoring them both inside and outside of the classroom. With its distinguished cooperative education program, students also get to "learn and earn" through a paid professional internship, built right into the curriculum, with one of the School's 200-plus industry partners worldwide.

Eberhardt School of Business (1977)

The Eberhardt School of Business was renamed in 1995 in recognition of the Eberhardt family's endowed gifts. Fully accredited by the Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business, the School boasts a $3 million Eberhardt Student Investment Fund, a dedicated Career Management Center, top-rated faculty, state-of-the-art classroom technology, and exceptional experiential learning opportunities. The School offers valuable leadership development and business resources through its centers and institutes, including the Center for Business and Policy Research, the Center for Entrepreneurship, the Westgate Center for Leadership and Management Development and the Institute for Family Business.

School of International Studies (1987)

A school within the College of the Pacific, the School of International Studies is devoted to the interdisciplinary study of international affairs. International, interdisciplinary and intercultural immersion, acquisition of at least one second language and at least a semester of study abroad prepare students to succeed in a variety of professions in industry, government, not-for-profit organizations and educational institutions. The School's programs help students develop strong analytical reasoning ability and written and oral communication skills while building intercultural competence and personal confidence. Its students are frequent recipients of prestigious fellowships.

School of Health Sciences (2020)

Building on Pacific's long-standing reputation for preparing health care professionals, the new School of Health Sciences meets the demands of a growing industry. New accelerated master's degree programs in clinical nutrition, nursing and social work and a doctor of occupational therapy join existing popular programs in athletic training, audiology, physical therapy, physician assistant studies and speech-language pathology, with many offered in flexible formats. Housed at our Sacramento Campus, the new School of Health Sciences also includes programs at the San Francisco and Stockton campuses.

All graduate students are urged to read these general regulations carefully. Failure to be familiar with this section does not excuse a student from the obligation to comply with all the described regulations.

Although every effort has been made to ensure the accuracy of this catalog, students are advised that the information contained in it is subject to change. The University reserves the right to modify or change the curriculum, admission standards, course content, degree requirements, regulations, tuition or fees at any time without prior notice. The information in this catalog is not to be regarded as creating a binding contract between the student and the school.

Academic Standing

All graduate students are expected to make satisfactory progress toward the academic degree for which they were admitted. Graduate students are required to maintain a cumulative minimum grade point average (GPA) of 3.0 and earn a grade of P (Passing) on all course work that does not affect grade point average to remain in good standing.

Minimum grade requirement

Only grades of A, B, C, and P are acceptable for graduate credit. N is considered acceptable with respect to the minimum grade requirement.

Grades of C-, D, F, or NC (No Credit), are not accepted for graduate credit at University of the Pacific.

Students in a credential-only program must maintain a GPA of 2.5 and have a cumulative GPA of 2.5 or higher to clear their credential. Students in a basic teacher education credential only program who wish to do directed teaching in an internship must maintain a 3.0 GPA.

Students enrolled in the Master of Physician Assistant Studies, the Master of Laws (LLM), or the Juris Scientiae Doctor (JSD) programs, should refer to the program's policies for academic standing. For all other students, academic standing is determined at the end of each term (or after completion of six units during summer) to be one of the following:

- good standing
- probation
- dismissal.

The criteria for these academic standings are based upon a combination of cumulative Pacific GPA and the term GPA. Criteria for the different academic standings are outlined below:

Probation:

Any graduate student who has completed six (6) or more course units of study and has a Pacific cumulative GPA below 3.0 or has earned a grade of NC in two separate terms is placed on academic probation. To be removed from probation, a student must achieve a cumulative 3.0 GPA (or higher GPA if required by the program) and not receive any grades of NC within completion of the next nine (9) units. The courses included in the nine units must be approved by the program faculty for degree-seeking students.

A student who is removed from probation is not eligible for placement on probation.

Dismissal:

Students will be dismissed from their graduate program if either of the following apply: (1) a student on probation fails to be removed from probation after the nine unit probationary period; (2) the GPA of a student who has previously been on probation falls below 3.0 or the student receives a grade of NC in any class.

A dismissed student may appeal for reconsideration and possible reinstatement on probation, within the same school. Students who wish to appeal must follow procedures outlined in each program's policy. If no program-specific procedure is outlined, students must submit a written petition to the Dean of Graduate School. Enrollment eligibility during appeals process is determined at the program level.

A dismissed student may not enroll in any graduate program for a minimum of 12 consecutive months (waiting period). A student must reapply, meet current requirements for degree-seeking students, and be accepted by the University and the program to enroll for graduate studies following the waiting period. Schools or programs may develop additional procedures or requirements related to re-enrollment following dismissal. Some schools or programs may not permit reinstatement. Please see the appropriate school or program sections of the catalog for specific requirements.

In addition to the academic standing, other academic and non-academic reasons can result in a student's dismissal from a graduate program.

Refer to each school's code of student conduct/responsibility or any program-specific guidelines. In the absence of a school-specific code of conduct, the Honor Code in Tiger Lore applies.

Acquisition of Graduate Credit as an Undergraduate

Undergraduate students meeting all of the following requirements may petition the Dean of the Graduate School by submitting the Application to Receive Graduate Credit as an Undergraduate Student to open a graduate transcript (i.e., receive credit in graduate-level courses toward a graduate degree) before the last day to add classes of the last semester as an undergraduate:

- The student must be within 9 units of completing the baccalaureate degree.
- The student must be in the last two semesters of the baccalaureate degree at University of the Pacific.
- An Evaluation of Degree Requirements form has been submitted to the Office of the Registrar prior to the last day to add classes. This must be submitted before or with the Graduate Credit as Undergraduate application. (This serves as permission by the undergraduate advisor for the student to take graduate-level coursework.
- The student has been accepted into a graduate or credential program.

Graduate credit can be received under the following guidelines:

- The total number of graduate credits for the semester, including coursework completed at other schools, cannot exceed the maximum graduate course load for the department providing the graduate coursework.
- The tuition rate for the entire semester is at the undergraduate rate.
- No more than 12 units (16 units for student teachers) can be transferred from an undergraduate transcript into a graduate degree program.
- Graduate credit will only be granted for graduate-level (200 numbered) courses and above.
- Units cannot be retroactively transferred from an undergraduate transcript to a graduate program. Approvals for graduate credit must be obtained prior to the last day to add classes of the student's last semester.
- Coursework will not count toward graduate credit if the student fails to complete the bachelor's degree by the second semester of taking graduate courses.
- Graduate courses completed under this agreement will not be recorded by the Registrar as graduate coursework until the baccalaureate degree has been completed and matriculation into the graduate program has commenced. Grades from these courses will not be accounted in the undergraduate grade point average, unless the bachelor's degree is not completed.
- Students who do not complete the bachelor's degree by the second term when graduate courses are taken cannot start a graduate program and cannot take additional graduate coursework until the bachelor's degree has been awarded.
- Students bear the responsibility of assuring graduate credits earned as an undergraduate student will transfer to or be counted as post-baccalaureate units by other universities or school districts.

Students are not classified as graduate students until they register for and begin graduate courses following the receipt of their bachelor's degree.

Changing Degree Programs

Graduate students are admitted to University of the Pacific for a specific degree program. With the exception of programs overseen by the same admission committee, if a student wishes to change a degree program, the student must submit a new application for admission, pay the application fee, and comply with all admission requirements. No more than nine (9) units of coursework taken in non-degree seeking, certificate-seeking, or previous degree-seeking status may be applied to any Master's degree and no more than 12 units may be applied to any doctoral degree. Students who wish to change degree programs overseen by the same admission committee may do so by using the Change of Program form available in the Registrar's Office.

Classification of Graduate Students

Full: All students admitted with full graduate standing.

Conditional Admission: Students may be admitted to some of the graduate programs on a conditional admission basis. See the Graduate Admission section of this catalog for additional information.

Credential: Students admitted to do post-baccalaureate work that leads toward an initial teaching credential, specialist instruction credential or services credential.

Clinical Competency

Many of the graduate programs offered at the University include experiential coursework. Prior to taking a course that includes an experiential component, students are required to demonstrate that they have the necessary skills, aptitude and competencies to successfully complete the course. Faculty of departments that offer experiential courses have the discretion of denying or terminating enrollment in these courses to students evaluated as not possessing the necessary clinical competencies. Procedures used to assess clinical competency vary across programs. Students may obtain additional information from their Graduate Program Director.

Students who do not demonstrate adequate clinical and experiential competency can be dismissed from a degree program, regardless of academic standing.

Commencement

Master's degree students who are near completion of degree requirements are eligible to participate in the May commencement exercises under the following conditions.

- A completed Petition to Participate in Graduation Ceremonies has been submitted to the Graduate School by the fall deadline for filing the Application for Graduation form (see Graduate School Calendar). This petition must be signed by the student's advisor and academic Dean (or Graduate Program Director if appropriate).
- All degree requirements will be met before the end of the summer session of the same year. An approved plan of study that specifies all degree requirements will be completed in time and must be on file in the Graduate School.
- The Master's degree oral examination, which includes thesis defense or written examination (where applicable), will be successfully completed by the Spring semester deadline for Written/Oral Exam – Thesis/Dissertation Defense.
- The student is in good academic standing.

On a case-by-case basis, special consideration is given for international students who complete degree requirements during the fall semester of the same calendar year. Approved Degree Evaluations must be on file by the spring semester deadline and the student must state they are unable to return to campus to participate in ceremonies in the spring following degree completion.

Doctoral degree students are ineligible to participate in graduation ceremonies until all degree requirements are met and the final dissertation has been approved by the Graduate School. However, on a case-by-case basis, special consideration will be given for international and domestic doctoral students who will complete degree requirements by the end of the fall semester of the same calendar year. Approved programs of study must be on file by the spring semester deadline, and the student's Graduate Program Director must approve of the request.

Continuous Registration

All graduate students in graduate degree or credential programs must satisfy the Continuous Registration Policy of their respective programs from the time of admission until all degree requirements are met or their status as a degree- or credential-seeking student is terminated. This includes students who are completing preliminary or final examinations, or presenting terminal projects. If degree or credential requirements are completed between terms, the student must have been registered during the preceding term. International students may have additional registration requirements depending on their visa status and should consult with the Office of International Programs and Services to obtain current information.

Continuous registration is intended for students who have completed all required coursework. The Continuous Registration Policy can be met by registering for GRAD 200 (master's students) or GRAD 300 (doctoral students) through Inside Pacific (<https://insidepacific.pacific.edu/cp/home/displaylogin/>) at least one semester per academic year (Fall or Spring).

Students enrolled in GRAD 200/GRAD 300 may utilize library facilities, but are not entitled to:

- the use of other University facilities,
- receive a fellowship, assistantship, or financial aid, or
- take course work of any kind at the University of the Pacific.

Students should also be aware that registration in GRAD 200/GRAD 300 may cause existing student loans to come due.

Some programs may require courses other than GRAD 200/GRAD 300 to meet continuous registration requirements. Please consult individual program pages for additional information.

Failure to Meet Continuous Registration Requirements

A graduate student who fails to meet the continuous registration requirements will be inactivated. Students in good academic standing who were inactivated may petition for readmission to their original degree program by submitting a $50 reinstatement fee and the Application to Request Reinstatement to the Graduate School prior to the first day of classes.

Reinstatement will occur to current catalog. If reinstated, the student will be required to meet University and degree program admission and degree requirements that are in effect on the date of reinstatement, not the date of original admission.

Reinstatement requests must be accompanied by a plan for completing the degree within the maximum time allowed (see Residence and Time Limits).

A decision to reinstate a former student must be supported by the student's degree program. The continuous registration requirement does not apply to students on approved leaves of absence (see below).

Course Audits

Graduate courses may be audited only by students admitted to the Graduate School who have the approval of the student's advisor and of the instructor and dean (or designate) of the academic department where the course is offered. Audits are not available for courses in first-professional programs, unless by written permission of the program's dean. Students auditing a course must pay an audit fee and any special fees associated with the course. Audited courses cannot be retroactively converted to course credit unless officially changed to credit before the "Add Classes" deadline of the semester.

Course Loads

Course load requirements are program-specific. The following are guidelines for non-lockstep programs. Course loads influence financial aid. The following course load categories correspond to financial aid categories.

- Full Time: 8 or more units per semester
- Half Time: 7 to 4 units per semester
- Less than Half Time: 3 to 1 units per semester

Students with teaching or other assistantships should check with their department for specific guidelines concerning unit requirements. Conditionally admitted students are not eligible for assistantships.

Credit-by-Examination for Graduate Courses

A graduate student in good standing, or a student who has been accepted into one of University of Pacific's graduate programs, may request, or be offered, to take an exam in order to receive "Credit by Examination" (CbE) for one or more courses offered by a graduate program. Departments have the right to designate which of their courses are appropriate for CbE. This policy is subject to the following restrictions.

1. A student may request CbE for a course covering material in which, through independent study, work experience, or work at another institution which was not accepted for transfer credit, the student feels prepared. It is the responsibility of the student to explain how the material was mastered.
2. Students wishing to pursue CbE should not expect preparation support (tutoring, office hours, etc.) beyond a statement of the scope of topic coverage and expectations for passing the exam(s).
3. A student wishing CbE for a course may not attend the class meetings of the course.
4. A student cannot receive CbE for a course which they have previously taken or audited.
5. A student may not get CbE for a course in a structured sequence if the student has received credit for a higher level course in the sequence.
6. A maximum of 9 units total may be earned by a student via CbE and/or transfer credit.

A student wishing to pursue the credit by examination option must:

1. complete the appropriate form from the office of the University Registrar;
2. obtain approval from his or her adviser, and the dean of the school or college offering the course;
3. pay the scheduled service fee.

Successful completion of the examination will be recorded on the transcript with a grade of Pass and will be made a part of the student's academic record. This will occur in the semester in which the exam is taken, or in a subsequent semester as directed by the student's graduate program, especially in the case where a candidate takes the exam before being a full-time graduate student.

Pending credit for having successfully passed the exam, can be used as justification for prerequisite overrides for courses which require the course to which CbE was earned. Appropriate tuition fees will be assessed.

Credit Limitations

All courses countable for graduate degree credit must be either graduate-level courses (200 or 300 level) or, where allowable, advanced undergraduate courses (100 level). Students taking 100-level courses for graduate credit will be required to complete extra course assignments. A course can be applied toward only one degree objective, unless an exception is approved in writing by the Academic Affairs Committee on Graduate Studies and the Dean of the Graduate School.

Courses not applicable to graduate degrees:

- Lower division undergraduate courses (001-099)
- Courses in which a grade of C- or lower were received. Courses that receive a C- or lower must be repeated
- Courses for the improvement of English language skills of foreign students'
- Directed teaching or prerequisite courses for directed teaching except for the Master of Education degree or the Master of Arts in Special Education degree.
- Physical education activity courses.
- Unclassified Status: No more than 12 units, no matter when they are earned, can be transferred from an "Unclassified" transcript into a graduate program.
- Credit used toward a degree earned at another institution cannot be applied to a graduate degree at University of the Pacific.

Double-Listed Courses

In order to differentiate graduate and undergraduate responsibilities in double-listed courses (100/200 levels), there must be significant differentiation between the two levels with the graduate level evidencing additional rigor as denoted by higher level student learning outcomes with corresponding assignments and grading criteria. Graduate students must register using the 200-level course number.

Grade Point Average

The Pacific grade point average is determined by adding the total quality points and by dividing the resultant sum by the total number of quality hours. As a general rule, the ratio is based on the number of letter graded units completed.

Grading Policies

Symbols and Definitions

Graduate students are assigned grades in keeping with the following provisions. Utilization of (+/-) is at the discretion of individual programs.

Symbo	GPA	Definition
A	4.0	Exemplary
A-	3.7
B+	3.3
B	3.0	Satisfactory
B-	2.7
C+	2.3
C	2.0	Marginal
C-	1.7
D+	1.3
D	1.0	Unsatisfactory
F	0.0	Failing

I	Incomplete work due to extenuating and hardship circumstances which prevent the completion of the work assigned within the regular time of the term. Each incomplete grade assigned must be accompanied with a contract statement agreed to by both instructor and student as to: a) what work remains to be completed, b) how it is to be evaluated, and c) a time indicated for completion within by no later than the following deadlines: for fall semester, by July 1 following; for spring semester, by November 1 following; for summer term, by January 1 following. If work is not completed within these stipulated times, the instructor can indicate a grade in lieu of the F/ NC which automatically would be imposed with failure to complete the work. All incompletes must be made up before the last day of the semester in which the student intends to graduate.
---	-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

Symbo	GPA	Definition
N		Deferred grading for thesis, dissertation or research work.
NC		No credit recognition. Represents unsatisfactory work under pass/no credit option.
NG		No Grade Received from the Instructor. Please contact the instructor.
P		Passing work on the pass/no credit system. Approved only for certain courses and program of a college or school. Note: Research for thesis or dissertation the department may determine whether letter grades or pass/ no credit grades are to be given. In seminar or comparable courses, letter grades or pass/no credit may be used.
W		Authorized withdrawal from courses after the prescribed period.

Leave of Absence

Students experiencing life changing or catastrophic events are encouraged to request a leave of absence, especially if the Residence and Time Limits policy will be impacted. Consideration for request submitted after the degree time limit has expired will be impacted by evidence of successful continuous progress towards the degree, programmatic changes, and faculty availability. A student who is in good standing may petition for a leave of absence of no more than one academic year and the maximum number of Leave of Absence requests is two. Requests for a leave of absence must be approved in advance by the faculty advisor or Program Director and the Graduate Dean. Once the petition is approved, the registration requirement will be set aside during the period of leave. Leaves will be granted only under conditions that require the suspension of all activities associated with pursuing the degree including use of university facilities and faculty mentoring/advice.

Title IX regulations also require the university to treat pregnancy, childbirth, false pregnancy, termination of pregnancy, and recovery therefrom as a justification for a leave of absence for so long a period of time as is deemed medically necessary by the student's physician. Students requesting leave of absence under this provision must submit their request to the Title IX Coordinator, who will initiate the process.

Counting of the time to the completion of the degree ceases when a leave of absence is granted and resumes when the student re-enrolls to continue the program. A student who returns to the University after an approved leave of absence will not be required to submit an application for readmission.

Unapproved Leaves of Absence may result in the student being required to re-apply to their program. International student should visit the International Programs and Services to find out how a Leave of Absence may impact their stay or re-entry into the U.S.

Registration

Registration is the means by which an individual officially becomes a student at Pacific. Registrants are further identified by school/college of the University, degree status, classification and major.

All students must register by the last day to add or drop. Students are held accountable to complete every course for which they register. If it is necessary to add or drop a course, the student must complete the appropriate registration transaction by the last day such activity is allowed as published in the University Calendar (<http://www.pacific.edu/About-Pacific/AdministrationOffices/Office-of-the-Registrar/Calendars/Academic-Calendar.html>).

After the add/drop deadline dates has passed (but prior to the end of the term) requests to add or drop courses must be made by special petition to the student's respective school/college.

Requests to drop courses after the term must be made to the Academic Regulations Committee (ARC). In either case, petitions are only approved if it can be shown that the request is warranted due to some special situation or hardship. Courses approved to drop after the deadline appear on the student's transcript with the notation "W" but do not count in the units earned or in the calculation of the grade point average.

Any petitions approved after the deadline dates are subject to a service fee. Tuition and fee refunds are based on the date a withdraw form is initiated in the Office of the Registrar.

Registration - Individualized Study

To register for Individualized Study (Independent Study course, Internships, or Practicum) students must use the Individualized Study Request form. This form is a written contract between students and faculty that specifies the nature of the work to be undertaken and the method of evaluation. The form must have proper approval within the unit and be filed with the Office of the Registrar. An independent study course may not be taken in the same term in which a regular course in the same subject is offered.

Repeating of Courses and Grade Replacement Policy

For courses in which the grade earned is C- or lower, the units are counted for GPA purposes in a student's degree program, and – if required for the degree – must be repeated. Some departments or programs have established higher grading standards which must be met by students in those programs. All grades earned in courses taken as a graduate student at the University are counted in the cumulative GPA.

Only courses with grades of "B-" or lower can be repeated. Once a course is completed with a grade of B or higher, the graduate student cannot repeat that course or any prerequisites for the course. When a course is repeated, grades from both the original and repeated attempt appear in the official records and transcripts. A course can only be repeated once and programs determine the exact number of courses that can be repeated (up to 25% of courses required for a degree). The grade received in the repeated course is used for calculation of the Pacific grade point average.

Requirements for the Master's degree

In addition to the requirements above, the following requirements apply specifically to the Master's degree.

Total Units

Most Master's programs at University of the Pacific require a minimum of 30 units of approved graduate credit.

Degree Candidacy

Successful completion of 12 units with a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or better.

Grade Point Average

Students must maintain a minimum GPA of 3.0 in all work taken as a graduate student, either at the University of the Pacific or any other institution. See the Grading Policy and Academic Standing sections, in addition to program-specific guidelines. Students enrolled in the Master of Physician Assistant Studies program, should refer to the program's GPA policies.

Exit Requirements

Comprehensive Examination/Capstone Experience/Creative Project/Thesis

Most programs have a culminating experience. In addition to successful completion of all courses required for graduation, students may be required to pass a comprehensive examination taken during their final semester of enrollment or, if specified by the program, successfully complete a capstone experience or creative project or defend a thesis.

The thesis must be checked for plagiarism and approved by the thesis committee prior to the defense.

Students must be enrolled the semester in which the defense/final examination occurs.

(See individual program sections for more information).

Requirements for Terminal Degree Programs (Ph.D., Ed.D, and JSD)

The goal of terminal degree programs at the University of the Pacific is to provide students with a comprehensive discipline-specific knowledge base and extensive training in the methods of research/creative activity. The programs are designed to encourage students to make contributions that advance their field of expertise.

Students are expected to demonstrate an ability to conduct independent research, and the ability to express thoughts clearly in both verbal and written and/or creative formats. In order to earn a terminal degree, candidates must successfully complete all degree requirements, demonstrate a high level of professional skill and performance in their academic work and their internship experience (if required), and submit a dissertation, acceptable to the student's committee. Specific program requirements can be found in the appropriate sections of the catalog.

Degree Candidacy

Successful completion of approved candidacy requirements as defined by the degree program (e.g., qualifying scholarly activities or preliminary examinations). Doctoral degree program directors are responsible for written requests of advancement to candidacy when requirements are met, and final approval is the responsibility of the Dean of the Graduate School.

Grade Point Average

Students must maintain a minimum GPA of 3.0 in all work taken as a graduate student, either at the University of the Pacific or any other institution. See the Grading Policy and Academic Standing sections, in addition to program-specific guidelines. Students enrolled in the Juris Scientiae Doctor (JSD) program should refer to the program's GPA policies.

Presentation of an acceptable Dissertation

In order to be acceptable, the doctoral dissertation must be:

1. a significant contribution to the advancement of knowledge and
2. a work of original and primary research.

Final oral examination

When the dissertation is completed, candidates present themselves for the final examination to an examining committee, which consists of the candidate's advisor (who shall act as chair) and such other examiners as the advisor shall approve. The examination is oral and deals intensively with the field of specialization in which the candidate's dissertation falls, though it need not be confined to the subject matter of the dissertation.

In order to be considered satisfactory, the report of the examining committee must be unanimously favorable.

(See individual program sections for more information).

Residence and Time Limits

The period of residence involves students in a total commitment to their graduate program.

Completion of a minimum of one academic year of "residence work" is required for all graduate programs; i.e., the student must be registered for at least 4 units per semester for two semesters. Two summer sessions of at least 4 units each are considered the equivalent of one-half year of residence.

Time Limits for Master's Degrees

The requirements for a Master's degree must be completed within five (5) years subsequent to admission to the program. The five-year period begins the first semester students are enrolled and is calculated from the date of degree conferral. Credit that is more than five years old will not be counted toward a Master's degree. Exceptions, provided the courses were completed at this university, will require strong justification in writing from the student requesting the exception as well as revalidation plan. Written approval from the department, the Dean of the school/college at which the degree is offered, and the Graduate Dean are required. See revalidation process below. Students enrolled in the Master of Law (LL.M.) program should refer to the program's time limits policies.

Individual programs may have additional residency and time limit requirements.

Time Limits for Terminal Degrees

The requirements for a terminal degree must be completed within ten years subsequent to admission to the terminal degree program. The ten-year period begins with the first semester students are enrolled and is calculated from the date of degree conferral. Students have a maximum of five years to advance to candidacy and a maximum of five years from candidacy to successfully defend the dissertation. Students who exceed the candidacy deadline may request an extension. Candidacy extensions will require strong justification in writing from the student and should be accompanied by a plan of study for timely completion of all requirements for advancing to candidacy. The extension must be approved by the student's advisor, the Program Director, and the Graduate Dean. Students enrolled in the Juris Scientiae Doctor (JSD) program should refer to the program's time limits policies.

Courses taken ten or more years prior to the comprehensive examination (terminal degree programs) do not apply towards the graduate degree and must be repeated or revalidated to satisfy the degree requirements.

Individual programs may have additional residency and time limit requirements.

Revalidation Request

If revalidation of expired courses is requested, the faculty advisor or Program Director recommend a revalidation plan. Revalidation will verify that the student's knowledge in a specific subject area is current and documented. Options for course revalidation include a written examination, a scholarly paper, a project, an annotated bibliography, a course retake, or other equally rigorous academic means appropriate to the discipline to determine the student learning outcomes have been met.

Revalidation request should be submitted on the Revalidation Request Form and accompanied by a written justification, revalidation plan, and documentation used for revalidation. All revalidation request and plans must be approved by the student's advisor or Program Director, the School/College Dean, and the Graduate Dean. The student's advisor/Program Director and College Dean are responsible for determining whether the student demonstrated sufficient course knowledge necessary for successful course revalidation. Successfully revalidated courses may be included in the student's plan of study. Failure to follow all designated requirements of the revalidation agreement may result in dismissal from the program. Graduate students will not be permitted to submit more than 12 units of the program's courses for revalidation.

Courses beyond the 12-unit limit will need to be retaken. Only courses completed at University of the Pacific are eligible for revalidation.

Thesis or Dissertation Committee

This section outlines the general requirements for thesis or dissertation committees. Units and colleges may adopt additional program-specific criteria and guidelines.

Thesis or dissertation chair: Faculty chairing thesis or dissertation committees must be regular, full-time members of University of the Pacific's faculty in the student's graduate program, hold a terminal degree, and have demonstrated expertise to serve as a thesis or dissertation chair. Faculty members without supervisory experience must serve for at least one year as a co-chair with an experienced advisor before they may be recommended to independently supervise thesis or dissertation research. Exceptions to this policy must be approved by the college or school Dean and the Graduate Dean.

Thesis or dissertation committee: The Thesis or Dissertation Committee is composed of a Chair and a minimum of 1 (thesis) or 2 (dissertation) other committee members. The number of committee members depends on the degree objective. All members of the committee must hold degrees at least equivalent to the degree being sought or have demonstrated expertise in the student's field of study. In addition to the committee chair, who must be a University of the Pacific faculty member, the committee member(s) may be selected from within the student's school or college, from another school or college, or from another institution or organization with recognized expertise in the field or industry.

It is recommended that the committee be formed after a student selects a chair for their research and the faculty member agrees to chair. The student, in consultation with the chair, is responsible for contacting potential members of the committee, inviting members to serve, and completing the Masters' Thesis Committee form or the Doctoral Dissertation Committee form. Upon the approval of thesis or dissertation advisor, department chair, and college or school Dean, the form will be forwarded to the Graduate School. Committee members from outside the University of the Pacific must be approved by the Graduate Dean.

The responsibilities of the thesis or dissertation committee members are:

1. providing the student with guidance in their thesis or dissertation research,
2. monitoring the student's research progress of their thesis or dissertation research, and
3. approving the content of the final thesis or dissertation.

In order to fulfill the above responsibilities, the committee should hold at least one meeting each semester.

Thesis and Dissertations

Many master's degree programs and all doctoral programs in the Graduate School require the completion of a thesis (master's degrees) or dissertation (doctoral degrees) as partial fulfillment of an advanced degree. The Graduate School makes available to faculty and graduate degree candidates instructions for the preparation of theses and dissertations. The instructions are to be applied to all theses and dissertations submitted at University of the Pacific. Theses and dissertations must be submitted by the deadline dates published in the Academic Calendar.

Graduate programs have specific courses that must be taken for work on a thesis or dissertation. These courses are numbered 299 (Master's Thesis) and 399 (Dissertation), and are graded on a Pass/No Credit basis.

Transfer Credit

Coursework completed at University of the Pacific or at other regionally accredited institutions of higher education since completion of the baccalaureate can be evaluated for transfer credit work with the following restrictions:

- Up to nine (9) semester units can be transferred at the Master's level and up to 12 semester units at the doctoral level.
- Only courses that qualify for graduate or first-professional credit by the transferring institution can be transferred.
- Only courses in which a grade of B or better are eligible for consideration of transfer credit. Some departments set higher standards and there are identified by individual program catalog sections.
- The course work must be less than five years old for Master's degrees and less than 10 years old for Doctoral degrees at the time the University of the Pacific degree is awarded.
- Credit used toward a degree earned at another institution cannot be transferred to a graduate degree at University of the Pacific.
- Extension courses do not qualify for transfer credit with the exception of university-approved transfer agreements.

Grade points earned in those courses are not counted in the student's Pacific grade point average. This process is initiated using the Degree Requirement Adjustment Form and must be approved by the Director of the Graduate Program and the Office of the Registrar.

Some programs may have more restrictive transfer credit policies.

Unclassified Graduate Students

Students may take graduate level courses as an unclassified graduate student if they meet the following:

- Have a bachelor's degree or the equivalent from a regionally accredited institution or other international institution of acceptable standing
- Apply using the First Time Unclassified Application and submit it to the Office of the Registrar

A maximum of 12 units (16 units for student teachers) taken as an unclassified graduate student will count toward a graduate-level program at University of the Pacific. Upon acceptance to the university, resident and transfer coursework are evaluated by school/department for applicability to degree. Some programs/courses have restricted enrollment and are not open for enrollment for unclassified students.

Withdrawal from a Term or the University

Students who intend to completely withdraw from a term or from the university have to initiate the process in the Office of the Registrar. The withdrawal date used by Financial Aid for return of Title IV Aid calculation and the effective date used by Student Accounts for tuition refunds are based on the date of your notification to the Office of the Registrar. If a student intends to withdraw from a semester after the last day to withdraw, the withdrawal must be approved by the Academic Regulations Committee. Courses the student was registered for after the last day to drop appear on that student's transcript with the notation "W" but do not count in the units earned or in the calculation of the grade point average. A student who only withdraws from a semester, has one more semester to remain in continuing active status. A student who has completely withdrawn from the University, must file a Petition for Reinstatement Form (with a $50 fee) available on the Graduate School web site. The deadline is August 1st for fall admission or December 1st for spring admission.

An official withdrawal from the University is the termination of rights and privileges offered to currently enrolled students, which include, but are not limited to, early registration.

The Academic Regulations on this page are for the following professional programs on the Sacramento campus.

Institutional Learning Outcomes

At McGeorge, our learning outcomes are the lawyering skills that students are expected to obtain through the completion of a legal education. Consistent with ABA Standards, upon completion of a JD degree, graduates of the McGeorge School of Law will demonstrate mastery of the following student learning outcomes at the level needed for admission to the bar and effective and ethical participation in the legal profession as an entry level attorney. McGeorge School of Law has designed its curriculum to prepare students with the key skills and competencies needed to demonstrate these learning outcomes in the legal profession.

Each student will:

1. Demonstrate the ability to identify and understand key concepts in U.S. substantive law, legal theory, and procedure.
2. Apply knowledge and critical thinking skills to perform competent legal analysis, reasoning, and problem solving.
3. Demonstrate the ability to strategize, develop, and conduct efficient legal research in U.S. law.
4. Demonstrate the ability to identify and understand foundational concepts in international law and to perform international legal research.
5. Demonstrate communication skills, including effective listening and critical reading, writing in objective and persuasive styles, and oral advocacy and other oral communications.
6. Demonstrate professional judgment, ethics, and professionalism through conduct consistent with the legal profession's values, standards, and discipline.

7. Demonstrate the ability to understand, collaborate, and engage with people of diverse backgrounds and experiences in a variety of legal settings and contexts.
8. Demonstrate understanding of the legal profession's commitment to access to justice.
9. Demonstrate understanding of career options and steps toward defining and achieving career goals in light of personal values.

Full-Time and Part-Time Divisions

McGeorge School of Law offers programs leading to the Juris Doctor (JD) degree through a Full-Time Division and a Part-Time Division. The two divisions have the same curriculum, faculty, and methods of instruction; maintain the same scholastic standards and degree requirements; and adhere to the same objectives.

First-year required courses and second-year part-time required courses must be taken with the division in which a student is enrolled unless an exception is approved by the Assistant Dean for Student Affairs. Upper-division electives and required courses may be taken during the day or evening hours, as individual schedules permit.

Changing Division

Upon satisfactory completion of the first year of study, students may apply for transfer between the full-time and part-time programs. Part-time students who wish to move into the full-time division are advised that the Assistant Dean for Student Affairs will consider academic performance to date in making her determination. Students with at least a 3.0 cumulative GPA will be permitted to switch divisions. In the alternative, the student may submit a Grading & Advancement petition requesting an exception to this requirement if the student can establish that the change will help ensure academic success. A student who changes programs between the full-time and part-time Divisions carries forward on his or her transcript all final grades received prior to the program change.

To change his or her program from the full-time to the part-time Division or from part-time to the full-time Division, the student must consult with the Assistant Dean for Student Affairs to receive approval and program counseling. (Revised 4/28/16)

Academic Year

The academic year extends from May – the first day of the summer session – through May – the last day of the Spring Semester.

Academic Standing

All McGeorge students are expected to make satisfactory progress toward the academic degree for which they were admitted.

Good Standing

A student is in good standing with a cumulative GPA of 2.33 or above.

Probation

Under Grading & Advancement Rule 605, a student whose cumulative GPA falls within the range from 2.180 to 2.324 at the end of any academic year, other than the final year, may continue their enrollment on academic probation, under the conditions described below. A student on probation is not in good academic standing. The conditions of probation include:

- All probationers must meet with the Assistant Dean for Student Affairs for program approval prior to the start of the probationary year. The approved program of study must include repetition of any required courses in which the student received a grade below a C+, unless, for clear and convincing reasons, the Assistant Dean for Student Affairs determines that repetition is not necessary for successful completion of probation. Probationers are required to participate in follow-up counseling sessions as deemed appropriate, as a condition of continued enrollment.

- Unless grounds for exception are found by the Assistant Dean for Student Affairs, programs of study for full-time probationers will not exceed 13 units, 10 of which will be in required courses. Programs of study for part-time probationers will not exceed 10 units, 6 units of which will be in required courses.
- Successful completion of probation requires achievement of a cumulative GPA of 2.33 at the end of the spring semester after placement on probation or the scheduled graduation date, whichever is sooner.
- No student may repeat probationary status. A student who has previously been on probation and thereafter has a cumulative GPA below 2.33 at the end of an academic year or at the end of a student's course of study is not eligible to continue. Under G & A Rule 703(a), a student may petition the G & A Committee to be re-admitted to the law school after failing to satisfactorily complete probation on the ground that highly extraordinary circumstances warrant this result. Exceptions shall not generally be granted given that failure to complete probation satisfactorily represents two years of unacceptable performance, which is a poor foundation for further legal study at that time.

The effect of repeating classes while on probation on a student's transcript and GPA is as follows:

- The earlier grades the student received will not be removed from the transcript;
- The new grades will be shown on the transcript; and
- Only the new grades (in the case of repeat work, whether higher or lower than the earlier grades) will be considered for determining the GPA. The new grades will be considered at full value without a "C+" maximum as provided in Rule 701.

Academic Disqualification

Under Grading and Advancement Rule 605, a first year student must have at least a 1.90 GPA at the end of the Fall semester in order to advance to the Spring semester. Students who do not meet the 1.90 GPA threshold after the Fall semester are academically disqualified. After the first semester, a student is disqualified when their cumulative GPA at the completion of an academic year falls below 2.18, or, for a student who was on academic probation, when their cumulative GPA falls below 2.33.

Under G & A Rule 703(b), a student disqualified in June from continued study by a GPA lower than 2.18 may petition the G & A Committee for permission to repeat the unsuccessful year. Such petitions will only be received during April of the spring following disqualification. Requests to shorten the time for filing a petition to repeat the unsuccessful year are strongly disfavored and will be considered only if they satisfy the following criteria: clear and convincing evidence that the petitioner would receive no benefit and, in fact, would be uniquely and irreparably harmed by waiting for the period required this rule.

Under G & A Rule 703(c) student disqualified in January from continued study by a GPA lower than 1.90 may petition the G&A Committee for permission to begin law study again as a first year student. Such petitions will only be received on or before June 15th of the year of disqualification. Petitions to shorten the time for filing petitions pursuant to this rule are not allowed.

Any petition brought pursuant to 703(b) or 703(c) will only be granted upon a showing that: 1) a demonstrable condition impaired performance; 2) the condition has now been successfully addressed; and 3) there is convincing reason to expect successful repetition of the student's prior year of law study and successful completion of graduation requirements.

Registration

Registration is the means by which an individual officially becomes a student at Pacific. All students must register by Add/Drop Deadline. Students are held accountable to complete every course for which they register. McGeorge has annual registration, meaning that continuing students will register for the entire academic year (Fall and Spring) during late June. Registration for summer school takes place in mid-March. Incoming/first-term JD students will be pre-registered for their Fall courses by the Office of the Registrar during First Week. First-year students self-register for their assigned Spring courses a few weeks following the start of the Fall term.

Adding Classes

Students may add classes until the Add/Drop Deadline. No student will receive academic credit for any course unless they are officially registered in the course. Some courses have special enrollment procedures, such as an application process. A select number of courses require instructor approval to enroll. Late add requests must be submitted in writing to Assistant Dean for Student Affairs.

Closed Classes and Waitlists

Waitlists are formed after a class is full ("closed"); waitlists determine the priority for enrollment as seats become available. During the initial registration period, students confronted with a closed class should place their names on the waitlist immediately. Our waitlists often clear, so there is a good possibility that you will get into the course. Nonetheless, it is imperative that you have a backup option, in case you do not get in off the waitlist. If you are on the waitlist for a course, check your email daily. The waitlist system is automated and will send seat notifications, even while we are closed for weekends and holidays. Waitlist offers are only valid for 24 hours.

Dropping Classes

Students may drop any upper-division course without approval through the Add/Drop Deadline. It is the student's responsibility to know the tuition and fee refund provisions. After the Add/Drop Deadline, classes may be dropped for good cause and only with the written approval of the Assistant Dean for Student Affairs and will result in a "W" on the student's transcript. No class may be dropped after the last day of classes. First-year students may not drop classes except in extraordinary circumstances. When such circumstances exist, the Assistant Dean for Student Affairs may permit a full-time student to drop to the standard first-year part-time course selection. No other courses may be dropped. Students who stop attending a class and do not complete the formal drop process are subject to receiving an "F" grade and are liable for tuition. Students who do not take a final examination or complete required coursework will receive an "F" grade. Tuition and fee refunds are based on the date a withdrawal form is initiated in the Office of the Registrar.

Summer Session Add/Drop Deadline

Students may not add or drop summer session classes after the first day of a Summer Session without approval by the Assistant Dean for Student Affairs or Associate Dean for Academic Affairs.

Classes with Insufficient Registration

Classes with insufficient registration may be cancelled at the discretion of the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs.

Course Time Conflicts

Students may not register for courses if meeting times overlap in whole or in part. Not even a one-minute overlap will be allowed.

Prerequisite and Concurrent Enrollment Requirements

Prerequisites and concurrent enrollment requirements for courses are listed in each course description; the responsibility for meeting these requirements rests on the student. The instructor may request that a student who has not completed the prerequisites be dropped from the course.

Holds

You will not be able to register for classes if you have an outstanding balance, unless you have made satisfactory payment arrangements with the Law School.

Prior Transcripts

All first-year law students are required to submit their official transcripts to the JD Admissions Office. There is an ABA requirement that we have your final degree-granting transcript on file by the start of classes. If no transcripts are submitted, the student will be withdrawn.

First-Year Registration

First-year law students are assigned to a specific section and may not register for classes from a different section unless approved by the Assistant Dean for Student Affairs or Associate Dean for Academic Affairs. Approval will be granted only under extraordinary circumstances.

Criminal Law Registration

Students who have a 3.0 or higher after their first semester of first year will be placed in a substantive Criminal Law class with a practice-ready focus. Students who have a 2.99 or below will be placed in a substantive class with a skill-building focus. Students between a 2.9 and a 3.0 GPA may ask the Assistant Dean for Student Affairs for permission to enroll in the practice-ready criminal law class and those between a 3.1 and a 3.0 GPA may ask permission to enroll in the skills-building class.

Global Lawyering Skills Registration

Because the Spring course materials are a continuation of the materials from Fall, students must register for the same Global Lawyering Skills professor in the Spring term that they had for the Fall, no exceptions.

Intersession

McGeorge offers one-unit classes which start the week prior to the Spring semester. Students may utilize Spring tuition units to enroll in these Intersession courses.

Unit Defined

Consistent with the requirements of ABA Standard 310, a "unit" is an amount of work that reasonably approximates: (a) not less than one hour of classroom or direct faculty instruction and two hours of out-of-class student work per week; or (b) at least an equivalent amount of work as required in subparagraph (a) for other academic activities, including simulation, field placement, clinical, co-curricular, and other academic work leading to the award of units.

The Curriculum Committee, when granting provisional approval for a course, and the Faculty, when approving a course, will determine the number of units which may be earned for the course and will satisfy itself that the amount of work likely to be assigned for the course justifies the number of units approved. Each faculty member responsible for teaching a course will determine, in a manner approved by the Associated Dean for Academic Affairs, whether the work assigned in that course for the upcoming semester satisfies the requirements of this rule.

Assessment and Review Sessions

Faculty believe that regular assessment and feedback about academic progress is key to student success and therefore schedule assessments throughout the semester, particularly in bar-tested courses. Blocks of time have been designated for this purpose for first-year students and are labeled on the student's schedule as "Assessment and Review." Faculty will use this block of time on an as-needed basis; students should plan their schedules accordingly by reserving these blocks in their individual calendars.

Bar-Tested Courses

Although not required for everyone, all students are strongly encouraged to take Business Associations, Community Property, Criminal Procedure, Remedies & Principles of Law, and Wills & Trusts as these subjects are tested on the California bar exam. Because of their importance, these courses are regularly offered several times each year in both day and evening time slots. Additionally, PASS I and PASS II, which help students prepare to be successful on the bar exam, are highly encouraged for all students.

Coursework Taken Outside the McGeorge JD Program by McGeorge JD Students

Coursework Taken in Other McGeorge Programs

A JD student is allowed to enroll in up to 6 units in other McGeorge Programs without approval and an additional 3 units with the approval of the Associate Dean.

Coursework Taken at Other ABA-Accredited Schools

Under Grading & Advancement Rule 902, students enrolled at the School of Law who wish to take elective courses during the school year or summer session at another ABA-accredited law school must obtain approval in advance from the Assistant Dean for Student Affairs or the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs. Petitions requesting this opportunity should set forth the school, course description, instructor, and whether or not transfer credit back to the School of Law will be sought. Permission will not be granted in the case of required courses or clinics, field placements, internships, externships, or similar activities, nor for more than six (6) semester units of credit, total.

When transfer credit is granted, only the units, and not the grade, will be credited. The course will be treated the same as a "Honors/Pass/Low Pass/ Fail" course for GPA purposes. For the purpose of counting 72 graded units, the course may be treated as graded units if it was graded when taken unless an equivalent course at the School of Law is ungraded.

Coursework Taken at Foreign Institutions by McGeorge Students

Students enrolled at the School of Law who wish to take courses at a foreign institution must obtain approval in advance from the Assistant Dean for Student Affairs or the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs. Requests for approval must include an educational objective, set forth the school and course descriptions, and indicate whether or not transfer credit back to the School of Law will be sought. If transfer credit is sought, a statement of semester unit equivalents must be provided.

Permission will be granted only to students with a cumulative GPA of 2.70 as of the last grading period prior to date of application, and only (i) for Day Division students who have completed their first year of study at the School of Law, and (ii) for Evening Division students who have completed their second year of study at the School of Law. Permission will be not be granted for a credited period of more than one semester nor for more than fifteen (15) semester units of credit. Required courses will not be waived and cannot be satisfied by any course taken at a foreign institution.

When transfer credit is granted, only the units, and not the grade, will be credited. The course will be treated the same as a "Honors/Pass/Low Pass/ Fail" course for GPA purposes. For the purpose of counting 72 graded units, the course may be treated as graded units if it was graded when taken unless an equivalent course at the School of Law is ungraded.

Working While in Law School

Full-Time law students may not engage in paid employment for more than 20 hours per week in any semester in which the student is enrolled in more than 12 course hours. Students are required to certify each year, during the registration process, that they understand this policy and agree to be bound by it.

Course Loads

The Full-Time Division course of study requires three academic years (six semesters) of full-time coursework. Full-Time Accelerated Honors Program students may accelerate their course of study and graduate in two-and-a-half years (five semesters, plus one summer session). Full-Time Division Students must enroll and earn credit for a minimum of 12 units each semester; the usual course load is 14 to 16 units per semester. Full-time students are expected to devote substantially all their working time to the study of law and are required to limit outside paid employment to not more than 20 hours per week during the academic year.

The Part-Time Division offers a reduced course load, which generally requires four academic years (eight semesters), plus two summers of part-time study. Course loads usually range from 8 to 10 units each semester, with a minimum of 8 units required per semester. Most Part-Time Division Students enroll in approximately 10 units of Summer Session courses spread out over two or three summers to reach the required 88 units. Schedule permitting, evening students may take these units during the academic year instead, such as by taking late-afternoon or weekend courses.

No JD student may enroll in more than 17 units per semester.

Full-Time Division

- Minimum: 12 units*
- Typical: 14-16 units
- Maximum: 17 units
- Summer School: Full-time students are encouraged to gain practical experience during the summer

Part-Time Division

- Minimum: 8 units*
- Typical: 9-11 units

- Maximum: 11 if you are working more than 20 hours per week, otherwise 17 units
- Summer School: 2-5 units

*Students who are in their final semester of law school and who need to complete fewer than the minimum number of units required for their division to graduate are permitted to submit a written request to the Assistant Dean for Student Affairs to take a reduced course load and be charged tuition on a per-unit basis.

Accelerated Honors Program

The Accelerated Honors Program allows Full-Time students to complete the JD degree in two and one-half years. The typical curriculum includes an additional one credit elective during the Spring of a student's first year, a 10-week honors externship during the summer, and a heavier load of 17 credits each semester after the first year. Program graduates may enter the job market six months sooner than those in a three-year program and save a semester of expenses.

Acceptance into the full-time Accelerated Honors JD degree program is competitive and requires completion of the McGeorge JD admissions application submitted through LSAC as well as an interview (in-person, phone, or Skype). Competitive students will have excellent academic credentials and distinctive life experiences to support successful completion of an accelerated JD degree. Students with a 157 LSAT score and a 3.3 or better undergraduate grade point average (UGPA) or a 156 and 3.5 or better UGPA presumptively will qualify for an interview. Students whose entrance credentials do not meet these prerequisites may qualify for an interview if their LSAT score and UGPAs are similar to these requirements and other aspects of their application justify further evaluation of their candidacy for the program.

Accelerated Honors JD students are eligible for all financial aid and merit scholarships available to students in the regular full-time program. McGeorge offers Yellow Ribbon full-tuition benefits to U.S. Veterans. Accelerated JD students may pursue Certificates of Concentration, Law Review, Mock Trial, Moot Court and similar academic opportunities.

Academic Progression

The Office of the Registrar reviews each student's academic progress at the end of each Fall and Spring semester to determine their class attribute level using the following table which is based on 33% (Day) and 25% (Eve) completion:

Full-Time Division

- D1 - 1 unit min to 29 units max
- D2 - 30 units min to 59 units max
- D3 - 60 units min to 88 units max

Part-Time Division

- E1 - 1 unit min to 18 units max
- E2 - 19 units min to 41 units max
- E3 - 42 units min to 66 units max
- E4 - 67 units min to 88 units max

Class Attendance, Preparation, and Participation

The School of Law subscribes to the policy of the American Bar Association's Section on Legal Education which considers student preparation and class attendance essential for a legal education.

Each professor shall consider a student's class attendance in assigning the student's final grade in a course. A professor may consider a student's preparation, participation, and performance in assigning his/her final grade in a course. In flagrant instances of repeated absences, a professor may notify the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs that, by reason thereof, the professor is considering requesting the Associate Dean disenroll the student, or denying the student the right to take the final examination or the right to submit the final written assignment. Thereupon, the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs shall notify the student in writing that unless the professor deems student's attendance after receipt of the notice satisfactory, they may be disenrolled from the course, or denied the right to take the final examination or denied the right to submit the final written assignment in the course.

If the professor deems the student's attendance following receipt of the notice is unsatisfactory, the professor may, with the concurrence of the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs, direct the Registrar to disenroll the student, or deny the student the right to take the final examination, or deny the student the right to submit the final written assignment in the course. In assigning a final grade pursuant to this rule, no final grade shall be changed more than one-third of a grade (e.g. "B-" to "C+") without the concurrence of the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs. A professor may not alter a final grade under Rule 302 after final grades in the course have been submitted to students.

Classroom Conduct

The Code of Student Responsibility notes: "[l]egal education demands free debate, characterized by the quick interplay of ideas, skillful use of logic, and knowledge of precedents, all tempered by compassion." Students are expected to act civilly, ethically, professionally, and respectfully towards one another and their professors, and to be sensitive and accommodating to the wide range of feelings and perspectives of our diverse faculty and student body.

Laptop Use

Laptop computers may be used in class only for appropriate academic purposes as determined by the professor. Some professors do not permit in-class laptop use; however, in some cases laptop use may be permitted as an accommodation for a documented disability under the Americans with Disabilities Act. Using a laptop computer during class for a non-academic purpose (e.g., browsing the internet) distracts other students and may violate the Code of Student Responsibility.

Religious Holidays

McGeorge is committed to diversity and inclusion and this extends to how we observe religious holidays. McGeorge respects the rights of all members of our community to observe religious holidays and our hope is that we can all work together— staff, faculty, and students—to find constructive ways to achieve this. Students are encouraged to be proactive in speaking with professors and others about possible conflicts early in each semester and working together to find suitable solutions, including recording classes (see the next page for more information). The Office of Student Affairs also works with students whose religious commitments conflict with classes and/or exams.

Faculty Office Hours

All full-time faculty members have regular office hours posted outside of their office. They make every effort to honor these hours by being available at the times indicated. The approachability of our faculty is a hallmark of McGeorge, so do not hesitate to take advantage of this opportunity.

Policies of Individual Professors

Faculty members have the discretion to give students further information about how they interpret the rules concerning attendance, class preparation, class participation, and other subjects, and what consequences flow from violations of those rules.

Recording Classes

Based upon a resolution approved by the faculty, tape recording of class sessions is prohibited except to accommodate:

1. A student's observance of a religious holiday. If a student plans to miss class due to religious observation, the Office of Student Affairs must be notified one week in advance of the class(es) to be taped;
2. A student's absence from a make-up class scheduled at a time that conflicts with a regularly scheduled class;
3. The scheduling of a make-up class or review session outside of the regular class hours;
4. Students who are called to active military duty by the Armed Forces;
5. A student's documented disability as part of services recommended for and provided to students under the Americans with Disabilities Act;
6. Students in the LLM Legal Research Writing and Analysis course when the instructor has determined that the student is having difficulty in understanding spoken English;
7. Any extraordinary circumstances outside a student's control, as approved by the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs or the Assistant Dean for Student Affairs; or
8. A request by faculty for special purposes such as, e.g., developing online instruction, marketing, or capturing a guest lecture, as approved by the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs.

No student shall copy, display, download, upload, post, release or otherwise distribute or publish any recordings of any class given at McGeorge, nor shall any student use such recordings for any commercial purpose without the written consent of the instructor. Violations of this policy will result in disciplinary action pursuant to the Code of Student Responsibility.

To request permission to record, email the Office of Student Affairs a minimum of 24 hours in advance. Once approved, students may self-record their classes.

Withdrawal/Leave of Absence

Class attendance is a fundamental aspect of the law school's program. Thus, no law student will be allowed to take a leave of absence for a portion of a semester, including summer.

If extraordinary circumstances dictate that a student must take time off from law school, the student must withdraw from all courses in which he/she is enrolled in that semester. Students who withdraw, other than those in the first year of the full-time program or either of the first two years of the part-time program, may request to return as soon as the following semester, but in no event may the leave continue for more than two full semesters. Eligibility to return to the law school will be evaluated by the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs and Assistant Dean for Student Affairs upon the written request of the student, including reasonable evidence that the student is ready to resume study.

A first year student in the full-time program or a student in either the first or second year of the part-time program who withdraws from the law school must reapply through the Office of JD Admissions. Eligibility to return to the law school may be denied based on academic performance as of the date of withdrawal.

Unapproved Leaves of Absence may result in the student being required to re-apply to their program.

International students should visit the Graduate and International Programs Office to find out how a Leave of Absence may impact their stay or re-entry into the U.S.

Involuntary Withdrawal

McGeorge School of Law may require a leave upon specified terms, terminate a student's enrollment, or decline to award a degree if the Administration determines it is in the best interests of the law school or that a student is not qualified for admission to the legal profession because of factors other than academic standing.

Examinations

There shall be a comprehensive written final examination of suitable length and complexity in each course, with the following exceptions: (a) clinical and practical courses, which may be graded according to the professor's evaluation of the student's performance; and (b) other courses as approved by the Dean or the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs; such approval may be conditioned upon a writing requirement. Except as otherwise approved by the Dean or the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs, questions that call for a response in essay form shall be the predominant form of examination.

Except in courses in which examinations are not required, final course grades shall be based on examination and other assessment scores together with class attendance, preparation, participation, and performance. Faculty members will announce in advance the graded assessments for the course and the weight assigned to each graded assessment used in determining the course grade. The minimum total time for final examinations in each course shall be two hours. This may be changed for a particular course offering at the discretion of the Associate Dean.

Exam Schedule

The tentative final exam schedule is published before registration. Students may not register for classes with conflicting exams.

Exam Instructions

Students are advised to read the exam instructions carefully; students are responsible for knowing and complying with all examination instructions.

Exam Materials

Unless an announcement is made to the contrary, students are permitted to have only pens, pencils, and a laptop computer with them in the examination room. If it is necessary to bring backpacks, etc., into the room, the items must be left either in the front or back of the room, as the proctor indicates, and not retrieved until time has been called for all students to stop. Additionally, only analog watches are permitted. McGeorge is not responsible for items left unattended during exam periods; leave valuable items at home.

Conduct During Exams

Students are expected to conduct themselves honorably and in a professional manner during examinations. Any breach of this standard may result in disciplinary action under the Code of Student Responsibility.

Submitting Questions & Exam Responses

Examination materials must be turned in as the proctors designate before the student leaves the examination room. The proctor will indicate whether the exam question may be taken or must be returned. Multiple-choice questions, if any, are stapled together and always must be returned at the conclusion of the examination; each page must be numbered with the student's exam number and the packet is turned in with the Scantron sheet.

Policy Regarding Rescheduling Exams

Exams must be taken at the scheduled date and time, unless the Assistant Dean for Student Affairs approves an exam change. Approved excuses are limited to the following circumstances:

- 1. A bona fide illness, emergency, or personal tragedy,
- 2. A provable, immovable, and significant work or family/personal obligation.
- 3. A conflict with the student's religious observance, jury duty, or National Guard obligations,
- 4. Rescheduling is approved as an accommodation for a disability and timely notice has been provided to the Office of Student Affairs, as described in the policy for students with disabilities,
- 5. A student has a conflict between an exam and a required co-curricular activity (i.e., competition team travel), or
- 6. A student has three consecutive exams. In such cases the second exam will be the one rescheduled. For example, if a student had the following three exams scheduled: Wednesday from 6:00 to 9:00 pm, Thursday from 9:00 am to 12:00 pm, and Thursday from 1:00 to 4:00 pm, the Thursday morning exam would be rescheduled.

Only the Assistant Dean for Student Affairs can approve a student to miss an examination or any portion of an examination. To maintain the anonymity of the grading process, a student may not contact their professor about exam scheduling or missed exams.

To reschedule an exam, contact McGeorge Student Affairs at least four weeks prior to the examination (or as soon as the emergency arises). The Assistant Dean for Student Affairs will then review and either approve or deny the request. Full written verification of the details of such an event may be required. Grading and Advancement Rules 403-405 govern the specifics of how and when exams may be made up.

Grades and Grading

Grade Point Average

A student's GPA is determined by dividing his/her grade points earned by the number of units attempted, but not counting units attempted in "honors/pass/low pass/fail" courses in which a grade higher than "fail" was received.

Grade point values are awarded for letter grades (multiplied by the number of units for that course) as follows:

Symbo	GPA	Definition
A+	4.33	Grade points per unit
A	4.00	Grade points per unit
A-	3.67	Grade points per unit

B+	3.33	Grade points per unit
B	3.00	Grade points per unit
B-	2.67	Grade points per unit
C+	2.33	Grade points per unit
C	2.00	Grade points per unit
C-	1.67	Grade points per unit
D+	1.33	Grade points per unit
D	1.00	Grade points per unit
F	0.00	Grade points per unit and no unit credit

Grades will be reviewed to determine eligibility for advancement and graduation on the basis of grades received through the end of each semester.

Interpretation of Grades

Letter grades have the following subjective interpretations:

- A = Exceptional, Outstanding Performance
- B = Very Good, Skillful
- C+ = Satisfactory Demonstration of Professional Competence
- C = Unsatisfactory because of Some Deficiency in Knowledge or Analysis or both
- D = Unsatisfactory, Showing Grave Deficiencies in Knowledge and Analysis
- F = Failing, No Demonstration of Knowledge or Analytic Ability

Grading Scale

In the following courses: Torts, Contracts, Property, Civil Procedure, Criminal Law, Statutes and Regulations, The Legal Profession, and Global Lawyering Skills I, scores will be based on the following Scale, which is roughly equivalent to the following letter grades:

- A+ 100
- A 95-99
- A- 90-94
- B+ 85-89
- B 80-84
- B- 75-79
- C+ 70-74
- C 65-69
- C- 60-64
- D+ 55-59
- D 50-54
- F Lower than 50

Scores do not appear on transcripts and do not represent a final grade in a course. All scores are subject to adjustment and finalization as set forth in Grading & Advancement Rule 501.

Range of Grades and Grade Distributions

Letter grades for graded courses shall include "A+" through "F". All grades in required graded courses other than Global Lawyering Skills I and II must meet the following grade distribution standard, in addition to the applicable targeted arithmetic mean set forth in subsection (3) below:

- | | |
|---------------------------|--------|
| % | Max. % |
| • A+ Min. 0% Max. 2% | |
| • A Min. 2% Max. 10% | |
| • A- Min. 5% Max. 15% | |

- B+ | Min. 15% | Max. 25%
- B | Min. 25% | Max. 35%
- B- | Min. 15% | Max. 25%
- C+ | Min. 5% | Max. 15%
- C and below | Min. 0% | Max. 15%

In determining compliance with the ranges set forth above, fractions may be rounded up or down at the discretion of the instructor. For example, in a class of 70 students, 5 % = 3.5 students and 15% equals 10.5 students. The instructor may give between 3 and 11 grades of C+.

In courses in which both Juris Doctor (JD) and Master of Science of Law (MSL) students are enrolled, only the JD students will be counted in determining compliance with the grade distribution and targeted mean.

The following arithmetic means are the targets, with .1 on either side of the mean being an acceptable variation, for the courses categorized below.

- The following required courses: Civil Procedure, Contracts, Criminal Law, Legal Profession, Statutes and Regulations, Property, and Torts 2.9
- The following bar-tested courses: Business Associations, Community Property, Constitutional Law, Criminal Procedure, Evidence, Professional Responsibility, Remedies, Wills and Trusts 3.0
- Elective courses with 30 students or more on the last day of instruction 3.1
- Elective courses with 16-29 students on the last day of instruction 3.2
- Elective courses with 1-15 students on the last day of instruction 3.3

Global Lawyering Skills I classes shall have a targeted arithmetic mean of 3.0. Global Lawyering Skills II classes shall have a targeted arithmetic mean of 3.2. In both Global Lawyering Skills I and II, a .1 difference on either side of the targeted mean is an acceptable variation.

Faculty who believe that their course requires variance from the distribution and/or targeted means must obtain the approval of the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs. They should submit a request detailing the reasons for the variance. The greater the variance, the more detail is appropriate.

The Associate Dean may in his or her discretion contact a faculty member to discuss adjustment of grades or grading distribution in light of existing grading practices at the school and/or the Grading and Advancement rules.

Anonymous Grading

Grading in most courses at the School of Law is anonymous. This means that the students are given a confidential exam number to use for assignments and exams. The professor does not know what grade goes with which student by student name. In some courses, however, grading may not be completely anonymous. In those courses, students will use their confidential exam number for some assignments and exams and will use their name for some assignments and exams. In other courses, grading is not anonymous at all- assignments and exams are graded using only the student's name.

Additionally, professors can provide grade adjustments to any student per Grading and Advancement Rule 302. In such cases, the professor will necessarily know a student's name when making the adjustment. Moreover, a professor may also opt to ascertain how a student performed on the assignments and exams in the course when deciding on an adjustment for that student.

Professors will inform students in writing of the anonymous or non-anonymous grading procedures for the assignments, exams, and grade adjustments in their courses.

Honors/Pass/Low Pass/Fail" Electives

Elective courses shall be "graded" or "honors/pass/low pass/ fail." At the discretion of the Professor, in consultation with the Curriculum Committee, before a course is added to the course catalog, a professor decide may offer students an election between taking the course graded or "honors/pass/low pass/fail." In those courses designated as "honors/pass/low pass/ fail", the following grading standards will apply:

- "Honors" will be awarded for work performed at a superior level.
- "Pass" will be awarded for work performed at an acceptable level.
- "Low Pass" will be awarded for work performed at the "C," "C-," "D+" or "D" levels.
- "Fail" will be given to students whose work in the course was at the failing ("F") level.

Students earning the designation of "Fail" will not receive unit credits for the course.

Grade of Incomplete

A grade of "incomplete" may be entered in a course when the requirements for that course are not completed for reasons deemed acceptable by the professor. The work assigned in a course as to which a grade of "incomplete" is given under Rule 409 must be completed by the first day of classes of the second semester (including Summer Session) after the semester when the course ended. If it is not, a grade of "fail" will be entered.

Re-Evaluation of Grades and Grade Changes

A student seeking review of a grade shall file a Grading & Advancement (G & A) petition within 15 calendar days of the date on which the final grade was announced. Where the petition simply alleges a dissatisfaction with grading of examinations taken anonymously, no relief will be granted. When the petition alleges discrimination or abuse of discretion in assigning grades on other than an anonymous basis or where the petition alleges abuse of professional discretion in the evaluation of examination/assessment papers, and/or assigning of grades, G & A shall review the matter in consultation with the professor involved and may grant such relief as it deems appropriate. Individual professors shall have no authority to change grades, and they are expressly discouraged from re-reading any papers for the purpose of re-evaluation and grade change. When requested to re-read a paper, the professor shall advise the student of the right to petition.

Repeat of Failing Work

A student who receives a grade of "F" or "Fail" in a required course shall be required to repeat the course. The "F" or "Fail" grade shall remain on the transcript, but once the course has been repeated only the repeat grade will be counted for GPA purposes. However, the highest number of grade points credited to the student will be 2.33 per unit (the equivalent of a "C+" grade). Students shall not be permitted to repeat any elective courses nor any required courses in which they received non-failing grades, except as provided in Grading and Advancement Rules 605 (probation) and 703 (re-admission after disqualification).

Grades Earned at Other Law Schools

Grades earned at another law school and accepted towards a student's McGeorge JD degree do not count in computing a student's McGeorge grade point average. Only the units, not individual course grades, are recorded on a student's McGeorge transcript.

Final Grades on Transcripts

Grades are subject to approval through Academic Affairs. Courses are graded early for seniors who are graduating in a given term. The remainder of the course may be graded later for all non-senior students.

The "in progress" section of transcripts will only show courses that are ungraded for the current term. Once the term ends, all "in progress" courses for the new term appear. Any ungraded courses at the end of a term will disappear from the "in progress" section on the transcript and will reappear in the appropriate term once the final grade is posted.

Class Rank

At the end of each academic year, JD students are ranked against students in their academic year and division based on cumulative GPA. Class ranks are emailed to students after sufficient time has elapsed from the publication of year-end transcripts so as to allow time for correction of any clerical or processing discrepancies. Ranking information is not provided by phone. Class ranks are calculated only one time per year. Students who change divisions are ranked with the class of the division in which they are enrolled during the Spring term. Students must complete the entire academic year (Fall and Spring) in order to be ranked.

Enrollment Verification and Good Standing Certificates

Registered students who need an enrollment verification may print their verification by logging onto insidePacific, then selecting the National Student Clearinghouse (NSC) Link, then printing. Students may also obtain their good student standing certificate here.

Concurrent Enrollment

Students are cautioned that concurrent enrollment at the School of Law and any other school is prohibited unless permission has been obtained in advance from the Assistant Dean for Student Affairs or Associate Dean for Academic Affairs.

Changing Degree Programs

Graduate students are admitted to University of the Pacific for a specific degree program. Non-JD students may not switch into the JD program; such students must apply to the JD program and re-start. McGeorge does not permit JD students to count any units earned prior to matriculation towards the JD degree. JD students who wish to move into the MSL, MPP, or MPA program are advised to consult the catalog or the admissions office of that program.

Commencement

McGeorge commencement exercises are held each year in May. Students who have earned their degrees in the previous Fall or Summer terms are welcome to participate, as are those who anticipate earning their degree in the following Summer or Fall.

Academic Honors

Dean's List

Students who earn a 3.30 or higher annual GPA at the completion of an academic year are named to the Dean's Honor List and will see a notation to that effect on their transcript. Students must be enrolled in both the fall and spring semesters in the academic year to receive Dean's List Honors. Dean's List eligibility may change at the discretion of the Dean.

Witkin Awards

The student who earns the highest score in an eligible course earns the Witkin Award for that course and receives a certificate from the Witkin Legal Institute. If there is a tie for the highest score, the student with the highest cumulative GPA receives the Witkin Award.

Valedictorian Awards

The graduating student in each division with the highest grade point average in the division is presented a medal that recognizes his or her achievement.

Salutatorian Awards

The graduating student in each division with the second highest grade point average in the division is presented a medal that recognizes his or her achievement.

The Order of the Coif

The Order of the Coif is a national law school honor society founded to encourage legal scholarship and advance the ethical standards of the legal profession. Seniors whose academic records place them in the top 10% of the combined Full-Time and Part-Time division and who have completed at least 75% of their law studies in graded courses at McGeorge are eligible for election to membership.

With Great Distinction

Members of the graduating class whose cumulative grade point average is 3.50 or higher graduate "With Great Distinction."

With Distinction

Members of the graduating class whose cumulative grade point average is 3.10 or higher graduate "With Distinction."

Traynor Society

Students whose grades during any two academic years qualified them for the Dean's Honor List are named members of the Traynor Society, named in honor of the late Honorable Roger J. Traynor, former Chief Justice of the California Supreme Court.

Competition Teams

Our student teams are top performers in some of the most prestigious national and international competitions. Through participation on a competition team, you can expand your courtroom or alternate dispute resolution experience, improve oral and written advocacy skills, and refine client counseling, negotiation, and arbitration skills. Team membership is based on a competitive application process.

Mock Trial Competition Team

All 2D, 3D, 2E, 3E, and 4E students not on probation are eligible to try out for the Mock Trial Team. Having completed or being concurrently enrolled in Evidence and Trial Advocacy is a plus but not a prerequisite to making the team. Once chosen to be on a team, students participate in a late-summer boot camp, culminating in an intra-squad competition at the beginning of the school year. During the year, students attend practices three times a week. Teams generally compete in one to two competitions in the Fall and again in the Spring. Team members are also required to participate in a full-year Mock Trial Evidence course where they learn how to apply the Federal Rules of Evidence in a courtroom setting. The Mock Trial Evidence class is 1 graded unit each semester. In addition to the units earned from Mock Trial Evidence, traveling teams earn 2 P/F units over the academic year, and scrimmage team members earn between 1 and 2 P/F units over the same period, depending upon the number of competitions in which they compete.

Moot Court Competition Team

Membership on the Moot Court Competition Teams is based on acceptance onto the Moot Court Honors Board, which is a student-run organization that is supervised by the Faculty Director of the Moot Court Program, Professor Ed Telfeyan. Students apply for the program at the end of the Spring semester of their second year. All 3D, 3E, and 4E students not on probation are eligible to apply. Acceptance is based in large part on the work in the second-year Global Lawyering Skills II course, which includes the preparation of a full appellate brief and the presentation of a full appellate oral argument. All Moot Court team members are required to take the Advanced Appellate Advocacy course Professor Telfeyan teaches. That course is a two-semester, four-unit graded course.

ABA Negotiation Competition Team

The ABA Law Student Division Negotiation Competition provides a means for law students to practice and improve their negotiating skills. The competition simulates legal negotiations in which law students, acting as lawyers, negotiate a series of legal problems. The simulations consist of a common set of facts known by all participants and confidential information known only to the participants representing a particular side. All of the simulations deal with the same general topic, but the negotiation situation varies with each round and level of the competition. Tryouts take place in the Fall; students do not earn any units for participation on this Competition Team.

Client Counseling Competition Team

The ABA Client Counseling Competition is a unique competition in that it requires students to master knowledge of a particular area of law and use skills of interviewing, listening, and empathy to discern a client problem and to counsel the client on a path towards resolution of that legal problem. Judges are lawyers and counselors, and the student lawyers meet with various actors playing different client roles throughout the competition. The legal subject matters change from year to year, but they often involve torts, professional responsibility, and ethics. Students are selected for the ABA Client Counseling team that competes in the Spring through participation in the Client Interviewing and Counseling course offered in the Fall semester. Competition team members earn one P/F unit.

Mock Trial, Moot Court, and Other Advocacy Teams Participation Policy

McGeorge School of Law has approved moot court, mock trial and other similar advocacy programs, directed by full-time faculty members, where the students are selected on a competitive basis. No student or team of students may enter any other moot court, mock trial competition, excluding intra-mural competitions, or any other advocacy competition without the approval of the director of the relevant program. The purpose of this policy is to ensure that any student or team of students seeking to compete in such competitions receives adequate instruction and coaching and that any such individual or team represents the law school in a favorable light.

First-Year Interschool Competitions

The Ben Frantz Mock Trial Competition and the First-Year Moot Court Competition take place each Spring semester and all 1D and 1E students who are interested in advocacy are encouraged to participate. These competitions help to identify talent for our teams, but are open to all students irrespective of whether they decide to try out for spots on the competition teams. The competitions are organized by upper-division students. Interested 1D and 1E students sign up to participate in one or both competitions and receive training and instruction in trial and/or appellate advocacy from the upper-division student-organizers. The competitions are designed and dates are selected to allow students to participate in both opportunities. All 1D and 1E students who sign up get to compete in the preliminary rounds. Those who score highly advance to the finals.

Journals

The University of the Pacific Law Review (UPLR) is a student-run, scholarly journal published on a quarterly basis, containing articles written by members of the bar and bench, legal analysis and commentary on cutting-edge transnational issues, student-authored comments, and student-authored reviews of recently enacted California legislation. Eligible students have two opportunities to solicit for UPLR membership:

Review of California Legislation ("Greensheets")

Greensheets, named for the distinctive color of its pages, reviews recently enacted California legislation. The top 50% of students in the 1D/2E classes are eligible to compete for Greensheets membership through the solicitation process each March. Solicitation consists of a brief, closed-research writing competition. Members spend the summer writing articles about bills making their way through the legislature. Creditworthy articles are eligible for publication.

Comment

Entering 2D and 3E students who meet any of the following criteria and have not previously solicited for Comment are invited to participate in solicitation: top 50% of their class; Witkin award in GLS I; current Greensheets member (upon successful completion of Greensheets assignments); transfer student in the top 50% of their former law school class. Solicitation consists of a brief, closed-research writing competition in July. Members spend the year writing persuasive comments on unique legal issues of their choosing. A select number of comments are chosen for publication the following year.

UPLR Editors

2D and 3E members of Greensheets or Comment are eligible to run for board or editorial positions for the following year.

Students may not opt out of receiving UPLR units.

Legal Clinics

Legal Clinics have been a hallmark of McGeorge for over 50 years. We have a broad array of clinical programs to meet our students' learning needs and to serve our community's legal needs. Clinical experience is one of the ways that our school shows its commitment to public service, social justice, and real-world work experiences for our students. We teach what can best be learned through experience: creative problem-solving and skilled advocating for clients. All of our clinics require an application. Students can only enroll in one clinic at a time. Students may participate in the Bankruptcy, Elder Law & Health, or Immigration Law Clinic for more than one semester, space permitting. If a student repeats the clinic, they will have the option of receiving 1, 2, or 3 graded units. Descriptions of our six legal clinics may be found in the course descriptions section of this Catalog and on the McGeorge website.

Externships

Externships promote real-world practical experience by assisting students to think outside the box about their options, potential and goals. Approved General Externship, Semester-In-Practice Externships, and Judicial Externship opportunities allow students to earn academic credit, develop skills and legal knowledge, experience daily legal practice, and build resume and networking opportunities. Visit our Director of Externships, Colleen Truden, for approved Externship Sites at local, state, and federal courts, government agencies, and nonprofit entities.

Exchange Programs

Students may add a true international dimension to their JD experience by participating in an Exchange Program, spending a semester or year studying law at a university in another country. These Exchange Programs give students an opportunity to get first-hand knowledge of another country's legal system and culture. Gaining a global perspective is essential in today's legal practice. Approved classes taken at these universities will qualify for credit towards the JD degree.

McGeorge currently has exchange agreements with four universities:

University of Salzburg, Austria

Salzburg is located at the geographic and historic crossroads of Central Europe. Classes are held in the Law Faculty Building of the University of Salzburg, located in a renovated 16th Century palace in the heart of Salzburg's historic Old Town. Courses are taught in English and focus primarily on the law of the European Union.

Catholic University of Louvain, Belgium

The entire town of Louvain-la-Neuve was built around the campus of this university in the French-speaking part of Belgium. Some courses are held in English, but to be able to participate in this exchange, a reasonable fluency in French is necessary. Applications for the Fall semester must be submitted by the previous May 31 and for the Fall semester by the previous October 31.

University of Copenhagen, Denmark

This University has been around for centuries and is located in the heart of Denmark's largest city. It offers a full selection of law courses in English, so knowledge of Danish is not necessary to study there. Students must be nominated by McGeorge to participate in this exchange, and interested students should request to be nominated no later than May 31 for enrollment in either the following Fall or Spring semester.

European Summer Experience

Students may broaden their law school experience by taking advantage of McGeorge's unique summer program in Salzburg, Austria. Salzburg has been the site of McGeorge's annual Summer Program on International Legal Studies since 1974. The three-week program in Salzburg offers international and comparative law courses in public and commercial law fields. European and American faculty, as well as renowned practitioners teach courses.

In addition to the academic program in Salzburg, students may also enroll in one unit externships with legal offices abroad to be completed in advance of the Salzburg program. Participating in an externship provides practical legal education, as well as promotes networking globally with lawyers in other jurisdictions.

Please note that all students who participate in the Salzburg Summer Program must be enrolled students at an ABA-approved law school as of the first day of the program in order to participate, meaning that any student who is academically disqualified after the Spring semester will not be able to participate. Students with a Fall GPA below a 2.5 should consult with the Assistant Dean for Student Affairs before enrolling in the program.

Summer Abroad Programs at other ABA Accredited Law Schools

McGeorge students may take up to six units of elective credit at another ABA-accredited law school. To request permission, submit a Rule 902 Application to the Office of Student Affairs. Upon approval, McGeorge will accept up to 6 units of credit earned with passing grades in elective courses (not Externships).

Directed Research

Directed Research provides the opportunity for JD students to engage in a comprehensive individual research project under the supervision of a full-time faculty member. The work product may take the form of a scholarly paper, empirical study, analysis of topical readings, or other creative format that demonstrates in-depth legal research and original analysis.

Advance approval of the research topic and unit credit is required. A student must submit a detailed written proposal of the research topic and obtain approval from a full-time faculty member willing to supervise the student's research. The proposal and a completed "Directed Research Request Form" must then be submitted to the Registrar by the Add/Drop Deadline of the term in which the student intends to enroll in Directed Research.

Directed Research must be supervised by a full-time faculty member on a regular basis. Specifics regarding supervision of the course are left to the supervising faculty member, but the general expectation is that the student will provide an outline and draft of the project at established deadlines, and the faculty member will provide regular feedback to the student.

A student may enroll for either 1 or 2 credit hours (Honors/Pass/Low Pass/Fail) for Directed Research. A student is expected to put in at least 50 hours of work for each credit hour. If the resulting work product is a paper, as a general rule, the student should produce a paper of approximately 15-20 pages in length for 1 unit of credit or 25-30 pages in length for 2 units of credit. A student is not permitted to receive credit for Directed Research for a project produced for the student's employer or for any other law school course or activity.

Other Sources of Information

Students must familiarize themselves with school policies, procedures, and regulations contained on the website and in other publications, such as the two highlighted below. Please visit the website at mcgeorge.edu/Policies_and_Handbooks.htm for a consolidated listing of McGeorge's policies and procedures, including policies not discussed in this publication.

Grading and Advancement Rules, Regulations, and Procedures

The Grading and Advancement Committee (G & A) is the body duly authorized by the Faculty and Administration of McGeorge, to study, develop, adopt and apply rules, regulations and procedures pertaining to course requirements, examinations, grading, advancement, graduation, and related matters. The Grading and Advancement Committee Rules, Regulations and Procedures for the JD Program are located on the McGeorge website.

Any student who is affected adversely by the application of these rules, excepting Rules 703c and 703f, may file with the Office of the Assistant Dean for Student Affairs, a petition to G & A for relief or waiver setting forth the nature of the request and the reasons why it should be granted. Such petitions shall be filed within 15 calendar days from the date of notice of the application of the rule from which the student seeks relief. Notice may be provided by mail, email, posting, or other form of publication. No specific format is required for a student petition, the substance being more important than the form. G & A shall consider the written petition and grant, modify, or deny the relief requested. G & A shall be the final decision-making body in matters concerning student petitions unless the student-petitioner timely files a notice of appeal.

Any student submitting a petition to the Grading and Advancement Committee shall have the right to appear personally before the Committee. Such personal appearance by the individual petitioner shall be limited to the purpose of informing the Committee of any new facts which have a significant and substantial bearing upon the issue before the Committee or to answer any questions which the members of the Committee may have relevant to the issue before the Committee. In no event shall any inference, either adverse or beneficial, be drawn from an individual petitioner's failure to personally appear in support of his or her petition before the Committee.

A student may file a petition for reconsideration of the Committee's decision only upon discovery of new evidence not available at the time of the initial petition. Petitions for reconsideration shall be filed within 10 calendar days from the date of notice of the decision on the underlying petition. A petitioner-appellant has the right to appear before the committee. In no event, however, shall the Committee reconsider the same matter more than once, nor shall a denial of a petition for reconsideration be subject to reconsideration, except that the underlying matter maybe subject to appeal. The composition of the Executive Committee when considering a petition for reconsideration shall, to the extent practicable, be the same as when it decided the original petition. A student may file an appeal of the Executive Committee's decision when there has been procedural error or bias or abuse of discretion by the Executive Committee as described in Rule 1108.

Students desiring information about the petitioning process should confer with the Assistant Dean for Student Affairs. A student may also discuss G & A Committee rules and procedures with the Chairperson of the Committee.

Student Handbook (The Black Book)

The Office of Student Affairs annually publishes a Student Handbook (also known as The Black Book) which is a reference guide for McGeorge students, containing detailed explanations and information about graduation requirements, academic policies, program descriptions, student life information, and more. This document is located on the McGeorge website and provided to law students during First Week.

Student Complaint Procedure (ABA Standard 510)

American Bar Association (ABA) Standard 510 requires each law school to publish and comply with policies regarding student complaints that address the school's program of legal education.

Any student at the law school who wishes to bring a formal complaint to the administration regarding a significant problem that directly implicates the school's program of legal education and its compliance with the ABA Standards, should do the following:

1. Submit the complaint in writing to the Assistant Dean for Student Affairs. The complaint may be sent via email, U.S. Mail, facsimile, or delivered in person to the Office of the Assistant Dean for Student Affairs. There is also a web-based form located online at <https://www.mcgeorge.edu/forms/student-complaint-process> (<https://www.mcgeorge.edu/forms/student-complaint-process/>).
2. The complaint should describe in detail the behavior, program, process, or other matter that is at issue, and should explain how the matter directly implicates the law school's program of legal education and its compliance with a specific, identified ABA Standard(s).
3. The complaint must contain the complaining student's name, his/her student ID#, his/her official law school email address, and his/her current mailing address.

When an administrator receives a student complaint that complies with the foregoing requirements, the following procedures shall be followed:

1. The Assistant Dean for Student Affairs will acknowledge the complaint within three business days of receipt. Acknowledgement may be made by email, U.S. Mail, or by personal delivery, at the option of the Assistant Dean.
2. Within 10 business days of acknowledgement of the complaint, the Assistant Dean for Student Affairs, or the Assistant Dean's designee, shall respond to the substance of the complaint, either in writing or in person, and shall indicate what steps are being taking by the law school to address the complaint. If further investigation is needed, the complaining student shall, upon conclusion of the investigation, be provided with substantive response to the complaint within 10 business days after completion of the investigation.
3. Any appeal regarding a decision on a complaint shall be brought before the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs. Any appeal from the decision of the Associate Dean shall be brought before the Dean of the Law School. The decision of the Dean will be final. Any appeal must be brought within 10 business days from the date of the response by the Assistant Dean or the Associate Dean.
4. A copy of the complaint and a summary of the process and resolution of the complaint shall be kept in the office of the Assistant Dean for Student Affairs for a period of eight years from the date of final resolution of the complaint.

Academic Units

Arthur A. Dugoni School of Denistry

The Arthur A. Dugoni School of Dentistry has an annual enrollment of approximately 470 predoctoral and international students enrolled in DDS degree programs and about 50 post-doctoral residents enrolled in Master's degree and certificate programs.

Benerd College

Benerd College (BC) offers a full spectrum of educational opportunities for students from traditional undergraduates to returning adult students to members of the community seeking opportunities for professional and personal development. The Education Division of the College prepares students for careers in teaching, school psychology and educational administration, offering bachelor's degrees, teaching credentials and doctoral degrees. The Innovative Academic Programs Division offers degree and certificate programs designed to meet the ever-evolving needs of the regional workforce, including Bachelor's degree completion programs in hybrid formats to allow students to earn a bachelor's degree while working full-time. The Professional and Continuing Education Division serves as a major regional center for continuing education units, professional development and customized workforce training. Benerd College is also home to the Osher Lifelong Learning Institute (OLLI) providing intellectual engagement for older community members, and to Pacific's International Programs and Services, which includes administering the UOP International partnership designed to help develop a vibrant international student presence at Pacific.

College of the Pacific (Liberal Arts and Sciences)

At the center of the broad range of educational opportunities open to students on the Stockton campus is the College of the Pacific, the core division of arts and sciences. Some 1,400 students pursue at least one of the more than 50 major and minor programs offered by the College, and most students in the professional schools also take varying amounts of work within the college of arts and sciences. College of the Pacific offers majors in most of the traditional areas of the physical and life sciences, the humanities and arts and the social and behavioral sciences, as well as a number of inter-disciplinary programs which cut across traditional fields of knowledge.

Conservatory of Music

The Conservatory of Music offers undergraduate degrees in composition, jazz studies, music education, music history, music industry studies, music management, music therapy, and performance, and graduate degrees in music therapy and music education. In addition to these majors, the Conservatory offers minors in jazz studies, music, and music management. Additionally, the Conservatory provides opportunities for students throughout the University via participation in ensembles and in general education courses.

Eberhardt School of Business

Students in the Eberhardt School of Business are educated for management positions in business, government and not-for-profit organizations. Approximately 600 students are enrolled in the School's undergraduate and graduate programs in accounting and business administration.

Graduate School

The Graduate School supports and oversees Pacific's approximately 1150 graduate students pursuing Master's and doctoral degrees in more than 30 graduate programs on all three campuses. Areas of responsibility include graduate admission processing, graduate student support services, recruitment and marketing strategies, review of graduate policies, and new program development. In addition, the Graduate School provides financial assistance to qualified students through its graduate assistantship program.

McGeorge School of Law

The McGeorge School of Law, located in Sacramento, has nearly 550 students who are enrolled in the full-time and part-time J.D. programs and graduate programs.

School of Engineering and Computer Science

The School of Engineering and Computer Science, with some 650 students, offers eight baccalaureate programs: bioengineering, civil engineering, computer engineering, electrical engineering, mechanical engineering, engineering physics, engineering management, and computer science. All engineering degree programs combine academic and practical training with the engineering curricula that require a minimum of seven months of paid engineering related work experience. The school also offers a Master of Science in Engineering Science degree with four different concentrations: civil engineering, computer & electrical engineering/computer science, engineering management or mechanical engineering. A Masters of Science degree is also offered in Data Science.

School of Health Sciences

The School of Health Sciences prepares students for patient care across the lifespan. The School has innovative, accelerated curriculums, empowering students to contribute to the lifelong wellness of the communities it serves through their professional practice. The School is administratively located on the Sacramento campus with academic programs on all three of Pacific's campuses. The academic programs include: Audiology (San Francisco); Athletic Training, Physical Therapy, and Speech-Language Pathology (Stockton); and Clinical Nutrition, Nursing, Occupational Therapy, Physician Assistant Studies and Social Work (Sacramento). The intentional emphasis on interprofessional education and practice emphasis in all programs in the School prepares graduates to provide patient care as integral members of the health care team.

School of International Studies

The School of International Studies is devoted to the interdisciplinary study of international affairs and offers students a BA in International Relations and minors in International Studies and Anthropology. Study abroad and competency in at least one second language are central to the curriculum. Students benefit from the school's internationally recognized cross-cultural training program. Graduates pursue a wide range of careers that includes positions in government, business, non-governmental organizations, and academe.

Thomas J. Long School of Pharmacy

The School of Pharmacy offers the Doctor of Pharmacy degree. Some 1,025 students are enrolled in the School, including about 350 undergraduates who pursue pre-pharmacy studies in preparation for beginning the professional program.

University of the Pacific believes in giving a high priority to the enrollment of students from different backgrounds and demographic groups.

Admission decisions are based on the quality of the applicant's academic degrees and record, the personal statement of purpose, letters of recommendation from professors or others familiar with the applicant's academic work, performance in aptitude and achievement tests, relevant work experience, preparation in the proposed field of study, and on the appropriateness of the applicant's goals to the graduate program and of the applicant's research interests to those of its faculty. Some graduate programs have additional admission criteria that applicants must meet; visit the individual program catalog pages for program admission requirements. Satisfaction of minimal standards does not, however, guarantee admission.

International applicants or non-U.S. citizens who did not receive their bachelor's degree in the United States, should consult the information for international students at the end of this section regarding additional admission.

An application for admission made through the Office of Graduate Admission implies a student's intention to work toward an advanced degree. An applicant may apply to more than one graduate program; however, they must choose only one program upon confirmation of their intent to attend Pacific.

Types of Admission

Full Admission

A student that meets all the admission criteria of a program will be classified as a student in full standing. Students are advanced from this classification to candidacy for advanced degree upon formal notification from the department.

Conditional Admission

This classification includes students who have been admitted into a particular degree program but have not yet met all admission requirements. Reasons for conditional status may include:

- Incomplete application materials
- Bachelor's degree not posted at time of admission

All conditions will be listed on an applicant's decision letter. A student will have no more than one term to meet all conditions. If conditions are not met by the end of the first term enrolled, the student will be subject to disqualification. Once all conditions are met, the student will be classified as full standing.

Unclassified Student Admission

Students who have a bachelor's degree but do not plan to work for an advanced degree may take classes as an unclassified student. No more than 12 credits earned as an unclassified student may be applied toward an advanced degree. Unclassified students are required to meet the same academic standards as other graduate students. Unclassified students who later wish to work toward an advanced degree must make a formal application to the appropriate department or interdepartmental program and be formally admitted by the Office of Graduate Admission as a student with full admission status.

General Admission Requirements for All Applicants

To be considered for admission with full standing, applicants must have:

- a bachelor's degree or the equivalent from a regionally accredited institution of higher education in the United States, or an foreign institution of acceptable standing,
- adequate undergraduate preparation in the proposed major field or equivalent evidence of an appropriate background for undertaking as an advanced degree program, and
- a cumulative GPA of 2.65 or better in all post-secondary coursework or in the last 60 units of baccalaureate and/or post-baccalaureate work.

Some programs may have higher GPA requirements; review specific program information in the catalog for additional GPA requirements.

Applicants must complete a University of the Pacific Graduate Admission application. All applications must be complete, which typically includes: the online application, essay, official transcripts from each college or university attended, letters of recommendation, and test scores appropriate to the program. For transcripts to be considered official, they must be in an envelope that has been sealed by the issuing institution. Recommendations must be written within the last year. For detailed information on required graduate entrance examinations and recommendations, see the program-specific pages.

Note:

- Applications submitted or completed after the posted deadlines may be evaluated and students will be admitted on a space-available basis (depending upon the program).

- Students are not permitted to register until they have submitted their confirmation of enrollment, and have satisfied all admission requirements.
- Admission will be denied to applicants possessing bachelor's degrees with a significant amount of credit awarded for work experience that was not supervised by a faculty member of an accredited university nor evaluated in units which identify the academic content.

Application Fee

Each applicant must submit the appropriate application fee in U.S. dollars; the application fee is submitted as part of the online graduate application. Application fees vary by program.

Testing Requirements

Some programs may require a graduate entrance examination as part of the application requirements; refer to the relevant program pages for more information. All test scores must be official, less than five years old, and received by the Office of Graduate Admission prior to an admission decision.

Deferral of admission

Students who wish to enroll in a different semester from which they were admitted, must contact the Office of Graduate Admission to defer their application. Deferral of application is subject to program approval. Applications will only be deferred for up to one academic year. If a student does not begin coursework within one year of your original application for admission, they must submit a new graduate application for admission. Previous admission status has no bearing on the decision for admission in the future.

GPA Waiver Policy

Students who do not meet the GPA requirement for admission to a graduate program at University of the Pacific may petition for admission by submitting the GPA Forgiveness Form to the Graduate School. In order to qualify, applicants must meet the following:

- Have a minimum of five (5) years of professional experience after completion of the baccalaureate degree
- Have the support of the Program Director and the Dean of the school in which the degree program is housed
- Submit a letter of recommendation addressing their potential for success as a graduate student from their current or most recent supervisor

Submission of this form does not guarantee approval. Final approval is granted by the Dean of the Graduate School.

International Applicants

In addition to the application materials required for domestic students, international applicants must supply the following information to be considered for admission to University of the Pacific graduate programs six weeks prior to the program admission deadline:

Transcript Evaluation: A course-by-course foreign transcript evaluation is required for all institutions attended outside of the United States. Transcripts must be reviewed by one of the following approved foreign credential evaluation services:

- World Education Services (<https://www.wes.org/>), Inc. (WES)
- Educational Credential Evaluators (<https://www.ece.org/ECE/>), Inc. (ECE)

- Foundation for International Services (<https://www.fis-web.com/>), Inc. (FIS) Note: We will only allow evaluations done on photocopied transcripts on a case-by-case basis.
- International Education Research Foundation (<http://www.ierf.org/>), Inc. (IERF)
- Transcript Research (<https://transcriptresearch.com/>)
- Josef Silny & Associates (<http://www.jsilny.com/>)

Certification of Finances: Government regulations require that international students provide evidence that they are able to meet the financial requirements of their education, living expenses, and miscellaneous costs. This requires the submission of the "Certification of Finances" form (found here (http://www.pacific.edu/Documents/school-graduate/acrobat/Certification_of_Finances2.pdf)) in the amount to cover all of the aforementioned costs for one year.

English Proficiency Examination Results: Applicants whose native language is not English must submit official results (taken within the last two years) of one of the following in order to receive consideration for admission:

- Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL)
- International English Language Testing System (IELTS)

Information about TOEFL can be located online at <http://www.ets.org/toefl> (<http://www.ets.org/toefl/>); information about IELTS can be located at <http://www.ielts.org>. The University of the Pacific's TOEFL Code is 4065.

Minimum Score for Admission:

- Internet-based TOEFL: 80
- Paper-based TOEFL: 550
- IELTS score: 6.5

Some programs require higher scores; please contact specific departments for further information.

Minimum Score for Teaching Assistants:

- Internet-based TOEFL: 90
- Paper-based TOEFL: 577
- IELTS score: 7.0

Some programs require higher scores; please contact specific departments for further information.

Direct Admission of UOP graduates into MPA or MPP programs

There is a direct admission pathway for UOP graduates (w/in two years of BA or BS) into MPA or MPP if they satisfy four criteria:

1. Completion of at least 50 units enrolled in courses offered by the University of the Pacific.
2. A GPA of 3.5 or above in the last 60 units enrolled.
3. No matriculation in a post-baccalaureate degree program.
4. Success in an interview.

The Admission Requirements on this page are for the following professional programs on the Sacramento campus.

Juris Doctor (J.D.) Students

Deadlines & Requirements

The admissions committee admits applicants on a rolling basis; therefore, we encourage all applicants to submit their application early.

Apply

- Admissions (http://mcgeorge.edu/Students/Services/Admissions_Office.htm)
- Check Your Application Status (<https://aces2.pacific.edu/YourStatus/membership/AppStatIdMe.aspx?guid=%2B1Qo68Q2oWs%3D/>)

You will need the following to complete your application:

1. A completed application form
2. Nonrefundable $65 application fee
3. Personal statement
4. Résumé
5. Two (2) letters of recommendation submitted through your LSAC CAS account. (Up to three letters will be allowed)
6. Bachelor's degree
7. CAS Report
8. Email address (this is the primary form of communication from the law school)

Application

Click here (<https://os.lsac.org/release/startup.aspx?appl=4065A1/>) to begin your application. Please note that McGeorge does not accept hardcopy applications. All applications must be completed through the Law School Admission Council (LSAC). The application must be complete when submitted.

Application Fee

A nonrefundable application fee of $65 must be submitted with the application. If financial need warrants, an applicant may apply for a fee waiver (http://mcgeorge.edu/Application_Fee_Waiver_Request.htm).

Fee waivers are granted based on a demonstrated need. Please explain your need and provide supporting documents in either Word or PDF form.

Supporting documents should include a tax return or award letter and a monthly budget. If you have already been granted an LSAC fee waiver, our application fee will automatically be waived as well.

Personal Statement

The statement must be no more than three pages, double-spaced, 12 pt. font. An applicant's personal statement is an opportunity to provide information that the applicant believes should be considered. Please choose one of the following two prompts, and include the prompt at the top of the statement:

- Why are you interested in attending McGeorge School of Law?
- Tell us about a person or event that impacted/influenced your life.

If an applicant wishes to address their grades, academic disqualifications, etc. they may do so by addressing these circumstances in a separate addendum.

Resume

Provide a Résumé of full-time employment and other activities, starting with the most recent. Include dates, name(s) of employer(s), and position(s) held. List the hours worked per week and academic honors received since entering college. List extracurricular activities, hobbies and community service. Describe nature and extent of employment during college and include volunteer work. Please include summers. Explain any periods of time after high school not accounted for by the preceding educational and employment history. However, all other high school information should be omitted.

Letters of Recommendation

In support of the application, applicants must submit two letters of recommendation directly to LSAC, and will accept a maximum of three letters. Applicants are strongly encouraged to reach out to their college professors and administrators who have had the opportunity to assess their academic, time management, research and analysis skills to write on their behalf.

Applicants who have been out of school for a considerable amount of time can submit letters of recommendation from employers, business colleagues, and mentors. Letters from family members and close personal friends are discouraged. These letters should address skills relevant to your potential success in law school.

Please note that LSAC will not release an applicant's CAS report to McGeorge until they have received a minimum of two letters of recommendation. Furthermore, the application will remain incomplete and will not be reviewed until the applicant's file is complete.

Credential Assembly Services (CAS) and LSAT

Applicants must register with LSAC for the Law School Admission Test (LSAT) and LSAC's Credential Assembly Services (CAS). Transcripts of prior college and university coursework must be furnished directly to LSAC. LSAT scores must be from administrations within five years prior to the year of enrollment. An application file is not complete and will not be reviewed until an applicant's law school report, including an LSAT score, has been received. Please note that we will not accept the June 2015 LSAT for enrollment in the Fall 2015 class. If an applicant has multiple LSAT scores with a five (5) point difference or greater, an LSAT disparity addendum is required. (Applicants whose undergraduate degrees are not from educational institutions within the United States, its territories or Canada must use LSAC's Credential Assembly Service for international document authentication and evaluation.)

APPLICATIONS WILL NOT BE CONSIDERED FOR FINAL ACTION UNTIL ALL REQUIRED INFORMATION HAS BEEN RECEIVED.

McGeorge School of Law maintains a long-standing policy of not discriminating in any of its activities on the basis of race, gender, sexual orientation, national or ethnic origin, disability, marital status, age, color or religious belief.

Transcripts

All transcripts for college and graduate work must be submitted directly to LSAC. LSAC will evaluate each transcript and forward a report to each law school the applicant designates.

If an applicant matriculated at another law school, a letter of good standing from that school is required. Additionally, if an applicant sat for an examination at that school, a transcript from that law school must also be submitted directly to LSAC.

Character and Fitness

Most states have standards of character and fitness to practice that must be satisfied by candidates applying for admission to the bar. Candidates with a record of involvement in criminal matters must provide a full, descriptive statement and should investigate the admission policies of the jurisdiction where application for admission to practice is anticipated by writing to the bar examiners in that state. Include dates of incident and disposition. Upon matriculating, your duty to disclose remains ongoing upon enrollment through graduation. Failure to disclose may result in the revocation of the original admissions offer and withdrawal from the law school.

Additional Application Requirements for Foreign Applicants

Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL)

An applicant who did not complete his or her bachelor's degree from an English-language college or university, and for whom English is not his or her primary language is required to take the TOEFL. This requirement also applies to recent immigrants who have completed their education outside of the United States where English was not the language of instruction.

A minimum score of 600 for the paper-based test, 250 for the computer-based test, or 100 for the internet-based exam is required. Please note that acceptable scores must come directly from TOEFL and be submitted to LSAC. For additional information on TOEFL, visit <http://www.ets.org/toefl> (<http://www.ets.org/toefl/>).

Transcripts (International)

McGeorge requires that foreign transcripts be submitted directly to LSAC Credential Service which is included in the CAS subscription fee. A foreign credential evaluation will be finalized by the American Association of Collegiate Registrars and Admissions Officers (AACRAO) and will be integrated into your CAS report.

Student Visa

Once an international applicant is admitted to the law school and has paid their first seat deposit, the Director of Admissions will contact the student to obtain an I-20 application form, certification of finance, a notarized copy of their birth certificate, passport, and when applicable, marriage license. Once all of these items are received, the Director of Admissions will process the student's SEVIS I-20. An I-20 form is one part of the requirement for an applicant to obtain a student visa (http://mcgeorge.edu/Future_Students/LLM_and_JSD_Programs/International_Students/Visa_Information.htm).

Next Steps ...

Once an applicant submits their application, they can check the status online through the Application Status Online. Login information for the Applicant Status Online is emailed to applicants when the application is submitted to the law school. The admissions committee will review files in the order that they were completed. Our admissions committee is devoted to reviewing each file in a holistic manner. Please allow 4-12 weeks to receive an admission decision. Offers of admission will be sent via U.S. mail. Other admission decisions will be sent via email. Changes to an applicant's email or mailing address should be communicated to the Office of Admissions immediately.

Summer Session Students

On-Campus & Foreign Summer Program

Summer sessions are available to part-time and full-time students. Although summers cannot take the place of a full-time semester, taking some coursework in the summer can lighten your load during the regular year. Completing the units required for graduation results in taking between 14 and 15 units each semester. As few as 12 units can be taken while still qualifying as a full-time student, so some full-time students pursuing extra-curricular activities or wishing to give advanced material particular focus use summers to enable taking 12 or 13 units during a term.

On-Campus

Two Summer Sessions are scheduled including on-campus required courses, electives and international electives. Summer courses are compressed but consist of the same number of class hours as similar courses offered during the academic year. Summer Session on-campus classes are normally scheduled in evening hours. Students who have completed at least one year of law study in good standing at other ABA-accredited law schools may enroll in either the On-Campus or International Session.

International Session

Learn more about our Summer Abroad Program and apply online:

- Summer Program in Salzburg, Austria (http://mcgeorge.edu/Students/Academics/International_Study/Summer_Abroad_Programs/Summer_Program_in_Salzburg.htm)

Transfer Students

Applicants may be accepted with advanced standing to McGeorge School of Law after having completed one or more years at another ABA-accredited law school and may only apply for admission to begin their law study at McGeorge School of Law commencing in the fall or spring term.

McGeorge's policy allows applicants to transfer up to 32 credits in courses with satisfactory grades of C+ or better. Each applicant's prior law transcript will be evaluated and compared to McGeorge School of Law coursework. Any courses which are not commensurate to McGeorge School of Law courses will be required to be retaken upon enrollment.

Application Requirements for Transfer Applicants

1. Completed application form
2. Nonrefundable $65 application fee
3. Personal statement expressing reasons for requesting transfer
4. Résumé
5. Two (2) recommendation letters submitted through your LSAC CAS account (at least one must be from a current law school professor)
6. Transcript from the first year of law school enrollment, if applicable
7. Letter of Good Standing from current law school, containing class rank (If the law school does not rank the class, a letter from the law school registrar or Dean of Students outlining the grading policy must be submitted.)

8. LSAC Credential Assembly Service Law School Report

Application

Click here (<https://os.lsac.org/release/startup.aspx?appl=4065A2/>) to begin your application. Please note that McGeorge School of Law does not accept hardcopy applications. All applications must be completed through the Law School Admission Council (LSAC.) The deadline to submit transfer applications is July 15 for the following fall term and Nov. 15 for the spring term.

Application Fee

A nonrefundable application fee of $65 must be submitted with the application. If financial need warrants, an applicant may apply for a fee waiver (http://mcgeorge.edu/Application_Fee_Waiver_Request.htm).

Certification of Good Standing

A certification letter of good standing from your current law school is required. This document contains your academic results for the year currently being completed and includes certification of your class standing. Please have this document sent directly to the McGeorge School of Law Admissions Office.

Credential Assembly Services (CAS)

All transfer applicants must pay for a Credential Assembly Services (CAS) report to be submitted to the law school along with their LSAT score.

Letters of Recommendation

In support of the application, applicants must submit two letters of recommendation directly to LSAC, and we will accept a maximum of three letters. At least one letter must be from a current law school professor. These letters should address skills relevant to your potential success in law school.

Please note that LSAC will not release an applicant's CAS report to McGeorge School of Law until they have received a minimum of two letters of recommendation. Furthermore, the application will remain incomplete and will not be reviewed until the applicant's file is complete.

Personal Statement

The statement must be no more than three pages, double-spaced, 12 pt. font. A transfer applicant's personal statement is an opportunity to provide information about their reasons for requesting a transfer and any other information that the applicant believes should be considered.

Resume

Provide a Résumé of full- and part-time employment and other activities, starting with the most recent. Include dates, name(s) of employer(s), and position(s) held. List academic honors received since entering college. List extracurricular activities, hobbies and community service. Please be sure to include any law-related internships and externships completed since entering law school. Describe nature and extent of employment during college, listing the hours worked per week and include volunteer work. Include summers. Explain any periods of time after high school not accounted for by the preceding educational and employment history. However, high school information should be omitted.

Transcripts

All transcripts for college and graduate work must be submitted directly to LSAC. The transcript from your degree granting institution(s) must show conferral of your degree. LSAC will evaluate each transcript and forward a report to each law school the applicant designates.

Transcripts from the current law school are required and should be mailed directly to the McGeorge School of Law Admissions Office. The transcripts must contain grades for your first year of law school and will be reviewed carefully along with the syllabi for the courses the student has taken.

Notification of Acceptance

Because application decisions are based on a transcript and certification of good standing containing information about the academic year just completed, McGeorge School of Law usually notifies transfer students of their acceptance in mid-July for the fall and early December for the spring term.

An offer of admission to a transfer student comes with a detailed letter stating which coursework will be accepted either as credit or as credit along with the fulfillment of a course requirement. The letter also urges students to contact the Office of Student Affairs for academic advising for the second year and beyond. The Office of Student Affairs hosts a welcome for transfer students at the beginning of each academic year. At that event, students are made aware of the various services provided by each department on campus. Transfer students are also included in the MAP Program (http://mcgeorge.edu/Students/Academics/McGeorge_Academic_Planning_\(MAP\).htm.htm)), the academic advising program for first-year students which takes place during the first half of the Spring Semester.

Visiting Students

Students enrolled at another law school accredited by the American Bar Association who desire to take one semester or one academic year of course work at McGeorge School of Law to be applied toward degree requirements at their home law school will be considered for visiting status. Students may submit applications for the spring or fall semester. Visitors are not eligible to receive their J.D. degree from McGeorge School of Law.

To apply for admission as a visiting student, applicants must submit the following:

1. Completed application form
2. Nonrefundable $65 application fee
3. Personal statement expressing reasons for requesting to visit
4. One recommendation letter must be submitted from a professor at the home law school
5. Résumé
6. A letter or form from the Law School Registrar or other appropriate Law School Administrator outlining which courses the student will be allowed to take at McGeorge School of Law
7. Transcript from current law school
8. Front page of Credential Assembly Service CAS report sent from home law school.

Application

Click here (<https://os.lsac.org/release/startup.aspx?appl=4065A3/>) to begin your application. Please note that McGeorge School of Law does not accept hardcopy applications. All applications must be completed through the Law School Admission Council (LSAC.) The deadline to submit visiting applications is July 15 for the fall term and Nov. 15 for the spring term.

Application Fee

A nonrefundable application fee of $65 must be submitted with the application.

Law School Transcript

This document must contain grades for at least one full academic year and should be submitted directly to the McGeorge School of Law Admissions Office.

Personal Statement

The statement must be no more than three pages, double-spaced, 12 pt. font. A visitor applicant's personal statement is an opportunity to provide information about their reasons for requesting to visit and any other information that the applicant believes should be considered.

Resume

Provide a resume of full- and part-time employment and other activities, starting with the most recent. Include dates, name(s) of employer(s), and position(s) held. List academic honors received since entering college. List extracurricular activities, hobbies and community service. Please be sure to include any law related internships and externships completed since entering law school. Describe the nature and extent of employment during college, listing the hours worked per week and include volunteer work. Include summers. Explain any periods of time after high school not accounted for by the preceding educational and employment history. However, high school information should be omitted.

Letter of Recommendation

In support of the application, applicants must submit one letter of recommendation directly to LSAC. The letter must be from a current law school professor and should address your success in law school, your aptitude as a student and the impact you have had at your law school.

Permission to Visit

Visiting students must submit a letter or form from their Law School Registrar or other appropriate Law School Administrator outlining which courses the student will be allowed to take at McGeorge School of Law.

The letter must be submitted to the Admissions Office and the visiting student will not be allowed to register for classes until this form has been obtained.

Character and Fitness

Most states have standards of character and fitness to practice that must be satisfied by candidates applying for admission to the bar. Candidates with a record of involvement in criminal matters must provide a full, descriptive statement and should investigate the admission policies of the jurisdiction where the application for admission to practice is anticipated by writing to the bar examiners in that state. Include dates of incident and disposition.

Notification of Acceptance

Visiting students will receive their decisions soon after their files are complete.

The vision of Student Life at Pacific is to be a leader and advocate within the University of the Pacific and our profession by inspiring and cultivating global student citizens for a lifetime of learning, growth, engagement, and service. The mission of Student Life is to provide transformative educational experiences and essential services that advance student success. Through innovative thinking and dynamic programs, each Student Life member focuses on students' personal growth and educational experience. These values inform our individual roles and departmental functions and unify us as a Division. We realize our mission through:

- Potential - We are committed to providing a living, learning, and working environment that encourages both our students and our staff to reach their full potential;
- Student Development - We believe in educating the whole student by developing and supporting their emotional, environmental, financial, ethical, intellectual, physical, and social needs;
- Meaning and Purpose - We believe in the importance of providing opportunities to those seeking meaning and purpose in ones' life and value the various activities and practices associated with a religious or spiritual tradition including, but not limited to, meditation, reflection, or prayer;
- Responsible Leadership - We believe that leadership manifests itself in many forms. It can be taught, developed, and nurtured and is a tool that encourages success throughout a student's education, lives', and future careers;

- Achievement – We believe that each student is unique and deserves a comprehensive system of support services that will assist in meeting their educational and personal goals;
- Diversity and Inclusion - We are committed to social justice, diversity, and challenging forms of hate and exclusion, and;
- Community Involvement - We believe in the value of community service, volunteerism, and in the importance of civic engagement, connection, and participation.

Student Outreach and Academic Support Services

Community Involvement Program

The Community Involvement Program (CIP), established in 1969, is a comprehensive need-based scholarship and retention program for first-generation college students from the Stockton community who have demonstrated the potential for sustainable leadership, community awareness, and involvement. The Community Involvement Program is only for new incoming University of the Pacific students. Once in the program, students are offered leadership training and various opportunities for students to return to the community as leaders and agents of social change.

Students in the Community Involvement Program are selected based on their participation in the Stockton community, maturity, and potential to contribute his/her time and energy to the Community Involvement Program. CIP students contribute a significant amount of time in the Stockton community through volunteering at various community organizations. For more information contact the CIP Office at:

Center for Student Success
McCaffrey Center, First Floor
Telephone: (209) 946-2436
Fax: (209) 946-2176

The Women's Resource Center

The Women's Resource Center (WRC) aims to increase awareness and scholarship regarding women's and gender issues, to celebrate and cultivate leadership on campus and beyond, and to empower students to be active participants in bringing about social change. Annual events hosted by the WRC include the Women of Distinction Awards Luncheon as well as programming for Women's History Month, Sexual Assault Awareness, and Domestic Violence Awareness. In partnership with the Office of Title IX, the WRC runs the Title IX Peer Education Program to encourage students to help end gendered violence in our community. Located inside the Intercultural Student Success Center, the WRC is a welcoming space for students to study, relax, and find community.

Military and Veteran Student Support Center

Proud of its designation as being a military friendly institution, the University of the Pacific is dedicated to serving the needs of those who previously were in, or currently are serving in, the United States armed services and their qualified dependents. The Military and Veteran Student Support Center is the hub Veteran student life and offers help and assistance in the application, certification, and coordination of military and veteran educational benefits, the synchronization of University support services with the needs of Veteran students, and in being a liaison between Veteran students and the Department of Veterans Affairs.

Intercultural Student Success

Intercultural Student Success (<http://www.pacific.edu/Campus-Life/Diversity-and-Inclusion/Multicultural-Affairs.html>) strives to provide enriching educational opportunities for students of all backgrounds. ISS is an inclusive community that advances student success by helping students navigate their identity development and build intercultural competence. The department includes the ALANA (African, Latinx, Asian Pacific Islander, Native American) Center, Black Student Success, El Centro (Latinx Outreach), The Pride Resource Center, and the Women's Resource Center. Together, these areas work to help support students' intersectional identities through building community, capacity, and advocacy.

The Pride Resource Center (<http://www.pacific.edu/Campus-Life/Diversity-and-Inclusion/Pride-Resource-Center.html>) provides holistic and identity conscious support services to the lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, queer, questioning, intersex, and asexual (LGBTQQIA+) community at Pacific. Signature programs and events include: Safe Zone LGBTQ+ Awareness & Allyship Training, National Coming Out Day, Pacific Pride Week, and Lavender Graduation. The PRC strives to be a leader and advocate for LGBTQ+ inclusion and equity within the University of the Pacific and the greater Stockton community.

El Centro (Latinx Outreach and Academic Resource Center)

El Centro's mission is to assist in recruiting new undergraduate students, retain current students, build mutual beneficial partnerships with community organizations, connecting students to internal and external resources, advising Latinx-focused student groups, and in planning and developing rich and relevant programming around Latino/a/x themes and issues. El Centro also helps the University's commitment to diversity, inclusivity, national/ international education and cross-cultural understanding. El Centro is a home away from home for all students on or off campus.

Some of our annual events include Bienvenidos Week, Student Financial Aid and College Awareness Workshop, Raza Unida Conference, Pozole for the Academic Soul, Latinx Heritage Month, and Latinx Graduation.

We are located at Raymond Lodge (El Centro) between Casa Warner and Price House Residence Halls and across from the Vereschagin Alumni House. For more information call 209.946.7705 or check out our website for upcoming events and activities at

<http://www.pacific.edu/Campus-Life/Diversity-and-Inclusion/Latino-Outreach.html>

Black Student Success

Black Student Success offers programs and support services to students of African descent. Throughout the school year, Black Student Success hosts receptions, academic workshops, networking events with members of the Black Alumni Club, and social events. Black Student Success also offers book scholarships of up to $250 for students in need.

A signature program of Black Student Success is Students Emerging as Pacificans (STEPS) program. STEPS is a 4-day retreat that assists incoming students of African descent with their transition to college life. Pacific faculty, staff, current students, and alumni work directly with STEPS participants, introducing them to University and community resources to enhance their academic and co-curricular success.

Student Health Services

Student Health Services (SHS) is located in Halbert Hall on the Sacramento campus. Services are provided on an appointment basis; walk-in visits are seen case-by-case, determined by the urgency of the presenting condition. Use the portal MyHealth@Pacific (<https://healthservices.pacific.edu/>) to book a visit. Visit the health services' website (<http://www.pacific.edu/healthservices/>) for more information. After hours or on the weekends, students can access a contracted Nurse Advice Line at 209.946.2315 option 4. Students enrolled in the Student Health Insurance Plan (SHIP) also have access to 24/7 telemedicine services through LiveHealth Online. Download the app in the App Store or on Google Play.

The Cowell Wellness Center Fee allows students to be seen without paying an office visit or co-pay, regardless of health insurance status. Further costs may be incurred with the purchase of medication, immunizations, procedures, diagnostic testing, or referrals to off-campus health care providers. Students must pay these additional costs associated with their care at the time of service and, in some cases, may submit an itemized receipt for reimbursement to their health insurance plans.

The comprehensive SHS team for the three campuses consists of a Physician, Nurse Practitioners, Medical Assistants, Phlebotomists, Insurance Coordinator, Immunization Coordinator, and a Registered Dietitian. Health care delivery and medical record management are protected by privacy and confidentiality regulations.

SHS provides a wide variety of medical services, including the management of common health problems such as acute minor illnesses and injuries and preventive care including nutrition services, gynecology, contraceptive maintenance, STI testing, immunizations, and routine physicals. Several categories of medication are provided directly through SHS; otherwise, prescriptions are filled at local pharmacies. Laboratory services include limited in-house testing and full service processing through local labs.

Management of chronic conditions is provided on a case-by-case basis, depending on the complexity of the situation. Typically, students are referred to local specialists for this care. Hospitalization and emergency treatment for life-threatening conditions are not managed at SHS. In those circumstances, care is referred to a local hospital. Staff may arrange for ambulance transport as indicated.

Students are required to meet the immunization and TB clearance as a part of university enrollment requirements. Students should upload documents through the medical portal MyHealth@Pacific (<https://healthservices.pacific.edu/>). The fall deadline is 10/15 and the spring deadline is 2/15 each year. Students must check their status and respond to communication through the portal. Failure to become compliant with the immunization policy will result in a registration hold and, in some instances, a late fee.

Health Insurance

Health insurance is a mandatory non-academic condition for enrollment. To ensure that all students have adequate health care coverage, including ongoing primary and specialty care, and to satisfy the mandatory health insurance requirement, Pacific automatically enrolls all registered students listed below into the Anthem Blue Cross of CA PPO, Student Health Insurance Plan (SHIP).

- Undergraduate and Pharmacy Students enrolled in 9 or more units
- Dental Students, International Students, and Graduate Students enrolled in 1 or more units
- Law Students enrolled in 6 or more units
- Advanced Education in General Dentistry (AEGD): all residents

This policy excludes distance learning, off-campus, and external programs, and therefore students are not eligible to enroll in SHIP.

Each term that a qualified student is enrolled in classes at Pacific, the student account is automatically charged the fee for SHIP and you will be enrolled automatically*. The fee will appear on your e-bill statement as a separate charge.

Qualified students who have their own comprehensive health insurance coverage and do not wish to be enrolled in Anthem Blue Cross PPO may apply to waive out of the Student Health Insurance Plan (SHIP).

Health Insurance Waiver Requirements: Your health insurance plan must include ALL of the following in order to qualify for a waiver (Domestic and International Students)

- The plan must provide coverage for medical evacuation of $50,000 and repatriation of remains of $25,000 (International Students)
- coverage for the entire academic year
- must be a U.S. based insurance company
- coverage for inpatient and outpatient hospitalizations
- coverage to local doctors, specialists, hospitals, and other health care providers in emergency and non-emergency situations within your campus area
- coverage for lab work, diagnostic x-rays, emergency room treatment, and prescription coverage within your campus area
- coverage for inpatient and outpatient mental health, substance abuse and counseling services in your campus area

The following types of insurance plans are NOT acceptable and will NOT be considered:

- Non-ACA (Affordable Care Act (<https://www.healthcare.gov/where-can-i-read-the-affordable-care-act/>)) compliant health care plan
- Short Term Medical Plans that are available to purchase on a weekly or monthly basis
- Insurance Plans that are underwritten in a Country outside of the United States
- California Medi-Cal Health Plans that do NOT have assigned benefit coverage in your UOP campus area
- Out of State Medicaid Insurance does not cover students in California

All waivers must be submitted during the open waiver period.

Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS)

- The CAPS mission is to promote student growth and development, with regard to both personal characteristics and interpersonal competencies. We do this in the service of enabling students to benefit from and maximize their educational experience at Pacific. We also consistently strive to integrate multiculturalism into the everyday functioning and structure of our agency. Through the broad range of therapeutic services that we offer, persons may come to appreciate the uniqueness of their personalities and discover new ways to develop their potential. We have seen students make personal progress through the therapeutic process and tools provided by CAPS. We utilize a stepped care model to provide students with the tools they need to be academically successful.
- Services on the Sacramento campus are located in Halbert Hall. CAPS services are confidential and are funded, in part, by the Wellness Fee. We do not bill insurance. Students have access to individual and couples therapy on Monday, Tuesday, and Friday of each week, these meetings are by appointment only and can be scheduled in person at Halbert Hall or by calling 209.946.2315 x2. CAPS also offers online self-guided therapy, and a 24/7 crisis services for phone appointments. To access our crisis phone therapist call 209.946.2315 x2, if it is during business hours asks to be transferred to the on-call therapist. If it is after business hours, wait for the CAPS voicemail to begin and then choose option 4. Additionally, limited psychiatric consultation and medication management is available on the Stockton campus.

- For more information please see our website: www.pacific.edu/CAPS/ Sacramento (<http://www.pacific.edu/CAPS/Sacramento/>) or call 209.946.2315 Ext. 2.

Pacific PROMISE Scholars

The University of the Pacific is proud to be a private institution of higher education to provide a support program to assist its students who are former foster care students and others from similar backgrounds. Eligible students can receive many services to assist in their successful transition to Pacific including mentoring, social events, college starter kits and finals baskets. In addition, scholarships may be available for eligible students.

For more information, contact: Pacific PROMISE Scholars

Religious and Spiritual Life

Our goal is to cultivate and support religious and spiritual life at Pacific in all its many forms. We serve the needs of all students, no matter what one's religious tradition, or if you don't consider yourself religious or spiritual at all. While we make no claim to have all of life's answers, we can help point you in the right direction, provide resources for you, and work with you through the questions that will inevitably arise as you grow during your time at university. We can also help you find people or groups who share your interests. Our hope is that in doing so you will find a level of fulfillment, understanding, and perhaps meet other people who you can journey with in the questions of life.

The multifaith Chaplain's Office in Religious and Spiritual Life provides spiritual care and support for all students. Visit Sears Hall (connected to Morris Chapel) to meet the Chaplains and Affiliate Campus Ministers. Pacific has many active religious, faith, and spiritually-based student organizations including (among others): Asian American Christian Fellowship, Black Campus Ministries, Chi Alpha Christian Fellowship, Fellowship of Christian Athletes, Health Sciences Christian Fellowship, Hillel Jewish Student Club, Indian Student Association, Interfaith Council, Muslim Student Association, Newman Catholic Community, Nest Prayer Family, Open Door Methodist Student Ministry, Orthodox Christian Fellowship, Pacific Christian Fellowship (Intervarsity), Secular Student Alliance, and Sikh Student Association. There are also over 160 different churches, synagogues, and other places of worship and religious organizations in the greater Stockton area. Go to pacific.edu/religiouslife for more information.

Academic Standards

Student Conduct and Community Standards

The Office of Student Conduct and Community Standards manages the student conduct process for students, including but not limited to, undergraduate and graduate students on Pacific's three campuses. In addition to the Code of Conduct, specific schools and programs may have policies and procedures that apply to students enrolled in a specific program of study. Pacific has developed policies and procedures to clarify the expectations and standards for students. Each student is responsible for knowing and adhering to all University policies and procedures. These policies are explicitly outlined in the Tiger Lore Student Handbook and on the web site at <http://go.pacific.edu/tigerlore> (<http://www.pacific.edu/Campus-Life/Safety-and-Conduct/Student-Conduct/Tiger-Lore-Student-Handbook-.html>) Policies and procedures specific to a course of study are available through the respective school or program.

Honor Code

The Honor Code at the University of the Pacific calls upon each student to exhibit a high degree of maturity, responsibility, and personal integrity. Students are expected to:

- 1) Act honestly in all matters;
- 2) Actively encourage academic integrity;
- 3) Discourage any form of cheating or dishonesty by others;
- 4) Inform the instructor and appropriate university administrator if she or he has a reasonable and good faith belief and substantial evidence that a violation of the Academic Honesty Policy has occurred.

Conduct Standards

Student Code of Conduct, University Policies, and Local, State, and Federal Laws

The violation of established policies and procedures and local, state, and federal laws may constitute a violation of the Student Code of Conduct or other policies and procedures specific to a course of study, school, or program. Such violations may include conduct occurring off-campus when students are participating, attending, or in some manner connected to a University-related activity. Please refer to <http://www.go.pacific.edu/tigerlore> (<http://www.pacific.edu/Campus-Life/Safety-and-Conduct/Student-Conduct/Tiger-Lore-Student-Handbook-.html>) for additional information and definitions.

Campus Behavior Standards

Rather than publish in this catalog a complete and detailed code of the laws, rules, and regulations that students are required to follow, the University declares its intention to uphold all federal, state and municipal laws applicable and expects all students to abide by the Student Code of Conduct and university policies. At the time of admission, each student agrees to follow such standards. Accordingly, any conduct not consistent with responsible and lawful behavior may be considered cause for the University to take appropriate administrative, disciplinary, or legal action.

In addition, the University acknowledges and actively upholds the adult status of each student with all the rights pertaining thereto and, in accordance with that status, considers each student responsible for their own actions. With regard to conduct, "student" is defined as full and part-time undergraduate, professional, and graduate students from the time of application for admission to the time of the conferral of a degree and includes periods prior to the start of classes, after classes have ended, between terms, and when a student is not officially enrolled but has an ongoing relationship with Pacific.

University policies and regulations are published in the Student Code of Conduct and available online go.pacific.edu/tigerlore (<http://www.pacific.edu/Campus-Life/Safety-and-Conduct/Student-Conduct/Tiger-Lore-Student-Handbook-.html>). Statements pertaining to or clarification of student rights is also published in this document. Additional policies for specific schools and programs are respectively available from each school or program.

Alcohol and Other Drugs Policy

All students, faculty, and staff must comply with all federal, state, and local laws and University policies governing the consumption, possession, distribution, and sale of alcoholic beverages and drugs on University property; at any activity or event on and off the campus sponsored by Pacific; or where a campus community member is representing Pacific as part of an off-campus program, activity, or event.

This notice is provided as a requirement of the Drug-Free Schools and Communities Act of 1990, and the Drug-Free Workplace Act of 1988. Universities that receive federal/state funds in any form are required to comply with the above acts. We must take affirmative steps to prohibit the unlawful possession, use, and/or distribution of illicit drugs and alcohol.

Description of Health Risks

The misuse of alcohol and/or prescription drugs or use of illicit drugs can result in overdose, death, violence, incarceration, loss of a driver's license, failed relationships, petty property crime, school dropout, lowered productivity and quality, increased absenteeism and tardiness, serious psychobiological and neurobiological problems, reduced concentration, impaired judgment, loss of short term and long term memory, diminished reasoning skills, strained family relationships, damaged fetuses, and other serious life-altering effects. Additional information regarding health risks is available from the Cowell Wellness Center or at DrugAbuse.gov

Criminal Penalties

Federal penalties for the trafficking of controlled substances are dependent upon several conditions including the substance, amount, and whether the matter is a first offense or repeated offense for an individual or other legal entity.

Pacific Alumni Association

The Pacific Alumni Association (PAA) includes all alumni of the University of the Pacific. There is no membership fee and services are available to all members. An elected Board of Directors (30) develops programs and benefits with the Office of Alumni Relations staff. Opportunities provided to alumni through PAA include Regional Pacific Clubs, class reunions, special events, communications and a variety of benefits.

The Pacific Alumni Association encourages all alumni to maintain their relationship with the University of the Pacific and with one another. For more information call (209) 946-2391.

Student Academic Support Services

Office of Services for Students with Disabilities in the Division of Student Life

The University does not discriminate against students and applicants on the basis of disability, in the administration of its educational and other programs. The University reasonably accommodates qualified students (including applicants) with disabilities as defined by applicable law, if the individual is otherwise qualified to meet the fundamental requirements and aspects of the program of the University, without undue hardship to the University. Harassment on the basis of disability issues is prohibited by the University's policies.

For purposes of reasonable accommodation, a student or applicant with a disability is a person who: (a) has a learning, physical or psychological impairment which limits one or more major life activities (such as walking, seeing, speaking, learning, or working); or (b) has a record with the University by which the University has officially recognized such impairment. To be eligible to continue at the University, the student or applicant must meet the qualifications and requirements expected generally of its students, and must also be able to perform the requirements of the individual major or program in which s/he is enrolled.

A qualified student or applicant is an individual with a disability as defined by this policy and applicable law who meets the academic and technical standards requisite to admission and participation in the educational program or activity. Accommodations are such modifications to the course, program or educational requirements as are necessary and effective for the individual, if reasonable to provide at the University and do not alter the fundamental nature of programs. Accommodations do not include exemption from academic evaluation standards or from the code of student conduct.

Pacific expects that, if a student has a disability, the student gives sufficient notice of the need for assistance (preferably prior to the start of the semester) although the University does fully consider the merits of each request at the time it is received. Upon receiving a request for assistance as well as appropriate documentation, the Director of the Office of Services for Disabilities considers the student's need for assistance as it relates to the documented disability. If appropriate, the University may choose to consult with such individuals, internal or external to the University, to provide further assistance needed to evaluate the request for accommodation. The following list is an example of the types of reasonable accommodations and services that the university may provide, on a case-by-case basis, to assure equal access:

- Academic adjustments and curricular modifications
- Assistive technology
- Consultation with faculty and staff
- Registration assistance and classroom rescheduling
- Readers, scribes, note-taking, and library assistance
- Test proctoring services

Please note the university does not provide or subsidize personal care devices or services such as ambulatory devices or assistance with bathing, dressing, laundry, etc. Referrals to external agencies, however, are available upon request.

International Programs and Services (IPS)

Located on the Sacramento campus, IPS offers comprehensive services to international students and scholars coming to the United States as well as to Pacific students interested in studying, interning or volunteering abroad. IPS serves as a liaison between University schools, departments, and offices, collaborating with them to enhance international education across campuses.

International Students and Scholars Services

IPS offers a variety of services, including immigration advising, to international students and scholars at Pacific, supporting and enhancing their social and cultural integration into the Pacific community. IPS also administers Pacific's Exchange Visitor Program. The objective of this U.S. Department of State effort is to facilitate and increase mutual understanding between Americans and citizens of other countries through educational and cultural exchanges. For more information, call (916) 739-7019.

Housing

University of the Pacific, Sacramento Campus offers a variety of on-campus housing opportunities in order to provide an invaluable scholarly experience. Located in the heart of the California state capitol, our on-campus residential community is the best way to fully participate in academic life. We firmly believe that by living on campus, students can maximize their time for more faculty interaction, enhanced learning, and social growth.

The Housing Office is located in the Student Life Building, in-between the Student Center and Northwest Hall. We encourage you to visit our office for more information about on-campus housing opportunities or for assistance in finding off-campus housing. Our office continues to build partnerships with off-campus renters across Sacramento County, so please reach out to us if you would like some help finding the best housing opportunity for you!

Graduate Student Support Services

A Graduate Support Specialists (GSS) is located at each campus to offer students a one-stop shop for most inquiries. If your GSS doesn't know the answer to something, they'll work with you to figure it out. Ultimately, our main goal is to make your experience with University of the Pacific as easy and enjoyable as possible. There will be hiccups and there will be anguish; however your GSS will be your advocate, cheering you on from your side of the ring. Located in the Student Life Building on the Sacramento campus / 916.325.4638.

Graduate Writing Support

The Graduate Writing Center provides free writing support for graduate students of all skill levels at any stage in the process for projects in any discipline. The center provides an inviting, non-judgmental space where professional staff members and student writers build collaborative learning relationships based on fostering student self-efficacy, honoring student agency, and developing transferable writing skills. The Graduate Writing Center is located in the Student Life Building at University of the Pacific's Sacramento campus; however, the center supports graduate students by offering in-person and online writing consultations, writing workshops, and writing groups across the University's three campuses. If you have questions about the Graduate Writing Center or writing resources, please contact the writing center team by email at writingcenter@pacific.edu or by phone at (916) 739-7251. If you would like to schedule a writing center appointment, please use the online scheduling system, Pacific.MyWCOnline.com (<http://catalog.pacific.edu/sacramento/studentlife/file:///C:/Users/hdunncar.SAC/AppData/Local/Microsoft/Windows/INetCache/Content.Outlook/MRXE6H33/Pacific.MyWCOnline.com>), or contact us directly. We look forward to working with you!

Code of Student Responsibility

The Code of Student Responsibility governs McGeorge Students both on- and off-campus at all times from the day you submit your application until graduation, expulsion, voluntary withdrawal, or academic disqualification not followed by reinstatement. The Code is divided into four parts – Canons of Ethics, Disciplinary Rules, Organizational Rules, and Procedural Rules. This Code embodies the key concepts of professionalism and civility that are so crucial to the legal profession.

Capital Commendation for Public Service

The McGeorge Capital Center for Law & Policy encourages students to pursue experiences that emulate pro bono legal experiences during their legal career and recognizes students who give their time to others through pro bono legal services (separate from volunteer internships) and/or unpaid community service. Students may earn the Capital Commendation for Public Service at the following levels based on total hours devoted to service during the entirety of your time at law school:

- Bronze (50 hours)
- Silver (100 hours)
- Gold (150 hours)

Any public service performed while enrolled at McGeorge may count towards the Commendation provided the hours were unpaid and not for academic credit, subject to approval by the program director. (Legal Clinic hours typically do not count towards the Commendation. Hours of service performed through the Reading Partners Program, although compensated through work-study, may count toward the Commendation.)

Students interested in receiving the Capital Commendation for Public Service should complete the Registration Form and Public Service Timesheet. Both forms are available online at <https://www.mcgeorge.edu/our-faculty/centers-and-institutes/capital-center-for-law-and-policy/capital-commendation-for-public-service> (<https://www.mcgeorge.edu/our-faculty/centers-and-institutes/capital-center-for-law-and-policy/capital-commendation-for-public-service/>).

Student Bar Association

All McGeorge students hold membership in its Student Bar Association (SBA). The SBA serves as a forum for student interests and concerns and it sponsors school-wide events throughout the year including the Barrister's Ball. The SBA also organizes and oversees several student committees, and provides funding for the Registered Student Organizations. The SBA is administered by a student-elected Board of Governors comprised of the SBA President, JD Day and Evening Division Vice-Presidents, Secretary, Treasurer, a Representative for each JD class year (1D, 2D, etc.), and an At-Large Representative representing Masters and JSD students.

SBA Student Committees

The SBA organizes and oversees various student committees to focus on student issues and events such as stress relief activities, networking opportunities, social events, facilitating communication with the student body, and addressing student concerns. Students apply for and are appointed to serve on these committees by the SBA Vice Presidents. From year to year the committees change, but may include: Activities and Sports, Barrister's Ball, Events and Coordination (ECC), Wellness, Alumni, Masters, Bylaws, and Elections.

ABA Law Student Division Representative

The American Bar Association (ABA) is a national organization providing law school accreditation, continuing legal education, information about the law, programs to assist lawyers and judges, and initiatives to improve the legal system for the public. All students attending ABA-approved law schools are eligible to join. One student is selected by the SBA President to serve as the McGeorge ABA Law Student Division Representative. This Representative advocates on behalf of ABA Law Student Division members from their school, serves as the school's point person on the ABA communicates the benefits and value of ABA membership at their school, and serves as one of their school's two voting delegates to the ABA Law Student Division Assembly (the policy-making body of the Division).

Registered Student Organizations

Practicing legal and public policy skills does not always happen in class or during an internship. Registered Student Organizations ("RSOs") play an integral role in the campus environment and educational process for students at McGeorge and the many events hosted annually directly enhance academic and career preparation, cultural awareness, public service, leadership skills and networking opportunities. Students meet people with similar interests, organize meaningful activities, and have plenty of opportunities to network their way into a stellar internship or career. The Office of Student Affairs is the campus department through which groups register at McGeorge. Groups must register annually to be recognized by McGeorge. The deadline to register a group is October 1.

Faculty Committees with Student Representation

Each year the SBA President, in consultation with the Office of Student Affairs and Associate Dean for Academic Affairs, appoints student representatives to several of McGeorge's standing committees to insure student input to faculty and administrative policy decisions. Committees with student representatives include: Code of Student Responsibility, Curriculum, Diversity Affairs, Grading and Advancement, and Honors & Awards.

Office of Student Affairs

The Office of Student Affairs exists to support McGeorge law and public policy students from Orientation to Graduation. We advocate for students and support extracurricular activities at the Law School including student organizations and student government, as well as a variety of all-school activities such as wellness programs, diversity and inclusion programs, academic advising programs, and other events that serve to entertain, educate, and cultivate an inclusive community in the Law School.

In addition, we assist students with personal matters and academic concerns. We support student-parents, students with disabilities, short term medical concerns, Title IX matters, and family emergencies. Members of our team can connect you to useful resources around the university. While many people are here to assist you during your time at McGeorge, we hope you will view our office as a useful resource and a good place to start with questions.

Career Development Office

The Career Development Office (CDO) gives students the tools needed to build an individual career plan and to take charge of their professional future. The CDO provides a modernized approach to individualized career advising including interactive programs, speakers, digital handouts and videos, and collaboration with our extensive network of alumni and employers.

Disabled Student Services

McGeorge makes every reasonable effort to accommodate students with physical, psychiatric, or learning disabilities. Appropriate services and modifications are worked out on a case-by-case basis. Our campus facilities are accessible to students with mobility impairments, and in compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act, we do not discriminate in the administration of our educational programs, admissions, scholarships, loans, or other activities or programs based on disability. McGeorge's Policy Handbook for Students with Disabilities is available online at <https://www.mcgeorge.edu/policies/disabled-student-services> (<https://www.mcgeorge.edu/policies/disabled-student-services/>). Those needing accommodations should review the policy and contact the Office of Student Affairs to request the necessary paperwork.

TB Clearance and Immunization Records

All incoming undergraduate, graduate, and professional students enrolled in one or more units attending any of the three Pacific campuses are required to meet immunization requirements by the first day of classes after which a registration hold will be applied. Visit <https://www.pacific.edu/immunizationcompliance> (<https://www.pacific.edu/immunizationcompliance/>) for more information.

Student Health Insurance

In order to ensure each student's academic success, Pacific mandates that students maintain comprehensive health insurance if they are enrolled in 6 or more units per semester. Each academic year students are required to complete an insurance waiver if they have their own insurance that meets university requirements. If a waiver is not completed by the posted deadline date, the student will be enrolled in the student plan.

Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS)

Many students experience a variety of emotional challenges while in school. Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS) is available to students on the Sacramento campus. Some common reasons students access CAPS services include relationship issues, stress management, anxiety, depression, substance abuse, traumatic experiences and more. CAPS therapists are experienced working with graduate students and provide a confidential, nonjudgmental environment in which to work on your issues. CAPS DOES NOT bill your health insurance.

Student Health Services

Student Health Services is an on campus health clinic available to all McGeorge students as part of the mandatory Health Fee. Services include treatment for acute injuries or illness, physicals, immunizations, women's care, medication management and referrals.

Policy Prohibiting Sexual Misconduct, Harassment, Discrimination, & Retaliation

McGeorge is committed to the personal safety of its students and other members of its campus community and to maintaining a safe and respectful environment free from sexual misconduct or gender-based discrimination. McGeorge provides education and prevention programs including awareness campaigns, prevention strategies, bystander intervention, and risk reduction. McGeorge also provides outreach programs to make students, faculty, and staff aware of all aspects of this Policy, including the practical implications of an affirmative consent standard, resources available for victims, and right and responsibilities of Students, Faculty, and Staff.

A detailed explanation of the support and services available to assault victims may be found in the full "Policy Prohibiting Sexual Misconduct, Discrimination and Retaliation," which is located at <https://webshare.pacific.edu/sites/policies/Pages/Policy%20Prohibiting%20Sexual%20Misconduct%20Discrimination%20and%20Retaliation.aspx>.

To report student, staff, or faulty sexual misconduct, a victim or witness may contact Jennifer Carr, Assistant Dean for Student Affairs at jcarr@pacific.edu or 916.325.4631, in addition to any campus Security Authority, such as Public Safety.

The University Title IX Coordinator, Elizabeth Trayner, may be contacted at etrayer@pacific.edu or 209.946.7770. Additionally, any member of the McGeorge community may make a report online using this form: https://cm.maxient.com/reportingform.php?UnivofthePacific&layout_id=15 (https://cm.maxient.com/reportingform.php?UnivofthePacific&layout_id=15/).

A confidential report may be made by calling the Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS) office, using 209-946-2315. All other members of the campus community must forward any report of sexual misconduct to the Title IX Coordinator.

Retaliation, in any form, for reporting sexual misconduct, harassment, or discrimination is strictly prohibited.

Prohibited Harassment Policies & Procedures

McGeorge is committed to providing an environment free of sexual harassment and harassment because of race, religious creed, color, national origin, ancestry, disability, marital status, sexual orientation, age, or any other basis made unlawful by federal, state, or local law, ordinance, or regulation. This policy applies to all persons attending or involved in the operations of McGeorge. Prohibited harassment in any form, including verbal, physical, and visual conduct, threats, demands, and retaliation is unlawful and will not be tolerated.

Substance Abuse Policies & Procedures

Students are expected to comply with federal, state, and local laws governing the possession, distribution, use, and consumption of alcohol and illicit drugs on the campus and as part of school activities both on and off the campus. A publication, "Substance Abuse Policies and Procedures," provides further information about policies, procedures, and available drug and alcohol abuse education programs as required by Section 1213 of the Higher Education Act of 1965 as amended. The publication is available online at mcgeorge.edu/Substance_Abuse_Policies_and_Procedures.htm.

Compliance with the Cleary Act

In compliance with the Jeanne Cleary Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act, or Cleary Act, the Pacific Sacramento Campus Public Safety Department is responsible for providing the Annual Security and Fire Safety Report. This report contains the three most recent calendar years of crime statistics for the campus. It includes crimes that occurred on campus, in campus housing, and on non-campus property and public property that is adjacent to campus. Also included in this report is fire safety information for on-campus housing. Hard copies of this report are available at the Public Safety Office, Human Resources Office, and Admissions Office, and an electronic version is available online at mcgeorge.edu/Documents/Policies/annualSecurityReport.pdf.

Compliance with Federal Regulations

Non-discrimination policy: McGeorge School of Law, in compliance with Titles VI and VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Title IX of the Educational Amendments of 1972 (45 CFR 86), and Sections 503 and 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 does not discriminate in the administration of any of its educational programs, admissions, scholarships, loans, or other activities or programs on the basis of race, gender, sexual orientation or preference, national or ethnic origin, color, disability, marital status, age, or religious belief.

Inquiries regarding compliance with these statutes and regulations maybe directed to the Office of the Dean, 3200 Fifth Avenue, Sacramento, California 95817, (916) 739-7151, or to the U.S. Department of Education, Office for Civil Rights, in San Francisco or Washington, D.C. Student records: Inquiries about the School's compliance with student access and privacy rights regarding educational records, under the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974, may be directed to the Office of the Dean or to the Student and Family Educational Rights and Privacy office, U.S. Department of Education, Washington, D.C.

Victims of Crime Resource Center

Since 1984, McGeorge has hosted the state-funded California Victims of Crime Resource Center which provides crime victims with legal reassurance and aid. Through the Resource Center's toll-free number, 1.800.VICTIMS, and their website (800victims.org), crime victims can obtain information from law students concerning compensation, restitution, their roles and rights in the criminal justice system, and referrals to local assistance providers and advocacy groups.

Sacramento Campus and Law Library

The library serves all students and faculty members on the Sacramento Campus. A school ID is needed to gain entry on evenings and weekends. A variety of study spaces are available including study rooms that can be booked online up to two weeks in advance. The library offers resources to assist with both courses and research, including West Academic, CALI, Lexis, Westlaw, Bloomberg Law, HeinOnline, EBSCO, and a variety of other databases. Student support for TWEN, Canvas and ExamSoft is available.

Students can borrow material from other libraries via interlibrary loan. Reference librarians are available throughout the day and by appointment for assistance with research questions. If you have any library related questions or concerns, please speak to a library staff member at the circulation desk, a librarian or the library director.

Veteran's Resources

University of the Pacific has V.A. Certifying Officials on all three campuses: Sacramento campus, contact: 916.739.7106, San Francisco campus, contact: 415.929.6498, Stockton Campus, contact: 209.946.7647.

Pacific's Diversity Listserv

The pacificdiversity@lists.pacific.edu listserv provides a central location for members of the Pacific community to share event announcements, speakers, professional development opportunities, etc., relating to diversity and inclusion. To subscribe to this list, follow these instructions:

Send a message to sympa@lists.pacific.edu from the address you want to subscribe to the list.

In the subject line of your message, type in: "subscribe pacificdiversity First Name Last Name" (indicate your own first name and last name). Leave the message body blank.

Center for Inclusion and Diversity

The Sacramento Campus Center for Inclusion and Diversity (CID) is located upstairs in the Student Center. The CID is open to all students and is staffed by peer volunteers. Students are encouraged to explore the center for kinship and support. Programming from the CID seeks to build community, foster understanding on issues of diversity, and promote an atmosphere of inclusion for all members of the Sacramento campus.

Bar Admission for JD and LLM Students

Each state has its own character, fitness and other qualifications for admission to the bar. The rules of the Committee of Bar Examiners of The State Bar of California require each law student who plans to take the California Bar Examination to register with the Committee and pay the prescribed fee after beginning the study of law and before any other application is transmitted to the Committee.

Forms for registration are available from the State Bar of California's website at calbar.ca.gov (<https://www.calbar.ca.gov>).

California and other states have standards of character and fitness to practice, which must be satisfied by candidates applying for admission to the Bar. The Rules Regulating Admission to Practice Law in California of the Committee of Bar Examiners of The State Bar of California provides:

Every applicant shall be of good moral character. The term "good moral character" includes qualities of honesty, fairness, candor, trustworthiness, observance of fiduciary responsibility, respect for and obedience to the laws of the state and the nation, and respect for the rights of others and for the judicial process. The applicant has the burden of establishing that he or she is of good moral character. For students who expect to practice in California, an Application for Determination of Moral Character is available from the State Bar of California's website at calbar.ca.gov (<https://www.calbar.ca.gov>). Most students file the application with the Committee of Bar Examiners during their senior year, preferably more than six months before sitting for the California Bar Examination. Students with a record of involvement in disciplinary or criminal matters may want to file the application at an earlier date.

Students who plan to practice law in jurisdictions other than California should check that state's requirements for student registration and admission to the bar. Further information regarding admission requirements and bar examiner addresses is available in the Office of Student Affairs.

Alumni

Every graduate from McGeorge School of Law becomes a lifetime member of the Alumni Association upon earning their degree. McGeorge School of Law alumni have distinguished themselves as leaders in legal practice, on the judicial bench in local, state and federal trial and appellate arenas, in all levels of government service, and in the business and nonprofit communities. Alumni are found in each of the 50 United States, as well as in 52 countries around the globe.

A Board of Directors, representing the law school's more than 13,000 alumni, governs the McGeorge School of Law Alumni Association. The Board provides ample opportunities for leadership and engagement with the law school and fellow alumni. Among Board priorities are building Alumni Chapters around the country, engaging more alumni in volunteer opportunities, charitably supporting the law school, and actively assisting new graduates with their post-law-school job search. The Board also supports the Alumni Endowed Scholarship Fund, two annual MCLE events (at nominal cost to alums), and several events during the academic year connecting current students with alumni.

Many programs offer graduate assistantships each year for students based on academic quality and experience in research. Graduate assistantships are available each year in many of the departments and schools where advanced degrees are offered. These graduate assistantships may be in the form of scholarship, tuition waiver, cash stipends for services performed, or a combination of those, depending upon each student's program and department recommendations. Please contact your program director(s) for details on graduate assistantships or other forms of financial aid.

Research awards are available for departmental or contract research in some fields. From time to time, fellowships are offered in certain federally-supported programs in which University of the Pacific participates.

Graduate students who are U.S. citizens or eligible non-citizens may apply for federal student loans. For information, visit www.pacific.edu/financialaid (<http://www.pacific.edu/financialaid/>) or contact the:

Student loans, work-study allocations, scholarships, grants, and other financial awards are processed by the Financial Aid Office.

A Financial Aid Handbook is published annually and is available online. The Handbook provides detailed information about application and notification procedures, eligibility criteria, student budgets, student loan terms and repayment schedules, work-study awards, and scholarships. Students should refer to the handbook for this information.

Copies of the Financial Aid Handbook are also available from the Financial Aid Office.

Veterans Benefits

Students entitled to educational benefits as veterans or as widows or children of deceased or disabled veterans should contact the Registrar's Office for certification of enrollment and attendance required by the Veterans Administration. McGeorge School of Law is a proud participant in the Yellow Ribbon Program.

Institutional Scholarships and Grants

McGeorge School of Law funds a number of scholarships and grants through gifts and general law school revenues. Awards are applied toward tuition. Full descriptions of scholarship and grant programs and awards are contained on the McGeorge School of Law website and in the Financial Aid Handbook, available at the Financial Aid Office.

McGeorge Academic Achievement Scholarships

Academic Achievement Scholarships are awards without regard to financial need to advanced students in recognition of superior academic performance during the just-completed year.

First-Year Scholarships and Awards

First year scholarships and grants are awarded to entering students based upon information in application materials. No separate application is required.

Endowed Scholarships and Awards

Permanently endowed scholarship funds have been established by donors in the years indicated to provide ongoing financial assistance to McGeorge students.

Short-Term Emergency Loan Funds

Funds have been established by donors Earl and Edna N. Desmond, Sherrill and Verna Halbert, Russell A. Harris, Jay L. Henry, Charles Johnson, Harold M. Kambak, Judge Thomas J. MacBride, Luis S. Meza, Richard Lowell Miller and Dorothy D. Miller, Judge Albert H. Mundt, and Bruce W. Walker, to make possible short-term emergency loans for McGeorge students. Further details may be obtained from the Financial Aid Office.

Addalou Davis Loan Repayment Assistance Program (LRAP)

McGeorge School of Law is one of many leading ABA institutions that has a Loan Repayment Assistance Program (LRAP) to make low-paying, public interest jobs more attractive to its students. Eligible graduates are licensed attorneys employed full-time in a non-profit organization or governmental agency that provides representation to persons who could not otherwise obtain such services.

Candidates must meet minimum debt requirements and have an annual adjusted gross income of less than $55,000. This program acts as a form of post-graduate aid, enabling graduates to accept public interest jobs because they receive a grant from the law school to help reduce their monthly loan obligation. Graduates who maintain a long-term career in the public interest field can potentially receive this assistance until all of their loans are repaid. For detailed information, graduates can contact the Financial Aid Office. Applications are available in October of each year on the McGeorge School of Law website or by request from the Financial Aid Office.

Public Legal Services Society Summer Grants

The Public Legal Services Society at McGeorge School of Law, a student organization for those interested in pursuing a career in the public interest area, funds several summer grants to permit students to accept positions with public service agencies during the summer months.

Applications are available in March of each year. Among other eligibility requirements, students must complete a specified number of volunteer hours at PLSS events and be a dues-paying member of the club. More information is available on the PLSS blog at blogs.mcgeorge.edu/PLSS (<http://blogs.mcgeorge.edu/PLSS/>).

Application for Financial Aid

To be considered for Federal loan programs, Federal Work-Study, endowed and direct scholarships, students must complete a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). Priority deadline is the first Friday in March. Information and application forms for endowed and direct scholarships are provided to enrolled students each year by the Financial Aid Office and are available on the McGeorge School of Law website. All forms are available on the McGeorge School of Law website.

Return of Title IV Funds

Federal law requires that financial aid recipients who withdraw have their Federal funds adjusted based on the Federal Return of Title IV Formula. Return of Title IV funds is a federally mandated policy that applies only to students who receive federal financial aid and who withdraw, drop out, are dismissed, or take a Leave of Absence prior to completing 60% of a semester. The Return of Title IV funds policy does not apply to students who reduce their units but remain enrolled. Return of Title IV Funds will be used to determine how much aid, if any, must be returned to Title IV loan programs. The Title IV funds considered in the policy are the Federal Unsubsidized Stafford Loan and the Federal Plus Loan. The policy does not apply to the Federal Work-Study Program.

The Return of Title IV funds calculation identifies two types of federal aid, earned and unearned. The earned aid is based on a percentage calculated by dividing the number of days the student completed by the number of days in the payment period. A student who remains enrolled beyond the 60% point earns all disbursed (received) and disbursable aid. Disbursable aid includes aid received and the aid that could have been (but was not) disbursed as of the withdrawal date. If earned aid exceeds disbursed aid, a post-withdrawal disbursement may be made. McGeorge School of Law will first credit post-withdrawal disbursements toward unpaid tuition and fees.

McGeorge School of Law will offer the student any part of the post-withdrawal disbursement not credited to school charges. Within 45 days of a determination that the student withdrew the student will be provided with a written notification of any post-withdrawal funds that are available to the student. No post-withdrawal disbursement will be made if the student does not respond within 14 days of the notification date.

Unearned aid is any disbursed aid that exceeds the amount of Title IV aid the student earned. The unearned aid amount is to be returned to the lender, a responsibility shared by the University of the McGeorge School of Law and the student. McGeorge School of Law is responsible for returning the lesser of the total amount of unearned aid or McGeorge School of Law charges multiplied by the percentage of unearned aid. McGeorge School of Law charges used in the Return of Title IV Funds calculation includes the amount that had been assessed to the student's account before the student's withdrawal. The student is responsible for the difference between the total unearned amount and McGeorge School of Law share.

McGeorge School of Law must return its share of unearned funds no later than 45 days after it determines that the student withdrew. Students must repay their share according to the terms and conditions stated in their promissory note(s). Funds returned to lenders by McGeorge School of Law will be distributed first to the Federal Unsubsidized Stafford Loan and the Federal Plus Loan.

Yellow Ribbon Program FAQ

What is the Yellow Ribbon Program?

The Yellow Ribbon GI Education Enhancement Program (Yellow Ribbon Program) is a provision of the Post-9/11 Veterans Educational Assistance Act of 2008. This program allows institutions of higher learning (degree granting institutions) in the United States to voluntarily enter into an agreement with VA to fund tuition expenses that exceed the highest public in-state undergraduate tuition rate. The institution can contribute up to 50% of those expenses and VA will match the same amount at the institution.

What VA and community resources are available to assist me?

There are many resources available to help you:

- Community Resources (http://www.mcgeorge.edu/Students/Student_Life/Financial_Aid_Office/Prospective_StudentsApplicantsAdmitted_Students/Types_of_Aid/Yellow_Ribbon_Program_FAQ/Community_Resources.htm)
- V.A. Chapters (<http://www.pacific.edu/About-Pacific/AdministrationOffices/Office-of-the-Registrar/Veteran-Services/VA-Chapters.html>)
- V.A. Forms (<http://www.pacific.edu/About-Pacific/AdministrationOffices/Office-of-the-Registrar/Veteran-Services/VA-Forms.html>)
- Called Back to Active Duty (<http://www.pacific.edu/About-Pacific/AdministrationOffices/Office-of-the-Registrar/Veteran-Services/Called-back-to-Active-Duty.html>)
- Order Military Transcripts (<https://jst.doded.mil/smart/signIn.do>)

Who is Eligible for the Yellow Ribbon Program?

Only Veterans entitled to the maximum benefit rate of 100 percent, as determined by the service requirements, or their designated transferees may receive Yellow Ribbon benefits from Pacific and the VA. Active duty Service members and their spouses are not eligible for this program.

The general eligibility requirements for the Yellow Ribbon Program include:

- You served an aggregate period of 36 months in active duty after Sept. 10, 2001.
- You were honorably discharged from active duty for a service-connected disability and you served 30 continuous days after Sept. 10, 2001.
- You are a dependent eligible for Transfer of Entitlement under the Post-9/11 GI Bill® based on the service eligibility criteria listed above.

We encourage all Veterans to review the eligibility criteria directly from the VA's website at http://www.benefits.va.gov/gibill/yellow_ribbon.asp.

What are McGeorge's Yellow Ribbon Benefits?

Only McGeorge students are eligible to participate in the Yellow Ribbon Program at McGeorge School of Law.

- This award will be offered to a maximum of 60 eligible McGeorge veterans
- They will receive up to 100% of the unmet established charges (tuition & student fees) per academic year
- The actual amount will vary based on the number of units taken and charged for each semester. Under the Yellow Ribbon Program, the Department of Veterans Affairs will then match McGeorge's contributions made to the eligible veterans each academic year that the University participates in the program.

How will McGeorge select Yellow Ribbon Program benefit recipients?

Students will be selected for the Yellow Ribbon Program award based on a first come first serve basis, determined by the date and time your application is received by the V.A. Representative (Registrar's Office). Once the maximum awards available (60) have been offered, no additional Yellow Ribbon Program awards will be offered by McGeorge until a Yellow Ribbon recipient graduates.

How Do I Apply for Yellow Ribbon Benefits under Post-9/11 GI Bill®?

The Department of Veterans Affairs is now processing applications for the Post-9/11 GI Bill®. Interested students should complete and submit the application form online at <http://www.gibill.va.gov> (<http://www.gibill.va.gov/>).

To complete an application online, you will need the University of the Pacific, Sacramento Campus VA Code number: 3-1-8912-05.

You will receive written notification explaining the VA's decision regarding your eligibility for the Post-9/11 GI Bill® and the Yellow Ribbon program. If you are eligible, you will receive a Certificate of Eligibility (COE) that specifies you are "potentially eligible for the Yellow Ribbon Program." The final funding decision, however, will be made by Pacific.

For questions regarding COE, contact the veteran's administration at 1.888.GIBILL1 (1.888.442.4551) to speak with an Education Case Manager.

Once you receive your COE and are deemed potentially eligible for the Yellow Ribbon Program, complete Pacific's Yellow Ribbon Application (pdf) (<http://www.mcgeorge.edu/Documents/yellowRibbonApplication.pdf>) and submit your COE along with your application to Pacific's Office of the Registrar. Upon receipt of your COE, the Office of the Registrar will verify your eligibility to participate in the Yellow Ribbon Program.

How will I know if I have received the Yellow Ribbon Program benefit from McGeorge?

If you receive a Yellow Ribbon award, it will be coordinated into your financial aid award in accordance with all federal, state and institutional rules and regulations. You will be notified of the award by e-mail, from Pacific's Sacramento Campus certifying official.

How is this benefit applied to my student account?

The McGeorge portion of your Yellow Ribbon award will credit to your account once you meet all enrollment and disbursement requirements.

The VA match of your Yellow Ribbon award will be issued directly to the law school on your behalf after your enrollment certification is processed by the VA.

Will my Yellow Ribbon Award be renewed?

McGeorge will offer you a Yellow Ribbon Program award as long as the following apply:

- McGeorge continues to participate in the Yellow Ribbon Program (The University of the Pacific's participation in the Yellow Ribbon program is voluntary. McGeorge may choose to change the contribution amount offered in future years or may choose not to participate in the program altogether.)
- You remain in good academic standing as defined in the McGeorge Academic Catalog and Student Handbook
- You have not been disciplined under the McGeorge Code of Student Responsibility
- You have remaining entitlement as defined by the VA

For Additional Information

The University of the Pacific is an independent institution. Each student is charged tuition that covers about three-fourths of the cost of services furnished by the University. The balance of these costs is met by income from endowment and by gifts from regents, parents, alumni, and other friends who are interested in the type of education this institution provides.

Overall Costs for the School Year

The annual expenses for a student at the University of the Pacific depends upon a variety of factors. Tuition and fees are the same for students regardless of their state or country of residence. Basic expenses are as follows:

Type	Cost
Tuition (1) per academic year, enrolled in 12 to 18 units in each semester	$48,904
Wellness Center	$330
ASUOP Student Fee	$274
Activity & Recreation Fee	$80
Room and Board	$13,408
Total per academic year	$62,996
School of Pharmacy Annual Tuition (Eleven-month program, three terms)	$78,354

¹ Arthur A. Dugoni School of Dentistry and McGeorge School of Law tuition and fee schedules are available in the Sacramento and San Francisco catalogs.

There are other fees and charges unique to certain programs. These fees or charges may be determined by contacting Student Accounts or the University office that administers those programs or activities in which the student intends to enroll or engage.

Expenses for books and supplies, special fees, and personal expenses usually average approximately $5,157 annually.

The University reserves the right to change fees, modify its services or change its programs at any time and without prior notice.

Tuition – Undergraduate Students (per semester)

All schools except Pharmacy and Health Sciences

Financial Responsibility

Registration, when accepted by the University of the Pacific, constitutes a financial agreement between the student and the University. Registration is considered complete when the bill has been settled. Tuition, fees and other charges the student incurs including but not limited to, housing, meal plans, and bookstore charges are added to the student account and are considered a loan for an educational benefit.

When you register for courses with the University of the Pacific, you are responsible for all “charges” as they become due. The charges include but are not limited to tuition, fees, room and board, meal plans, Laptop Agreement, bookstore charges and library charges (herein “charges”). These charges are for your educational benefit and if you fail to satisfy your financial obligation to the University you will not be provided any benefits from the University. The benefits which may be terminated include but are not limited to, course registration, housing and meal plans, transcripts and diplomas. Any outstanding charges due on your student account will be transferred to a Student Note Loan balance with the Student Loan Department, of the University of the Pacific for servicing. This Student Note Loan balance is subject to daily interest, late fees, collection fees, credit bureau reporting and any legal fees or costs associated with any bankruptcy. Failure to pay these charges when due will result in loss of housing, suspension of meal plans, termination of enrolled student status and will result in being denied access to the deferred payment plan options. It is your responsibility to ensure that all financial aid is properly credited to your account. The University reserves the right to increase their fees and charges. Registration constitutes my agreement to all the forgoing terms and conditions.

You agree, in order for us to service your account or to collect any amounts you may owe, we may contact you by telephone at any telephone number associated with your account, including wireless telephone numbers, which could result in charges to you. We may also contact you by sending text messages or e-mails, using any e-mail address you provide to us. Methods of contact may include using pre-recorded/artificial voice messages and/or use of an automatic dialing device, as applicable. I have read this disclosure and agree that the University of the Pacific or its appointed agents may contact me as described above.

In order to receive a bill that includes tuition and fees prior to the payment deadline, you must early register for courses. Please note that students with delinquent accounts are not permitted to register. It is the students' responsibility to pay by the deadline, regardless of receiving a statement. Students can obtain their current account balance by logging into insidePacific. The University sends monthly electronic billing statements. Students receive a monthly email notifying them that their statement is ready for viewing. This statement notification email is also sent to any Authorized Users that the student establishes. Authorized Users do not have access to any other student information through this site. The billing statement can be printed from the computers located in the lobby of the Finance Center or by a request to the Student Accounts Office.

All electronic correspondence is sent to the student's u.pacific.edu email address.

A dispute of any charge on your student account must be submitted in writing to the Student Accounts Office within sixty days from the date of billing. If you fail to comply within the sixty day time period, you may forfeit your rights to dispute the charge in the future.

Payment of Bills

Tuition, fees, and room and board, if applicable, are due in full by the payment deadline. The payment deadlines are August 1st for the fall semester and January 1st for the spring semester for general students. Payment deadline information for other programs is available online on the Student Business Services website located at go.pacific.edu/studentaccounts. Any outstanding balances from prior semesters must be paid in full as well as the current semester payment, by the deadline. Students who have not yet registered can estimate their payment amount by utilizing the Calculation Worksheets available at the Student Business Services website. Payments for the intended enrollment must be made by the deadline, even if the student has not completed their course registration. Late fees will be assessed for payments received after the deadline. Failure to complete financial obligations can result in the cancellation of registration.

The University offers two payment options. The first is payment in full of all charges, less any applicable financial aid, by the deadline. The second option is a four month payment plan. The Monthly Plan requires a 25% down payment in addition to a $75 non-refundable, deferred fee per semester. Those who utilize the monthly payment plan must enroll online through insidePacific by the payment deadline. In order for a parent or guardian to enroll in the monthly payment plan, their student must officially establish them as an Authorized User. Subsequent monthly payments are due by the first of the month.

International students may not utilize the monthly payment plan. Payment in full is required by the payment deadline.

It is the student's responsibility to ensure that all financial aid is properly credited to his/her account.

Payments can be made by cash, paper check, money order, cashiers check, and electronic checks. Payments must be received by the deadline; postmarks are not acceptable. Payments by check or cash can be made in person at the Cashiers Office, located in the Finance Center. If making payment by mail, please send check or money order to the attention of Student Accounts. Please include the student's university identification number or send a copy of the statement, which can be downloaded and printed, in order to ensure proper payment application.

Students who have not paid in full, completed all financial aid requirements and/or enrolled in the monthly payment plan by the payment deadline, are assessed a $150 late payment fee. A late fee of $50 is assessed for any payments made after the due date.

Failure to make payments as agreed can result in the University of the Pacific canceling all financial arrangements, a student's registration, and denying all University services.

Any payment on the student account that is returned by a financial institution for any reason can lead to cancellation of registration. If registration is cancelled for the semester, the student will not receive credit for those courses. A returned payment fee of $25 is assessed for the first returned payment. Any payment returned subsequently is assessed a $35 returned payment fee. After two (2) returned payments, the University can suspend both electronic and paper check writing privileges and institute collection and/or legal actions against the payer. The student's account is then placed on a finance hold thus preventing the student from receiving any services from the University.

The University requires that all accounts be paid in full by the end of the semester. Any account that remains delinquent is transferred to the Student Loan Department for servicing. Once the account is transferred, the Student Account Note or balance is subject but not limited to, principal, interest, late charges, collection fees, credit bureau reporting, and any legal fees associated with the collection of the debt. In accordance with California state law, all unpaid balances accrue 10% interest, per annum, on the balance remaining on the date of transfer. Students are responsible for all fees associated in the collection of the debt. A student with a balance due to the University is not allowed any benefits from the University including but not limited to, registration for courses, copies of transcripts or diplomas, and utilization of University housing and meals, until the balance is paid in full. In addition, all institutional loans or other loans guaranteed by the Federal Government must be in good (current) standing and exit interviews completed prior to the release of diploma or transcripts.

If payments exceed charges on a student account, the account is said to have a credit balance. Credit balances are to be returned to the student based upon the method of payment. The student account is not to be used as a means for cash advances or payments to third parties. Upon request, credit balances resulting from cash payments will be refunded to the student. A credit balance that results from a check payment is refunded after 14 business days. Credit balances that result from refundable student loans and scholarships are also refunded upon request. All financial aid must be disbursed on the student account before a refund is processed. Refunds are issued on a weekly basis.

Effective August 1, 2019, any student using CH31 (Vocational Rehabilitation and Employment benefits) or CH33 (Post-9/11 G.I. Bill) is protected from any penalties imposed by our University while waiting for the VA to make tuition and fee payments.

Refund of Tuition and Fees

The following refund schedule pertains only to tuition charges and is applicable when the student drops below full time enrollment or officially withdraws from the University. Students who intend to withdraw must notify the Office of the Registrar.

Refunds are based upon a percentage of calendar days. Calendar days of a semester may vary from semester to semester. For exact dates, please refer to the Student Accounts website or contact their office.

Notification and withdrawal before classes begin – No charge.

First day of classes until last day to add – $150 clerical charge.

After 50% of calendar days no refund, 100% penalty.

Fees are non-refundable after the last day to add courses for the semester.

Housing and meal plan charges are refunded on a prorated basis as determined by the Office of Residential Life & Housing. Refunds are based upon per diem charges and actual approved check out date.

If the student reducing units or withdrawing from the University is a financial aid recipient, the student’s financial aid award may be adjusted according to federal and state regulations and University policy. If the student has received more federal financial aid dollars than earned, the unearned aid must be returned to the federal financial aid program or programs from which it was paid. The funds remaining on the student account after federal financial aid is returned might not cover all the charges on the account. Any remaining balance is owed to the University and is due and payable immediately. The Financial Aid Office can provide additional information related to changes in financial aid awards.

Health Insurance is a Mandatory Fee for all students enrolled in six (6) or more units. Students may opt out of the University provided health insurance by completing an online waiver, and providing acceptable proof of comparable health coverage by the announced deadline.

If you would like to “opt-out” of the plan and can provide proof of other comparable health insurance, you may waive participation in the plan by completing the Online Waiver Form available at www.pacific.edu/insuranceoffice.xml (<http://www.pacific.edu/insuranceoffice.xml>).

The Wellness Fee is a Mandatory Fee for all students physically attending on campus. The cost is $165/semester (fall & spring) for students taking 9+ units and $90/semester for students taking less than 5.5 units. Summer Wellness Fee TBD

Financial Responsibility Acceptance

All students are required to complete the Financial Responsibility acceptance for each term they register for classes. If you did not accept Financial Responsibility during the registration process for the current term, please follow these instructions to meet the requirement:

To complete via mobile device:

- Log into insidePacific
- Expand the menu at top of the page (three lines in upper left)
- Select the Sacramento Students Link
- Select the Pacific Today Link
- Go to the Financial Responsibility Acceptance box and click on the link to accept financial responsibility
- Select the current term e.g. LAW Fall 2020 (in the drop down)
- Read the statement and click on the “I Accept” button.

In the event, you do not accept Financial Responsibility at the time of registration, or prior to classes beginning, your account will be placed on Financial Hold (FH), which will prohibit you from registering for courses and/or changing your registration.

Electronic acceptance of Financial Responsibility is the University’s preferred method to meet this requirement, but in the unseen event of technical difficulties you can find a hard copy of the form here Financial Responsibility Acceptance Form (pdf) (http://catalog.pacific.edu/sacramento/tuitionandfees/FINANCIAL_RESPONSIBILITY_ACCEPTANCE_FORM_McGeorge_MAL_6-22-2016.pdf). If you are unable to complete the form through insidePacific, please sign and date the hard copy and submit it to the Business Office for our records.

Payment Deadline

Enrollment constitutes a financial contract between you and the University of the Pacific, Sacramento campus. All tuition and fees for each semester are due no later than five (5) days following the end of the Add/Drop period for that semester. Summer school tuition and fees are due on the first day of the session in which you are enrolled. If at any point during the semester you incur additional charges after the add/drop period, you must pay the balance due within five (5) days. Failure to pay your balance or make a satisfactory payment arrangement with the University of the Pacific, Sacramento campus before the balance becomes past due will result in a late fee assessment. For more information on Housing related charges and penalties associated with failure to pay please see the section below on Housing Payment Deadlines.

Your rights to University of the Pacific, Sacramento campus services and benefits are contingent upon your making all payments in a timely manner as stated above. If payment of amounts owed to University of the Pacific Sacramento campus is not made when due, we have the right to administratively withdraw you, direct you not to attend class, withhold your grades, diplomas, scholastic certificates, and not release your exams. Failure to maintain good financial standing with University of the Pacific Sacramento campus, as evidenced by failure to make timely payments of any and all balances due, will also result in denied participation in any deferred payment plans and/or some forms of institutional financial aid. Further, failure to maintain good financial standing may be reported to any state bar to which you may seek admission.

If you withdraw or are dismissed during the year, all outstanding obligations become due and payable on the termination date. No adjustment of tuition will be made for late enrollment, absences from class, leaves of absence for a portion of a semester, or when a student has been dismissed or suspended by official action of the University of the Pacific, Sacramento campus.

Effective August 1, 2019, any student using CH31 (Vocational Rehabilitation and Employment benefits) or CH33 (Post-9/11 G.I. Bill) is protected from any penalties imposed by our University while waiting for the VA to make tuition and fee payments.

Housing Charges and Payment Deadlines

Rent is due on the 1st of each month. If your rent is not paid by the 5th of the month you will be assessed a late fee of $20 by the Housing Office. Your account will be assessed an additional late fee for unpaid rent and other miscellaneous housing charges (garage fee, utilities, etc.) based on the schedule in the Late Fee section below. Please refer to your rental agreement for disciplinary actions for failure to pay. You may inquire with the housing department of the campus about rent deferrals and if you qualify to have your rent deducted from your loans before refunds are disbursed.

Students with Loans

The Business Office will verify with the Financial Aid Office any amount of loan money you will be receiving if any. Upon verification of the loan proceeds, tuition that will be covered by the funds will be deferred until receipt of the funds. Loan funds will be applied directly to the tuition account for all courses for the term. Payment, for any portion not covered by loan disbursement, is due by the date specified in the Payment Deadline section below.

Method of Payment

Students may pay by e-check, paper check, cashier's check, cash, money order or credit card (Visa, MasterCard, Discover or American Express). If paying by credit card or e-check, you may process your payment through insidePacific. Payments in the form of cash, check or credit card can be made in person in the Business Office. Paper checks may be mailed to the Business Office. Please ensure to include the student's University ID on the check so it can be applied timely and accurately.

If you make any payments by credit/debit card (including, but not limited to tuition, fees, and housing charges) and additional financial aid is received after those payments were made, we are bound by our merchant agreement to refund credit card payments before issuing a refund to you. Any credit/debit card payments made within 180 days of the date the credit occurred on the account are returned first, and any additional credit is refunded to the student second.

International Payments

University of the Pacific partners with Western Union Business Solutions to provide international students an alternative method for paying student bills. This option allows payments to be made in the currency of choice (providing it is available in the Western Union currency list) and provides a simple and reliable way of initiating payments electronically.

University of the Pacific Policy Regarding Over Payments

University of the Pacific is not a financial institution. Payments directed to us should be rendered for the amount due based upon a University invoice, or the expected amount of tuition, institutional fees and on-campus housing while you are in attendance. Payments for off-campus housing or other personal living expenses should be directed to your personal bank account, not the University's bank account. Please note: payments received in excess of the amount billed will either be placed on deposit for an upcoming semester, or the payment will be returned to the sender. In the case of wire transfers, the wire transfer will be reversed to return funds back to the originating account.

International Funds Transfer (IFT)

International Funds Transfer (IFT) offers favorable exchange rates and eliminates bank fees typically charged for wire transfers. In ePay, payment in foreign currencies are made via Western Union Business Solutions and automatically posted to the student account once received. See International Funds Transfer (pdf).

Late Fees

Fee Amount: 2.5% late fee not to exceed $100

Fall/Spring Fee Assessment Frequency: Tuition & fees are to be paid in full no later than five days following the final day of the add/drop period for the current semester, or students must have an Installment Plan on file by the same date (five days after the add/drop period). Late fees will be assessed on the sixth day after the final day of the add/drop period and every billing cycle thereafter on the entire balance due. Please see the billing cycle located in the Billing section. If there is a charge on your account that you are disputing you will need to notify the Business Office in writing (SAC_busoffice@pacific.edu) immediately to prevent a late fee from being assessed on the disputed amount.

Additional charges incurred by students following the final day of the add/drop period for the current semester are to be paid in full within five days after the charges are posted to the student account. If a student has an Installment Plan on file in the Business Office they can add additional charges to the plan by completing an Installment Plan Amendment form within the five business days. Late fees will be assessed based on the following schedules:

Summer Session Late Fee Assessment Frequency: Tuition and fees are to be paid in full on the first day of the session.

Pacific/Sacramento does not offer the deferred payment plan during the summer semester. Late fees will be assessed the next business day and every 30 days thereafter until the balance is paid.

On-Campus Summer 2020 Advanced trial Advocacy Session 1: Payment due in full on May 12.

On-Campus Summer 2020 Session 2: Payment due in full on May 26

On-Campus Summer 2020 Session 3: Payment due in full on June 22.

Summer Abroad Session Fee Assessment: Fees associated with the Salzburg Summer programs are due in full on the first day of the program. Pacific/Sacramento does not offer the deferred payment plan during the summer semester. Late fees will be assessed the following business day and every 30 days thereafter until the balance is paid in full.

Additional charges for any summer session that occurs after the first day of class are due the next business day after the charge is assessed on the student account. Late fees for additional charges will be assessed based upon the academic year billing cycles, which can be found under the Billing section of this document.

Late Fee Grievance: All grievances relating to late fees are to be made by completing a Late Fee Grievance Form and submitting the form to the Business Office for consideration. All balances, less the late fee in dispute and any charge that you have notified the Business Office that you are disputing, must be paid in full prior to submitting a late fee grievance form. Forms can be emailed, faxed or delivered in person to the Business Office. Forms will be processed within five business days of receipt and an email notification will be sent to the students' Pacific email account regarding the decision.

Installment Plan

Installment Plans for Academic Year 2020 - 2021

Installment Plan: An installment plan to pay tuition and fees is offered to all students except for those who are attending McGeorge on an F-1 or J-1 visa. Each student that elects to participate in the Installment Payment Plan must sign a contract with the Business Office by the dates outlined below. Students who receive Financial Aid may also elect to participate in this plan to pay off any remaining balance on tuition and fees. Additional charges incurred after the set-up of the installment plan can be added by completing an Installment Plan Amendment Form with the Business Office. The Business Office will not make any changes to contracts unless the amendment form has been submitted and approved. If the Installment Plan Amendment Form is not completed the additional charges are due in full no later than five business days after the charge has been posted to the students' account.

If there is a failure to make any of the scheduled payments, as outlined by the signed contract, University of the Sacramento campus will assess a late fee, withdraw the student from the current term and may declare the unpaid balance to be in default and demand immediate payment of the entire unpaid balance including: principal, accrued interest, late fees and any applicable collection fee's. Collection costs shall not exceed 30% of the principal, interest and late fees at the time of acceleration.

Because of the short time frame, we do not offer Installment Plans during the summer sessions.

Installment Plan A: This installment plan allows the student to pay tuition and fees in four equal installments. There is a $40 set-up fee and the student must elect to participate in this plan by the dates in the schedules below:

Fall 2020 Installment Plan A Due Dates

¹ Late fees are 2.5% (not to exceed $100).

Withdrawal & Transfer of Division

Students who withdraw or transfer divisions after a semester begins will have their tuition adjusted according to the schedule below. Students who change divisions and who receive institutional scholarships will have their scholarship reduced/prorated using the percentage of tuition charges below. Please see the financial aid office before making a final decision to ensure you understand your financial obligations.

Fall/Spring Semester

- Week 1 = 100% Refund
- Week 2 = 60% Refund
- Week 3 = 40% Refund
- Week 4 = 25% Refund
- Week 5 and after = 0% Refund

Summer Sessions

- Day 1 = 100% Refund
- Day 2 = 60% Refund
- Day 3 = 40% Refund
- Day 4 = 25% Refund
- Day 5 and after = 0% Refund

Billing Schedule

Bills are generated electronically based on the schedule below. If you have an outstanding bill or have had activity within the previous month, an electronic statement will be generated and an email will be sent to your University of the Pacific account. A "dynamic" bill which provides detail of all your student account activity can be viewed at any time by logging onto insidePacific.

Tuition/Fee payments are due 5 days after the add/drop period for the semester; the fifth day may be on a weekend, however you have the ability to make online payments.

Refunds

If payments are made by credit/debit card (including, but not limited to tuition, fees and housing charges) and additional financial aid is received after those payments were made, we are bound by our merchant agreement to refund credit card payments before issuing a refund to you. Any credit/debit card payments made within 180 days of the date the credit occurred on the account are returned first, and any additional credit is refunded to the student second.

Any credit balance on your account, which is not impacted by our credit card merchant agreement or as a result of an IFT or wire payment for personal expenses (please see the University policy regarding over-payments above), will be returned to you in the form of a Refund Disbursement; At the beginning of each semester, the McGeorge Business office will begin to process student refunds after the Add/Drop period has ended (typically the second week of the semester). During the rest of the semester, the Business Office refund disbursement schedule will follow the University of the Pacific's check runs which occur on Monday and Wednesday nights. Refunds generated as a result of net financial aid will be mailed to your mailing address on file with the Office of the Registrar. Please allow a delay of up to five (5) business days to receive Refund Disbursements via a paper check. Students that elect to receive Direct Deposit of these disbursements will receive the money typically within three (3) business days. All charges must be paid in full before refunds can be issued from any form of financial aid.

Title IV Authorization to Release Non-Institutional Charges (and prior year charges) Form

In order to use financial aid to cover any charges not directly related to taking a class such as health insurance, bookstore charges, library fines, student locker fees, parking fees, card replacement fees, or returned check fees, the McGeorge Business office must have a completed Title

IV Authorization Form (pdf) (<http://mcgeorge.edu/Documents/Forms/McGTitleIVAuthorization.pdf>) prior to funding being disbursed.

Course Add or Drop

Students can add/drop a course during the first week of each semester without penalty, or on the first day of each Summer session. Please note that additional tuition charges may result from add/drop actions.

University Policy on Disclosure of Student Records

Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (Buckley Amendment)

The University of the Pacific complies with The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (abbreviated FERPA and formerly known as the Buckley Amendment). Educational institutions are required to annually notify enrolled students of their rights under the Federal Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (FERPA), as amended. This page fulfills this obligation and serves as the annual FERPA notification to students at the University of the Pacific, by providing information about the university policy and students' rights with respect to their education records.

"Student" means an individual who is or who has been in attendance at University of the Pacific. A student or resident's FERPA rights begin when the student or resident registers and attends his/her first class. It does not include any applicant for admission to the university who does not matriculate, even if he or she previously attended the university. (Please note, however, that such an applicant would be considered a "student" with respect to his or her records relating to that previous attendance. Students or residents who originally sought admission to one program of study at the university and are denied, but subsequently are admitted and enrolled in a different program of study, have FERPA rights only in their admitted and enrolled program of study.) "Education records" include those records that contain information directly related to a student and that are maintained as official working files by the University. Examples of records that are not education records are records about students made by instructors, professors and administrators for their own use and not shown to others; campus police records maintained solely for law enforcement purposes and kept separate from the education records described above; employment records, except where a currently enrolled student is employed as a result of his or her status as a student; records of a physician, psychologist, or other recognized professional or paraprofessional made or used only for treatment purposes and available only to persons providing treatment; records that contain only information relating to a person's activities after that person is no longer a student at the university.

It is the policy of the university (1) to permit students to inspect their education records, (2) to limit disclosure of personally identifiable information from education records without students' prior written consent, and (3) to provide students the opportunity to seek correction of their education records where appropriate. A student alleging university noncompliance with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act has the right to file a written complaint with the Family Policy Compliance Office:

Family Policy Compliance Office
U.S. Department of Education
400 Maryland Avenue, SW
Washington, D.C. 20202-5920

1. Students have the right to inspect and review their education records within 45 days after the day that University of the Pacific receives the request for access.

Each student has a right of access to his or her education records, except confidential letters of recommendation received prior to January 1, 1975, and financial records of the student's parents. A student may, by a signed writing, waive his or her right of access to confidential recommendations in three areas: admission to any educational institution, job placement, and receipt of honors and awards. The university does not require such waivers as a condition for admission or receipt of any service or benefit. If the student chooses to waive his or her right of access, he or she is notified, upon written request, of the names of all persons making confidential recommendations. Such recommendations are used only for the purpose for which they were specifically intended. A waiver may be revoked in writing at any time, and the revocation applies to all subsequent recommendations, but not to recommendations received while the waiver was in effect.

Procedure to be Followed:

Requests for access should be made in writing to the Office of the Registrar, and should specify the record(s) the student wishes to inspect. The University complies with a request for access within a reasonable time, at least within 45 days. The Registrar's Office will make arrangements for access and notify the student of the time and place where the records may be inspected.

2. University of the Pacific limits disclosure of personally identifiable information from education records unless it has the student's prior written consent, subject to the following limitations and exclusions.

Directory Information. In accordance with the FERPA, the University has the right to release Directory Information without the student's or resident's prior written consent. The University gives annual public notice to students of the categories of information designated as directory information. This information may appear in public documents or otherwise be disclosed even in the absence of consent unless the student files written notice requesting the University not to disclose any of the categories by the opt-out date, which is three weeks after the first day of the first term of enrollment. While students may opt out at any point subsequent to the opt-out date, late opt-outs will not apply retroactively to information previously released. To block the release of this information ('opt out'), a student must submit a Request for Non-Release of Directory Information (<https://www.pacific.edu/Documents/registrar/acrobat/Non-Release%20of%20Directory%20Information7112018.pdf>) Form (<http://www.pacific.edu/Documents/registrar/acrobat/ferpa-non-release-directory-info.pdf>). The University of the Pacific has designated as "directory information" the following items.

- Student's name
- University ID number
- Mailing and local address
- Telephone number
- E-mail address
- Photograph/Video
- Date and place of birth
- Degrees, honors, and awards
- Major field of study
- Grade level
- Campus of study (Stockton, Sacramento, or San Francisco)
- Dates of attendance, including matriculation and graduation
- Enrollment status (undergraduate, predoctoral, graduate, full-, part-time)
- Most recent educational agency or institution attended
- Participation in officially recognized activities and sports
- Weight and height of members of athletic teams

University Officials. One exception, which permits disclosure without consent, is disclosure to University officials with legitimate educational interests. At Pacific, "University official" is defined as (1) a person employed by the University or in an administrative, supervisory, academic or research, or support staff position (including law enforcement unit personnel and health staff); (2) a person or company with whom the University has contracted (such as an attorney, auditor, or collection agent); (3) a person serving on the Board of Regents; (4) a student serving on an official University committee (academic, grievance, or disciplinary) or assisting another University official in performing his or her tasks. A university official has a legitimate educational interest if the official needs to review an education record in order to fulfill his or her professional responsibilities for University of the Pacific.

Prior Consent Not Required. FERPA allows additional exceptions to the written consent requirement for disclosure of education records to third parties. Some of these exceptions are listed below:

- To officials of another school in which a student seeks or intends to enroll, or where the student is already enrolled so long as the disclosure is for purposes related to the student's enrollment or transfer.
- To an alleged victim of any crime of violence of the results of any institutional disciplinary proceeding against the alleged perpetrator of that crime with respect to that crime.
- In response to a court order or subpoena, the University makes reasonable efforts to notify the student before complying with the court order.
- Appropriate parties in connection with an emergency, where knowledge of the information is necessary to protect the health or safety of the student or other individuals;
- Parents of a student who is a dependent for income tax purposes. (Note: The University may require documentation of dependent status such as copies of income tax forms.)
- Accrediting organizations for purposes necessary to carry out their functions;

- Organizations conducting educational studies for the purpose of developing, validating, or administering predictive tests, administering student aid programs, and improving instruction. The studies are conducted so as not to permit personal identification of students to outsiders, and the information is destroyed when no longer needed for these purposes;
- State and local officials to which such information is specifically required to be reported.
- Authorized persons and organizations that are given work in connection with a student's application for, or receipt of, financial aid, but only to the extent necessary for such purposes as determining eligibility, amount, conditions, and enforcement of terms and conditions;
- Authorized representatives of the Comptroller General of the U.S., the Secretary of Education, the Secretary of the Department of Health and Human Services, the Director of the National Institute of Education, the Administrator of the Veterans' Administration, but only in connection with the audit or evaluation of federally supported education programs, or in connection with the enforcement of or compliance with Federal legal requirements relating to these programs. Subject to controlling Federal law or prior consent, these officials protect information received so as not to permit personal identification of students to outsiders and destroy such information when it is no longer needed for these purposes;

Prior Consent Required. Where FERPA does not allow exceptions to the written consent requirement, the University does not release personally identifiable information in education records or allow access to those records without prior consent of the student. Unless disclosure is to the student himself or herself, the consent must be written, signed, and dated, and must specify the records to be disclosed, the identity of the recipient, and the purpose of disclosure. A copy of the record disclosed is provided to the student upon request and at his or her expense.

The University, along with the student's education records, maintains a record for each request and each disclosure, except for the following:

1. disclosures to the student himself or herself;
2. disclosures pursuant to the written consent of the student (the written consent itself suffices as a record);
3. disclosures to school officials of the University.
4. disclosures of directory information.

This record of disclosures may be inspected by the student, the official custodian of the records, and other university and governmental officials.

3. University of the Pacific provides students the opportunity to seek correction of their education records.

A student who believes that information contained in his or her education records is inaccurate, misleading, or violative of privacy or other rights may submit a written request to the Office of the Registrar specifying the document(s) being challenged and the basis for the complaint. The request will be sent to the person responsible for any amendments to the record in question. Within a reasonable period of time of receipt of the request, the University decides whether to amend the records in accordance with the request. If the decision is to refuse to amend, the student is so notified and is advised of the right to a hearing. He or she may then exercise that right by written request to the Office of the Registrar. Within a reasonable time of receipt of the request, the student will be notified in writing of the date, place, and time reasonably in advance of the hearing. The hearing will be conducted by a university official who does not have a direct interest in the outcome. The student will have a full and fair opportunity to present evidence relevant to the issues raised and may be assisted or represented by individuals of his or her choice at his or her own expense, including an attorney. Within a reasonable period of time after the conclusion of the hearing, the University will notify the student in writing of its decision. The decision will be based solely upon evidence presented at the hearing and will include a summary of the evidence and the reasons for the decision. If the University decides that the information is inaccurate, misleading, or otherwise in violation of the privacy or other rights of the student, the University will amend the records accordingly. If, as a result of the hearing, the University decides that the information is not inaccurate, misleading, or otherwise in violation of the student's rights, the University will inform the student of the right to place in his or her record a statement commenting on the information and/or explaining any reasons for disagreeing with the University's decision. Any such explanation will be kept as part of the student's record as long as the contested portion of the record is kept and will be disclosed whenever the contested portion of the record is disclosed.

Basic Education Policies

Master of Arts Degree

Graduate students who wish to secure a Master of Arts degree with a major in Education must meet the requirements specified for all Master of Arts degrees. Students should consult with the assigned advisor within the first semester of enrollment to develop a plan of study. Benerd College offers one Master of Arts degree with different concentrations (please refer to the MA program information page).

Doctor of Education Degree

The EdD degree is designed to ensure that each graduate possesses a deep understanding of foundational issues; key theories related to the student's academic focus; historic and emerging research related to student's academic focus; critical issues of research, policy, and practice; moral dimensions of research, policy, and practice; leadership challenges and opportunities; and methods and limitations of research. The degree is also designed to ensure that the candidate can identify key issues and problems and engage in focused and systematic research into problems and related questions. Further, the degree is designed to ensure that graduates possess leadership competencies including verbal and written communication skills; professional maturity; personal discipline; and social and emotional intelligence competencies.

Graduate students who wish to secure a Doctor of Education (EdD) degree with a major in Education must meet the requirements specified for all Doctor of Education degrees. Students should consult with the assigned program advisor within the first semester of enrollment to develop a plan of study. Although there is only one EdD degree, students may elect a specialization concentration and one or more cognate concentrations. Candidates who seek EdD degrees must also complete a doctoral dissertation and register for a minimum of 2 and a maximum of 5 units of EDUC 399. Please refer to the EdD program information page for more information about courses.

Education Courses

EDUC 010. Dean's Seminar. 1 Unit.

A basic introduction to the career of teaching and the programs and methodologies of the Benerd College including educational requirements, professional orientation, career opportunities and school and university regulations.

EDUC 011. Children's Literature. 3 Units.

Students examine various genres of quality literature for children from preschool through eighth grade. Emphasis is on how books affect the growing child and on ways to develop children's appreciation and comprehension of stories as well as to extend their subject matter knowledge.

EDUC 100. Introduction to Language. 4 Units.

This course is an introduction to the central role of language in cultures and societies. Emphasis is on social and regional language variation, language and prejudice, gender and social class differences in conversation styles, the history and evolution of languages, and societal attitudes toward language and socio-political-economic influences on language use. Students gain more precision in their academic language development as they explore English grammatical structures and develop an appreciation of the work sociolinguists do through conversational analysis. As part of the University of the Pacific's general education program (1-A), this is a library intensive course. This means that students do library research, using online and other sources to meet some of the course requirements. (GE1A)

EDUC 121X. Learner-Centered Concerns. 3 Units.

This course is a general overview of stages in human development from birth to young adulthood. Topics include prominent learning and motivation theories, learner-centered principles of teaching and assessment, the characteristics of learners with exceptional needs, and individual differences among learners including English language learners. Students who are interested in Multiple Subject, Single Subject and/or Educational Specialist credentials take this course. Twenty hours of fieldwork in K-12 public schools is required. Open to all students.

EDUC 129. Seminar: Cultural Basis of Conflict in Education. 3 Units.

Analysis of cultural diversity in American classrooms. Not open to doctoral students. (ETHC)

EDUC 130. Technology Enhanced Learning Environments. 2 Units.

This course focuses on basic skills and software for creating multimedia projects, completing assignments in all education courses, and meeting the state's technology standards for teachers. All assignments in this course relate to building the structure and first section of a candidate's teacher education electronic portfolio. Thereafter, candidates add sections to the portfolio during other courses and activities in their programs of study, which includes evidence that they have met the state's technology standards. Upon graduation, the portfolios are archived in the BSE, and candidates can create a DVD of their entire portfolio or of parts they wish to use. This course is a prerequisite to Admission to Teacher Education.

EDUC 131. First and Second Language Acquisition/Linguistic Foundations. 4 Units.

This course is an introduction to first and second language development, using a compare and contrast framework. It covers theoretical perspectives in first and second language acquisition and explores the relationship between theories and practice in language learning and teaching. This course addresses pedagogical implications of various theories of second language acquisition and discusses socio-cultural factors that influence second language learning. In addition, there is particular attention given to language structure (phonology, morphology, semantics, and syntax) as it relates to the language development of native speakers of English as well as English language learners. This course includes a fieldwork component for which students work with young elementary students off campus once a week during the semester. Prerequisite: EDUC 100.

EDUC 140. Transformational Teaching and Learning. 4 Units.

This is an introductory course that explores the complex relationships within and among local, state, and national levels of public instruction. The course introduces historical, legal, and social issues that affect diverse educational settings. Topics include key movements and legal cases of prominence in American education; demographic information about learners and schools in California; home, family and school partnerships; and professional stages in teaching careers (e.g., subject matter preparation, teacher education, initial licensure, induction programs, and professional development). The course also includes an introduction to “reflective practice”; an overview of stages in human development; prominent learning and motivation theories; the characteristics of learners with exceptional needs; and individual differences among learners, which include English language learners. This course is taken by students interested in Multiple Subject, Single Subject and/or Educational Specialist credentials. It is a prerequisite to Admission to Teacher Education, but it is open to all students at the University. Fieldwork requires fingerprint review and clearance at local districts and TB clearance. There are fees for these services.

EDUC 141. Transformational Teaching and Learning Practicum. 2 Units.

This supervised practicum is taken concurrently with EDUC 140: Transformational Teaching and Learning. Students examine the community, school, and classroom contexts and how they influence the teaching and learning process. Translation of current learning theories into practice are analyzed and applied. Students interact with K – 12 students and teachers in public school settings.

EDUC 142. Visual Arts in Education. 3 Units.

This course assists students in developing an understanding of the visual arts and how they interface with children’s development through age 18. The course acquaints students with Visual Arts curriculum in the K-12 classroom. A philosophical emphasis is placed upon the interface of visual arts with children’s development. The course explores such concepts and processes as aesthetic perception, creative expression, visual arts heritage and aesthetic valuing, and media and materials, suitable for children through age 18. Prerequisite: Sophomore standing. (GE2C)

EDUC 150. Teaching and Assessment. 4 Units.

This course supports reflective teaching and learner-centered principles and practices in the K-12 schools. The course focuses on state-adopted curriculum standards and frameworks in seven content fields, particularly on the content area of History/Social Science; approaches to classroom management; selection of curriculum materials at the state level; and evaluation. Topics include implementing appropriate teaching strategies for meeting the needs of students with special needs and culturally diverse learners; and using developmentally appropriate diagnostic, formative, and summative assessments to plan instruction. Technology is used to enhance curriculum design and student interaction with content knowledge. This course is taken concurrently with EDUC 153, Teaching STEM, for Multiple Subject candidates. EDUC 150 is taken by Education Specialist candidates. (EDUC 153 is not taken by Special Education candidates, unless they are planning to earn a Multiple Subject Credential.) Prerequisite: EDUC 140. Fingerprint and TB test clearance is required.

EDUC 153. Teaching Science, Technology, Engineering, and Mathematics. 4 Units.

Methods and curriculum presented for teaching science, technology, engineering and mathematics in self-contained classrooms. Topics include state-adopted content standards and curriculum framework; essential mathematics, technology, engineering, life, physical, and earth science themes, concepts, and skills; instructional planning and diverse and appropriate teaching strategies for meeting the needs of diverse learners, including mainstreamed and culturally diverse learners; needs of diverse learners, including mainstreamed and culturally diverse learners; principles and practices of evaluation of students’ learning. Fieldwork is required. Prerequisite: EDUC 140.

EDUC 154. Productive Learning Environments for Diverse Secondary Classrooms. 2 Units.

Core course concepts and activities include using culturally responsive techniques that contribute to productive learning environments and equitable student outcomes. Preservice teachers in this course survey current discipline and management models and practice research-based strategies designed to promote positive classroom behavior. Establishing and maintaining relationships with families, students, and colleagues are explored as well as practices that contribute to teacher well-being and self-care. Prerequisites: Instructor approval or Teacher Education Program permission; minimum 2.5 GPA, fingerprint and TB test clearance.

EDUC 155. Teaching in the Content Areas I. 3 Units.

This is the first of a three-part course for Single Subject credential candidates to develop professional, reflective practices and abilities for teaching in single subject classrooms, especially in secondary schools. Candidates learn and apply current learning theories to planning, instruction, and assessment, focusing on the general knowledge, skills, and dispositions associated with managing contemporary, culturally diverse secondary classroom environments. Candidates begin to learn about specific subject matter content and pedagogy and a variety of instructional and assessment strategies to benefit all learners. The needs of all secondary school students, including English Learners, and characteristics of the school environment are emphasized for fostering effective teaching and learning.

EDUC 156. Content and Disciplinary Literacy Development in Secondary Schools. 3 Units.

This course provides an introduction to research-based content literacy instruction. The course focuses on preparing candidates to teach content-based reading and writing skills to a full range of students which includes struggling readers, students with special needs, and English Learners. A variety of content-based literacy strategies (reading, writing, listening, and speaking) is presented to facilitate learning in the content areas. The course meets credential requirements. Prerequisites: EDUC 140, admission to Credential Candidacy, Instructor/Teacher Education Program permission, fingerprint and TB test clearance.

EDUC 157. TESOL Theory and Practice. 4 Units.

This course provides a link between theory and practice in the teaching of ESL. Aspects of language learning is discussed, and concomitant instruction and curriculum is analyzed while developing a working model for the development of curriculum that is appropriate for the teaching situation.

EDUC 160. Productive Learning Environments for Diverse Classrooms. 2 Units.

Core course concepts and activities include using culturally responsive techniques that contribute to productive learning environments and equitable student outcomes. Preservice teachers in this course survey current discipline and management models and practice research-based strategies designed to promote positive classroom behavior. Establishing and maintaining relationships with families, students, and colleagues are explored as well as practices that contribute to teacher well-being and self-care. Senior standing or permission of instructor.

EDUC 161. Literacy Development (Multiple Subject). 4 Units.

This course introduces methods and curriculum for teaching reading and language arts with integration of humanities and social science for students from kindergarten to eighth grade classrooms. The course focuses on theory-based effective instruction of reading, writing, listening and speaking across the curriculum. Students learn to analyze and evaluate effective literacy skills and strategies in teaching reading, writing, listening and speaking to K-8 students, and to apply and practice these skills and strategies in various instructional settings in various content areas. Emphasis is placed on the integration of reading and language arts throughout the curriculum. Twenty-four hours of fieldwork is required. This course is taken prior to Directed Teaching (Professional Practice). Prerequisite: admission to Teacher Education program with fingerprint and TB test clearance.

EDUC 162. Literacy Assessment (Multiple Subject). 2 Units.

This course investigates the uses of ongoing instructional diagnostic strategies in reading and language arts that guide teaching and assessment. Topics include early intervention techniques appropriate for a classroom setting and guided practice of these techniques. Fieldwork is required and shared with EDUC 161. This course is taken prior to Directed Teaching and may be taken with EDUC 161 concurrently. Prerequisite: admission to Teacher Education with fingerprint and TB test clearance.

EDUC 163. Teaching English Learners. 4 Units.

This course is designed to equip mainstream classroom teachers with the theory, principles, knowledge, and skills to effectively understand and teach English Language Learners at a variety of levels of English proficiency in K-8 classrooms. Teachers will develop appropriate strategies and approaches for developing language proficiency and link their practice to both the California English Language Development Standards and the new Common Core State Standards. Students observe and implement these strategies during their field experiences in order to see, practice, and reflect on effective ways to meet the needs of English learners. Objectives include appropriate assessment, planning, and implementation of sheltered content instruction. Fieldwork hours (160 series fieldwork) specific to this class are required. A grade of C or higher is required for passing this course. Prerequisites: EDUC 100, 140, and 150, or instructor/Teacher Education Program permission; minimum GPA of 2.5; Fingerprint and TB test clearance. (ETHC)

EDUC 164. Introduction to Bilingual Education. 4 Units.

This course provides an overview of bilingual education and is designed to meet the needs of both undergraduate and graduate students who are interested in understanding the role of bilingual, bicultural education in schools. Students explore the related implications of second language acquisition research, sociopolitical theory, and historical as well as contemporary experiences in the contexts of program design, instructional practice, and school/community relations toward a conceptualization of bilingual education as a source of pedagogical enrichment strategies for all learners in all settings. Prerequisites: EDUC 100 and EDUC 131. (ETHC)

EDUC 165. Teaching in the Content Areas II. 2 Units.

This is the second of a multi-course series for Single Subject credential candidates to develop professional, reflective practices and abilities for teaching in single subject classrooms, especially in secondary schools. The emphasis in this course is on content-specific practices. Candidates join their respective professional organizations and participate in those organizations' professional development experiences. In addition to whole class meetings, candidates meet in content-specific seminars with practitioners in their content areas on a regular basis.

EDUC 166. Teaching English Learners, Single Subject. 3 Units.

This course is designed to equip mainstream classroom teachers with the theory, principles, knowledge, and skills to effectively understand and teach English Language Learners at a variety of levels of English proficiency in K-12 classrooms. Teachers develop appropriate strategies and approaches for developing language proficiency and link their practice to the California English Language Development Standards and the new Common Core State Standards. Students observe and implement these strategies during their field experiences in order to see, practice, and reflect on effective ways to meet the needs of English learners. Objectives include appropriate assessment, planning, and implementation of sheltered content instruction. Fieldwork hours (160 series fieldwork) specific to this class are required. A grade of C or higher is required for passing this course. Prerequisites: EDUC 140 or instructor/Teacher Education Program permission; minimum 2.5 GPA; Fingerprint and TB test clearance. (ETHC)

EDUC 167. Adolescent Development. 3 Units.

This course is designed for secondary preservice teachers to consider the principles of adolescent development in context. Biological, cognitive, psychological, social, and moral development are examined to determine how these developmental pathways affect student achievement, motivation, and well being. The influence of family, peers, school, and the broader community on development are explored as well. Implications of current understandings of adolescent development on teaching, learning, and assessment are emphasized. In addition to class meetings, students participate in a practicum in order to apply learning in school settings.

EDUC 168. Microcomputers in Education. 3 Units.

This course introduces the student to the major concepts and applications related to the use of microcomputers in education. Students learn basic operations, terminology and capabilities of microcomputers within an educational context. Key issues related to the use of instructional technology are discussed. Application and evaluation of software for classroom instruction and management is investigated.

EDUC 169. Microcomputers and Curriculum Design. 3 Units.

Issues related to the educational application of instructional technology and its impact on education is investigated. Students do in-depth analyses of software applications and their validity in relation to learning models and the current curriculum. Students evaluate how new technologies may effect change in curriculum. Various projects that relate to evaluation of software, teaching strategies and research in new technologies are required. Prerequisite: EDUC 168 or permission of instructor.

EDUC 170. Professional Practice. 2-10 Units.

Professional practice is a full-day of Student Teaching in public schools. Candidates for a Single Subject and Multiple Subject Preliminary teaching credential are placed in local public schools for intensive application of their knowledge, skills, and dispositions for professional practice in California schools. Student Teaching is full-day teaching for a semester, and undergraduates are approved for Student Teaching. Prerequisites: EDUC 130, EDUC 140, EDUC 141, EDUC 150, EDUC 151, EDUC 152, EDUC 161, EDUC 162, EDUC 163, EDUC 172 (concurrently); SPED 125X (concurrently) with grades of "C" or higher; a minimum GPA of 2.5.; admission to Teacher Education/Credential Candidacy; a passing score on the CBEST with subject matter completed (CSET examination or approved subject matter/waiver program) and approved; approval of a Certificate of Clearance with TB test clearance and program assessments completed prior to Directed Teaching; Directed Teaching approval process must be completed with clearance by the Director of Field Experiences; The United States Constitution requirement must be completed to apply for a teaching credential. No other coursework is permitted other than SPED 125X and weekend and vacation workshops. A candidate must petition for permission to take an additional course in advance with the Teacher Education Program's Director of Field Experiences.

EDUC 171. Professional Practice Music. 2-10 Units.

This course is a full-day of Student Teaching in public schools. Candidates for a Single Subject Music Preliminary teaching credential are placed in local public schools for intensive application of their knowledge, skills, and dispositions for professional practice in California schools. Student Teaching is full-day teaching for a semester, and undergraduates may be approved for Student Teaching. Prerequisites are EDUC 130, EDUC 140, EDUC 141, EDUC 150, EDUC 151, EDUC 152, EDUC 161, EDUC 162, EDUC 163, EDUC 171 (concurrently); SPED 125X (concurrently) with grades of "C" or higher; a minimum GPA of 2.5; admission to Teacher Education/Credential Candidacy; a passing score on the CBEST with subject matter completed (CSET examination or approved subject matter/waiver program) and approved; approval of a Certificate of Clearance with TB test clearance program assessments completed prior to Directed Teaching; completed Directed Teaching approval process with clearance by the Director of Field Experiences; The United States Constitution requirement must be completed to apply for a teaching credential. No other coursework is permitted other than EDUC 172 and SPED 125X and weekend and vacation workshops. A candidate must petition for permission to take an additional course in advance with the Teacher Education Program's Director of Field Experiences.

EDUC 172. Professional Practice Seminar. 2-10 Units.

Students reflect upon and integrate the Directed Teaching experience in large and small group settings for the SB 2042 Credential. Topics include multicultural education, child abuse, school law, interpreting standardized test scores, professional associations and negotiations, discipline plans, lesson planning and conferencing skills. This course may be taken concurrently with EDUC 170/EDUC 270.

EDUC 175. Teaching in the Content Areas III. 2 Units.

This course is the culminating part of a three-part course for Single Subject credential candidates that develops professional, reflective practices and abilities for teaching in single subject classrooms schools. It is taken concurrently with the professional practice practicum (student teaching). Emphasis in the first two parts of the course is placed on acquiring and practicing general and content-specific knowledge, skills, and ethical values associated with managing contemporary, culturally diverse secondary classroom environments. The course is co-taught by University faculty and K-12 Content Area Specialists. In the third and final portion of the course, candidates integrate and synthesize prior learning and independently teach grades 7 – 12 students in their professional practice placements. University and Grades 7 – 12 Content Area Specialists supervise and support candidates and continue to lead seminar sessions. The capstone assessment that leads to the Level I teaching credential, the Performance Assessment for California Teachers (PACT) Teaching Event (TE) is completed as part of this course.

EDUC 180. Workshop Learning: Issues Group Leadership. 1 Unit.

This course is designed to support the learning and leadership model, Peer-Led Team Learning (PLTL). The course topics include practical information (understanding motivation, managing time, dealing with dominating students, learning styles, group dynamics, study skills, helping students improve critical thinking, develop logical reasoning, and prepare for tests), a foundation in learning theory, and guidance about the specific components of the workshop lessons.

EDUC 181. ECE: Social Justice/Diversity. 3 Units.

This course is conducted as an undergraduate level seminar that is designed to examine key normative issues in the area of social justice, diversity and multiculturalism with an emphasis in early childhood education. The relation of social diversity (race, ethnicity, gender, language, societal attitudes and class) to equality in education and education reform movements is viewed from multiple contexts. Topics explored are diversity, sociopolitical aspects of history and the impact on education, and specifically, early childhood education and multiculturalism. A practicum is required in this course. (DVSJ, ETHC)

EDUC 182. ECE: Curriculum and Inquiry. 3 Units.

This course is an upper division course that examines the theoretical understandings of curriculum and inquiry in the early childhood development classroom. Students refine their knowledge, skills, and dispositions related to early childhood methodology and application to young children in diverse populations.

EDUC 183. ECE: Social Contexts/Cognitive Development. 3 Units.

This course is conducted as an undergraduate level seminar that is designed to clarify the cognitive, philosophical, historical, psychological, cultural, social and ethical foundations of early childhood education. The nature of theory and practice are important to teachers of young children and this course provides a broad synthesis of knowledge of child development principles to better understand how children think, act, and how to be effective with them in the classroom.

EDUC 188. Literacy in Early Childhood Education. 3 Units.

This course will intellectually engage participants in the exploration of integrating theory, research and practice in the dimensions of literacy for young children zero to five years of age. Participants will be expected to advance their own knowledge base as they develop their ability to research, analyze, evaluate and synthesize developmental, sociocultural, linguistic, cognitive and other sign systems associated with literacy events. Prerequisite: Junior standing.

EDUC 189. Practicum. 2-4 Units.

EDUC 191. Independent Study. 1-4 Units.

EDUC 192. Preliminary Fieldwork. 1-3 Units.

Consent of program lead.

EDUC 192A. Elementary Education Fieldwork. 1-3 Units.

Consent of program lead.

EDUC 192B. Secondary Education Fieldwork. 1-3 Units.

Consent of program lead.

EDUC 192D. Early Childhood Education Fieldwork. 1-3 Units.

Permission of program lead.

EDUC 192E. Reading Fieldwork. 1-3 Units.

Permission of program lead.

EDUC 192F. Bilingual Education Fieldwork. 1-3 Units.

Permission of program lead.

EDUC 192G. Cross-cultural Education Fieldwork. 1-3 Units.

EDUC 195A. Pedagogical Seminar. 3 Units.

Investigation of the role that subject matter knowledge and its representations play in teaching. Emphasis on self-assessment of subject matter knowledge. Focus on moral and ethical dimensions of teaching and learning. Prerequisite: completion of a minimum of 8 units in a concentration for the diversified major or multiple subjects wavier program. Senior status or second semester junior status required. Permission of program lead.

EDUC 197. Research in Education. 1-4 Units.

EDUC 197D. Research in Education. 1-4 Units.

EDUC 201. Techniques of Research. 3 Units.

Students study the various research methodologies that include qualitative, descriptive, causal-comparative, survey, correlational and experimental. Emphasis is on learning to read and comprehend research published in professional journals. The content includes understanding how basic descriptive and inferential statistics are applied to address quantitative research questions.

EDUC 202. Statistical Thinking and Communication. 3 Units.

The objectives of this course are to review basic descriptive statistics and solidify students' understanding of inferential techniques commonly employed in educational research. Students will learn how to conduct appropriate statistical analyses, interpreting output produced by SPSS statistical software. Students will gain confidence in reading results sections of journal articles and learn to communicate using statistical terminology. Analysis of results sections of journal articles will demonstrate that the student can recognize situations, for which various statistical techniques are applicable, explain the reasoning underlying the choice of those techniques, interpret results, and critically evaluate whether the authors' conclusions logically follow from the data analysis conducted and the statistical information presented. Students are expected to learn the power of statistical analysis.

EDUC 204. Education for a Diverse Democracy. 3 Units.

This course is a multi-disciplinary examination of the effects of cultural and social pluralism on educational policy, philosophy, classroom instruction and professional ethics in American public education, both historically and as contemporary issues. (ETHC)

EDUC 205. Urban Issues in Education. 3 Units.

This course is designed to enhance educators' awareness of and applied expertise in effectively addressing the issues facing youth attending public schools in urban settings. The focus is on developing, implementing and evaluating interventions using evidence based practices framework, which impact the achievement gap. The complex and multilayered issues of educational equity across diverse cultures will be analyzed. Participants will examine the varied cultural experiences of students and their communities and how learning and behavior is influenced in the classroom.

EDUC 207. Sociology of Education. 3 Units.

EDUC 209. Curriculum Theory. 3 Units.

Students examine curriculum from various philosophical and learning theory points of view. Models and rationales of curriculum are explored. Historical perspectives and specialized areas of the curriculum are examined in terms of present and future societal needs, and methods of curriculum dissemination are delineated.

EDUC 209D. Principles of Design in Education. 3 Units.

Explore principles of design, the design thinking process, and how to design new processes within educational settings.

EDUC 209M. Models of Learning. 3 Units.

Explore new models of learning and design plans to implement models in real educational settings.

EDUC 211. Facilitation of Projects and Initiatives. 3 Units.

This course provides knowledge and skills necessary to facilitate projects and initiatives related to learning and change. Emphasis will be on tools, techniques, processes, and steps of managing projects and group facilitation.

EDUC 212. Instructional Strategies and Classroom Process. 3 Units.

Students learn a variety of instructional strategies to achieve course objectives. Course content includes a review of research on effective teaching skills related to motivation, expectations, modeling, questioning, grouping, direct instruction, cooperative learning and classroom management. Students examine contemporary lines of inquiry with regard to classroom processes.

EDUC 214. Supervision of Instruction. 3 Units.

This course offers a review of models of supervision and processes that support effective descriptions of classroom practices, analysis and feedback regarding those data and the provision of instructional support for continuing classroom improvement. A practicum component is included.

EDUC 215. Creativity and Ideation. 3 Units.

This course engages students in processes to foster creativity and develop original ideas. Students develop skills in creativity and ideation processes to develop solutions that will be launched later in the program.

EDUC 216. Nature and Conditions of Learning. 3 Units.

Students study both cognitive and traditional learning theories, their applications to instruction and the development of effective teaching strategies. In addition, information processing models are explored and their implications for instruction are addressed.

EDUC 220. Seminar: Social Class Effects in Education. 3 Units.

This seminar explores the nature of social class and its effects on learning in the classroom.

EDUC 221. Research in Second Language Acquisition. 3 Units.

This course focuses on the linguistic, psychological, social and cultural processes in learning and teaching a second language. It is designed to examine the major theoretical perspectives and research studies in second language acquisition. It involves critical analysis and critique of important literature and research studies in second language acquisition. It covers techniques for conducting classroom-based research in second language learning and teaching. Students in this course learn to develop a research proposal to investigate an area of interest in the field of second language acquisition.

EDUC 225. Psychology of Reading. 3 Units.

Students explore current theory and research findings related to the psychological processes involved in literacy acquisition and development. Emphasis is placed upon a cognitive and psycholinguistic approach to understanding the processes of reading and the implications for instruction.

EDUC 230. Leading in Diverse Contexts. 3 Units.

This course provides knowledge and skills to lead, motivate, and coordinate diverse individuals toward attaining shared goals. The course will include study of leadership in organizational and community-based contexts, with an emphasis on development of personal leadership competencies.

EDUC 235. Design Thinking for Organizational Analysis. 3 Units.

This course engages students in design thinking as a framework to collaboratively analyze and learn about an organizational challenge to facilitate the ultimate development of organizational innovation.

EDUC 236. Prototyping for Organizational Improvement. 3 Units.

Immerses students in the design thinking process to engage clients in collaboratively prototyping solutions for organizational improvement. Prerequisite: EDUC 235.

EDUC 237. Organizational Learning. 3 Units.

Utilization of principles and theory understand how organizations learn, how they change their levels of organizational knowledge, and how they foster cultures of growth and renewal. Focus on theory and practice-based processes for creating, retaining, and transferring knowledge within an organization, as well understanding organizations within a systems context.

EDUC 238. Organizational Change and Consulting. 3 Units.

This course provides knowledge and skills necessary to understand and facilitate the implementation of change in organizations. Emphasis will be on both theoretical and practical aspects of organizational change, with particular emphasis on developing hands-on consulting skills.

EDUC 239. Coaching for Organizational Contexts. 2 Units.

Development of skills and knowledge to partner with others in their professional development, with the aim of helping people reach their goals and enhance performance through exploration of ideas and dialogue. Focus on theory, research and applied techniques to facilitate an evidence-based coaching process.

EDUC 246. Teaching as Reflective Inquiry I. 2 Units.

Teaching as Reflective Inquiry I is the first of a three-part course in which preservice teachers are introduced to the concept of teacher research. First, participants critically analyze readings and teacher-inquiry products of experienced teacher researchers. They then conduct a mini-inquiry into their own practices that emerge as a result of their participation in the summer experience. These activities set the stage for more advanced consideration and application of teacher inquiry methods in parts II and III of the course, that lead to a culminating project during the professional practice practicum.

EDUC 250. Teaching Assessment. 3-4 Units.

This course supports reflective teaching and learner-centered principles and practices in K-12 schools. The course focuses on state-adopted curriculum standards and frameworks in seven content fields, particularly on the content area of History/Social Science; approaches to classroom management; selection of curriculum materials at the state level; and evaluation. Topics include implementing appropriate teaching strategies for meeting the needs of students with special needs and culturally diverse learners; and using developmentally appropriate diagnostic, formative, and summative assessments to plan instruction. Technology is used to enhance curriculum design and student interaction with content knowledge. Prerequisites: EDUC 140; Fingerprint and TB test results.

EDUC 253. Teaching Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics (STEM). 4 Units.

Methods and curriculum presented for teaching science, technology, engineering and mathematics in self-contained classrooms. Topics include state-adopted content standards and curriculum frameworks; essential mathematics, technology, engineering, life, physical, and earth science themes, concepts, and skills; instructional planning and diverse and appropriate teaching strategies for meeting the needs of diverse learners, including mainstreamed and culturally diverse learners; principles and practices of evaluation of students' learning. Fieldwork is required.

EDUC 254. Productive Learning Environments for Diverse Adolescents. 3 Units.

Candidates will consider the principles of adolescent development in context. Key concepts will be examined to determine how developmental pathways affect student achievement, motivation, and wellbeing. Adolescent development will also be addressed as a major consideration for effective classroom management with a focus on using culturally responsive techniques that contribute to productive learning environments and equitable student outcomes. Pre-service teachers will survey current discipline and management models and practice research-based strategies designed to promote positive classroom behavior. Establishing and maintaining relationships with families, students, and colleagues are explored as well as practices that contribute to teacher well-being and self-care. Prerequisites: Minimum GPA 2.5, Fingerprint and TB test clearance. Permission of instructor or Teacher Education Program.

EDUC 255. Teaching in the Content Areas I. 3 Units.

This is the first of a multi-course series for Single Subject credential candidates to develop professional, reflective practices and abilities for teaching in single subject classrooms, especially in secondary schools. Candidates learn and apply current learning theories to planning, instruction, and assessment, focusing on the general knowledge, skills, and dispositions associated with managing contemporary, culturally diverse secondary classroom environments. Candidates will begin to learn about specific subject matter content and pedagogy and a variety of instructional and assessment strategies to benefit all learners. The needs of all secondary school students, including English Learners, and characteristics of the school environment will be emphasized for fostering effective teaching and learning.

EDUC 256. Content and Disciplinary Literacy Development in Secondary Schools. 3 Units.

This course provides an introduction to research-based content literacy instruction. The course focuses on preparing candidates to teach content-based reading and writing skills to a full range of students which includes struggling readers, students with special needs, and English Learners. A variety of content-based literacy strategies (reading, writing, listening, and speaking) is presented to facilitate learning in the content areas. The course meets credential requirements. Prerequisites: EDUC 140, admission to Credential Candidacy, Instructor/Teacher Education Program permission, fingerprint and TB test clearance.

EDUC 257. TESOL Theories and Practices. 4 Units.

This course is designed to provide a link between theory and practice in the teaching of ESL. Aspects of language learning are discussed, and concomitant instruction and curriculum is analyzed while developing a working model for the development of curriculum which is appropriate for the teaching situation.

EDUC 259. Teaching English Learners - Single Subject. 3 Units.

This course is designed to equip mainstream classroom teachers with the theory, principles, knowledge, and skills to effectively understand and teach English Language Learners at a variety of levels of English proficiency in secondary classrooms. Teachers will develop appropriate strategies and approaches for developing language proficiency and link their practice to both the California English Language Development Standards and the new Common Core State Standards. Students observe and implement these strategies during their field experiences in order to see, practice, and reflect on effective ways to meet the needs of English learners. Objectives include appropriate assessment, planning, and implementation of sheltered content instruction. Fieldwork hours specific to this class are required. A grade of C or higher is required for passing this course. Prerequisites: EDUC 140; minimum 2.5 GPA; Fingerprint and TB test clearance.

EDUC 260. Productive Learning Environments for Diverse Classrooms. 3 Units.

Core course concepts and activities taught include using culturally responsive techniques that contribute to productive learning environments and equitable student outcomes. K-12 preservice teachers in this course survey current discipline and management models and practice research-based strategies designed to promote positive classroom behavior. Establishing and maintaining relationships with families, students, and colleagues are explored as well as practices that contribute to teacher wellbeing and self-care. Senior standing or permission of instructor.

EDUC 261. Literacy Development. 4 Units.

This course introduces methods and curriculum for teaching reading and language arts with integration of humanities and social science for students from kindergarten to eighth grade classrooms. The course focuses on theory-based effective instruction of reading, writing, listening and speaking across the curriculum. Students learn to analyze and evaluate effective literacy skills and strategies in teaching reading, writing, listening and speaking to K-8 students, and to apply and practice these skills and strategies in various instructional settings in various content areas. Emphasis is placed on the integration of reading and language arts throughout the curriculum. Twenty-four hours of fieldwork is required. This course is taken prior to Directed Teaching (Professional Practice). Prerequisite: admission to Teacher Education program with fingerprint and TB test clearance.

EDUC 262. Advanced Methods in Bilingual Education. 3 Units.

This course provides a critical interpretation of current practice in bilingual education, based on theory and research.

EDUC 263. Teaching English Learners. 4 Units.

This course is designed to equip mainstream classroom teachers with the theory, principles, knowledge, and skills to effectively understand and teach English Language Learners at a variety of levels of English proficiency in K-8 classrooms. Teachers will develop appropriate strategies and approaches for developing language proficiency and link their practice to both the California English Language Development Standards and the new Common Core State Standards. Students observe and implement these strategies during their field experiences in order to see, practice, and reflect on effective ways to meet the needs of English learners. Objectives include appropriate assessment, planning, and implementation of sheltered content instruction. Fieldwork hours (160 series fieldwork) specific to this class are required. A grade of C or higher is required for passing this course. Prerequisites: EDUC 100, 140, and 150, or instructor/Teacher Education Program permission; minimum GPA of 2.5; Fingerprint and TB test clearance.

EDUC 264. Introduction to Bilingual Education. 4 Units.

This course provides an overview of bilingual education and is designed to meet the needs of both undergraduate and graduate students who are interested in understanding the role of bilingual, bicultural education in schools. Students explore the related implications of second language acquisition research, sociopolitical theory, and historical as well as contemporary experiences in the contexts of program design, instructional practice, and school/community relations toward a conceptualization of bilingual education as a source of pedagogical enrichment strategies for all learners in all settings. (ETHC)

EDUC 265. Teaching in the Content Areas II. 2 Units.

This is the second of a multi-course series for Single Subject credential candidates to develop professional, reflective practices and abilities for teaching in single subject classrooms, especially in secondary schools. The emphasis in this course is on content-specific practices. Candidates join their respective professional organizations and participate in those organizations' professional development experiences. In addition to whole class meetings, candidates meet in content-specific seminars with practitioners in their content areas on a regular basis.

EDUC 266. Transformational Teaching & Learning. 3 Units.

This is an introductory course that explores the complex relationships within and among local, state, and national levels of public instruction. The course introduces historical, legal, and social issues that affect diverse educational settings. Topics include key movements and legal cases of prominence in American education; demographic information about learners and schools in California; home, family and school partnerships; and professional stages in teaching careers (e.g., subject matter preparation, teacher education, initial licensure, induction programs, and professional development). The course also includes an introduction to "reflective practice"; an overview of stages in human development; prominent learning and motivation theories; the characteristics of learners with exceptional needs; and individual differences among learners, which include English language learners. Fieldwork is required.

EDUC 267. Understanding Adolescents in School Contexts. 3 Units.

This course is designed for secondary preservice teachers to consider the principles of adolescent development in context. Biological, cognitive, psychological, social, and moral development are examined to determine how these developmental pathways affect student achievement, motivation, and well being. The influence of family, peers, school, and the broader community on development are explored as well. Implications of current understandings of adolescent development on teaching, learning, and assessment is emphasized. In addition to class meetings, students participate in a practicum in order to apply learning in school settings.

EDUC 270. Professional Practice. 1-10 Units.

EDUC 270 offers student teaching for the SB 2042 Multiple Subject credential in public schools, for full-day placement. The placement requires additional assignments and action research for the MEd Degree. Prerequisites are completion of prerequisite coursework with grade "C" or higher, minimum GPA of 3.0, admission to Teacher Education/Credential Candidacy, CBEST passed, subject matter completed and approved, approval of a Certificate of Clearance, TB test clearance, program assessments completed, completion of Directed Teaching approval process and clearance by the Director of Field Experiences. The United States Constitution requirement must be completed to apply for a teaching credential. No other coursework permitted other than EDUC 172 and SPED 125X and weekend and vacation workshops, except that a candidate must petition in advance to the Teacher Education Program's Director of Field Experiences for enrollment in an additional concurrent course. The course is open only to MEd Degree candidates. Corequisites are EDUC 172 and SPED 125X.

EDUC 271. Professional Practice Music. 2-10 Units.

EDUC 271 offers Student Teaching or Internship for the Music Single Subject credential. The Music Education Department Chair approves one or more semesters of Directed Teaching and assigns number of units for each semester. The total over one or more semesters must be ten (10) units. This course is open to Master of Education candidates. Prerequisites: 1) Student Teaching; 2) Internship 1) Completion of all prerequisite coursework with grade of "C" or higher; minimum GPA of 2.5; Admission to Teacher Education/Credential Candidacy; CBEST passed; subject matter completed and approved; approval of a Certificate of Clearance; TB test clearance; program assessments completed; completion of Directed Teaching approval process and clearance by the Director of Field Experiences and Music Education Department Chair. The United States Constitution requirement must be completed to apply for a teaching credential. 2) Completion of all prerequisite coursework from 1) with grade of "C" or higher; minimum GPA of 3.0 in Teacher Education courses is required, and the United States Constitution requirement must be completed prior to enrolling in an internship. A contract from the district and a Memorandum of Understanding between the district and the University of the Pacific are required. Corequisites: CURR 195x and SPED 125X. These corequisites must be taken once, if Directed Teaching is split over two or more semesters.

EDUC 272. Professional Practice Seminar. 2-10 Units.

This course is a reflection upon and integration of the Directed Teaching experience in large and small group settings for the SB 2042 Credential. Topics include multi-cultural education, child abuse, school law, interpreting standardized test scores, professional associates and negotiations, discipline plans, lesson planning and conferencing skills. Prerequisite: EDUC 170 or EDUC 270.

EDUC 274. Action Research. 3 Units.

This course focuses on methods of designing and conducting action research in education. Topics include: characteristics of action research, data collection and analysis, determining trustworthiness, and ethical issues related to action research. Students will engage in action research to learn how to develop actionable knowledge. This course is a component in the set of research courses required for master and doctoral students.

EDUC 275. Teaching in Content Areas III. 3 Units.

This is the culminating part of a multi-course series for Single Subject credential candidates following full-time professional practice (student teaching). The goal of this course is to enhance and extend the general and content-specific knowledge, skills, and dispositions acquired in the previous courses in this series and during professional practice. The use of general and content-specific educational technology is emphasized, allowing candidates to explore a variety of ways to integrate technology into instruction. During the course, candidates examine the National Educational Technology Standards (NETS). Further, issues shaping today's technology uses in education are surveyed and discussed.

EDUC 276. Teaching as Reflective Inquiry III. 3 Units.

Teaching as Reflective Inquiry III is the culminating section of a three-part course in which preservice teachers continue to apply principles of teacher research. This is also the capstone course for the M.Ed. Participants continue to conduct action research, initiated in the prior semester, on their impact on student achievement. At the semester's conclusion, participants submit research reports and make presentations of their findings to panels made up of University and K-12 faculty.

EDUC 277. Diversity and Constituency in Educational Administration. 3 Units.

Students explore the values and concerns of the many diverse communities that constitute a school community and they learn effective ways to involve various communities in the participation of school life are presented.

EDUC 278. Educational Organization and Diverse Constituencies. 3 Units.

Organizational patterns and issues that are related to the administration of educational organizations are presented. Particular emphasis is placed on effectively involving diverse stakeholders into the organizational culture of educational institutions.

EDUC 279. Innovation in Education. 3 Units.

This course explores innovation in the educational and social sectors. Provides knowledge and skills necessary to create change within these sectors.

EDUC 280. Education Law and Legal Processes. 3 Units.

Students examine laws, legal principles, interpretations and practices governing federal, state, county and local school organization and administrations. Course content includes laws relating to youth, contracts, liability and tort, effect of federal and state laws on education.

EDUC 281. Modern Trends in Early Childhood Education. 3 Units.

Students learn current trends in the education of children from birth through third grade.

EDUC 282. Advanced Curriculum and Theory in Early Childhood Education. 3 Units.

EDUC 283. School Finance and Business Administration. 3 Units.

Public schools as economic institutions and the roles of the federal, state and local governmental agencies related to school finance are addresses. Students examine public school revenues and expenditures, budget development and administration, and the operational finance of funds and services.

EDUC 284. Directed Teaching Special Assignment. 2-10 Units.

All day Student Teaching in subject-matter classroom(s) and action research, usually in a secondary school. Open only to Master of Education candidates. Prerequisites: completion of all prerequisite coursework with grade "C" or higher; minimum GPA of 3.0; Admission to Teacher Education/Credential Candidacy; CBEST passed; subject matter completed and approved; approval of a Certificate of Clearance; TB test clearance; program assessments completed; completion of Directed Teaching approval process and clearance by the Director of Field Experiences. The United States Constitution requirement must be completed to apply for a teaching credential. No other coursework permitted other than CURR 195X and SPED 125X and weekend and vacation workshops, except that a candidate must petition in advance to the Teacher Education Program's Director of Field Experiences for an additional concurrent course. Corequisite: CURR 195X, SPED 125X.

EDUC 285. Leadership Fundamentals. 3 Units.

Students learn and apply functions, responsibilities and relationships of being a leader. Student progress through a series of modules aimed at developing leadership competence, self-reflection, and expertise in specific applications of leadership.

EDUC 286. Administration of Human Resources. 3 Units.

This course addresses skills and techniques of employee selection, orientation, administration, supervision and evaluation. Topics include staff development activities, determining personnel need, and employee organizations.

EDUC 287. Educational and Social Entrepreneurship. 3 Units.

This course examines and defines educational and social entrepreneurship. Engages students in action-oriented research of current educational and social enterprises to consider how to create social impact.

EDUC 288. Literacy in Early Childhood Education. 3 Units.

The purpose of this graduate level course is to intellectually engage participants in the exploration of integrating theory, research and practice in the dimensions of literacy for young children zero to five years of age. Participants will be expected to advance their own knowledge base as they develop their ability to research, analyze, evaluate and synthesize developmental, sociocultural, linguistic, cognitive and other sign systems associated with literacy events. This graduate course may be taken by post-bachelor's degree and graduate degree candidates.

EDUC 289. Practicum. 2-4 Units.

EDUC 290. Digital and Blended Learning. 3 Units.

In this course students will explore and apply digital and blended learning models to design technology-enhanced learning.

EDUC 291. Graduate Independent Study. 1-4 Units.

Graduate students may enroll in library research with consent of the program lead.

EDUC 292. Advanced Fieldwork. 1-6 Units.

EDUC 292A. Elementary Education Fieldwork. 1-6 Units.EDUC 292B. Secondary Education Fieldwork. 1-6 Units.*EDUC 292C. Student Affairs Field Experience. 1-3 Units.

Student Affairs Field Experience allows students to experience a variety of professional roles under the guidance of mentorship of a qualified Student Affairs or Higher Education Administration practitioner. Field experience serves as a complement to students classroom learning and integrates classroom theories and ideas with practical applications.

EDUC 292D. Early Childhood Education Fieldwork. 1-6 Units.EDUC 292E. Field Experience in Administration and Supervision. 1-4 Units.

This course offers experience in practical on-the-job administrative and supervisory functions at a school site. One unit over each of three semesters is required. This field experience is open only to administrative credential candidates at the University. Permission of program lead.

EDUC 292F. Reading Fieldwork. 1-6 Units.EDUC 292H. Special Projects Fieldwork. 1-6 Units.*EDUC 292L. Advanced Fieldwork in Bilingual Education. 1-6 Units.*EDUC 293Z. Special Topics. 1-4 Units.*EDUC 295A. Seminar: Middle School Curriculum. 3 Units.

Students review curricular issues in middle schools in the United States, that include an analysis of curricular concepts and the social, economic and political forces, that may shape forth-coming curricular design. Specific content includes historical and philosophical foundation; curriculum trends, alternative approaches; and curriculum materials analysis.

EDUC 295B. Seminar: Secondary Curriculum. 3 Units.

Students review the curriculum issues in middle and secondary schools in the United States, that include an analysis of curriculum concepts and the social, economic and political forces that may shape forthcoming curricular design. Specific content includes historical and philosophical foundations, curriculum trends, alternative approaches, curriculum materials, analysis and issues that relate to adolescence.

EDUC 295C. Seminar: Educational Planning, Delivery, Assessment. 3 Units.

The role of the administrator as the instructional leader is the focus. Facets of the instructional program include curriculum planning, programmatic issues, delivery systems and assessment and evaluation.

EDUC 295D. Trends in Health Professions Education. 3 Units.

Focused on the changing landscape and shifting paradigm in healthcare and health professions education, and what we can do as educators in response to the opportunities and challenges brought by the new learning needs of students, diverse patient population, evolving technology, and emerging pedagogical models. Key trends and hot topics in curriculum design, instruction, and technology in the health sciences will be examined and discussed.

EDUC 295E. Seminar: Teaching Reading and Writing. 3 Units.

Students examine current theory, research, trends, and issues in the teaching of reading and writing. Students translate theory and research in practice through observation of and participation with children in reading and writing activities. Prerequisites: previous coursework in reading, writing, or language development. Graduate standing.

EDUC 295G. Seminar: Elementary Curriculum. 3 Units.

Students review curricular issues in elementary schools in the United States, that include an analysis of curricular concepts and the social, economic, and political forces, that may shape forthcoming curricular design. Specific content includes historical and philosophical foundation, curriculum trends, alternative approaches, and curriculum materials analysis.

EDUC 295I. Innovative Learning Environments. 3 Units.

Investigate the impact of learning environments and design learning environments for specific contexts.

EDUC 295M. Seminar: Learning Design. 3 Units.

This course provides understanding and application in the design, development, and evaluation of learning experiences in various sectors, with a particular emphasis on creating innovative and immersive learning experiences.

EDUC 295P. Teaching and Assessment in Health Professions Education. 3 Units.

Focused on assisting faculty in the health professions and others who support them to understand and implement effective teaching and assessment strategies. Addresses the knowledge, skills, and dispositions expected from a professional educator within the specific context of health professions.

EDUC 296. Integrative Capstone in Innovative Leadership. 2-4 Units.

This course provides the culminating experience of the program, including leadership-related fieldwork project to apply innovation skills through integration of research, theory, and practice.

EDUC 296T. Integrative Capstone in Innovative Teaching and Learning. 1-4 Units.

Provides the culminating experience of the program, including a teaching and learning-related fieldwork project to apply innovation skills through integration of research, theory, and practice.

EDUC 297. Graduate Research in Education. 1-3 Units.EDUC 299. Master's Thesis. 1-4 Units.*EDUC 302. Issues in Teacher Education. 3 Units.

Students review and analyze current curricular topics related to pre-service and in-service teacher preparation.

EDUC 304. Program Evaluation. 3 Units.

Students examine selection design and the use of formal and informal devices for the purpose of making diagnosis of learner strengths and weaknesses, measuring learner progress and making summative evaluations of learner achievement, both on an individual and larger scale basis.

EDUC 306. Curriculum Materials Development. 3 Units.

Students design and develop appropriate curriculum materials for to achieve program and course objectives.

EDUC 308. Issues in Curriculum and Instruction. 3 Units.

Students explore crucial issues and trends in curriculum and instruction, their historical origins, current manifestations and implications for teaching and learning in effective schools.

EDUC 314. Socio-Cultural Perspectives and Inquiry. 3 Units.

This course aims to investigate social and democratic aspects of our communities, particularly education and schooling, in the context of a diverse and multicultural society. It engages doctoral students in exploring, conceptualizing, and critiquing social identities and positionality to examine the interdisciplinary understandings of cultural and social realities.

EDUC 315. Cultural, Social, and Emotional Literacy. 3 Units.

Utilizes a systems theory approach to evaluate theoretical foundations and relevant research on the promotion and evaluation of social emotional learning, culturally sustaining pedagogies and culturally responsive teaching.

EDUC 316. Systems Thinking and Interdisciplinary Curriculum Inquiry. 3 Units.

This course focuses on interdisciplinary ways of conceiving curriculum through the use of a systems theory framework. Emphasis will be placed on understanding interrelationships between subject matter disciplines for the purposes of describing and offering solutions to local/global problems requiring sustainable behaviors.

EDUC 317. Aesthetics, Arts, and Imagination as Curriculum Context. 3 Units.

Explores the arts as both a foundation for a liberal education and a medium for inquiry into education. Emphasis will be places on understanding the role the arts as practiced by education practitioners and the role of the arts in conducting educational inquiry.

EDUC 318. Research in Classroom Context. 3 Units.

This course focuses on how to develop skills and knowledge related to conducting research in culturally and ethnically diverse classroom settings. Emphasis is placed on the collection and analysis of data, primarily through observations, interviews and curriculum documents. Students design and implement a study in a classroom context and present their work both in oral and written form.

EDUC 319. Teaching as a Subversive Activity. 3 Units.

This course focuses on the role critical theory and critical thinking in schooling and education and the ways in which these processes aim to disrupt traditional, standardized, limiting orientations to teachers' curriculum decision making, and re-envisioning what it means to be well educated.

EDUC 320. Advanced Curriculum Studies. 3 Units.

This course is intended to be a capstone research course in curriculum studies. Emphasis is placed on critical analysis of curriculum issues and subsequent research-based and theoretical perspectives relative to areas of doctoral scholarship.

EDUC 321. Writing for Publication. 3 Units.

Focus on the relationship between formal inquiry and the development of research-based scholarship. Emphasis on manuscript development for the purpose of submitting to an academic journal for publication consideration.

EDUC 322. Qualitative Methods for Action-Oriented Research. 3 Units.

This course focuses on methods of designing and conducting action-oriented qualitative research. Topics include: characteristics of qualitative research, data collection and analysis, determining validity and reliability, and ethical issues related to qualitative research.

EDUC 323. Advanced Qualitative Research. 3 Units.

This course builds upon the Qualitative Research Design (EDUC 322) course. Students engage in research and theory related to specific qualitative research methodologies and methods related to their areas of interest. The course readings and activities are designed to prepare students to develop and implement a high quality qualitative study. Prerequisite: EDUC 322.

EDUC 325. Quantitative Research Design and Methods. 3 Units.

This course exposes students to and develops their ability to conceptualize a broader range of research questions dealing with (a) significance of group differences; (b) degree of relationship among variables; (c) prediction of group membership; and/or (d) structure that quantitative design and analysis strategies might inform than those typically introduced in a first course (e.g., EDUC 201). Topics emphasized in the course relate to (a) the purpose and principles of research design; (b) the use of multivariate approaches and analysis; and (c) the construction and validation of measuring instruments. Students learn both to critically examine published research as well as to design methods for studies proposed to validly address research questions dealing with (a) significance of group differences; (b) degree of relationship among variables; (c) prediction of group membership; and/or (d) structure.

EDUC 326. Applied Multiple Regression. 3 Units.

This course acquaints the student with the use of the general linear model as a data analytic tool. Students learn how to generate the interpret output produced by SPSS statistical software in conducting (a) multiple regression analyses involving both continuous and categorical independent variables; and (b) logistic regression analyses involving categorical dependent variables. Prerequisite: EDUC 202 or equivalent course.

EDUC 327. Structural Equation Modeling. 3 Units.

This course is designed to build upon knowledge and skills in multivariate statistical analysis and introduce students to structural equation modeling. Students will develop conceptual as well as practical understandings of structural equation modeling (SEM), and will learn basic SEM techniques to analyze data. Students will also develop skills in writing results from an SEM analysis. Prerequisites: EDUC 325, EDUC 326.

EDUC 330. Advanced Human Development I. 3 Units.

This course focuses on the developmental period of early childhood development. The course examines theoretical and research-based knowledge of the influences of biological, social, affective, cultural, ethnic, experiential, socio-economic, gender-related, and linguistic factors in children's development.

EDUC 331. Advanced Human Development II. 4 Units.

This course focuses on the developmental period of middle childhood and adolescent development. The course examines theoretical and research-based knowledge of the influences of biological, social, affective, cultural, ethnic, experiential, socio-economic, gender-related, and linguistic factors in children's and adolescent's development.

EDUC 332. Advanced Human Development III. 2 Units.

This course focuses on adult development, aging and long term care. The course examines theoretical and research-based knowledge of the influences of biological, social, cognitive affective, cultural, ethnic, experiential, socio-economic, gender-related, and linguistic factors in adult development, aging and long term care.

EDUC 334. Theories of Multicultural Family Therapy and Collaboration. 3 Units.

This course prepares mental health clinicians to assess functioning in and design and implement interventions for couples and families by studying major theories of couples and family therapy. This course also prepares mental health clinicians to help families collaborate with helping institutions to improve the well-being of children.

EDUC 335. Psychotherapeutic Interventions. 3 Units.

This course provides an overview of counseling and psychotherapeutic theories, principles, and techniques, including the counseling process in a multicultural society, an orientation to wellness and prevention, counseling theories to assist in the selection of appropriate counseling interventions, models of counseling consistent with current professional research and practice, and the development of a personal model of counseling.

EDUC 336. Group Counseling. 3 Units.

This course prepares mental health professionals to use direct methods and techniques of group counseling for children, adolescents, adults, and elder adults.

EDUC 337. Crisis Intervention. 3 Units.

This course reviews counseling theory and basic listening and responding skills and contrast them with crisis counseling practices. It also examines various programmatic approaches to the primary and secondary prevention of educational failure and the promotion of health and mental health. The focus is on the enhancement of individual and family competence following a crisis event. The course explores the underlying knowledge base, models for implementing prevention, specific examples of techniques and programs designed to intervene before, during and after a crisis event. Also covered is policy questions, and evaluation issues. Specific attention is given to concepts of stress, coping, and resiliency. Programs such as suicide prevention, crisis intervention, drug and alcohol education, sexuality education, child abuse prevention, and others are closely examined and criticized.

EDUC 338. Consultation Methods. 3 Units.

This course prepares school psychologists to provide mental health consultation to school personnel and parents. Various consultation methodologies will be studied with applications particularly appropriate to children in the public school system.

EDUC 340. Introduction to School Psychology. 1 Unit.

This course serves as an introduction to the specialization of school psychology. It is intended to give the student an overview of the field of school psychology focusing on the role and function of the school psychologist in the public schools and other settings. Topics include the history of school psychology, Pupil personnel services in schools, service delivery models, school psychology organizations, research traditions in school psychology, international school psychology, ethical and legal issues, publications and resources in school psychology.

EDUC 341. History and Systems in Psychology. 3 Units.

This course explores major developments and ideas in the history of psychology as an academic discipline. Although our focus is on psychology, this course also introduces students to the history and foundations of the profession of school psychology, including education, special education, health care, and related fields. This course examines the historical progression of ideas central to psychology, the philosophical and empirical roots of those ideas, and the confluence of those ideas into the various systems we have today. This survey course includes such topics as of the history of psychology from the early Greek philosophers, through the beginnings of modern science and philosophy, through the early approaches to psychology, to psychology in its most contemporary form.

EDUC 342. Law and Professional Ethics for Mental Health Professionals. 3 Units.

This course is designed for students in credential and licensing graduate programs in human services and mental health professions. Students will study approaches to ethical decision-making in addition to learning relevant law and regulation and existing ethical codes of behavior.

EDUC 343. Psychopathology and Wellness Promotion. 3 Units.

This course will examine a variety of mental disorders from a variety of perspectives, including the biomedical model of mental disorders and diagnostic categories while emphasizing sociocultural viewpoints and developmental experiences. The predominant treatments, including educational interventions, for the major disorders will also be covered, as well as primary and secondary prevention of mental disorders and the promotion of health and mental health in public schools and the community.

EDUC 344. Behavior Assessment and Intervention. 3 Units.

In this course graduate students will learn how to develop and write a behavior intervention plan. Students will learn about and practice various methods of data collection, including interviews, systematic observations, and review of records, designing behavioral interventions, implementing behavioral interventions, and analyzing behavioral interventions. Particular attention is given to collecting and analyzing behavioral data within a multi-tiered system of supports (MTSS) framework. For students in the School Psychology program, this course is accompanied by one unit of EDUC 396 School Psychology Field Work.

EDUC 345. Data-Based Decision Making II: Academic Assessment and Intervention. 3 Units.

In this course graduate students will collect and analyze academic data and design and implement academic interventions. Students will learn various methods of academic assessment including academic data collection (including curriculum based assessment and other standardized and norm referenced tests), designing academic interventions, implementing academic interventions, analyzing the outcomes of academic interventions, and writing academic support plans. Particular attention is given to collecting and analyzing academic data within a multi-tiered system of support (MTSS) framework. For students in the School Psychology program, this course is accompanied by one unit of EDUC 396 School Psychology Field Work.

EDUC 346. Psychological Assessment. 3 Units.

This course prepares mental health professionals to use psychological testing and assessment information in a problem solving process, and to use data-based decision making to improve outcomes for instruction, development of cognitive and academic skills, and the development of life competencies. Students will also be exposed to process and procedures identified in referral and state laws related to special education services.

EDUC 347. Behavior and Personality Assessment. 3 Units.

This course is designed to help students gain proficiency in the administration, scoring, and interpretation of several instruments commonly used in behavioral and personality assessment. The writing of professional reports, theoretical aspects and measurement of behavior and personality, and legal and ethical issues will be addressed.

EDUC 348. Neuropsychology. 3 Units.

This course provides a general overview of: brain-based behavior; neuroanatomy and physiology; conceptualizing psychoeducational and psychological assessment data from a neuropsychological perspective; the effects and uses of psychotropic agents; and information on neuropathology.

EDUC 349. Psychopharmacology for Mental Health Professionals. 3 Units.

This course surveys the physiological and behavioral effects of the major classes of psychoactive drugs, including therapeutic agents and drugs of abuse, mechanisms of action, side effects, effects on the fetus, and collaborating with other health and mental health professionals and families. The main focus of this course is on psychoactive anxiety disorders, schizophrenia, and substance abuse.

EDUC 350. Social Psychology. 3 Units.

This course is designed to introduce students to current social psychology theory, concepts, and research. A broad range of theoretical topics will be covered, including research methodology, the self, attributions and social perception, social cognition, attitudes, social influence, attraction and interpersonal relationships, pro-social behavior, and aggression. Additionally, issues of diversity, such as prejudice, stereotypes, and group dynamics/relations, will be addressed. The relevance of these social psychology concepts as foundational for the practice of professional psychology will be highlighted.

EDUC 352. Applied Inquiry I. 3 Units.

In this course students work collaboratively in learning communities to identify and explore general and specific educational/social/political issues that affect learners/learning outcomes for key educational constituencies. Each student identifies a preliminary issue/problem/concern for his/her dissertation project and engages in early exploration of foundational issues, key theories, and seminal emerging research on these topics.

EDUC 353. Interdisciplinary Ways of Seeing, Knowing, and Acting. 3 Units.

Engages students in the development of understanding of the multiple foundational influences in which education is viewed today. Addresses historical, philosophical, epistemological scholarship that frames contemporary educational and schooling decision-making processes.

EDUC 354. Applied Inquiry II. 3 Units.

This course provides doctoral students with an overview of assumptions/limitations/strengths and claims of educational research. Further, it provides them with an overview of quantitative and qualitative methodologies (data collection and analysis strategies) and of the relevance of these for specific problems and questions. Prerequisite: EDUC 352. Prerequisite, may be taken concurrently: EDUC 202.

EDUC 356. Applied Inquiry III. 3 Units.

This course places doctoral students into professional learning communities with colleagues and a faculty leader. In these communities, students work collaboratively and independently to ensure that each student develops a refined problem statement and draft literature review. Prerequisites: EDUC 354.

EDUC 358. Applied Inquiry IV. 3 Units.

This course places doctoral students into professional learning communities with colleagues and a faculty leader. In these communities, students work collaboratively and independently to ensure that each student develops a defense ready dissertation proposal. Prerequisite: EDUC 356.

EDUC 359. Dissertation Boot Camp. 3 Units.

This course is ideal for doctoral candidates who have an approved dissertation proposal and seek support in writing their dissertation. This course also benefits doctoral students who are in the process of completing their dissertation proposal. This course facilitates intensive, focused writing time, and provides participants with strategies and structure to overcome common roadblocks in the dissertation process. Prerequisite: Approved dissertation research proposal or instructor approval.

EDUC 360. Seminar: Trends, Issues and Dynamics of Change. 3 Units.

Students examine current issues and the impact of change in administration of educational programs.

EDUC 361. Seminar: Ethics, Law and Finance. 3 Units.

Students examine the relationships between ethics, law, and finance and how they impact decision-making in educational institutions.

EDUC 363. Seminar: Personnel Issues. 3 Units.

This seminar course explores personnel management, resource allocations, employee evaluation, collective bargaining, staffing, staff development, and conflict mediation.

EDUC 364. Policy Analysis, Creation, and Navigation. 3 Units.

Students examine issues and techniques relative to policy formulation and implementation. The political, social and economic forces that impact policy decisions are emphasized. Students think through their own relationships with policy from an organizational perspective.

EDUC 365. Seminar: Administration of Higher Education. 3 Units.

Students study administrative, educational and personnel problems and issues in community colleges and four-year institutions.

EDUC 366. Seminar: Marketing and Public Relations in Education. 3 Units.

Techniques of effective communications in educational organizations are presented. Developing and maintaining positive public relations and public support for educational problems are emphasized.

EDUC 367. Seminar: Leadership in Diverse Organizations. 3 Units.

EDUC 368. Seminar: Leading Complex Organizations. 3 Units.

EDUC 370. Prof. Induction Planning. 2 Units.

Students learn how to develop a collaborative professional induction plan to meet the requirements for the Professional Administrative Services Credential.

EDUC 371. Professional Assessment. 2 Units.

This course provides a formal assessment of candidates for the Professional Administrative Services Credential.

EDUC 372. Program and Organization Evaluation. 3 Units.

The course provides knowledge, skills, and experience in the evaluation process for programs and organizations to facilitate organization effectiveness and development.

EDUC 372M. Measuring Social Impact. 3 Units.

Provides knowledge, skills, and experience to evaluate and iteratively develop social and educational change initiatives.

EDUC 374. Action Research. 3 Units.

This course focuses on methods of designing and conducting action research in education. Topics include: characteristics of action research, data collection and analysis, determining trustworthiness, and ethical issues related to action research. Students will engage in action research to learn how to develop actionable knowledge. This course is a component in the set of research courses required for master and doctoral students.

EDUC 377. Design Thinking & Lean Startup for Social Impact. 3 Units.

This course develops context for design thinking and lean startup models in starting an educational or social enterprise. Students implement ideas into actionable projects and enterprise development.

EDUC 380. Leading Innovation. 3 Units.

This course provides knowledge, practice, and experience in cross-sector innovation tools to impact organizations and institutions through leading the development of new ideas, processes, products, and/or services.

EDUC 381. Law in Higher Education. 3 Units.

This course prepares students to examine the legal dimensions of the collegiate-level decision process. Administrative arrangements, policy issues and case law are analyzed.

EDUC 382. Leadership in Higher Education. 3 Units.

This course prepares doctoral students with the attitudes and skills to analyze leadership theories, challenges and strategies in higher education.

EDUC 384. Spousal and Partner Abuse, Detection, and Intervention. 1 Unit.

This course addresses the causes, assessment, treatment, statistics and legal issues concerning intimate partner violence.

EDUC 385. Alcoholism and Chemical Substance Abuse Dependency. 1 Unit.

This course describes the most commonly abused substances as well as the signs of abuse and addiction and the most effective treatment principles and therapeutic techniques.

EDUC 386. Child Abuse Assessment and Reporting. 1 Unit.

This course provides information on identifying, assessing, and reporting child abuse and neglect, including the laws governing mandated reporting. This course also covers prevention and treatment of child abuse and neglect.

EDUC 387. Human Sexuality. 1 Unit.

This course reviews the basic anatomy, sexual function and response, and challenges and disorders of sexual function. Diagnostic formulations and treatments for the disorders that clinicians are most likely to encounter in clinical practice are also presented. Finally, challenges and complexities of sexuality within special populations are reviewed.

EDUC 388. Counseling Practicum. 1-6 Units.

Counseling Practicum entails the supervised application of psychological procedures in appropriate settings.

EDUC 389. Curriculum Practicum. 2-4 Units.EDUC 391. Graduate Independent Study. 1-4 Units.*EDUC 391D. Graduate Independent Study. 1-4 Units.*EDUC 391E. Special Topics. 1-4 Units.*EDUC 393H. Special Topics. 1-4 Units.*EDUC 393I. Special Topics. 1-4 Units.*EDUC 394. Seminar: Doctoral Research in Educational Administration. 3 Units.

The goal of this semester is to have doctoral students develop an acceptable dissertation proposal. Faculty members lead discussions, provide individual assistance, and collaborate on individual student progress with the aim to assist the student in the proposal development process. The seminar is divided into group sessions and individual meetings with student selected dissertation advisors. Prerequisite: Permission of program lead.

EDUC 396. School Psychology Fieldwork. 1-3 Units.

Fieldwork in School Psychology entails the supervised application of school psychological procedures in schools and related settings.

EDUC 397. Graduate Research in Education. 1-4 Units.EDUC 398. School Psychology Internship. 1-3 Units.

Students perform duties of a school psychologist in multicultural school settings under the direct supervision of a credentialed school psychologist. Placement must be half-or full-time. Prerequisites: Students must have an intern credential and permission of the instructor before beginning an internship.

EDUC 398B. QSA Projects. 1 Unit.

Doctoral students develop and complete each of three proposed QSA projects. Students work with a mentor and two department faculty in conducting research relevant to three proposed projects. Doctoral students must have completed the approval of the Qualifying Scholarly Activity proposal (CURR 397Ap) or may have permission to be concurrently enrolled in CURR 397B. Students may enroll more than one time in CURR 397B until all three QSA projects have been completed and defended.

EDUC 398C. Dissertation Proposal Development. 1 Unit.

This course is open to a doctoral student who has successfully completed all coursework and three Qualifying Scholarly Activities after taking CURR 397A and CURR 397B. The student prepares and defends the dissertation proposal and Institutional Review Board (IRB) proposal. The student concurrently enrolls in a minimum of one unit of CURR 399: Doctoral Dissertation.

EDUC 398D. Qualifying Scholarly Activities. 1 Unit.

EDUC 398 provides doctoral candidacy qualifying requirement to demonstrate competence in research and subject matter. Students (a) identify a research area and level, (b) complete a scholarly annotated bibliography, (c) respond to a question in the form of a scholarly paper, and (d) orally defend the response to the question.

EDUC 399. Doctoral Dissertation. 1-15 Units.

Educational Psychology Courses

EPSY 191. Independent Study. 1-3 Units.

Permission of program lead is required.

EPSY 291. Independent Graduate Study. 1-4 Units.

EPSY 318. Program Evaluation for School Psychologists. 3 Units.

This course prepares advanced degree students with the attitudes, ethics and develop skills that will allow them to evaluate a variety of educational programs in different types of settings, as well as develop requests for funding to meet grant specifications. This course is specifically designed for the unique responsibilities of professionals in school psychology.

EPSY 324. Seminar: Advanced Consultation and Supervision. 3 Units.

This course provides doctoral students with advanced training in and exposure to effective models of collaboration and supervision with an emphasis on systems-level change with diverse populations in public schools.

EPSY 391. Graduate Independent Study. 1-3 Units.

Permission of program lead.

EPSY 397D. Graduate Research. 1-4 Units.

Master of Arts

www.pacific.edu/benerdsac

Location: 3200 Fifth Ave. Sacramento, CA 95817

Programs Offered

Master of Arts (MA) in Education with concentrations in:

- Organizational Learning and Effectiveness

Admissions Requirement

1. A cumulative GPA of 3.0 or better for the last 60 units of college or post-baccalaureate work

2. A Bachelor's degree from an accredited university
3. A complete application portfolio to the Graduate School, essay(s) following program guidelines; official transcripts from all college-level coursework including official verification of the awarding of degrees; and three letters of recommendation that attests to the candidate's ability to undertake graduate studies
4. Departmental interview, if required.
5. Evidence of qualities and character in keeping with the philosophy and standards of this University and Benerd College

Credentialing and Licensing

Credential programs may be combined with the master's degree or the doctorate in education. The MA in Education, Teaching concentration, or Special Education concentration, offers programs for earning a Multiple Subject, Single Subject, in selected content areas, and Education Specialist, Mild-Moderate; Moderate/Severe Disabilities credentials. The Counseling Psychology Concentration includes an optional track (beyond the 32 unit minimum) to become eligible for the Licensed Professional Clinical Counselor (LPCC).

Pacific Undergraduate to Master's Pathway

The Licensed Professional Clinical Counselor (LPCC) track within the Counseling Psychology Concentration reserves six admissions spots for Pacific undergraduates who earn a 3.5 GPA or higher in upper division courses at Pacific and complete the application requirements. Pacific students who earn a 3.0 GPA or higher in upper division courses at Pacific will be guaranteed an interview upon completion of the application.

Research

1. Students will be able to locate appropriate resources of and critically evaluate educational research literature.

Diversity

1. Students will be able to critically analyze how the presence of diverse populations influences policy and practice.

Teaching and Learning

1. Students will be able to develop learning outcomes (e.g. individual group, organizational, or system) by synthesizing knowledge, skills, and reflective practice of human learning processes.

Master of Arts in Education

The Master of Arts (MA) in Education requires a minimum of 32 units, of which 18 units must be in courses 200 or above and from the Benerd College, with a Pacific cumulative grade point average of 3.0. Based upon state and federal laws, additional units and requirements may be necessary for those students electing to earn a credential, certification or license along with the graduate degree (e.g., teaching credential, and administration credential). Students interested in earning a credential, certification or license should work closely with their advisor and the credential staff. The requirements of some concentration options may also be guided by external standards that direct completion of specified courses and achievement of specific learning outcomes.

For students entering the Licensed Professional Clinical Counselor (LPCC) track within the Counseling Psychology Concentration (see above), EDUC 201 and EDUC 216 may be taken during the student's senior year at Pacific, which will be counted toward the master's and the bachelor's degree.

Note: 1.) Students will not receive credit for EDUC 170 /EDUC 270 and EDUC 171/EDUC 271. 2.) Students will not receive credit for SPED 198M/SPED 298M and SPED 198S/SPED 298S.

III. Capstone Experience

Students will be required to complete a capstone experience (e.g., oral exam, portfolio, thesis, action research project and/or written comprehensive exam). The capstone experience will be determined within each concentration. Some concentrations integrate the Field Experience and Capstone into a course (e.g. EDUC 296, EDUC 296T). Other concentrations have courses with integrative teacher research experiences, which fulfill the capstone requirement (e.g. EDUC 276, or SPED 295A). For students who do not elect not to earn a concentration, his or her advisor will select an appropriate capstone experience.

IV. Concentration

Students may elect to concentrate in one or more specific areas. In order to earn a concentration, students must fulfill the general requirements listed above as well as specific concentration requirements listed below.

A single course may be used to fulfill requirements in two or more concentrations.

Core Area Concentrations

Organizational Learning and Effectiveness

EDUC 235	Design Thinking for Organizational Analysis	3
EDUC 236	Prototyping for Organizational Improvement	3
EDUC 238	Organizational Change and Consulting	3
EDUC 372	Program and Organization Evaluation	3

Note: 1.) Specific courses are subject to change as per state requirements. Students must meet all state requirements in order to earn a credential. 2.) Minimum of required 12 units with specific courses determined by state credential requirements and advisers' approval required. Although the Master of Arts in Education requires a minimum of 12 units, credential programs may require additional units. 3.) *If these courses were taken in the undergraduate program, then electives will be required as substitutions.

V. Of the required 32 units a minimum of 18 units must be from the Benerd College

VI. Of the required 32 units a minimum of 18 units must be taken at the 200 or 300 level

Doctorate of Education

<http://www.pacific.edu/sacedd>

Location: 3200 Fifth Ave. Sacramento, CA 95817

Degree Program

Doctor of Education (EdD) in Education with specialization and/or cognate concentrations in:

- Leadership and Innovation
- Organizational Learning and Effectiveness (cognate)
- Social and Educational Entrepreneurship (cognate)

Admissions Requirement

1. A cumulative GPA of 3.0 or better for the last 60 units of college or post-baccalaureate work
2. An appropriate degree from an accredited university (master's degree for admission to doctoral programs).
3. A completed application portfolio to the Graduate School, an essay(s) following concentration-specific guidelines; official transcripts from all college-level coursework including official verification of the awarding of degrees; and three letters of recommendation that attests to the candidate's ability to undertake doctoral studies.
4. Interviews with faculty are required for the EdD program.
5. Evidence of qualities and character in keeping with the philosophy and standards of this University and Benerd Education Programs.
6. Some programs may have additional requirements. Please contact the Program Lead for additional information.

Program Stages

The approval of the dissertation proposal by the student's committee advances the student to Doctoral Candidacy.

Dissertation

An acceptable dissertation must be based on an original investigation. It must present either a contribution to knowledge and/or understanding, or an application of existing knowledge to the candidate's special field of study. The dissertation must be submitted by the appropriate deadlines as stated in the current Graduate Academic Calendar. As noted above, students admitted to the EdD program in the Benerd College require a minimum of 2 units and maximum of 5 units of Dissertation units (EDUC 399) that are completed after the dissertation proposal has been completed. After coursework is completed, students must register for at least one unit of EDUC 399 in each semester (including once during summer) to maintain active student status.

Period of Candidacy

The maximum time allowed for completion of an EdD program is governed by the following: All requirements for the Doctor of Education degree must be completed within the time limit outlined in the Residence and Time Limits section (<https://catalog.pacific.edu/stocktongraduate/academicregulations/#Residence>) of the Academic Regulations page of the graduate catalog. Students who do not meet these deadlines are dropped from the doctoral program.

Final Oral Examination

A final oral examination, conducted by the candidate's dissertation committee, is held in accordance to the deadline established by the Graduate School. This oral exam concerns itself with the candidate's dissertation. Supplemental information is available in the Benerd College department offices.

Semester Hour Requirements

A minimum of 56 doctoral units is required for the EdD degree. Some (usually no more than 6) post master degree units may be approved by petition for transfer from another university and count toward the 56 doctoral units.

Students who take doctoral core courses at part of a MA degree completed at Pacific may count those units towards their EdD.

Students who receive the EdS degree and then decide to apply to the EdD or who are seeking the degrees concurrently may count 28 units from their EdS degree towards their EdD. Students concurrently working on the EdS and EdD may count the 28 units from the EdS towards the EdD if the EdS degree posts before the EdD. Students need to obtain a minimum of 28 units beyond the EdS to obtain the EdD.

Credit value of the dissertation: Not less than 2 nor more than 5 units.

Grade Point Average Requirements

Grade point average of at least 3.0 in all work taken while in graduate studies is required. Preferably this should be 3.5.

Minimum Residence

The period of residence work represents an opportunity to secure additional competency in the area of specialization as well as the development of an acceptable dissertation. Residency requirement can be met by taking 18 units of coursework within 12 calendar months.

Courses Outside the Field of Education

Related graduate courses outside the field of education may count towards the EdD upon prior approval of the advisor and the Dean of Benerd College.

Students will be able to:

- Contribute to their discipline through conducting an original research study
- Critique and synthesize existing information relevant to their area of inquiry
- Apply appropriate methodologies to their process of inquiry
- Analyze data gathered through their process of inquiry and draw appropriate conclusions from that data
- Synthesize their results with previously existing information

Doctorate of Education

The Doctorate of Education (EdD) requires a minimum of 56 units with a Pacific cumulative grade point average of 3.0. Students must complete the doctoral core courses as well as a dissertation proposal and defense.

Based upon state and federal laws, additional units and requirements may be necessary for those students electing to earn a credential, certification or license along with the graduate degree (e.g., teaching credential, licensed educational psychologist, or licensed psychologist). Students interested in earning a credential, certification or license should work closely with advisor and credential staff. Student may choose to specialize in one or more areas. Students will be required to complete a dissertation at the conclusion of the program.

Mission Statement

The mission of the McGeorge School of Law, University of the Pacific is to:

Provide a student-centered education that prepares its graduates for productive, successful, and ethical careers in law and other professions that serve society, and for leadership in building a diverse society committed to global social justice; and Contribute to the improvement of law and policy through engaged scholarship and other forms of public service.

Accreditation and Memberships

McGeorge School of Law is fully accredited by the Council of the Section of Legal Education and Admission to the Bar of the American Bar Association and by the Committee of Bar Examiners of the State Bar of California. Degrees other than the JD (LLM, MSL, JSD, MPP, and MPA) are offered with the formal acquiescence of the American Bar Association Accreditation Committee. McGeorge School of Law is a member of the Association of American Law Schools. The school is approved for participation in veterans' educational benefits programs. The law school has been awarded a chapter of The Order of the Coif, a national law school honorary society founded for the purposes of encouraging legal scholarship and advancing the ethical standards of the legal profession.

Non-Discrimination Policy

McGeorge, in compliance with Titles VI and VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Title IX of the Educational Amendments of 1972 (45 CFR 86), Sections 503 and 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, does not discriminate in the administration of any of its educational programs, admissions, scholarships, loans, or other activities or programs on the basis of race, gender, sexual orientation or preference, national or ethnic origin, color, disability, marital status, age, or religious belief.

Statement of Diversity and Inclusion

McGeorge strives to enhance the personal and professional experiences of our community by promoting:

- Respect and Awareness of individuals and diverse communities and groups;
- Education inclusive of a variety of different perspectives, experiences, intellectual interests, and worldviews;
- A Commitment to increasing diversity in the legal profession; and
- The value of Collective Action to challenge prejudice, stereotyping, and harassment.

The McGeorge commitment to diversity is an essential part of providing a high quality education that prepares graduates for the administration of justice in a multicultural world and for professional participation in a legal community that represents the interests of a diverse society. (Statement adopted by the Minority Affairs Committee, '08-'09)

Student Records

In accordance with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974, the School of Law has established procedures to ensure that students have access to their records, that those records are accurate, and that the privacy rights of the students are protected.

Directory information may be released by the School of Law unless a student requests in writing that this information is kept confidential. Directory information includes a student's name, address, telephone number, e-mail address, date and place of birth, dates of attendance, degrees, honors, and scholarships received, participation in officially-recognized activities, and previous schools attended.

Students who wish to have such information kept confidential must file a written request with the Registrar prior to the last day to register for the Fall Semester.

Inquiries regarding compliance with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act may be directed to the Assistant Dean for Student Affairs, Registrar's Office, or to the Federal FERPA Office of the United States Department of Education.

LAW 100. Skills Lab- Torts. 1 Unit.

This required first-year course teaches students "best practices" for studying the law and teaches students legal analytical skills, including IRAC as a structure for legal analysis, critical case reading, rule extraction, case-briefing, synthesis, outlining, time-management, and test-taking. This course will be integrated with one of the first-year substantive courses required for students in the fall semester.

LAW 101. Contracts/Analytical Skills. 4 Units.

Contracts/Analytical Skills course offers a practical introduction to a foundational area or areas of law and to the legal method. Students will learn best practices for studying law and developing foundational legal analytical skills so that they may read and understand case law, statutes, and regulations. These analytical skills will include IRAC rule-based methodology as a structure for legal analysis, case-briefing, outlining, and test-taking. Students will also practice negotiating and drafting agreements. This highly interactive course will utilize multiple formative and summative assessments.

LAW 102. Assessment & Review - 1st Year. 0 Units.

This is a non-graded, zero unit course which students are automatically enrolled in to provide a scheduled block in their schedule for assessment and review. Faculty believe that regular assessment and feedback about academic progress is key to student success and therefore schedule assessment throughout the semester, particularly in bar-tested courses. Blocks of time have been designated for this purpose for first and second year students and are labeled on your schedule as "Assessment & Review Sessions." These sessions will be held on an as-needed basis; students should plan their schedules accordingly by reserving these blocks in their individual calendars.

LAW 104. The Legal Profession. 1 Unit.

In this course, students will acquire knowledge, skills, and qualities that are essential to a successful career in the law. Topics covered include professional identity formation, professionalism, teamwork, resilience, integrity, self-awareness, and interpersonal communication. This course will introduce students to the roles lawyers play in society, as well as the practicalities, challenges, responsibilities, and privileges of being a member of the legal profession. It will also familiarize students with the wide spectrum of careers in which a law degree is required or desirable, and challenge them to think deeply about a career path that will be truly satisfying. To help students attain meaningful employment, this course will require students to understand the "best practices" in job search activities, including resume writing, cover letter writing, working with mentors, goal setting, and networking. Upon registration in The Legal Profession, students will be charged a course material fee.

LAW 190. Remedies. 3 Units.

Clients seek remedies, not legal causes of action. This course will focus on the broad array of remedies available – generally organized under the categories of equity, injunctions, and monetary damages – and the strategic considerations for a lawyer seeking the client's desired remedy. The course focuses on analyzing and solving problems. This course serves as a capstone for doctrinal courses by comparing the remedies available under different causes of action.

LAW 209. Local Agency Practice. 2 Units.

California has thousands of local agencies and special districts providing essential services. This course explores local agency decision making in a variety of substantive areas. In this active learning course, the substantive mandates and policies are integrated into practical simulations and realistic legal assignments that emphasize advocacy, negotiation, and litigation. The litigation component examines administrative and traditional writs in addition to validation and reverse validation actions - unique and specialized lawsuits brought to challenge government actions. The course will focus on the substantive areas of the Brown Act, Public Records Act, California Environmental Quality Act, and Political Reform Act. (Practicum).

LAW 210. Business Planning. 2-3 Units.

Consideration of selected problems involving the organization, financing, operation, and restructuring of business enterprises. The problems require the combined consideration and application of corporate, tax, and securities law, accounting and financial matters, and business considerations and strategies. The problems also raise pertinent questions regarding the relationship between the business client and counsel and attendant problems concerning a lawyer's professional responsibility. Students may be expected to prepare research memoranda, legal opinions, and draft necessary documents. Prerequisites: LAW 151; LAW 300.

LAW 211. Entrepreneurial Management. 2 Units.

This online course introduces students to the knowledge, skills, and processes involved in innovation and entrepreneurship. Topics include how to generate new business ideas, how to evaluate new business opportunities, how to assemble human, financial, and strategic resources for a new firm, and how to manage growth and exits. Lessons will be delivered through online lectures, cases, and exercises, but there will also be flexible opportunities to meet individually and in small groups with the professor and with Sacramento-area entrepreneurs. The course will pay particular attention to the application of innovation and entrepreneurship to legal and other professional services. Students will be required to develop and pitch their own new business idea. the course is aimed at students seeking greater knowledge of the business skills involved in innovation and entrepreneurship. Scheduling note: Although the course is online, 15% of the course (approximately 2 sessions) will be in person and will be scheduled at mutually agreeable times after the class begins and will be based on meeting times that work for the participants. These 2 sessions will be mandatory.

LAW 212. Intro. to Legal Analysis. 2 Units.

Choices of policies and design of programs are core responsibilities of any public body. How these choices are made is critical. The chosen policies and programs shape the potential to achieve desired objectives, influence whether and how a public agency interacts with other public and private sector organizations involved in the same issue, some even working toward the same goal. Very importantly, how these choices are made and the choices themselves determine the roles of citizens beyond elections and also the roles of stakeholders. This course focuses on the design elements of these choices that cross any single department, sometimes seen at the level of a whole government-a nation, state, county, city or special district. Examples include how councils, boards or commissions develop calendars of work, including enacting ordinances and regulations, adopting budgets, or managing collective bargaining. Some important designs are externally imposed on organizations, including prescriptions of constitutionally superior governments, as well as standards established by professional bodies, such as the Government Accounting Standards Board. Students in the course develop tools to strategically analyze these design choices and assess how important features of a policy process can be changed. Many of the concepts and tools are also relevant to larger non-profit organizations and some are relevant to for-profit firms.

LAW 214. Small Business Seminar. 2 Units.

This course addresses business associations law issues that arise in firms having few owners (closely held businesses), whether conducted as partnerships, limited partnerships, limited liability partnerships, limited liability companies or closely held corporations. It is designed to go beyond the abbreviated coverage of these topics in the Business Associations course. This course should be useful for students interested in representing closely held businesses and their owners (or who anticipate operating their own business). It also provides additional exposure to issues in Business Associations that might appear on the bar examination.

LAW 216. The Business of Lawyering. 1 Unit.

This course uses an interactive model to explore the business side of law firms, including the critical skills needed to establish and operate a law firm as a solo or small firm practitioner. In addition, it provides an understanding of how larger law firms operate. It covers a broad array of topics related to the various dimensions of law practice, including business, clients, and life management. Business plans, marketing and client development, professional development, office management, and financial and ethical issues are among the subjects to be covered. Enrollment limit. LAW 802. Negotiation and Settlements Seminar. 2 or 3 Units.

This course examines the theoretical, ethical, and practical skills essential to being an effective advocate in negotiations involving legal disputes. Students learn negotiation skills through lecture, discussion, video simulations, and extensive interactive exercises and role-plays. Students are introduced to negotiation tools and techniques that enhance negotiation success. This course helps students identify strengths and weaknesses in personal negotiating style. Enrollment limit. (Simulation).

LAW 803. Advanced Legal Research - Blended. 2 Units.

This course is an in-depth examination of the principles, techniques, and sources of legal research taught via a combination of in-person class meetings and distance education. Students gain an understanding of research strategies through in-person and online lectures, readings, videos, discussions, and research exercises. Students complete multiple fact-based assignments as well as a final examination. There is ample interaction with the professor and other students both inside and outside the formal structure of the course throughout its duration, and ample assessment of student effort and learning throughout the course. Students are precluded from this course if they have taken Advanced Legal Research in a different format. (P/F) Enrollment Limit. (Practicum).

LAW 804. Criminal Pretrial Litigation. 2-3 Units.

This course includes lectures, demonstrations, and extensive student participation in all phases of criminal pretrial litigation: investigation, client and witness interviewing and preparation, case evaluation, charging decisions, discovery, pretrial hearings including grand jury and preliminary hearings, pretrial motions, plea negotiations, sentencing considerations, and ethical considerations in all phases. Students draft documents pertaining to all aspects of criminal pretrial practice. (Simulation).

LAW 807. Advanced Appellate Advocacy Seminar. 2 Units.

This course is required for students competing on Moot Court teams. It focuses on advanced theory and practice of appellate advocacy, including the appellate process, preparation of appellate briefs and presentation of oral arguments. It meets both semesters for 2 units per semester. Enrollment must be approved by course instructor and is limited. All students will prepare two appellate briefs while participating in interschool competitions. Prerequisite: Global Lawyering Skills II, unless waived by the professor.

LAW 809. Civil Pretrial Litigation. 2 Units.

This course includes lectures, demonstrations, and extensive student participation in simulations concerning all aspects of civil litigation before trial with particular emphasis on strategies for efficiently securing favorable outcomes. Areas of coverage include: early informal investigation, identifying a "theory of the case," how case theory affects formation of a discovery plan, selecting among informal and formal discovery choices, choosing deponents, tactics of taking and defending depositions, preparing interrogatories and interrogatory responses, tactics of propounding and responding to other discovery requests, options for resolution of discovery disputes, evaluation of potential pretrial motions for full or partial summary adjudication, and pretrial submissions. Students draft documents pertaining to all aspects of civil pretrial practice. (Simulation).

LAW 812. Trial Advocacy & Evidence Skills. 3 Units.

Trial Advocacy and Evidence Skills takes a student through the entire range of in-court trial skills: examination of witnesses, opening and closing addresses to the jury, communications techniques, handling of exhibits, jury selection, and trial strategy while simultaneously teaching them how to utilize the Federal Rules of Evidence in the courtroom setting. To supplement the basic required course in Evidence Law, this course includes analysis of evidence issues in the weekly exercises and the final trial, including online webinars by the professors to highlight rules of evidence as they arise in the trial context. The course concludes with an all-day jury trial in front of a guest judge and volunteer jurors from the community.

LAW 812L. Trial Advocacy & Evidence Skills.-Lecture. 0 Units.

Trial Advocacy and Evidence Skills takes a student through the entire range of in-court trial skills: examination of witnesses, opening and closing addresses to the jury, communications techniques, handling of exhibits, jury selection, and trial strategy while simultaneously teaching them how to utilize the Federal Rules of Evidence in the courtroom setting. To supplement the basic required course in Evidence Law, this course includes analysis of evidence issues in the weekly exercises and the final trial, including online webinars by the professors to highlight rules of evidence as they arise in the trial context. The course concludes with an all-day jury trial in front of a guest judge and volunteer jurors from the community.

LAW 815. Advanced Trial Advocacy. 3 Units.

This course consists of lecture (including frequent demonstrations), combined with weekly practice sessions, covering at an advanced level: case theory development (including discussion of integration of case theory with jury instructions), persuasive opening statements, organization and technique of direct examination, advanced techniques of cross examination, direct and cross examination of expert witnesses, closing argument using analogy and storytelling techniques, jury selection, complex topics in evidence, special exercises in communications, vocal arts, and movement. Prerequisite: LAW 812. (Simulation).

LAW 821. Taking and Defending Depositions. 2 Units.

This course provides students with the practical, hands-on experience of preparing for, taking and defending depositions. Using a realistic case file, each student learns to: understand the various roles of a deposition – use as a discovery tool, evidentiary support for motions and impeachment at trial; prepare for the deposition including preparing the deponent; create an outline of a deposition; take a deposition, defend a deposition and play the role of a client or witness being deposed; and draft a file memo summarizing the deposition. Each student receives in-depth feedback from the professor. Enrollment limit. (Simulation).

LAW 822. Lawmaking in California. 2 Units.

This course covers the fundamental components of the legislative process, policy and ethics including legislative procedure, bill drafting and analysis, history and intent, advocacy, relationships with the executive branch, and powers and limits of the legislative branch. Students learn about statutory and regulatory lawmaking and observe the lawmaking process in action. Students draft legislation (bills and amendments) and analyses. The making of statutory law has an increasingly critical role in our legal system. This course prepares students who want to continue their studies in the legislative arena and participate in the Legislation & Public Policy Clinic.

LAW 824. Written Discovery. 2 Units.

This course introduces students to the conceptual, legal, strategic, and practical issues relating to written discovery in civil litigation. The course also teaches students how to draft and respond to special and form interrogatories, requests for admission, and demands for production in a simulated case. Enrollment limit. (Simulation).

LAW 826. Negotiating Disputes Into Deals. 1 Unit.

This course focuses on creative problem-solving techniques integral to a negotiator's toolbox, examining how to create value when negotiating common disputes. The course uses a live negotiation simulation where students can develop strategies, employ bargaining tactics, and structure agreements, tools that are applicable to a wide range of negotiation contexts. Through simulation, combined with lecture and small group exercises, students negotiate a resolution to a conflict and draft a settlement agreement. Enrollment limit. (Simulation).

LAW 853. Legislative & Public Policy Clinic. 3 Units.

Students gain practical experience in researching, drafting, and pursuing adoption of California State legislative, policy, and regulatory proposals. The course examines techniques of legislative persuasion, including a blend of traditional advocacy skills and political strategy. Students will learn practical skills such as drafting support and opposition letters and bill analyses, negotiation and compromise, and persuasive speaking. Working in teams, students are responsible for identifying a client in need of a state law change, analyzing the deficiencies in current law or policy, and practice, drafting proposed statutes or regulations, refining the proposals to reflect public affairs and political realities, crafting a strategy for effectuating the change, and pursuing adoption of their final proposals in the California Legislature or an administrative agency. Activities include preparing briefing materials, presenting proposals to the appropriate governmental offices, assembling a grassroots and support coalition, seeking favorable media coverage, lobbying for change, meeting with opposing parties to discuss their concerns and negotiate changes, and participating in public hearings. The Clinic includes a weekly, two-hour seminar, where students are taught practical skills in legislative advocacy, as well as present and receive feedback on the results of their team collaborations with other students. By the end of the course, students are expected to have demonstrated competence in devising and executing a realistic strategy for passing legislation or petitioning a state government department to adopt a rule change. Admission into the year-long clinic is by an application process, and admission preference will be given to students pursuing a Capital Lawyering Concentration. Enrollment limit. Year-long (6 Graded Credits, 3 per semester).

LAW 859. Small Business Law Clinic. 3 Units.

Students will gain practical experience in client interviewing, researching, case management, document preparation and other skills necessary to represent the legal needs of small business entrepreneurs. Working with a business law firm that agrees to represent clients in a pro or low bono capacity, students will participate in a weekly seminar to discuss best practices, legal and procedural issues that arise when meeting the legal needs of small business clients. By the end of the course, students will be expected to have demonstrated competence of the basic business and transactional legal skills necessary to represent the legal needs of a small business, either in the start-up process or on-going needs. Completion of Business Associations is a pre-requisite unless waived with the approval of the professor. The clinic includes a weekly, one-hour seminar. (Limited enrollment.) Graded.

LAW 865. Immigration Clinic. 1-3 Units.

Students will provide legal assistance and direct representation to low-income clients on immigration matters including asylum, Special Immigrant Juvenile Petitions, U and T visas, VAWA petitions, and deportation defense. Students gain experience in client counseling, case analysis, problem-solving and cross cultural competency. 150 hours per semester of clinical work is required, of which 30 hours are allocated to the instructional portion. Students may participate for more than one semester. These returning students have the option of enrolling for 3 credits (150 hours), 2 credits (100 hours) or 1 credit (50 hours). Admission into Immigration Law Clinic is by an application process. Graded. Prerequisite: Completion of, or concurrent enrollment, in Immigration & Naturalization Law.

LAW 874. Federal Defender Clinic. 3 Units.

Students represent indigent defendants charged with misdemeanors before Federal Magistrate Judges in the first semester, under the joint supervision of a Federal Defender and McGeorge faculty. Students hone their skills in client counseling, plea negotiation, case analysis, oral and written advocacy and trial techniques. Students conduct evidentiary hearings and many conduct full jury trials. Admission into the year-long Federal Defender Clinic is by an application process. Prerequisite: Concurrent enrollment in LAW 895. Enrollment limit.

LAW 875. Bankruptcy Clinic. 1-3 Units.

The Bankruptcy Clinic provides a practical skills experience in insolvency issues and proceedings. Students interview and counsel clients, and assist clients in all aspects of case assessment, negotiation and settlement, including representation of debtors and creditors in bankruptcy proceedings in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Eastern District of California. The Bankruptcy Clinic also represents both debtors and creditors in adversary proceedings including objections to discharge and other related proceedings. The instructional portion of the clinic will focus on the substantive and procedural law of bankruptcy. 150 hours per semester of clinical work is required, of which 30 hours are allocated to the instructional portion. Students may participate for more than one semester. These returning students have the option of enrolling for 3 credits (150 hours), 2 credits (100 hours) or 1 credit (50 hours). Admission into the Bankruptcy Clinic is by an application process. Graded. Enrollment limit. Prerequisite: Completion of, or concurrent enrollment in, Bankruptcy or Survey of Bankruptcy.

LAW 882. California Parole Hearings and Litigation. 1 Unit.

California's parole system impacts nearly every aspect of the criminal justice system. Prosecutors, defense attorneys, legislators, Board of Parole Hearings staff, and the judiciary all encounter the parole system at some point. This practicum introduces students to California's parole system to build a fundamental understanding that will inform students' future legal professions. It addresses topics including the history of sentencing and parole in California; the statutes, regulations, and case law that govern parole consideration and release; changes to California's parole scheme that have followed California Supreme Court cases, federal court orders, and California legislation and ballot propositions; the use of habeas corpus to challenge parole denials; parole supervision; and recidivism. Guest speakers will provide practical insight into their roles in the parole process. Students will complete several short assignments to gain experiential knowledge of these topics by evaluating the legal and practical soundness of parole decisions, drafting closing arguments for parole hearings, and playing a role in a mock parole hearing.

LAW 895. Federal Pretrial/Trial Litigation Seminar. 2 Units.

This course provides the podium component of a full year Federal Defender Clinic experience. Students participate in in-depth legal and case analysis, problem-solving, advocacy training, client counseling, simulated hearings and trials based on actual case files, and the preparation of motions, briefs and case analysis memoranda. Class discussions include ethical issues encountered in criminal defense work. The focus is on criminal defense in the Federal system, including how the structure and prosecution/defense roles reflect social and political values. Students are required to stay current on criminal law procedure and sentencing issues and engage in critical thinking about both legal/case strategy and broader issues raised by the representation of indigent clients. (Enrollment limited to those enrolled in LAW 874.).

LAW 904. Crime Victims Seminar. 1 Unit.

A series of substantive and procedural law seminars required for all students enrolled in the Crime Victims Clinic. The seminars will cover the constitutional and statutory rights of crime victims and the difficulties inherent in exercising those rights. Students will research, write, and present substantive papers on victims' rights topics. Seminars will be held weekly with one Saturday session.

LAW 909. Prisoner Civil Rights Mediation Clinic. 3 Units.

Students co-mediate Section 1983 prisoner civil rights cases with a Federal Magistrate Judge during this year-long clinic. Under Section 1983, prisoners in state prisons have the right to file a civil rights complaint seeking relief for alleged violation of rights protected by the Constitution or created by federal statute. Students learn both the theory and practice of mediation and develop the skills necessary to serve as mediators, including conducting pre-mediation meetings with both sides. Students learn Section 1983 prisoner case law and work closely with Federal District Court personnel. Admission into the year-long Prisoner Civil Rights Mediation Clinic is by an application process, and is limited to third and fourth-year students. Prerequisite: LAW 526, LAW 802 or a non-credit basic 40-hour mediation workshop with the consent of the professor. Enrollment limit.

LAW 920. Pacific Law Review - Editors. 1-3 Units.

Editorial board members are elected by the outgoing board. Editors supervise the staff and make policy decisions concerning McGeorge Law Review publications. The Editor-in-Chief and the Chief Managing Editor receive three credits. All other Editors receive two credits. (P/F).

LAW 921. Pacific Law Review - Staff. 1-3 Units.

Staff members are competitively selected from advanced students. Two credits are awarded on completion of a draft comment or casenote of publishable quality. One additional credit is awarded on completion of all editorial and production processes necessary for publication of a comment or casenote. The additional credit is awarded in the academic year in which the requirements for the additional credit are completed, which can be in the same year in which the initial two credits are awarded or in the following year. (P/F).

LAW 922. Pacific Legislative Law Review. 2 Units.

LAW 923. Law Review Seminar. 1 Unit.

This seminar is required for and limited to students selected to write a comment for the University of the Pacific Law Review. The seminar focuses on development and production of a law review comment topic and legal research techniques. The course begins shortly before the official beginning of the semester and ends before the end of September. Each writer must develop a comment topic, outline, and research plan to complete the course. In addition, each writer must identify a faculty advisor who has agreed to supervise the student to completion of the comment.

LAW 954. Externship. 3-4 Units.

Students will perform on-site legal work as externs under the supervision of field placement supervisors in government agencies or non-profit entities which specialize in the practice of civil law. This is an umbrella course which includes placement sites that do not easily fit into the other externship categories. Placement site and practice descriptions are set forth in the Directory of Field Placements, which is available on the internet at the Pacific McGeorge website or in the Field Placement Program office. Current placement sites include the Yolo and San Joaquin County Counsel's Offices, the Sacramento, Roseville and Stockton City Attorney's Offices, California Office of Homeland Security, California Department of Education, the Pacific Justice Institute and the Pacific Legal Foundation. The Field Placement Director will help students find an appropriate placement, and must approve each student's registration. (P/F).

LAW 956. Externship - Judicial. 2-14 Units.

Students will perform on-site legal work with court research attorneys or Judges at various local California Superior Courts, or such other court(s) as the Field Placement Director may approve. Placement sites (which may include Superior Court divisions with specialized jurisdictions such as probate, juvenile or family law courts) and practice descriptions are set forth in the Directory of Field Placements, which is available on the internet at the Pacific McGeorge website or in the Field Placement Program office. The Field Placement Director will help students find an appropriate placement, and must approve each student's registration. (P/F).

LAW 957. Externship - Seminar. 0 Units.

Externship participants will also be required to concurrently enroll in a seminar, in which students will attend five (5) seminar meetings throughout the semester and consult with their seminar leader. Seminar leaders may require students to keep a reflective journal or write periodic reflective essays. Additionally, seminar leaders may require a final written work product or an appropriate writing sample that is reflective of their placement. The Externship Director will help students find an appropriate placement, and must approve each student's registration. (P/F).

LAW 960. Externship-Semester in Practice Accelerated Honors Program. 7 Units.

Students will perform on-site legal work as half-time externs (minimum of 280 hours) or full-time (minimum of 560 hours) externs during a semester under the supervision of a field placement supervisor in a court, government agency or nonprofit organization, or in a private placement. Private placements are limited to those areas in which students are unable to gain practical experience without receiving academic credit and are not otherwise available through regular field-placement offerings. Private placements have included IP, Entertainment, General Counsel, Water, and Lobbying-related placements. Students must complete pre-placement interviews with the Director of the Field Placement Program and the Assistant Dean for Student Affairs before applying to placement sites. A student's enrollment in a half time or a full time externship must be approved by the Field Placement Director, the Assistant Dean for Student Affairs, and by the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs. Half time and full time externships may have class rank requirements, and generally, are recommended only for students in the top half of their class. (Up to 7 P/F units for half-time; up to 14 P/F, or 12 P/F units and 2 graded units, for full-time). This course is for JD students in the Accelerated Honor Program only.

LAW 961. Externship - Semester in Practice. 2-14 Units.

Students will perform on-site legal work as half-time externs (minimum of 280 hours) or full-time (minimum of 560 hours) externs during a semester under the supervision of a field placement supervisor in a court, government agency or nonprofit organization, or in a private placement. Private placements are limited to those areas in which students are unable to gain practical experience without receiving academic credit and are not otherwise available through regular field-placement offerings. Private placements have included IP, Entertainment, General Counsel, Water, and Lobbying-related placements. Students must complete pre-placement interviews with the Director of the Field Placement Program and the Assistant Dean for Student Affairs before applying to placement sites. A student's enrollment in a half time or a full time externship must be approved by the Field Placement Director, the Assistant Dean for Student Affairs, and by the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs. Half time and full time externships may have class rank requirements, and generally, are recommended only for students in the top half of their class. (Up to 7 P/F units for half-time; up to 14 P/F, or 12 P/F units and 2 graded units, for full-time).

LAW 969. Mock Trial Evidence. 1 Unit.

Enrollment limited to the members of the current Mock Trial Team. Trial Evidence will hone the skills of the Mock Trial Team in making and responding to evidentiary objections in the cauldron of the trial arena. The Fall competition cases will be used to isolate and analyze the likely issues that will arise. For those who have already taken Evidence this will be an intensive review. For those now taking Evidence, it will be an opportunity to learn Evidence law in context.

LAW 970. Mock Trial Team. 1-3 Units.

Students selected for Mock Trial teams prepare simulated civil and criminal jury trials, then compete regionally and nationally against other law school teams. Expert litigator-coaches train students during practices held several times a week. The course enhances the student's persuasion and advocacy skills and reinforces the integration of the rules of evidence into actual trial practice. (Simulation) (P/F).

LAW 979. Interviewing and Counseling Team. 1 Unit.

Student competitors conduct an initial 30-minute interview with a person role playing a client and address both the client's legal and non-legal needs. Competitors are evaluated on their ability to explain various aspects of the attorney-client relationship, build rapport, address professional responsibility issues, determine the client's goal(s), and consider applicable law and options available to the client. Enrollment will be on a selective basis and limited to 6-8 students. Prerequisites include participation in the Client Interviewing and Counseling course or a live-client clinical program.

LAW 980. LLM Legal Research, Writing and Analysis. 2 Units.

This course covers the legal skills necessary for students whose first law degree is not from the U.S. to be successful in U.S. law school and in legal practice. Coverage includes U.S. legal systems, legal reasoning, and legal writing skills relevant to law school success, bar examinations, and legal practice, as well as legal research using print and electronic sources. Students will receive detailed feedback on their completed exercises to improve their analytical thinking and written expression. (LL.M. Students Only) (May be waived with permission of the Director of Graduate and International Programs.).

LAW 981. LLM Legal Research, Writing and Analysis II. 2 Units.

This course expands the coverage of the legal skills necessary for students whose first law degree is not from the U.S. to be successful in U.S. law school and in legal practice. Coverage includes U.S. legal systems, legal reasoning, and legal writing skills relevant to law school success, bar examinations, and legal practice, as well as legal research using print and electronic sources. Students will receive detailed feedback on their completed exercises to improve their analytical thinking and written expression. (LL.M. Students Only) (May be waived with permission of the Director of Graduate and International Programs). Prerequisite: LAW 980.

LAW 986. Dissertation. 12 Units.

LAW 989. Master's Thesis. 6 Units.

This course is for LLM students who are completing an approved Master's Thesis project. (3 units, graded).

LAW 990. Directed Research. 1-2 Units.

LAW 991. Directed Research, Graduate Level. 1-2 Units.

Graduate Level Directed Research provides the opportunity for LL.M. students to engage in a comprehensive individual research project under the supervision of a full-time faculty member. The work product may take the form of a scholarly paper, empirical study, analysis of topical readings, or other creative format that demonstrates in-depth legal research and original analysis. Advanced approval of the research topic and unit credit is required. A student must submit a detailed written proposal of the research topic and obtain approval from a full-time faculty member willing to supervise the student's research. The proposal and a complete "Graduate Level Directed Research Approval Form" must then be submitted for approval to the Director of Graduate & International Programs prior to end of the registration period for the term in which the student intends to enroll in Directed Research. Directed Research must be supervised throughout the semester by a full-time faculty member. Specifics regarding supervision of the course are left to the supervising faculty member, however, the general expectation is that the student will take responsibility for ensuring that an outline, drafts, and the final project are completed by the established deadlines. A student may enroll for either one or two credit units for Directed Research. A student is expected to put in at least 50 hours of work for each credit hour. If the resulting work product is a paper, as a general rule, the student should produce a paper of approximately 15 pages in length including footnotes for one unit of credit or 25 pages in length including footnotes for two units of credit. A student is not permitted to receive credit for Directed Research for a project produced for the student's employer or for any other law school course or activity.

LAW 995. Visiting Program/Off Campus. 17 Units.

This course is used to track enrollment for students taking coursework at another institution as a visiting student.

Public Policy CoursesPUB 210. Law and Policy Foundations. 3 Units.

Sets public policy making and implementation in the US system of law and democratic governance with limited comparison to legal and governance systems of other nations. Includes emphasis on roles and responsibilities of public professionals and the importance of analyses from differing perspectives. Attention to institutions and policies that effectively address value conflict, complexity and uncertainty.

PUB 211. Pub Pol: Conflicted, Complex, Uncertain. 3 Units.

Sets public policy making and implementation in contexts of value conflicts, complexity and uncertainty especially as addressed in US democratic system of governance but also comparatively globally. Starts with structural design of the US constitution (separation of powers, federal system, and limited government). Includes analysis of major changes in structures, powers and activities with emphasis on roles and responsibilities of public professionals. Establishes importance of analyses from differing perspectives: individual/household, communities (of place or interest), firms/organizations, public agencies and public interest, including intergenerational. Introduction to tools premised on rational public policy making and implementation. Major attention to tools of analysis and instruments of action that explicitly incorporate value conflict, complexity and uncertainty.

PUB 212. Choices in Policy Design. 3 Units.

Choices of policies and design of programs are core responsibilities of any public body. How these choices are made is critical. The chosen policies and programs shape the potential to achieve desired objectives, influence whether and how a public agency interacts with other public and private sector organizations involved in the same issue, some even working toward the same goal. Very importantly, how these choices are made and the choices themselves determine the roles of citizens beyond elections and also the roles of stakeholders. This course focuses on the design elements of these choices that cross any single department, sometimes seen at the level of a whole government-a nation, state, county, city or special district. Examples include how councils, boards or commissions develop calendars of work, including enacting ordinances and regulations, adopting budgets, or managing collective bargaining. Some important designs are externally imposed on organizations, including prescriptions of constitutionally superior governments, as well as standards established by professional bodies, such as the Government Accounting Standards Board. Students in the course develop tools to strategically analyze these design choices and assess how important features of policy process can be changed. Many of the concepts and tools are also relevant to larger non-profit organizations and some are relevant to for-profit firms.

PUB 213. Enhancing Societal Capacity. 3 Units.

Enhanced societal capacity is an overarching goal of public policy. Today's quality of life, economic competitiveness and opportunity, or use of natural resources, reflect past choices. Societal capacity to choose and to act will determine our futures and should be viewed globally. Progress here is not synonymous with "larger" or more "active" government as very important public purposes are achieved by actions which protect the liberty of or empower individuals, households, firms and communities. However, important societal purposes are achieved by public action that requires capacity derived from legal authority, technical competencies, fiscal resources, political support and networked relationships. Examination of a broad, global range of policy making and implementation tools, ranging from individual or family choice (e.g., in schools), through expertise (e.g., scientists) and a variety of techniques to learn from assessment of policy and program implementation, all analyzed from different perspectives established in PUB 211.

PUB 214. Budgets, Financial Management. 3 Units.

Develops understanding of the role budgets play in state, local, and federal governance. Examines the politics of budgeting and the process of developing capital and operating budgets. Gives students hands on experience working with core budget and other financial documents, including budget change proposals, performance measures, comprehensive annual financial reports, and public agency actuarial valuation reports. Also explores the effect economic cycles and past government and voter decisions have on modern budget options.

PUB 215. A Complex Public Policy Case. 3 Units.

Examines capacity for effective action beyond single jurisdictions or agencies. Also examines devices for joint actions across sectors, including inter-sectoral and inter-governmental, such as specific area plans, joint powers, financing districts or purposeful networks. Explicit attention is given to allocation of risks as a public policy tool, often seen in financing of large projects and programs.

PUB 218. Professional Skills. 1 Unit.

Develops professional skills in writing and presentation. Exercises establish the high standards required in professional work in the public sector. Contrasts colloquial, advocacy and discipline-based academic communications vs. professional work products used in the making and implementation of public policies to clarify norms and the writing and presentation competencies required in these roles.

PUB 219. Directed Research. 1-3 Units.

Students complete comprehensive individual research projects under the supervision of a faculty member resulting in a public policy relevant analysis. Topic, unit credit and graded or pass/fail must be approved in advance. (P/F or graded) (may be repeated).

PUB 221. Economic Concepts and Tools. 3 Units.

Develops competence in economic concepts and tools. Draws from microeconomics. Key concepts include efficiency, equity, tax incidence, opportunity cost, cost-benefit analysis and the role of incentives, marginal analysis, competition, public goods and market failure. Provides opportunity for students to discuss the effectiveness of various government programs and regulation or de-regulation strategies from an economic point of view.

PUB 222. Finance for Public Policies. 3 Units.

Develops competence to use concepts and tools of public finance common to professionals in public policy arena. Examines substantive and procedural requirements related to various forms of public agency revenue sources in California, including taxes, assessments, fees and charges. Other topics include revenue estimation, capital facility financing, internal controls, fund accounting and public investments. Attention also paid to institutions critical to public finance.

PUB 232. Public Policy Research Tools. 3 Units.

Emphasizes importance of accurate and relevant information to sustain and advance effective public policy in support of constitutional democracy. Develops skills for use of qualitative and quantitative research methods, including construction and analyses of purposive samples, interviews and surveys. Includes techniques useful in providing information from the different perspectives introduced in PUB 211. Develops competencies in program or policy evaluation. Attention is given to unobtrusive measures found in common public policy processes and to effective presentation of results to different audiences.

PUB 233. Public Manager Analytics. 3 Units.

Introduces students to use of analytics in managing organizations and implementation of programs or policies. Provides students with a solid foundation in descriptive and inferential statistics. Topics covered include: measures of central tendency and dispersion, probability and probability distributions, hypothesis testing and confidence intervals, correlation, simple regression, and an introduction to multivariate regression. Develops competencies in identifying relevant analytics, collection of data including survey design, and making information usable for decision makers seeking to improve performance in achieving policy goals.

PUB 234. Advanced Policy Analytics. 3 Units.

Policy analysts seek to understand why public policy problems exist and what, if anything, could be done to address them. Program evaluators want to know whether and how well extant public policies/programs-designed in response to policy problems-are working. This course extends the statistical toolbox, introduced in PUB 233: Public Manager Analytics, used in policy analysis and program evaluation. By the end of the course, students should be able to estimate and interpret a variety of econometric models. Topics include: Hypothesis testing with multivariate regression, dummy variables, interaction effects, fixed effects, instrumental variables, time series, discontinuity models, and logistic regression.

PUB 241. Leaders, Organization Behavior. 3 Units.

Analysis and development of knowledge and skills relevant to complex organizational behavior in public and nonprofit organizations, including motivation, diversity, communications, decision-making, power, conflict, culture, and change. Explicit attention to strategic leadership, including responsibilities for organization structures and their internal and external relationships, managing human capital, group development and performance, and political and symbolic roles.

PUB 242. Systemic Change. 3 Units.

Analysis and developing skills relevant to purposeful, enduring change of public policies and public institutions. Roles and strategies of policy entrepreneurs are analyzed. Actions which strengthen policies are contrasted with those which weaken them. Explicit attention not only to public executives, but also to strategies of elected officials, stakeholders, and advocacy groups. Identifying and understanding the articulation of a variety of tools, such as strategic communications or facilitated processes, as well as more specific policy tools, such as changed laws, new decision arenas, or changed financial incentives.

PUB 251. Pub Admin: Values, Roles and Skills. 3 Units.

Importance and interrelationships in Public Administration of (1) values that are fundamental to public action and often contested as political actors interpret core values differently, (2) roles which are defined by cultures and institutions (e.g., department head, staff analyst, city manager) and (3) professional knowledge and skills which support ethical behaviors which are also effective in achieving desired public purposes. Emphasis is on constitutionally grounded search for liberty, human dignity and reasonableness under a rule of law.

PUB 252. Capstone: Strategy, Implementation. 3 Units.

Integration of learning from courses taken through (1) self-assessment and (2) class analyses of relevant cases of both successful and unsuccessful public professionals, or (3) a project for an actual client. The goal is strengthening knowledge and competencies for sustained, long-term effectiveness. Much class work is undertaken by teams.

PUB 261. Water Policy Choices. 3 Units.

Identifies and analyses possible changes in water policy in the next 2-5 years and beyond. Develops capacity to understand, analyze and recommend actions with sufficient understanding of relevant values, past history, competitive forces, and adaptive human behaviors to reasonably assess implementation feasibility and to identify probable longer term effects of public policy choices.

PUB 262. Health Policy Choices. 3 Units.

Identifies and analyses possible changes in health policy in the next 2-5 years and beyond. Develops capacity to understand, analyze and recommend actions with sufficient understanding of relevant values, past history, competitive forces, and adaptive human behaviors to reasonably assess implementation feasibility and to identify probable longer term effects of public policy choices.

PUB 263. Sustainability Policy Choices. 3 Units.

Identifies and analyses possible changes in sustainability policy in the next 2-5 years and beyond. Develops capacity to understand, analyze and recommend actions with sufficient understanding of relevant values, past history, competitive forces, and adaptive human behaviors to reasonably assess implementation feasibility and to identify probable longer term effects of public policy choices. Includes attention to energy, water and land uses, but also to sustainability agendas of businesses and other actors.

PUB 264. Public Reform Policy Choices. 3 Units.

Identifies and analyses possible changes in public institutions and practices in the next 2-5 years and beyond. Develops capacity to understand, analyze and recommend actions with sufficient understanding of relevant values, past history, competitive forces, and adaptive human behaviors to reasonably assess implementation feasibility and to identify probable longer term effects of public policy choices.

PUB 265. Emergency Services Policy. 3 Units.

Encompasses emergency preparedness planning, response and recovery, including natural disasters, terrorism, intelligence/information available and analyses, and counterterrorism. Attention to linkages among national, state, local and nongovernmental arenas of decision and capabilities.

PUB 266. Advanced Quantitative Tools. 3 Units.

Multivariate regression and modeling tools, including application to cases in water and health care. (prerequisites: PUB 231 and PUB 232).

PUB 267. Economics of Place, Industry. 3 Units.

Develop competence in economic concepts, theories and tools relevant to analyses of sub-national places, such as a region or watershed, including valuation of ecosystem services, and to industries, such as health care or agriculture. (prerequisites: PUB 221 and PUB 222).

PUB 268. Judicial Administration. 3 Units.

Identifies and analyses possible changes in judicial institutions and practices in the next 2-10 years. Develops capacity to analyze relevant values, past history, competitive forces, and adaptive human behaviors to identify promising strategies. Emphasizes skills and tools of leadership and implementation required for success in this complex context.

PUB 271. Public Policy Special Topics. 3 Units.

Topic selected by faculty member to fit curricular needs, current issues and student interest. Illustrative topics include "U.S. Social Movements and Public Policy," "Spatial and Data Analysis," or "The Economics of Race in the United States."

PUB 281. Public Finance Policy Choices. 3 Units.

Identifies and analyses current practices and possible changes in instruments and practices of public finance in the next 2-5 years and beyond. Develops competencies in use of selected instruments. The primary focus is supporting executive roles: capacity to understand, analyze and recommend actions with sufficient understanding of relevant values, past history, competitive forces, and adaptive human behaviors to reasonably assess implementation feasibility and to identify probable longer-term effects of public finance practices.

PUB 282. Public Data Policy Choices. 3 Units.

Identifies and analyses current practices and possible changes in public policies and practices concerning collection, use and access to public data in the next 2-5 years and beyond. Includes analytics of public data. Develops capacity to understand, analyze and recommend actions with sufficient understanding of relevant values, past history, competitive forces, and adaptive human behaviors to reasonably assess implementation feasibility and to identify probable longer-term effects of public policy choices regarding collection and uses of public data.

PUB 283. Public Policy Decision Tools. 3 Units.

Identifies and analyses uses of decision tools in making and implementing public policies. Develops competencies in use of selected tools. Additionally considers possible changes in use of such decision tools in the next 2-5 years and beyond. The tools considered include those which emphasize formal calculation, structured uses of science and other expertise, and procedural rules under which decisions are made. The primary focus is supporting executive roles: capacity to understand, analyze and recommend actions with sufficient understanding of relevant values, past history, competitive forces, and adaptive human behaviors to reasonably assess implementation feasibility and to identify probable longer-term effects of use of various decision tools.

PUB 284. State Government. 3 Units.

Focuses on the distinctive attributes and roles of state governments. Emphasizes understanding of the institutions and operations of state government with particular attention to effectiveness and to the roles of public professionals, including civil service careerists, public-interest advocates, political leaders and contracted service providers. Develops capacity to understand, analyze and recommend actions with sufficient understanding of relevant values, past history, competitive forces, and adaptive human behaviors to reasonably assess implementation feasibility and to identify probable longer-term effects of public policy choices.

PUB 285. Local Government. 3 Units.

Focused on the distinctive attributes and roles of local governments, including counties, cities, special districts and the variety of local public authorities. Emphasizes understanding of the institutions and operations of local governments with particular attention to effectiveness and to the roles of public professionals. Develops capacity to understand, analyze and recommend actions with sufficient understanding of relevant values, past history, competitive forces, and adaptive human behaviors to reasonably assess implementation feasibility and to identify probable longer-term effects of public policy choices.

PUB 286. Intersectoral Leadership. 3 Units.

Effective action on many important public issues requires joint or complementary action by all sectors of society and also support or acceptance by citizens. This course builds further on concepts and skills developed in core courses to deepen competencies to analyze and to act effectively in leadership roles in the most complex, uncertain and conflicted contexts. Central to success is mastering various aspects of governance, including the use of formal authority and competencies of governments, roles of nonprofits and businesses, and important public policies and cultural factors which shape possible actions. Attention to effective framing of issues, reaching public judgments and mobilizing resources.

PUB 290. Foundations of Social Policy. 3 Units.

This course explores the normative and historical development of the state's role in providing for the social welfare of its citizens. In doing so, it examines current and past federal and state policies relating to aging, education, health, housing, and welfare, among others. In addition, some social welfare policies in other countries are investigated. Skills developed: Analytic writing, subject area knowledge, analysis of quantitative and qualitative data, and the presentation of descriptive data.

PUB 291. Externship. 3 Units.

Students will perform on-site public policy work as externs under the supervision of field placement supervisors in government agencies, non-profit entities or for-profit firms engaged in public policy processes. Placements in for-profit firms can include consulting firms focused on public policy processes and firms directly providing services with largely public funding, such as in health care. The Field Placement Director and/or the Associate Director of the Public Policy Program will help students find an appropriate placement, and must approve each student's registration. Placements in for-profit firms must also receive approval of the Director of the Public Policy Program. (P/F).

PUB 292. Demography. 3 Units.

Demography is the science of population characteristics, including population size, distribution, processes, and structure. This course examines the causes and consequences of population change—e.g., changes in fertility, mortality, migration, technology, lifestyle, and culture. These changes have implications for a number of social issues: hunger, the spread of illness and disease, household formation, the labor force, marriage and divorce, care for the elderly, poverty, and urbanization, among many others. The course also examines the concepts, measures, and methods used to document and project population changes over time. Skills developed: Analytic writing, subject area knowledge, analysis of quantitative and qualitative data, and the presentation of descriptive data.

PUB 293. Housing Policy. 3 Units.

This course is an exploration of housing (and by extension, community) policy in the United States. We begin by setting the context for U.S. housing by examining the social and spatial segregation of housing in the United States. We next move on to an examination of federal, state, and local housing policies affecting the production, pricing (i.e., affordability), and consumption of housing. Topics include the structure of housing and related financial markets; the economic and social bases for government intervention in these markets; and the different tools available to policymakers, including subsidies (both direct and through the tax system), regulation of financial institutions (e.g., the Community Reinvestment Act), government sponsored enterprises, zoning, and the regulation of lands and rents. Skills developed: Analytic writing, subject area knowledge, analysis of quantitative and qualitative data, and the presentation of descriptive data.

PUB 294. Poverty and Welfare Policy. 3 Units.

In this course, students will examine the nature and extent of poverty in the United States as well as become familiar with the policies and programs used to combat it. We will examine the controversies and politics surrounding theories of why people are poor, the measurement of poverty, its effects on individuals' and families' welfare, and the different programs used (and proposed) to provide relief. The course will primarily focus on income-assistance programs (e.g., Temporary Assistance for Needy Families and the Earned Income Tax Credit), but attention will also be given to anti-poverty programs more commonly associated with education, health, housing, and nutrition. Skills developed: Analytic writing, subject area knowledge, analysis of quantitative and qualitative data, and the presentation of descriptive data.

Doctor of Juridical Science (J.S.D.)

A J.S.D., or Doctor of Juridical Science, is, in effect, legal education's counterpart to the Ph.D. Those who have already earned an advanced law degree and wish to do intensive, in-depth work in a specific topic in International Legal Studies or International Water Resources Law, normally over a period of several years, should apply to one of the J.S.D. programs.

J.S.D. - International Water Resources Law

A student is eligible to graduate upon successful completion of:

- 12 units and achievement of a minimum cumulative grade point average of 2.7 during the residency period, and
- successful dissertation proposal presentation, and
- 8 units earned through enrollment as a JSD candidate, and
- dissertation defense.

J.S.D. - International Legal Studies

A student is eligible to graduate upon successful completion of:

- 12 units and achievement of a minimum cumulative grade point average of 2.7 during the residency period, and
- successful dissertation proposal presentation, and
- 8 units earned through enrollment as a JSD candidate, and
- dissertation defense.

Residency Period (For Both JSD Programs)

Students are expected to be in residence at McGeorge for at least two semesters, though they may extend their residency by up to two semesters in order to take additional courses and/or if they need additional time to prepare their Dissertation Proposal. The principal purpose of Residency is the preparation of the Dissertation Proposal, in consultation with the student's adviser.

Students are required to take the following courses during their residency:

- Fall Semester: Writing for Publication (1 unit); Directed Research (2 units).
- Spring Semester: JSD Research Seminar (1 unit); Directed Research (2 units).
- Public International Law (3 units) (a requirement that may be waived by the Assistant Dean or Director of International Programs if the student has successfully completed the course elsewhere or if it lacks relevance to their proposed research topic).
- Electives, as discussed and approved by the Faculty Supervisor.

By the conclusion of the Fall Semester of their residency, JSD students must submit a draft of their research question and literature review to their faculty adviser and Writing for Publication professor.

At the conclusion of their residency, and in order to become JSD candidates, students must submit their Dissertation Proposal to their faculty adviser for approval and give an oral Presentation to a panel comprised of three faculty members. The Dissertation Proposal should include:

1. a concise statement of the research question; and
2. a literature review (revised based on feedback received from faculty adviser(s)); and
3. a précis of the anticipated dissertation; and
4. a bibliography.

The Dissertation Proposal should be at least 3500 words in length and should include citations in appropriate format.

If, in the judgment of a student's faculty adviser, the Dissertation Proposal indicates that the student has the capacity to write a Dissertation that is of publishable quality and that makes a contribution to the literature, the student will be invited to present his or her Dissertation Proposal. The student's Presentation should be around 30 minutes in length and should include visual aids (such as PowerPoint slides). The faculty panel and audience members will have 30 minutes to ask questions, make comments, and offer suggestions. Following the presentation, unless the faculty panel determines that more work on the proposal is required, the student will be admitted to candidacy, assuming the student has completed the course work and received the GPA necessary as described above. The next step in the doctoral process.

Candidacy Period (For Both Programs)

JSD candidates may take up to 3 years to submit their Dissertation, though the period of candidacy may be extended if the student receives written permission from the Director of International Programs and his or her faculty adviser. During the course of writing the Dissertation, candidates are expected to remain in regular touch with their adviser(s). They are also expected to submit preliminary drafts for feedback prior to submitting a final draft. The Dissertation is expected to be "book-length" — i.e., around 200 pages (55,000 words). If, in the judgment of a candidate's faculty adviser, the Dissertation is of publishable quality and makes a contribution to the literature, the candidate will be invited to defend it before a Dissertation Committee comprised of three faculty members selected by the faculty adviser in consultation with the candidate and ideally chaired by an outside expert in the field. The Dissertation defense, including questions, comments and suggestions by the Committee, normally lasts one hour. At the conclusion of the defense the Dissertation Committee retires to consider whether to approve of the Dissertation. The JSD degree will be awarded to the candidate if the Dissertation Committee concludes that the Dissertation is of publishable quality and makes a contribution to the literature. The Dissertation Committee may condition its approval of the Dissertation upon specified modifications.

Learning Outcomes

1. Demonstrate the ability to identify and understand key concepts in substantive law, legal theory, and procedure in international law context;
2. Apply knowledge and critical thinking skills to perform competent legal analysis, reasoning, and problem solving of a particular matter;
3. Demonstrate the ability to conduct international legal research;
4. Demonstrate written communication skills.

Dual Degree Programs

McGeorge has two dual degree programs, in which — with advance approval — graduate credit earned in one program is accepted toward the degree from the other program.

JD/MPP Programs

A Master of Public Policy (MPP) degree, also offered through McGeorge School of Law, may be earned while pursuing the JD degree. The dual JD-MPP requires a minimum total of 115 units, typically adding a fourth year of enrollment for a Day Division student or a fifth year of enrollment for an Evening Division student. Students pursuing the JD/MPP Dual Degree take only JD courses in their first year of enrollment and then both JD and PUB courses in subsequent years consistent with academic advising for the two degrees. The GPA requirements for graduation of the two degrees must be met: A minimum of 2.33 for the JD and a minimum of 3.0 for the MPP calculated on the basis of LAW courses taken toward the JD and on the basis of PUB courses taken toward the MPP.

Admission

Students must be admitted separately to the McGeorge School of Law JD Program and to the program that will confer the Master's degree. Admittance to McGeorge's JD Program does not guarantee admission into other degree programs, even those housed within the McGeorge School of Law.

Approval

JD students who want to pursue a dual degree should consult with the Assistant Dean for Student Affairs regarding their planned course of study. You can schedule an appointment with Dean Carr by contacting the Office of Student Affairs at sacstudentaffairs@pacific.edu or 916.739.7089. They should also schedule an appointment for the Program Director of the Master's Degree program of interest at the earliest stages of planning. Students in the Directed Study Program may not pursue the JD/MPP dual degree without approval of both the Assistant Dean for Student Affairs and the MPP Program Director.

Transfer of Credit

To be accepted by McGeorge as elective credit toward the JD unit requirements, the credit (1) must be for graduate level courses, and (2) must have been earned concurrently between initial matriculation and graduation from the McGeorge JD program. An official transcript of completed course work must be furnished to the Registrar; only the number of units (not grades) accepted are reflected on the McGeorge JD transcript.

JD Required Courses

88 units are required for the JD degree. 9 units of elective credit may be accepted for PUB courses. Please refer to the Juris Doctor section of this catalog for a full listing of JD required courses.

MPP Required Courses

48 units are required for the MPP degree. Please refer to the Master of Public Policy section of this catalog for a full listing of MPP required courses.

MPA Required Courses

30 units are required for the MPA degree. Please refer to the Master of Public Administration section of this catalog for a full listing of MPA required courses.

Other Programs

Occasionally, a JD student may be interested in pursuing a Master's degree in an area in which a dual degree program is not available, such as history, international relations, or social work. The student should consult with the Assistant Dean for Student Affairs to determine if any credit for the Master's program coursework would be accepted by McGeorge. Upon approval of a written proposal, up to 9 units of credit may be accepted toward the JD degree.

Blended, 3+2 Programs, for a BA or BS from the University of the Pacific and an MPP are described in the catalog sections for those degrees.

Juris Doctor (J.D.)

Full-Time

McGeorge School of Law offers programs leading to the Juris Doctor (JD) degree through a Full-Time Division and a Part-Time Division. The two divisions have the same curriculum, faculty, and methods of instruction; maintain the same scholastic standards and degree requirements; and adhere to the same objectives.

Full-Time students take Skills Lab, Civil Procedure, Contracts, Criminal Law, Global Lawyering Skills I, The Legal Profession, Statutes and Regulations, Property, and Torts during the first-year; Constitutional Law and Evidence during the second-year; and Professional Responsibility during either the second- or third-year. First-year required courses must be taken with the division in which a student is enrolled unless an exception is approved by the Assistant Dean for Student Affairs. Upper-division electives and required courses may be taken during the day or evening hours, as individual schedules permit.

Required Units

88 semester units are required for graduation. Of those 88 units, 72 semester units must be earned in graded courses.

Bar Exam

If a student sits for any bar exam (excluding the Patent Bar) prior to completion of all degree requirements, they will not earn a JD degree from McGeorge. An exception may be made for a student who wishes to sit for the Delaware or North Dakota bar exam, which are offered only one time per year.

Period of Study

Students must complete their JD degree within 84 months of matriculation.

Application for Graduation

Students must complete the Application for Graduation via insidePacific no later than the Add/Drop Deadline two semesters before they intend to graduate.

Any student who anticipates that they will graduate earlier or later than expected is advised to seek academic advising with the Office of Student Affairs and must notify the Registrar of any changes to their expected graduation date.

Part-Time

McGeorge School of Law offers programs leading to the Juris Doctor (JD) degree through a Full-Time Division and a Part-Time Division. The two divisions have the same curriculum, faculty, and methods of instruction; maintain the same scholastic standards and degree requirements; and adhere to the same objectives.

Part-Time students take Skills Lab, Civil Procedure, Criminal Law, Global Lawyering Skills I, The Legal Profession, and Torts during the first-year; Contracts, Statutes and Regulations, Property, Constitutional Law during the second-year; Evidence during the third-year; and Professional Responsibility during either the third- or fourth-year, or any summer. To stay on track for graduation, part-time students generally must take 2-5 units each summer. First- and second-year required courses must be taken with the division in which a student is enrolled unless an exception is approved by the Assistant Dean for Student Affairs. Upper-division electives and required courses may be taken during the day or evening hours, as individual schedules permit.

Juris Doctor Certificate of Concentration Programs

McGeorge's diverse electives and co-curricular offerings allow you to explore a variety of legal career opportunities. If you have a particular career path in mind, our certificates of concentration will enhance your JD experience and allow you to master a specific practice area.

For general questions about the Certificate of Concentration Programs, contact the Office of Student Affairs at sacstudentaffairs@pacific.edu or 916.739.7089.

Business Certificate of Concentration

Sir Richard Branson of Virgin Atlantic once said, "A business has to be involving, it has to be fun, and it has to exercise your creative instincts." That is what the Business Concentration strives to provide for interested students. The demands and complexities of a global economy require a strong basis in business law. To fulfill the Business Concentration, students complete a series of courses designed to equip new lawyers with the skills and knowledge necessary to succeed in a legal career with a business emphasis. This concentration is for students interested in pursuing a general business practice or a specialized business practice such as bankruptcy, corporate, commercial, employment, international, or real estate law.

How to Apply

Apply by submitting the online application, which requires that you attach your resume. This application should be submitted at your earliest stages of planning but, in no event, after the Add/Drop Deadline of your final law-school term. Students may schedule an appointment with the Faculty Director to plan their required curriculum.

Requirements & Curriculum

Students must complete Business Associations and the Core and Elective Courses designated below. With the approval of the Director of the Business Concentration, a tax or business course of at least two units, whether domestic or international, not included on the list of Elective Courses may be substituted. If a student completes more than one Core Course, the additional course(s) will automatically be applied toward the satisfaction of the requirement for Elective Courses.

Capital Lawyering Certificate of Concentration

Capital Lawyering Concentration students complete a series of required and elective courses specially designed to prepare them to work in the Capital arena. Graduates are employed in the California legislature, Governor's Office, in local, state and federal agencies, in private firms that specialize in political law or lobbying, in nonprofit agencies that engage in issue advocacy, and in law firms with regulatory practices in areas such as communications, energy, the environment, health, and employment. The curriculum ensures that students graduate with real-life experience and on-the-job contacts within the government, policy, and capital lawyering community. Students also participate in Capital Center student groups, attend Capital Center events, and network with Capital Center alumni.

How to Apply

Interested students should complete the online application, which includes your resume and a brief Personal Statement (minimum 200 words). Please submit your application as early as possible in your McGeorge career to best plan your course of study. In no case may applications be submitted or accepted after the Add/Drop Deadline of your final law school term. Students must schedule an appointment with the Capital Lawyering Concentration Director to plan their required curriculum and activities.

Requirements & Curriculum

Capital Lawyering students must complete a minimum of 14 units approved by the Capital Lawyering Concentration Director, comprised of required courses, an experiential learning course, and approved electives.

Elder and Health Certificate of Concentration

This concentration combines two dynamic and closely related areas of the law. Both legal areas are interdisciplinary and grounded in policy, legal compliance, and ethics. A legal practice in either broad area provides stimulating and rewarding work. As one of only four ABA Accredited Schools in California with a Health Law Concentration and only three in the nation with an Elder Law Concentration, the McGeorge Elder & Health Law Concentration provides students with a robust and relevant opportunity to focus their study on two of the most needed areas of practice now and in the future.

How to Apply

Apply by submitting the online application, which requires that you attach your resume and Statement of Purpose (at least 200 words on why you want to obtain the certificate of concentration and how it fits into your career goals). This application should be submitted at your earliest stages of planning, and in no case may be submitted after the Add/Drop Deadline of your final law school term. Students must schedule an appointment with the Faculty Director to plan their required curriculum and activities.

Requirements & Curriculum

Students must complete the core and elective courses designated below. Membership and participation in the McGeorge Health Law Association is encouraged. With prior written approval, the Certificate of Concentration Director may vary the requirements of this program in individual cases for good cause or depending on offerings in any year.

Intellectual Property Certificate of Concentration

Intellectual property law is one of the most dynamic fields in the legal profession — for lawyers with and without undergraduate degrees in science. In order to meet the growing demand for lawyers in this area of practice, McGeorge offers courses in intellectual property law and a specialized curriculum leading to a J.D. degree with an Intellectual Property Concentration. Careers in Intellectual Property Law include: Patent Lawyer, Copyright Lawyer, Entertainment Lawyer, Trademark Lawyer, Intellectual Property Litigator, Media Lawyer, Trademark Examiner, Patent Examiner, In-house Counsel for movie studios and biotech, publishing, software, and Internet companies, or Artist's Representative.

How to Apply

Apply by submitting the online application, which requires that you attach your resume and Statement of Purpose (at least 200 words on why you want to obtain the certificate of concentration and how it fits into your career goals). This application should be submitted at your earliest stages of planning, and in no case may be submitted after the Add/Drop Deadline of your final law school term. Students must schedule an appointment with the Faculty Director to plan their required curriculum and activities. The Director has discretion to substitute core and elective courses.

Requirements & Curriculum

- Complete at least three (3) Core Courses
- Complete at least two (2) units of Elective Courses. Students who complete all four Core Courses may apply two (2) units towards their elective units.
- A minimum of 14 units are required to complete the Intellectual Property Certificate of Concentration.

International Certificate of Concentration

Globalization is transforming the practice of law, obliging an increasing proportion of legal professionals to learn how to respond to the challenges presented by transnational and intercultural practice. McGeorge's International Certificate of Concentration offers a strong foundation for a broad array of careers, whether your interests draw you toward public service or the private sector, to work abroad or in California, to litigation, transactions or a legislative/regulatory practice. Students who complete the certificate of concentration requirements will graduate with a solid grounding in public and private international law, in-depth exposure to at least one specialized doctrinal area, and advanced skills training that can help to provide a bridge to practice.

How to Apply

Apply by submitting the online application, which requires that you attach your resume and Statement of Purpose (at least 200 words on why you want to obtain the certificate of concentration and how it fits into your career goals). This application should be submitted at your earliest stages of planning, and in no case may be submitted after the Add/Drop Deadline of your final law school term. Students must schedule an appointment with the Faculty Director to plan their required curriculum and activities.

Requirements & Curriculum

Students must complete at least 11 units in the course categories designated below, including at least one capstone or experiential course or activity. With prior written approval, the Concentration Directors may vary the certificate requirements for good cause.

Tax Certificate of Concentration

A basic understanding of the law of federal taxation is a valuable asset upon entering the legal profession. The Tax Law Concentration is intended to provide students the opportunity to pursue a focused and integrated course of study regarding federal tax law. Graduates with the Tax Law Concentration find employment opportunities as tax, business, or estate planning specialists in private firms. Accounting firms, corporations, real estate entities, charitable organizations, and state and federal governmental agencies are also interested in graduates with a strong background in federal taxation.

How to Apply

Apply by submitting the online application, which requires that you attach your resume. This application should be submitted at your earliest stages of planning, and in no case may be submitted after the Add/Drop Deadline of your final law school term. Trial & Appellate Advocacy Certificate of Concentration

Students who wish to become litigators receive specialized practical training to prepare for careers in litigation, civil and/or criminal trial and appellate work, or dispute resolution. A wide range of courses enables students to learn and demonstrate competencies in writing, appellate and trial advocacy, evidence, trial preparation and conduct, alternative dispute resolution, negotiation, and counseling and representation of clients.

How to Apply

Apply by submitting the online application (<https://www.mcgeorge.edu/Forms/Trial-and-Appellate-Advocacy-Certificate-of-Concentration-Form.html>), which requires that you attach your resume. This application should be submitted at your earliest stages of planning, and in no case may be submitted after the Add/Drop Deadline of your final law school term. The Faculty Director will schedule a meeting with the applicant if required.

Requirements & Curriculum

Students must complete the Core and required Elective Courses listed below. A minimum of 14 total credits is required, in addition to Evidence and GLS II, which are required of all students. Journal service is not a substitute for GLS II for the Concentration.

In addition to the one required Elective course from each of the three Elective categories below (Pretrial, ADR, and Capstone), which will total at least six (6) credits, the student may choose courses from any of the four Elective sections to accumulate the 14-credit minimum.

Note that not all courses are offered every year. Students should plan their curriculum with this in mind, checking the Academic Schedule for the coming year and for the year thereafter (see, e.g., the projection of courses for 2020-21 (pdf) (<https://www.mcgeorge.edu/documents/Academics/electives2020-2021.pdf>))

Directed Study

McGeorge is committed to the success of each student. We designed the Directed Study Program to bolster a student's command of and confidence in core legal skills, with the goal of increasing success in law school and paving the way to passing the bar exam.

Any student whose cumulative GPA, at the end of the first academic year, falls below 3.0 shall be placed in the Directed Study Program. Once placed in the Directed Study Program, a student will remain subject to its requirements even if in subsequent years the student is no longer has a cumulative GPA below 3.0. Students who have a cumulative GPA of 2.9 to 3.0 may petition the Assistant Dean for Student Affairs to be removed from Directed Study and students who have a cumulative GPA of 3.0 to 3.1 or higher may petition the Assistant Dean for Student Affairs to be included in some or all parts of Directed Study.

All students who qualify for Directed Study are required to participate in academic counseling with a representative from the Office of Student Affairs, each year.

The Directed Study requirements are as follows:

Full-Time Division

Second Year

LAW 190 Remedies	3
------------------	---

Second or Third Year

LAW 151 Business Associations	4

At least one of the following bar courses:

When Principles of Agency is offered, students who qualify for Directed Study and who have a cumulative GPA below a 2.5 at the end of the first academic year, must also take Principles of Agency during the fall semester of their second year.

Experiential Curriculum

As part of our commitment to teaching practical lawyering skills, all McGeorge students complete the Experiential Curriculum, which includes coursework where the focus is on learning by doing. Students learn to apply legal theory to practice, develop professional lawyering skills, and become reflective practitioners and lifelong learners.

Requirement

Students are required to complete two transformational capstone experiences: (1) McGeorge Legal Clinic or Externship for 3 units minimum, and (2) a second McGeorge Legal Clinic, Externship, Mock Trial, or Moot Court for 3 units minimum, and additional units of other experiential courses, including simulation courses, equaling 11 total units. (This rule is interpreted to mean students may count 6 or 7 units in the transformational capstone category, leaving 4 or 5 additional units in other experiential courses, which may include Legal Clinics, Externships, or simulations.)

Waiver for Part-Time Students

Students who work full time (approximately 40 hours/week) during normal business hours may request a waiver of the Externship/Legal Clinic portion of the Experiential Curriculum. Waiver requests will be reviewed by the Assistant Dean for Student Affairs and/or Associate Dean for Academic Affairs and granted for good cause only. Each student requesting a waiver will be contacted to meet personally with either the Assistant Dean for Student Affairs and/or Associate Dean for Academic Affairs. Before waiving the requirement, the law school will work with the student to assess if there might be a creative way for the student to fulfill this requirement without needing a waiver. For example, there are a limited number of remote externships available to students who have full-time jobs. Remote externships provide an opportunity for hands-on legal work in non-business hours and may be a good fit for some students who are working full time.

Institutional Learning Outcomes

At McGeorge, our learning outcomes are the lawyering skills that students are expected to obtain through the completion of a legal education. Consistent with ABA Standards, upon completion of a JD degree, graduates of the McGeorge School of Law will demonstrate mastery of the following student learning outcomes at the level needed for admission to the bar and effective and ethical participation in the legal profession as an entry level attorney. McGeorge School of Law has designed its curriculum to prepare students with the key skills and competencies needed to demonstrate these learning outcomes in the legal profession.

Each student will:

1. Demonstrate the ability to identify and understand key concepts in U.S. substantive law, legal theory, and procedure.
2. Apply knowledge and critical thinking skills to perform competent legal analysis, reasoning, and problem solving.
3. Demonstrate the ability to strategize, develop, and conduct efficient legal research in U.S. law.
4. Demonstrate the ability to identify and understand foundational concepts in international law and to perform international legal research.
5. Demonstrate communication skills, including effective listening and critical reading, writing in objective and persuasive styles, and oral advocacy and other oral communications.
6. Demonstrate professional judgment, ethics, and professionalism through conduct consistent with the legal profession's values, standards, and discipline.
7. Demonstrate the ability to understand, collaborate, and engage with people of diverse backgrounds and experiences in a variety of legal settings and contexts.
8. Demonstrate understanding of the legal profession's commitment to access to justice.
9. Demonstrate understanding of career options and steps toward defining and achieving career goals in light of personal values.

Master of Laws (LL.M.)

McGeorge offers graduate programs for both domestically trained attorneys and foreign trained attorneys. LL.M. in Transnational Business Practice

The LL.M. in Transnational Business Practice trains lawyers to practice in the field of international business law. Whether trained in civil or common law, an LL.M. in Transnational Business Practice from McGeorge further prepares lawyers for a career in the global economy.

Our LL.M. program has only two requirements, (1) a substantive course: Transnational Litigation or International Business Transactions; and (2) LL.M. Legal Writing, Research, and Analysis for those trained in law outside of the United States, which is tailored to introduce students to common law courts, sources, legal reasoning, techniques of legal research and writing. The remaining course units can be customized to meet your individual career goals.

Program Highlights

- Get real practical experience
- Enjoy classes with J.D. students
- Benefit from faculty expertise in the International Law field
- Work with the Director of Graduate & International Programs to tailor your course selection to meet your career goals
- Have access to McGeorge's broad base of alumni who work in international law firms in more than 40 countries
- Join a community of law students studying on the McGeorge campus, and receive special assistance in adjusting to student life in the United States

Program Requirements

Admitted students will undertake an individually tailored sequence of courses to fulfill the 24-unit program requirement.

- 24 units of study
- A cumulative grade point average of 2.33 on a 4.33 scale

Curriculum

- Three required courses:
 - (1) a substantive course: Transnational Litigation or International Business Transactions;
 - (2) LL.M. Legal Writing, Research, and Analysis; and
 - (3) Legal English for those trained in law outside of the United States, which is tailored to introduce students to common law courts, sources, legal reasoning, techniques of legal research and writing.
- The remaining course units can be customized to meet your individual career goals. See below for the list of electives.

Note that you have the option to complete an externship for credit with an international law firm, or to engage in advanced scholarship by pursuing a Master's Thesis or Directed Research Project.

Curriculum

The Water Resources Law graduate program emphasizes interdisciplinary natural resources classes; simulations and case studies; a robust field placement experience; and advanced substantive law course work. The combination of natural resources science, technology, and economics, with strong legal coursework and hands-on training, makes this program unique among other natural resources law graduate degrees. There are two courses of study.

- U.S. Law Track — This track focuses on issues affecting the United States. It is designed for students with a law degree to gain expertise in this growing field of environmental and natural resources law. You have the option to take all courses online or to enroll in the in-person program with some courses offered online.
- International Track — For law graduates interested in pursuing careers in government, non-governmental organizations or private law firms dealing with international water and environmental issues. This program focuses on the unique laws, policies and political dynamics as it applies to watercourses and other natural resources that are shared by two or more nations.
- Fast Track — This accelerated program is available to McGeorge JD students for both the U.S. Law Track and International Track of the Water & Environmental Law LLM degree.

Learning Outcomes

1. Lead and manage in public governance

Habitually use feedback and own self-assessments to identify and further advance the skills needed to master various aspects of Governance—including the use of formal authority and competencies of governments, roles of non-profits and businesses, and citizen engagement—in a way that addresses the particular demographic, economic, and cultural factors that shape possible actions.

2. Participate in and contribute to the public policy process

Identify, describe, and proactively engage in activities congruent with establishing a suitable career that contributes to public policy processes, which may include working in government agencies, non-profit and other nongovernmental organizations, private sector firms, and advocacy groups that connect with public service organizations.

3. Analyze and synthesize information in support of complex decision-making

Independently select and use appropriate qualitative and quantitative analytic tools to support effective decisions in socially and managerially complex situations that require integrating competing perspectives of diverse stakeholders

4. Articulate and apply a public service perspective

Across a wide range of issues and public administration settings, articulate how institutions, policies and programs support achieving central values of democracy and the role of public service professionals in advancing those values.

5. Communicate and interact productively with diverse public stakeholders

Communicate and interact productively across public, private and nonprofit sectors, and with a wide variety of stakeholders, to solve problems.

Master of Public Policy (M.P.P.)

The Master of Public Policy (MPP) prepares students to capably make and effectively implement public policy decisions. This MPP program allows students to engage in California's world-leading public policies through course assignments structured as commonly expected professional work products and both a required externship and a required internship. The only MPP degree offered by an ABA accredited law school provides students with a greater understanding of laws and regulations as both foundations and tools of public policies.

The MPP may be pursued full-time or part-time. Admissions are made in the fall.

A total of 48 units is required to earn the MPP, including a 39 unit core of required courses.

Policy Change, Institutional Reform, Sustainability - MPA ONLY- 6 units

Complete 6 or more units from among these courses:
LAW 500	Administrative Law	3
LAW 822	Lawmaking in California	2
PUB 213	Enhancing Societal Capacity	3
PUB 219	Directed Research	1-3
PUB 222	Finance for Public Policies	3
PUB 234	Advanced Policy Analytics	3

1. Identify Policy Issue and Analytic Tools

Accurately identify the type of public policy issue confronted and useful tools for guiding analysis and action (e.g., degrees of complexity and uncertainty, extent and depth of conflicts, capacities to make decisions and to implement choices).

2. Analyze Policy and Recommend Action

Analyze and recommend actions with sufficient understanding of relevant values, past history, competitive forces, and adaptive human behaviors to reasonably assess probable longer term effects of public policy choices.

3. Strategically Lead.

Demonstrate capacity to pursue a policy goal by effective engagement at key decision points and mobilization and leverage of critical resources.

4. Diversely Communicate Useful Information to Stakeholders

Convey information effectively in several formats-written, verbal, and web-emphasizing those useful to decision makers, professionals in a field, and citizens.

5. Analytically Produce Public Policy Information

Effectively identify, collect, organize and analyze information, including demographic, economic, fiscal and agency activity data.

Master of Science in Law (M.S.L.)

McGeorge offers the innovative and versatile Master of Science in Law (MSL) to professionals who seek the benefits of advanced training in legal reasoning and analysis but who do not require the JD degree for their career plans. The degree enhances many professions and is ideal for business executives, entrepreneurs, policymakers, human resource and other professionals in today's economy. With so many businesses and industries being impacted by constantly changing laws and regulations, having knowledge and training in legal analysis can be advantageous in dealing with those everyday law-related issues. Our MSL program is designed to help professionals gain and apply the legal skills required to excel and advance in their careers.

McGeorge faculty will work with each student to develop a customized curriculum with a rigorous legal grounding that is infused with real-world, practical examples, skills-based learning, and experiential opportunities. Students will also experience intense interaction and collaboration with a cohort of like-minded professionals who are seeking to increase their own skills. Finally, opportunities will be created for each student to put their new skills to work in California's capital city (<https://www.mcgeorge.edu/Future-Students/Life-at-McGeorge/Sacramento-The-Capital-City.html>).

Building upon the long-standing expertise and the foundations for regular and substantial opportunities for interaction with classmates and McGeorge faculty, we are excited to announce the creation of three online degree programs launching in Fall 2019. These degrees will allow individuals to maximize flexibility; pursuing professional and personal commitments while simultaneously enjoying a high-quality academic experience.

The McGeorge MSL program also offers the following focus areas:

- Government Law & Policy — Online (<https://online.mcgeorge.edu/mslgl-program-description/>)
- Health Care (<https://www.mcgeorge.edu/Future-Students/Master-of-Science-in-Law/Legal-Concentration-in-Health.html>)
- Human Resources (<https://www.mcgeorge.edu/Future-Students/Master-of-Science-in-Law/Legal-Concentration-in-Human-Resources.html>)
- Water & Environmental Law — Online (<https://online.mcgeorge.edu/mslwe-program-description/>)

Vision

The vision of the School of Health Sciences is to lead in advancing the lifelong wellness of our communities.

Purpose

Prepare all graduates for leadership roles that advance lifelong wellness of diverse communities through learning, discovery and innovation. Taking advantage of the unique mix of programs, the School of Health Sciences will develop innovative curricula that takes advantage of the university's opportunities in interprofessional education. Students from the School of Health Sciences, Thomas J. Long School of Pharmacy, and Arthur A. Dugoni School of Dentistry will share classrooms and learn with, from and about each other, preparing them for interprofessional practice in settings where integrated teams provide optimal patient care.

Anne Davis, Program Director

Program Offered

Master of Science in Clinical Nutrition

Mission Statement

The program's mission is to provide a graduate level, student-centered, nutrition and dietetics program that integrates interprofessional education, innovative supervised experiential learning and research experiences so that students become skilled and compassionate health professionals to provide comprehensive clinical care using an evidence based approach.

Program Overview

Registered dietitian nutritionists (RDNs) are the food and nutrition experts on the healthcare team. They practice in a variety of settings including hospitals, ambulatory and long-term care, private practice, community agencies and foodservice corporations. The scope of practice for RDNs continues to expand and this entry-level program prepares students to be able to provide comprehensive, compassionate, evidence-based nutrition care in an interprofessional environment. This program is open to students with or without academic and career experience in nutrition and dietetics.

The MCSN hybrid program offers an entry-level graduate degree that combines in-person academic coursework, distance education coursework and supervised clinical practice rotations. Twelve hundred (1200) experiential learning hours are included in the 59-unit, four-trimester (16 month) program, which fulfill the required clinical practice hours for eligibility to take the Commission of Dietetic Registration's RDN examination..

The goals of the MSCN program are to:

1. Prepare graduates to become employed entry-level registered dietitian nutritionists (RDNs).
2. Prepare graduates who participate in interprofessional practice and apply an evidence-based approach to practice.

The program objectives are to:

- 1.1 At least 80% of program graduates complete program/degree requirements within 2 years (150% of the program length).
- 1.2 Ninety percent of program graduates take the CDR credentialing exam for dietitian nutritionists within 12 months of program completion.
- 1.3 The program's one-year pass rate (graduates who pass the registration exam within one year of first attempt) on the CDR credentialing exam for dietitian nutritionists is at least 80%.
- 1.4 Of graduates who seek employment, 70 percent are employed in nutrition and dietetics or related fields within 12 months of graduation.

1.5 During graduates first year of employment, program graduates will be ranked by at least 80% of employers who respond to our employer survey as “satisfactory” or better in professional knowledge and skills as compared to the expected competency of entry-level RDNs.

2.1 During their first year of employment, 100% of program graduates who respond to our graduate survey will report participating in interprofessional education of client and patient-centered care activities during the 16-month program.

2.2 During their first year of employment, 100% of program graduates who respond to our graduate survey will report how they will routinely use current evidence-based research in professional practice.

Accreditation Status

The MSCN program is seeking national accreditation through the Accreditation Council for Education in Nutrition and Dietetics (ACEND) and currently has candidacy status. Following ACEND accreditation timelines, the program submitted a comprehensive self-study document, will host a scheduled site visit, and receive notification of the accreditation decision in Spring 2020. Candidacy status is neither a status of accreditation nor a guarantee that accreditation will be granted. More information on the Accreditation Council for Education in Nutrition and Dietetics (ACEND) and its accreditation standards is available at www.eatrightpro.org/acend (<http://www.eatrightpro.org/acend/>).

Understanding of health promotion and disease prevention, and mechanisms of disease

Proficient application of critical thinking in nutritional decision making

Achieved by emphasis that medical nutrition therapy requires the practitioner to apply logic and reasoning to achieve healing. These principles are taught and practiced in the didactic curriculum in small group discussions, through interactions with simulated followed by actual patients, and, through a commitment to the application of science in medicine.

Patient-centered approach to health care practice

Patient-centered care is based on putting the needs of others first and helping people develop and perform to the best of their abilities. It strives to improve outcomes by strengthening the provider-patient relationship, providing care in consultation with patients, and by replacing the provider-centered system with one from the patient's viewpoint. Students will become familiar with this type of practice in the didactic phase and will gain hands-on experience working directly with preceptors and MSCN program faculty who serve as mentors.

Health care delivery through a team-based model that fosters community collaboration

Achieved by providing students the opportunity to develop a passion for community service through frequent experiences serving the health care needs of the underserved alongside nutrition and healthcare provider role models in interprofessional practice. Graduate RDNs are in a unique position to have a tremendous impact on the communities in which they live and work. The ability to provide compassionate care to marginalized citizens with the breadth of care, multiplied through a team-based approach is paramount. During their tenure with the MSCN program, students will participate in such collaborative environments in a variety of clinical settings.

Commitment to life-long learning

Achieved by modelling self-study and continuing education, by encouraging on-going enthusiasm for exploration and investigation, and by directing students to resources for furthering knowledge.

Master of Science in Clinical Nutrition

Students must complete 59 semester units with a Pacific cumulative grade point average of 3.0 to earn the master of science in clinical nutrition degree. Completion requirements include successful completion of all academic and supervised experiential learning coursework with a grade of “B” or better.

Nutrition Courses

NUTR 201. Evidence Based Practice & Scientific Inquiry. 2 Units.

This course provides a foundation scientific inquiry and research literacy for accessing and evaluating on-line and electronic databases and reading and interpreting research. Course readings provide a foundation for understanding the lecture material. Using published research, students will learn how to analyze levels of evidence, apply critical appraisal techniques and apply findings to clinical case scenarios. Prerequisites: Matriculated status in the Master of Science Clinical Nutrition program is required.

NUTR 203. Nutrition Assessment, Physical Exam & Diagnosis. 3 Units.

This course covers comprehensive nutrition assessment and nutrition diagnosis for individuals, groups or populations of all ages and a variety of practice settings. It is an introduction to nutrition focused physical examination and expected competencies to be attained at the novice level include physical examination and assessment skills: malnutrition characteristics and fluid status; measurement of vital signs; assessment of ‘normal’ breath and heart sounds; orofacial assessment and dysphagia screening. Prerequisite: Matriculated status in the Master of Science Clinical Nutrition program is required.

NUTR 205. Behavioral Science, Interviewing, & Counseling. 3 Units.

This course will integrate behavioral health issues, cultural considerations, health literacy and nutrition counseling. Topics will also include telenutrition, and counseling issues for people with eating disorders, obesity, diabetes, substance abuse, and mental health. Approaches to motivational interviewing and other counseling techniques will be included. Prerequisites: Matriculated status in the Master of Science Clinical Nutrition program is required.

NUTR 207. Clinical & Medical Nutrition Therapy I. 4 Units.

This course builds on scientific foundations of nutrient metabolism (macro and micro), biochemistry, anatomy, physiology for the application of nutrition and diet to the health and disease and individuals and populations. Pathophysiology of cardiometabolic, malnutrition, obesity, liver, pancreas and gastrointestinal tract diseases and surgeries for these diseases are covered along with appropriate medical nutrition therapies to prevent and manage these conditions. Using the Nutrition Care Process (NCP) the principles of nutrition assessment, diagnosis, intervention and monitoring for the diseases are covered. This course prepares students for their supervised practice experiences. Prerequisites: Matriculated status in the Master of Science Clinical Nutrition program is required.

NUTR 209. Nutritional Pharmacology & Therapeutics. 3 Units.

This course focuses on the clinical application of pharmacology in the nutrition care of patients, including frequently prescribed drugs in the health care practice. The basic principles of pharmacodynamics and pharmacokinetics from drugs interfacing with nutrients and vice versa concerning physiology and metabolism are presented. Medical nutrition therapy to prevent, augment or supplement the effect of drugs on nutritional status are presented. Prerequisites: Matriculated status in the Master of Science Clinical Nutrition program is required.

NUTR 211. Clinical & Medical Nutrition Therapy II. 4 Units.

This course is a continuation of Clinical and Medical Nutrition Therapy I building on scientific foundations of nutrient metabolism (macro and micro), biochemistry, anatomy, physiology for the application of nutrition and diet to the health and disease and individuals and populations. Pathophysiology of pulmonary, critical illness, nutrition support, neurologic, microbiome, pulmonary, musculoskeletal, genetic, immunologic, cancer, pediatric diseases and surgeries for these diseases are covered along with appropriate medical nutrition therapies to prevent and manage multiple diseases concomitantly. This course prepares students for more complex supervised practice experiences and application of the Nutrition Care Process. Prerequisites: Matriculated status in the Master of Science Clinical Nutrition program and successful completion of NUTR 207 Clinical and Medical Nutrition Therapy I is required.

NUTR 213. Health Care and Food Systems Management. 2 Units.

This course will integrate fundamental knowledge from the behavioral and social sciences and organizational dynamics to provide a set of strategies and techniques to navigate human resources, food, equipment and facilities, to deliver quality products and services to customers and ultimately influence meaningful, sustainable change within the nutrition organization and beyond. Simulated cases and case presentations requiring managerial and strategic planning skills will provide student application experience. Prerequisite: Matriculated status in the Master of Science Clinical Nutrition program and successful completion of NUTR 201, NUTR 203, NUTR 205, NUTR 207, NUTR 209, and NUTR 211 is required.

NUTR 215. Global & Public Health Nutrition. 3 Units.

The course provides an understanding of global and public health nutrition as the promotion of health through nutrition and the prevention of nutrition related disease in populations through epidemiology of nutritional disease, environmental scans and development of interventions and policies. The impact of various nutrient inadequacies and excesses at different stages of the life cycle and their functional outcomes in terms of morbidity, psychological well-being, reproduction and growth will be highlighted. World food production, food availability and supply in relation to nutrition and health will be covered in the context of socioeconomic development and current political/economic policies. Prerequisites: Matriculated status in the Master of Science Clinical Nutrition program and successful completion of NUTR 201, NUTR 203, NUTR 205, NUTR 207, NUTR 209, NUTR 211 and NUTR 213 is required.

NUTR 217. Capstone I. 3 Units.

The course provides the research foundation and principles for designing and developing a research project or study. Students will gain knowledge, skills and practice in the pre-planning stages of research including how to write research proposals and protocols. Prerequisites: Matriculated status in the Master of Science Clinical Nutrition program and successful completion of NUTR 201, NUTR 203, NUTR 205, NUTR 207, NUTR 209, NUTR 211, NUTR 213 and NUTR 215 is required.

NUTR 219. Nutrition Leadership and Innovation. 2 Units.

This course will provide an understanding of an organization's ability to anticipate, plan for, manage, and navigate through mergers, acquisitions, downsizings and leadership changes and emerge stronger afterward is an important measure of the effectiveness of its leaders. Principles and skills of nutrition leadership roles for a variety of health care, public health and food and nutrition organizations will be covered. Mentoring and coaching will emphasize ethical and creative leadership and organizational politics and change. Prerequisite: Matriculated status in the Master of Science Clinical Nutrition program and successful completion of NUTR 201, NUTR 203, NUTR 205, NUTR 207, NUTR 209, NUTR 211, NUTR 213, NUTR 215 and NUTR 217 is required.

NUTR 221. Capstone II Project. 3 Units.

The course is a continuation of Capstone I and provides the research foundation and principles for designing and developing a research project or study. The course provides an understanding of the tools used to implement, execute and analyze the results of a research project or study. Prerequisites: Matriculated status in the Master of Science Clinical Nutrition program and successful completion of NUTR 201, NUTR 203, NUTR 205, NUTR 207, NUTR 209, NUTR 211, NUTR 213, NUTR 215, NUTR 217 and NUTR 219 is required.

NUTR 287A. Supervised Clinical Practice Experience I. 9 Units.

This supervised clinical practice course includes clinical nutrition and food service systems management experiences. These learning practice experiences prepare students for professional practice in food service, acute and ambulatory settings with a variety of acute and chronic conditions and management organizations in all life stages. Under supervision, students are introduced to interprofessional practice and function as part of the interprofessional health care team. Prerequisites: Matriculated status in the Master of Science Clinical Nutrition program and successful completion of NUTR 201, NUTR 203, NUTR 207, NUTR 209 and NUTR 211 are required.

NUTR 287B. Supervised Clinical Practice Experience II. 9 Units.

This supervised clinical practice course includes clinical nutrition and food service systems management experiences. Theses learning practice experiences prepare students for professional practice in food service, acute and ambulatory settings with a variety of acute and chronic conditions and management organizations in all life stages. Under supervision, students are introduced to interprofessional practice and function as part of the interprofessional health care team. Prerequisite: Matriculated status in the Master of Science Clinical Nutrition program and successful completion of NUTR 201, NUTR 203, NUTR 207, NUTR 209 and NUTR 211 are required.

NUTR 287C. Supervised Clinical Practice Experience III. 9 Units.

This supervised clinical practice course includes clinical nutrition and food service systems management experiences. Theses learning practice experiences prepare students for professional practice in food service, acute and ambulatory settings with a variety of acute and chronic conditions and management organizations in all life stages. Under supervision, students are introduced to interprofessional practice and function as part of the interprofessional health care team. Prerequisites: Matriculated status in the Master of Science Clinical Nutrition program and successful completion of NUTR 201, NUTR 203, NUTR 207, NUTR 209 and NUTR 211 are required.

Karen Hanford, Program Director

Program Offered

Master of Science in Nursing

Mission Statement

The mission of the Master of Science in Nursing Program at University of the Pacific is to provide students with a superior, competency based, learner-centered educational experience that will prepare advanced professional nurses to lead change in complex systems of health care while engaging in collaborative partnerships to improve patient-centered care and population health outcomes.

Program Overview

The accelerated graduate program is designed for working professional nurses who have a Bachelor of Science in Nursing (BSN) and can be completed in 4-6 semesters (three semesters per year). The program is online with two in-person seminars on the Sacramento campus (one per year), to provide access and educational flexibility for working professional nurses.

Students can select one of three advanced clinical care tracks: Primary Care Management, Diabetes Care Management, and Rehabilitation Management. The curriculum has been developed by nationally recognized context experts in Rehabilitation Nursing, Diabetes Management, Population Health, Improvement Science, Instructional Design, and Education. BSN prepared nurses from diverse settings, both acute and non-acute, will find the curriculum to be relevant, forward thinking, and designed to address current societal needs for the clients they serve.

The foundational courses for the first academic year include master of science core courses (American Association of Colleges of Nursing, MSN Essentials 2011, 2020), advanced health assessment and advanced pharmacology. As the program is designed to prepare advanced clinical care experts, knowledge and skills are acquired in population health, epidemiology, health care systems, and a preceptor led clinical practicum. To integrate new knowledge and skills students will develop, implement and evaluate an evidence-based improvement project to complete the final synthesis course.

Accreditation Status

The MSN program at University of the Pacific will seek national accreditation (new applicant status) through the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (CCNE), an arm of the American Association of Colleges of Nursing (AACN). The program was developed based on the national accreditation standards. Following CCNE accreditation timelines, the program will submit a comprehensive self-study document in Summer 2021, host a scheduled site visit in Fall 2021, and receive notification of accreditation decision in Spring 2022. New applicant status is neither a status of accreditation nor a guarantee that accreditation will be granted.

More information on the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (CCNE), and its accreditation standards may be obtained by accessing the documents at <https://www.aacnnursing.org/CCNE> (<https://www.aacnnursing.org/CCNE/>). Additional information can be obtained from CCNE at 655 K Street NW, Suite 750, Washington DC 20001, (202) 887- 6791.

Admission Requirements

Program Outcomes

1. Integrate, translate, and apply evidence and evolving evidence from nursing and other academic disciplines to inform clinical judgment and innovation into nursing practice in diverse healthcare settings.
2. Demonstrate person-centered care that is holistic, just, respectful, and compassionate, and reflects the differences, values, needs, and preferences of the patient as a full partner in their care.
3. Integrate clinical prevention, health promotion, and population health knowledge in the planning, design, management and evaluation of health care services for individuals, families, and aggregate populations.
4. Generate, synthesize, translate, apply and disseminate research and evidence to advance patient outcomes and improve health care systems.
5. Analyze organizational and systems of care and use quality improvement science strategies, tools, methods, and performance measures to improve safety and outcomes of patients and care systems.
6. Engage in relationship centered leadership to build and sustain collaborative interprofessional teams to optimize care, enhance the experience, improve outcomes, and reduce costs.
7. Integrate meaningful data obtained from information and healthcare technologies to monitor, manage, and improve the delivery of nursing and healthcare services in accordance with best practices.
8. Participate in the health policy development process and employ advocacy strategies to influence health and healthcare.
9. Formulate and cultivate a professional nursing identity that is accountable to patients, society, and the profession.
10. Demonstrate organizational and systems leadership competencies for ethical and critical decision-making to build effective working relationships that result in high quality and safe systems of healthcare.

11. Incorporate advanced knowledge and competencies into nursing specialty practice to improve healthcare outcomes at the individual, populations, or systems level.

Master of Science in Nursing

Students must complete 32 semester units with a Pacific cumulative grade point average of 3.0 to earn the master of science in clinical nutrition degree. Students can select one of three advanced clinical care tracks: Primary Care Management, Diabetes Care Management, and Rehabilitation Nursing.

NURS 201	Nursing Research and Evidence-Based Practice	3
NURS 203	Interprofessional Health Care Theory, Ethics, and Quality Improvement	3
NURS 205	Health Care Policy and Delivery	3
NURS 207	Nursing Issues and Leadership	3
NURS 209	Foundations of Specialty Practice I	3
NURS 211	Foundations of Specialty Practice II	3
NURS 215	Synthesis Project	3
NURS 217	Epidemiology	3
NURS 219	Population Health	3
NURS 287	Practicum	1-5

Nursing Courses

NURS 201. Nursing Research and Evidence-Based Practice. 3 Units.

This course provides the foundational knowledge base for advanced nursing research and the core principles of evidence-based practice. Students will gain knowledge and skills to critically appraise and analyze evidence and then disseminate the evidence in a scholarly way including papers, posters, and presentations. This course prepares the student to find and use evidence to support individual clinical practice and appropriately apply evidence to different population-based settings. Prerequisites: Admission to the Master of Science Nursing Program. Epidemiology NURS 217.

NURS 203. Interprofessional Health Care Theory, Ethics, and Quality Improvement. 3 Units.

Interprofessional Health Care Theory, Ethics, and Quality Improvement (3 units) - This course explores the theoretical and ethical basis of nursing practice, drawing on interprofessional and interdisciplinary perspectives in the health sciences and humanities. The role of the master's prepared nurse in theory development, theory-based practice and ethical decision-making within collaborative interprofessional teams is emphasized. Quality, safety, and collaborative practice are universal values used as a framework for leading change to improve healthcare systems and outcomes. Improving the quality and safety of health care services requires multiple knowledge disciplines, effective communication, collaboration and teamwork. Prerequisites: Admission to the Master of Science Nursing Program. Students in other School of Health Sciences (SOHS) programs may take this course as an elective with the permission of the instructor.

NURS 205. Health Care Policy and Delivery. 3 Units.

This course covers current challenges faced by the U.S. health care delivery system and how health policy, both historically and today, has sought to address these challenges. This system is compared with those of other nations to highlight its relative strengths and weaknesses. The course will consider health care concerns associated with population and public health, including how the behavior of individuals and groups influences health. Risk factors associated with vulnerable populations are identified and discussed. We will also explore the logistics of the health care system, including how it is organized, who makes up the workforce, how health care is financed, the costs and value of health care, how it is managed, and the role of information technology in this sector. Finally, we will take look at the future of health care delivery in the U.S. and of health care policy. Prerequisites: Admission to the Master of Science Nursing Program. Students in other School of Health Sciences (SOHS) programs may take this course as an elective with the permission of the instructor.

NURS 207. Nursing Issues and Leadership. 3 Units.

This course explores the current complex health care systems in healthcare organizations to achieve The Triple Aim (IOM, 2010). Master's prepared nurses are needed to advance from expert clinician to become transformational leaders to participate in changing challenges into opportunities for positive change to improve patient and healthcare outcomes. Students will explore their leadership strengths and area for improvement to advance their leadership capacity. Leadership skills needed for transformational leaders are studied and competencies mastered. The leadership role of the master's prepared nurse in organizational and system change including new practice models are emphasized. Prerequisites: Admission to the MSN Program.

NURS 209. Foundations of Specialty Practice I. 3 Units.

This advanced pharmacology course is designed to prepare advanced practice primary care clinicians and managers with the knowledge of pharmacologic principles and the pharmacologic actions of the major drug classes. Pharmacological treatments will be discussed in relation to physiologic systems, with emphasis on the application of these agents. This course further studies best practices for medication management for Cardiovascular Disease, Diabetes, Hyperlipidemia, and Community Acquired Pneumonia. With increased knowledge the advanced practice primary nurse will assume a leadership role in overseeing best practices for medication safety in any setting to enhance quality and safety and improved patient outcomes. Prerequisites: Students in good standing in the MSN Program. Students in other School of Health Sciences (SOHS) programs may take this course as an elective with the permission of the instructor.

NURS 211. Foundations of Specialty Practice II. 3 Units.

Specialty Practice II provides the graduate nursing student with comprehensive and systematic health assessment and physical examination skills to conduct health assessments for adults and older adults. Advanced cognitive and psychomotor skills allow graduate students the opportunity to practice using a diagnostic reasoning process. Students will conduct health histories, health assessments, focused review of systems, and physical exam techniques to inform diagnostic reasoning for a differential diagnosis. Students will incorporate anticipatory guidance and health promotion to establish a patient centered plan of care. Prerequisites: Students in good standing in the MSN Program. Students must be enrolled in the companion course Foundations in Specialty Practice III. Students in other School of Health Sciences (SOHS) programs may take this course as an elective with the permission of the instructor.

NURS 215. Synthesis Project. 3 Units.

Each student will complete an Evidence-Based Practice Improvement Project related to their specialty area of concentration under the direction of a faculty mentor. Students may build on a clinical topic from previous courses. The project will be a culmination and integration of previous coursework and new knowledge. The project will include a systematic review of the literature, an implementation plan with timeline, data analysis, outcome measures, and produce data to assess effectiveness and sustainability. The project will be summarized into a scholarly paper with the expectation for further dissemination. Prerequisites: All required MSN courses completed or concurrent.

NURS 217. Epidemiology. 3 Units.

Due to the changing landscape of health care and health care reform the role of the health care manager is evolving. Principles and application of epidemiology with its population-based perspective will serve as the focal point for planning, organizing, and evaluating health care services. Communities disease and consumption of health services are analyzed using epidemiological data. This course provides foundational knowledge for the advanced practice primary care nurse manager to understand how to use epidemiology data to plan, organize, and evaluate quality improvement efforts to enhance patient outcomes. Students will learn how to study the health needs for the populations they serve and determine what study design(s) best provide the needed data. Students will use relevant biostatistical data derived by epidemiology principles to study patient outcomes. Prerequisites: Admission to the Master of Science Nursing Program. Students in other School of Health Sciences (SOHS) programs may take this course as an elective with the permission of the instructor.

NURS 219. Population Health. 3 Units.

The Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act (ACA) of 2010 and the Institute of Healthcare Improvement Triple Aim (2008) provided the incentive to develop programs and initiatives aimed at improving the health of all Americans. Population health is referred to as the study of the distribution of health outcomes within a population, the health determinants of health that impact these populations, and the policies and interventions that affect the determinants. The collection of health care outcome data and its analysis serve as the framework for targeted program development, implementation, and evaluation of effectiveness. Population health interventions encompass health promotion, disease prevention as well as caring for the sick. This course provides the student with a comprehensive overview of population health. Prerequisites: Admission to the Master of Science Nursing Program. Epidemiology NURS 217.

NURS 287. Practicum. 1-5 Units.

This course provides experiential learning opportunities related to the specialty practice area. Students work with qualified nurse preceptors to explore current best practices, evidence, and leadership strategies in the clinical setting. Practicum hours are computed based on 3 clinical hours: 1 credit hour ratio (within a 15-week semester). A total of 240 hours is completed averaging 16 hours a week. Students may extend this practicum for a second semester NURS 287B if they require additional weeks to complete the practicum hours. Students are required to complete a minimum of two units in NURS 287A to progress. Prerequisites: All required MSN courses completed or concurrent.

Guy McCormack, Program Director

Doctor of Occupational Therapy

Mission Statement

The mission of the Doctor of Occupational Therapy Program at University of the Pacific is to help students become reflective practitioners and learn the distinct value of occupation as a therapeutic measure. Graduates acquire the ability to promote integrated health and wellness behaviors across the lifespan for people, populations and diverse communities.

Program Overview

Pacific's innovative Doctor of Occupational Therapy program prepares students to help people of all ages live their best lives by working through injury, disability and illness and practicing overall wellness and vitality in their daily routines. Instruction is delivered in an accelerated, hybrid format, offering interdisciplinary courses via online learning, classroom meetings and simulation labs.

The cohort-based, 120-unit program consists of eight trimesters (32 months). Students will start with foundational coursework then advance to learning intervention strategies for specific age groups and life challenges. Program graduates will be prepared to promote integrated health and wellness behaviors across the life-span for individuals and diverse communities. Through the eight trimester sequence, students learn to become general practitioners. However, occupational therapy doctoral students will have the opportunity to focus on specialty areas of practice such as clinical research skills, administration, leadership, program and policy development, advocacy, education, and theory development.

Accreditation Status

The entry-level occupational therapy doctoral degree program has applied for accreditation by the Accreditation Council for Occupational Therapy Education (ACOTE) of the American Occupational Therapy Association (AOTA), located at 6116 Executive Boulevard, Suite 200, North Bethesda, MD 20852-4929. ACOTE's telephone number c/o AOTA is (301) 652-AOTA and its Web address is www.acoteonline.org (<http://www.acoteonline.org>).

Admission Requirements

For the most current information regarding the application process and requirements, please visit the website (<https://www.pacific.edu/academics/schools-and-colleges/school-of-health-sciences/programs/occupational-therapy.html>).

OTD Program Outcomes

1. Prepare occupational therapy students to become generalists who demonstrate the skills to promote occupational performance, participation, and well-being with the clients they serve.
2. Educate graduate students as adult learners, facilitate student-centered educational experiences, which lead to the pursuit of life-long learning and life-long professional development toward improving the growth of knowledge in the field of occupational therapy.
3. Engage students to embody the program's commitment to client-centered practice, which is a partnership between the client and therapist, designed to empower clients to fulfil their occupational roles in a variety of settings.
4. Create the process of reflection on scholarship of teaching/learning so students become insightful practitioners who take responsibility for ethical professional behavior and clinical excellence.
5. Empower students to utilize evidence-based practice with a full range of skills to provide services designed to maximize self-care, work, play, and leisure activities to address the challenges of everyday living.
6. Synthesize advanced interpersonal skills in client-centered leadership activities to advocate and promote occupational justice for clients who can develop a full range of functional abilities.
7. Analyze basic science, humanism, and interdisciplinary knowledge to form a holistic perspective of integrated health and inter-professional education/practice.
8. Engage students in the scholarship of teaching and learning through active participation in significant experiences to fully understand the concept of occupation as a therapeutic measure.
9. Facilitate an appreciation for evidence-based practice by learning how to translate the best available research into clinical practice and therapeutic interventions.
10. Immerse the student in active learning experiences by utilizing technology and hands-on learning to demonstrate the distinct value of occupational therapy.

Occupational Therapy Courses

OTHR 301. Anatomical and Physiological Basis for Occupation. 4 Units.

This course explores gross human anatomy emphasizing the lower/upper extremity, head/neck and trunk; cardiovascular, pulmonary, and integumentary systems; the endocrine system, and the central nervous system through online modules, learning activities, videotapes, and cadaver lab dissections. Functional correlates to the structures in health and disease will also be presented and discussed. This course will emphasize through reflection and case examples the plasticity of anatomical structures and their impact on occupational performance in response to life experiences, illness, and injury. Prerequisite: Admission to the Doctor of Occupational Therapy Program.

OTHR 302. Functional Movement and Biomechanics. 3 Units.

An overview of kinesiology and biomechanics to explore the inter-relationship between the human musculoskeletal systems producing movement and engagement in daily occupations. Review of biomechanics in association with position and movement as well as activity demands, person factors, and environmental demands. Attention to how length and relationship to joint axes can change and influence movements as well as therapeutic exercise. Includes manual muscle testing and goniometric measures in the context of occupational performance. The emphasis of this course will be on rehabilitation, and functional movement restoration. Prerequisite: Admission to the Doctor of Occupational Therapy Program.

OTHR 303. Foundations of Occupational Therapy. 3 Units.

Exploration of the study of human occupation as it relates to the profession of occupational therapy. Course will cover the history of occupational therapy and occupational science, theoretical and philosophical traditions central to the profession, the relationship between occupational engagement and wellbeing, task analysis, and standards of care as explicated in the OT practice framework. This course will also investigate future directions of the profession through the critical analysis of ethics, sociocultural factors, and healthcare trends. Prerequisite: Admission to the Doctor of Occupational Therapy Program.

OTHR 304. Research Methods and Scholarship in OT. 3 Units.

This course provides foundational knowledge that supports students' abilities to describe and interpret the scope of the profession, appraise new knowledge, create new knowledge, and interpret and apply this knowledge to practice. It will empower students with the skills needed for critiquing research studies in order to be critical consumers of research and evidence based practitioners. Prerequisite: Admission to the Doctor of Occupational Therapy Program.

OTHR 305. The Art and Science of Occupational Therapy Practice. 3 Units.

The terms art and science are significant in the practice of occupational therapy. Exploration of these distinct, yet complementary, concepts in relation to occupational participation will help to illuminate the nature of occupation (participation) as a therapeutic intervention. This course will explore a myriad of approaches that address how the process of occupation that is performing activities that are important to the client is of therapeutic benefit. Additionally, concepts such as client-centered practice, the therapeutic use of self, customized intervention, measures of independence, outcomes evaluation, the OT process, the holistic perspective, professional identity, ethics, and OT assumptions for reflective practice will be explored. Students will learn that occupational therapists use both science-based approaches, rooted in empirical evidence, and art-based approaches centered in humanism, to advance the delivery of care. Prerequisite: Admission to the Doctor of Occupational Therapy Program.

OTHR 306. Professional Development in OT. 2 Units.

This course introduces the expectations of the professional graduate program, inter-professional communication and strategies for being successful in graduate studies. The course is designed to enhance clinical reasoning skills by applying and integrating past educational and work experiences with current coursework. Additionally, course will include educational resources to help students identify strategies for optimizing group work processes, which will be used in future courses during collaborative group projects. Prerequisites: Admission to the Doctor of Occupational Therapy Program.

OTHR 307. Occupational Therapy for Habilitation Challenges. 3 Units.

Introduction to theory, evaluation and interventions for children and adolescents with severe challenges due to genetic, developmental, neurological, cognitive, orthopedic and compromised intellectual capacity. Includes methods for consulting with parents or caregivers, activity or task analysis, grading activities, behavior management, therapeutic media, and overview of occupational therapist's role in the school system to achieve positive outcomes. Prerequisites: Admission to the Doctor of Occupational Therapy Program.

OTHR 308. Occupational Therapy for School-Based Practice. 3 Units.

Evaluation and intervention to promote participation in daily life with younger children in school and home settings. The course will focus on child Biopsychosocial development, family-centered approaches, and application of sensory processing and occupational therapy treatment planning. Exploration of education theory, team work in the school system, credentialing, current applications of assistive devices, and effective interventions to develop optimal learning experiences and collaboration with other disciplines in the community educational environment will be covered. Prerequisite: Admission to the Doctor of Occupational Therapy Program.

OTHR 309. OT Intervention for Adults with Physical Challenges. 3 Units.

This course is in the second trimester of the professional curriculum. The course provides an introduction to the application and integration of foundational knowledge of common medical terminology, evidenced-based practice strategies, and theoretical models learned in the first trimester. This course is concurrent with other intervention coursework (OTHR 310/311/312). All four of these courses provide students with procedural knowledge to further develop clinical reasoning skills (knowledge, application, evaluation, and synthesis) to prepare the students for entry-level practice. Prerequisite: Admission into the OT program and successful completion of previous trimester coursework.

OTHR 310. OT Intervention for Adults with Psychosocial Challenges. 3 Units.

This course is designed to provide the foundation skills for evidence based evaluation/intervention for people with mental health and psychosocial challenges across the lifespan. Students will explore policies, theories, medical and pharmacological treatments and OT intervention approaches for individuals with mental illness diagnoses. The course will focus on supporting recovery and performance to increase participation utilizing individual and population intervention approaches. Skills in reimbursement and ethical issues related to choice and self-direction, the social construct of mental health, additive behavior and resulting occupational injustices will be incorporated. Prerequisite: Successful completion of previous trimester coursework.

OTHR 311. Clinical Conditions Seen in Occupational Therapy. 3 Units.

This course introduces the etiology, symptoms, occupational impact, and the progression/prognosis of many conditions seen in occupational therapy practice. A biopsychosocial approach will be used to ensure a better understanding of the concept of occupational performance upon health promotion using a strength-based model of service delivery. This course will evaluate theory-driven, evidence-based health education solutions for clients with medical conditions. Emphasis that strengthening community participation and empowering people to manage their own health conditions and connect with community resources. Case-based discussions will emphasize clinical reasoning through knowledge integration and application. Prerequisite: Admission to the OTD program and successful completion of previous trimester coursework.

OTHR 312. Clinical Assessment. 2 Units.

The examination of standardized instruments, non-standardized assessments, criterion-referenced and norm-referenced test scores to form the basis of an understanding of reliability and validity in sampling, normative data, and criterion scores. Use of objective measures, statistics and clinical assessment tools to evaluate and form a baseline for treatment planning and documentation of Biopsychosocial approaches with various populations. Prerequisite: Admission into the OTD program and successful completion of previous trimester coursework.

OTHR 313. Professional Documentation. 2 Units.

Introduction to the purpose and methods of documentation to communicate information about the client from the occupational therapy perspective. Documentation is a way to articulate the rationale for provision of occupational therapy services and is a chronological record of the client's response to occupational therapy intervention. Documentation is performed to keep track of progress, communicate with other healthcare providers, and defend the rationale for treatment strategies. Documentation is essential, and it's a key factor in reimbursement during the continuum of care. Documentation of occupational therapy services is necessary whenever professional services are rendered. Prerequisite: Admission into the OTD program and successful completion of previous trimester coursework.

OTHR 314. Occupational Therapy Topics in Areas of Specialization. 3 Units.

Overview of areas of specialty certification including Gerontology, Mental Health, Pediatrics, Physical Rehabilitation, Driving and Community Mobility, Environmental Modification, Feeding, Eating, and Swallowing, Low Vision and School-based practice systems. Analysis of specialty areas to inform decision making regarding appropriate referrals to specialists and other health related disciplines is presented. Prerequisite: Admission into the OTD program and successful completion of previous trimester coursework.

OTHR 315. Educational Design and Scholarly Project. 3 Units.

This course further develops evidence-based practice skills through student participation in occupational therapy teaching experiences in academic and professional settings. Attention is given to innovative teaching methods and learning theories, teaching tools, resources, and strategies. Prerequisite: Admission to the OTD Program.

OTHR 316. Assistive Technology for Telehealth. 3 Units.

Introduction to methods of service delivery using distance learning, virtual environments and applications of telehealth technology, to improve health literacy in compliance with the OT Practice Framework. Interpretations of occupations with regard to client factors, performance patterns, and environments will deepen students understanding of the importance of context upon occupational participation and well-being. Prerequisite: Admission to the OTD Program.

OTHR 317. Occupational Therapy Across the Lifespan. 3 Units.

Using developmental theories across the lifespan, students cultivate an appreciation for evidence-based practice by learning to locate, select, analyze, and evaluate scholarly literature to formulate care plans for case examples representing different age groups. Includes review of quantitative and qualitative research methods to support ability to make informed evidence based decisions in applying reflective clinical practice skills. Prerequisite: Admission to the OTD Program.

OTHR 318. Neurological and Cognitive Challenges. 3 Units.

Evaluation and intervention strategies to promote independence and participation in daily living skills for adults experiencing neurological and cognitive conditions. Includes interventions that address impairments in attention, motor function, memory, executive function, judgement, self-awareness, visual-perception, psychosocial function and emotional regulation. Discussion of neuroplasticity research, principles of motor learning and guidelines for neuro-cognitive rehabilitation drawn from available evidence. Prerequisite: Admission to the OTD program.

OTHR 319. Functional Neuroscience. 3 Units.

Exploration and application of concepts of the nervous system as a communication network that coordinates most body activities. A review of the functional infrastructure of the neuroanatomy system, neurons, nerve impulses, neurotransmitters, significant pathways of the peripheral and central nervous systems and the autonomic nervous system's role to maintain homeostasis. An overview of neuroscience research, imaging in neuroscience, neuroplasticity and development of the nervous system and the relationship to therapeutic participation in the performance of occupations. Prerequisite: Admission to the OTD program.

OTHR 320. Leadership and Advocacy in Occupational Therapy. 3 Units.

Students are exposed to legislative priorities and learn to apply knowledge of state and federal policy to occupational therapy through advocacy with legislators and staff members by supporting and opposing bills and initiatives which effect practice and services in settings where people are under served. Experiential learning in small groups, visits to the State Capital building to attend sessions, discuss issues affecting development of service and social justice in the community. Learning objectives will center on integrating policy and advocacy into Capstone experience component with information learned during this course. Prerequisite: Admission to the OTD program.

OTHR 321. Management of Occupational Therapy Services. 3 Units.

Principles of management will be presented and applied to personnel in OT services in the context of current health care delivery systems. The focus is on organizational structure, needs assessment, program design, marketing, methods of reimbursement, and budgeting to implement new programs that promote participation and occupational performance. Students define their roles as a team leader, supervisor, manager, and client advocate. Course will include discussion of role division of OTR and COTA duties and may provide opportunity for collaboration with OTA program.

OTHR 322. Standardized OT Case Assessment and Treatment. 3 Units.

Using case-based and team learning, problem solving abilities are developed through simulated learning experiences with standardized cases involving people with physical and psychosocial challenges in healthcare settings. Issues addressed are patient safety, set-up and positioning with bed and hospital room activities, proper techniques with functional mobility with emphasis on body mechanics and adaptive equipment. Prerequisite: Admission to OTD program.

OTHR 323. Emergent Practice Models. 3 Units.

Students examine current trends and emergent models of OT practice. In an effort to meet society's occupational needs, the American Occupational Therapy Association established the following broad categories: Children & Youth, Health and Wellness, Mental Health, Productive Aging, Rehabilitation, Disability, & Participation, Work & Industry and Education. Students will explore emerging practice environments, such as consultation, care coordination, and transition services through a comprehensive literature review that will facilitate the integration of theoretical models for the conception of a doctoral capstone project. Prerequisite: Admission to the OTD program.

OTHR 324. Leadership and Ethics in Healthcare. 3 Units.

Exploration and application of leadership, ethics, values and social determinants of health, and population health in relation to current and future practice settings. Students develop and apply ethical principles to lead change, improve quality, resolve conflicts, and integrate learning into transformational and transactional leadership. Local, national, and global health issues will be examined through an occupational justice framework in the context of genetic, social, cultural, economic, gender, and health-system policy outcomes. Prerequisite: Admission to the OTD program.

OTHR 325. Application of Physical Agent Modalities. 3 Units.

Review of theory and safe application of Physical Agent Modalities (PAM) as adjunctive measures in preparation for participation in purposeful occupation. Topics covered include superficial thermal agents, deep thermal agents, electrotherapeutic agents, ultrasound, heat, ice, traction and mechanical devices. Examination of the modalities to promote participation, relieve pain, improve circulation, improve function, build strength, decrease edema, reduce muscle spasm, and deliver pain medication in collaboration with other health care providers will also be included. Prerequisite: Admission to the OTD program.

OTHR 326. Complementary and Integrative Health. 3 Units.

Overview of the role of occupational therapy in integrated health promotion in the individual, populations and in community practices. Health promotion is presented from a Biopsychosocial perspective. Analysis and synthesis of cultural and sociological implications on health beliefs, practices and behaviors for a reflective practice. Includes introduction, hands-on techniques to common complementary and alternative approaches. Prerequisite: Admission to the OTD program.

OTHR 327. National Board for Certification in Occupational Therapy Practice Exam. 1 Unit.

Review session for the National Board for Certification in Occupational Therapy (NBCOT) national certification exam. Review will focus on application of information learned throughout the program as well as a critical thinking logic models and processes necessary for clinical practice in occupational therapy. Prerequisite: Admission to OTD program.

OTHR 387A. Fieldwork Level 1A. 2 Units.

This course centers on clinical observation of practitioners, opportunity to apply knowledge to practice, and to develop understanding of the needs of clients in a variety of clinical settings that are culturally relevant, based on theoretical constructs, models of practice, frames of reference, and within the scope of OT Practice. Prerequisite: Admission to the Doctor of Occupational Therapy Program and successful completion of previous trimester.

OTHR 387B. Fieldwork Level 1B. 2 Units.

Second of two courses that provide students with observation and participation in selected community settings where occupational therapy is employed. Continued exposure to traditional and nontraditional facilities and populations served by occupational therapists to promote clinical reasoning and reflective practice. Students transform theory into practice to further appreciate the values and beliefs that enable ethical practice and professional behavior. This class will also address practice in behavioral health, or psychological and social factors influencing engagement in occupation. Prerequisite: Admission to the Doctor of Occupational Therapy Program.

OTHR 389A. Fieldwork Level 2A. 12 Units.

This course offers fieldwork experience under the supervision of an occupational therapist. Full-time clinical experiential learning is provided for the application of theory and skills to traditional and emergent practice settings in compliance with the Biopsychosocial curricular design. Application of knowledge from the classroom to practice settings with guidance from the Academic Fieldwork Coordinator and community fieldwork educators. Level II Fieldwork uses clinical reasoning and reflective practice to carry out professional responsibilities and promote integrated learning through supervised clinical experience in the field. Prerequisite: Admission into the OTD program and successful completion of OTHR 387B.

OTHR 389B. Fieldwork Level 2B. 12 Units.

This course is second in series of two that offers fieldwork experience under the supervision of an occupational therapist. Full-time clinical experiential learning is provided for the application of theory and skills to traditional and emergent practice settings in compliance with the Biopsychosocial curricular design. Application of knowledge from the classroom to practice settings with guidance from the Academic Fieldwork Coordinator and community fieldwork educators. Level II Fieldwork uses clinical reasoning and reflective practice to carry out professional responsibilities and promote integrated learning through supervised clinical experience in the field. Prerequisite: Admission into the OTD program and successful completion of OTHR 389A.

OTHR 395A. Capstone Preparation 1. 1 Unit.

This course is first of four courses designed to support the student in the culminating experience of the doctoral capstone project. The primary goal of this course is for the student to explore a variety of areas of occupational therapy practice and learn about the personal characteristics required to succeed in those areas and to three potential areas of focus for the capstone project. Prerequisite: Admission to the OTD program.

OTHR 395B. Capstone Preparation 2. 1 Unit.

This course is second of four courses designed to support the student in the culminating experience of the doctoral capstone project. The primary goal in this course is to complete needs assessments in one of the three previously identified areas of advanced practice under faculty mentorship and to draft a proposal for the intended capstone project. Prerequisite: Admission to the OTD program.

OTHR 395C. Capstone Preparation 3. 1 Unit.

This course is the third of four courses designed to support the culminating experience of the doctoral capstone project. The primary goal of this course is for the student to choose a site(s), finalize their proposed learning objectives for the site(s), and present their ideas regarding research and or plan development to the stakeholders of the site(s) and their faculty mentor. Prerequisite: Admission to the OTD program.

OTHR 395D. Capstone Preparation 4. 1 Unit.

This course is the fourth of four courses designed to support the student in the culminating experience of the OTD, the capstone project. The primary goal of this course is for the student to finalize the logistics of the proposed Capstone plan, present it to stakeholders and, if applicable, submit it for IRB approval. Prerequisite: Admission to the OTD program.

Physician Assistant Studies

Program Offered

Master of Physician Assistant Studies

The Master of Physician Assistant Studies (MPAS) Program is a full-time, 27-month program in the Department of Physician Assistant Education within the University of the Pacific's Arthur A. Dugoni, School of Dentistry. This Program is offered on the Sacramento Campus. Classes matriculate each January.

In an interprofessional setting, Pacific PA students will become proficient in the full array of skills involved in completing medical histories, performing physical examinations, performing clinical skills and procedures, providing treatment, and counseling patients. Pacific's PA program provides opportunities for interprofessional education through involvement with Pacific's highly regarded health-science schools, the Arthur A. Dugoni School of Dentistry and the Thomas J. Long School of Pharmacy and Health Sciences, and through student clinical training experiences at community hospitals and clinics.

In addition to successfully completing their program, Pacific PA students are required to pass the Physician Assistant National Certifying Examination (PANCE) as required by regulatory agencies in order to enter into practice.

Accreditation Status

The ARC-PA has granted Accreditation-Provisional status to the University of the Pacific Master of Physician Assistant Studies Program sponsored by the University of the Pacific.

Accreditation-Provisional is an accreditation status granted when the plans and resource allocation, if fully implemented as planned, of a proposed program that has not yet enrolled students appear to demonstrate the program's ability to meet the ARC-PA Standards or when a program holding Accreditation-Provisional status appears to demonstrate continued progress in complying with the Standards as it prepares for the graduation of the first class (cohort) of students.

Accreditation-Provisional does not ensure any subsequent accreditation status. It is limited to no more than five years from matriculation of the first class.

Admission Requirements

Completion of the following admission requirements prior to submission of an application is required. Applicants must submit an application to the Central Application Service for Physician Assistants (CASPA). Refer to the Program Website (https://dental.pacific.edu/academic-programs/residency-and-graduate-programs/master-of-physician-assistant-studies?utm_source=Link&utm_medium=Redirect&utm_campaign=PAprogram) for deadline and prerequisite course information.

- Bachelor's degree *
- All prerequisite coursework **
- Minimum overall GPA of 3.0 (on 4.0 scale)
- Minimum overall science GPA of 3.0 (on 4.0 scale)
- Minimum of 1,000 hours of health care experience

* Degree conferral date must appear on the transcript for a CASPA application to be complete.

 Grades for all prerequisite courses must be posted and appear on transcript (i.e. no "planned" or "in progress" notations on transcript).

Prerequisite Health Care Experience

We do not consider one type of clinical experience greater than another (i.e. experience as an RN is not more valued than that of a medical assistant). Experience may be paid or unpaid. There is not a published list of health care professions the program considers suitable for clinical experience. At a minimum, the applicant's clinical experience should include one of the following:

- Collecting of, and/or reporting in the patient's chart, data necessary to establish a diagnosis or evaluate the progress of the patient's treatment plan;
- Assisting a health care worker in the performance of diagnostic, therapeutic, or surgical procedures;
- Under the supervision of a health care provider administering or dispensing medications;
- Other work involving direct patient contact and interaction.

Prerequisite Coursework

- All prerequisite coursework must be completed at an accredited US institution.
- A single course cannot be used to meet multiple requirements.
- No preference is given for coursework completed at 4-year institutions versus 2-year institutions.

Prerequisite Science Courses

Important! Pacific will NOT accept online or AP/CLEP courses to fulfill science prerequisites.

General Chemistry: Two courses with a minimum of 1 lab. Total of 8 semester units or 12 quarter units. Should be a course sequence designed for chemistry majors.

Biological Sciences: Two courses with a minimum of 1 lab. Total of 6 semester or 9 quarter units. Should be a course sequence designed for biology majors.

Human Anatomy: One course with lab is required. Total of 4 semester or 5 quarter units with lab (or combined Anatomy & Physiology).

Human Physiology: One course is required. Total of 4 semester or 5 quarter units (or combined Anatomy & Physiology). Lab recommended, but not required.

Microbiology: One course is required. Total of 3 semester units or 4 quarter units. Lab recommended, but not required.

Prerequisite Non-Science Courses

Math: One course in Statistics is required. Total of 3 semester or 4 quarter units.

Psychology: One course in General or Abnormal Psychology is required. Total of 3 semester or 4 quarter units.

English Composition: Two courses are required. Total of 6 semester or 9 quarter units. Minimum of 1 composition course; 2nd course can be composition, literature, or writing intensive course. English as a Second Language courses will not fulfill this requirement.

Other Admissions Requirements

Technical Standards

Students must be able to achieve and maintain certain technical standards of knowledge and skill in order to successfully complete the PA Program. The technical standards in this document apply to satisfactory performance in all academic and clinical course work, as well as fulfillment of non-academic essential functions of the curriculum involving physical, cognitive, and behavior factors that are essential to a professional clinical practitioner. Students must attest to their ability to meet these technical standards prior to matriculation.

Technical Standards (<http://dental.pacific.edu/Documents/academicprograms/mpas/Technical%20Standards%20c2019.pdf>)

Health and Communicable Disease Clearance

Students must provide documentation of general health and the ability to meet technical standards. Additionally, students are required to provide documentation demonstrating communicable disease clearance.

Additional information regarding clearance requirements may be found on Pacific's student health website.

Background Clearance

The Program requires students to undergo background screenings prior to matriculation and periodically throughout enrollment. Students have a fiduciary responsibility for the costs associated with the background screening. Background screening will be completed on all students at matriculation and prior to placement on clinical rotations. Applicants are required to be truthful when completing their application in the CASPA system. Discrepancies noted on the pre-matriculation background screening will be investigated and may result in denial of matriculation. Some clinical rotation sites require an additional background screening immediately prior to the start of the rotation, therefore students may be required to complete multiple background screenings throughout enrollment. Facts uncovered as a result of the background screening which could preclude licensure and/or practice in the profession may impact the student's ability to begin or continue in the program.

Pending Criminal Action Decisions

Applicants offered admission who have pending criminal charges must have adjudication of the offense(s) completed prior to matriculation. Applicants offered admission who fail to complete adjudication of the offense(s) prior to matriculation, or are convicted of a misdemeanor or higher crime, will have their offer of acceptance withdrawn. Persons currently under the command of the criminal justice system will not be accepted for admission.

Toxicology Clearance

The Program requires students to undergo toxicology screenings prior to matriculation and periodically throughout enrollment. Students have a fiduciary responsibility for the costs associated with toxicology screening. Toxicology screening will be completed on all students prior to matriculation, randomly throughout enrollment and prior to placement on clinical rotations. Toxicology screening may be via urine or serum. Some clinical rotation sites require an additional toxicology screens immediately prior to the start of the rotation, therefore students may be required to complete multiple screens throughout enrollment. The Program requires the authorization by each student for a urine toxicology screen prior to matriculation into the Program. Abnormalities noted on the pre-matriculation toxicology screening will be investigated and may result in denial of matriculation.

International Applicants

- All prerequisite course work must be completed at an accredited US institution.
- Baccalaureate degrees will be accepted from foreign institutions only if accompanied by a World Education Services (WES) evaluation of foreign training. CASPA also accepts the WES evaluation of transcripts.

- Note: WES does not evaluate all Caribbean medical schools. If you attended a school that World Education Services (WES) will not evaluate, your transcripts will not be considered as part of your application. Applicants will still be required to demonstrate that all prerequisites have been met with the exclusion of the affected transcripts.
- The entire curriculum is taught in the English language. If English is not your first language, you may be required to take the TOEFL/IELTS and should submit your score with your CASPA application. The program will not accept applications with a TOEFL score less than 100 or IELTS score less than 7.0. TOEFL scores are valid for two years after the test date per ETS (<https://www.ets.org/toefl/ibt/scores/>) website. View the TOEFL flowchart (<http://dental.pacific.edu/Documents/academicprograms/mpas/TOEFL%20Flowchart.pdf>) to see if it is required for you.

Understanding of health promotion and disease prevention, and mechanisms of disease.

Achieved by providing a comprehensive curriculum of basic and clinical sciences delivered in a systems-based format. During the initial didactic phase, the transition from acquiring medical knowledge to putting it into practice is facilitated by frequent use of simulated patients and gradual introduction to actual patients.

Proficient application of critical thinking in medical decision making.

Achieved by emphasis that medicine requires the practitioner to apply logic and reasoning to achieve healing. These principles are taught and practiced in the didactic curriculum in small group discussions, through interactions with simulated patients, and through a commitment to the application of science in medicine.

Patient-centered approach to health care practice.

Patient-centered care is based on putting the needs of others first and helping people develop and perform to the best of their abilities. It strives to improve outcomes by strengthening the provider-patient relationship, by providing care in consultation with patients and by replacing the provider-centered system with one from the patient's viewpoint. Students will become familiar with this type of practice in the didactic phase and will gain hands-on experience working directly with preceptors and PA program faculty who serve as mentors.

Health care delivery through a team-based model that fosters community collaboration.

Achieved by providing students the opportunity to develop a passion for community service through frequent experiences serving the health care needs of the under-served alongside physician and PA role models.

Graduate PAs are in a unique position to have a tremendous impact on the communities in which they live and work. The ability to provide compassionate care to marginalized citizens with the breadth of care multiplied through a team-based approach is paramount. During their tenure with the PA program, students will participate in such collaborative environments in a variety of clinical settings.

Commitment to life-long learning.

Achieved by modeling self-study and continuing education, by encouraging on-going enthusiasm for exploration and investigation, and by directing students to resources for furthering knowledge.

Physician Assistant Courses

MPAS 200. Clinical Medicine I - Foundations (Anatomy). 4 Units.

This course involves a detailed regional analysis of the structure of the human body that includes the lower/upper extremity, head/neck and trunk, thoracic/abdominal and pelvic cavities and the central nervous system. Functional correlates to the structures will also be presented and discussed. This course has a discussion component as well as a laboratory component using physical anatomy models, cadaver prosections, and computer/textbook anatomy programs/atlas.

MPAS 201. Clinical Medicine I - Foundations (Pathophysiology). 4 Units.

This course involves the detailed analysis of the structure, function and pathology of the organ systems of the body. Functional correlates to physician assistant and physical therapy care are included.

MPAS 202. Clinical Medicine II. 8 Units.

This is first of a two-semester course that focuses on the anatomy, physiology, pathophysiology, etiology, clinical manifestation, diagnosis and management of select medical conditions, syndromes and diseases including the integration and application of knowledge obtained in the Clinical Skills, and Pharmacology and Therapeutics courses. The semester will follow an organ system approach.

MPAS 203. Clinical Medicine III. 8 Units.

This is the second of a two-semester course that focuses on the anatomy, physiology, pathophysiology, etiology, clinical manifestation, diagnosis and management of select medical conditions, syndromes and diseases, including the integration and application of knowledge obtained in the Clinical Skills, and Pharmacology and Therapeutics courses. The semester will follow an organ system and discipline approach.

MPAS 205. Preparation for Clinical Practice. 4 Units.

This is an intensive clinical preparatory course prior to the start of clinical rotations. Clinical year clearance, policy and procedure instruction. Application of clinical and procedural knowledge through various individual and team activities. Culmination evaluations of the didactic portion of the curriculum. Satisfactory completion of the culmination evaluations is required to progress to the clinical year.

MPAS 211. Pharmacology and Therapeutics I. 3 Units.

This is the first of a three-semester course that focuses on general clinical therapeutic principles, pharmacokinetics, pharmacodynamics and pharmacotherapeutic application. This semester emphasizes basic pharmacological principles, drug classifications, legal aspects of prescribing, supplements and alternative medicinal therapies, and self-care concepts.

MPAS 212. Pharmacology and Therapeutics II. 3 Units.

This is the second of a three-semester course that focuses on general clinical therapeutic principles, pharmacokinetics, pharmacodynamics and pharmacotherapeutic application. This semester presents pharmacological and therapeutic concepts addressed in an organ system approach congruent with Clinical Medicine.

MPAS 213. Pharmacology and Therapeutics III. 3 Units.

This is the third of a three-semester course that focuses on general clinical therapeutic principles, pharmacokinetics, pharmacodynamics and pharmacotherapeutic application. This semester presents pharmacological and therapeutic concepts addressed in an organ system and disciple specific approach congruent with Clinical Medicine.

MPAS 215. Primary Care I. 4 Units.

Students will be placed in an outpatient and/or inpatient setting to obtain exposure to primary care medicine, including health maintenance, disease prevention, patient education and continuity of care. The written examinations for these will focus on family medicine.

MPAS 216. Primary Care II. 4 Units.

Students will be placed in an outpatient and/or inpatient setting to obtain exposure to primary care medicine, including health maintenance, disease prevention, patient education and continuity of care. The written examinations for these will focus on family medicine.

MPAS 217. Primary Care III. 4 Units.

Students will be placed in an outpatient and/or inpatient setting to obtain exposure to primary care medicine, including health maintenance, disease prevention, patient education and continuity of care. The written examinations for these will focus on family medicine.

MPAS 218. Periodic and Summative Evaluations/Capstone. 4 Units.

This will be a continuing course throughout the four semesters of the clinical education phase of the program. The periodic evaluations will include end-of-rotation written examinations, OSCEs, and skills assessments. Summative evaluations will consist of a written comprehensive examination and a practical examination (OSCE). All course elements must be completed satisfactorily in order to pass the course and be progressed to graduation. The Capstone Project will continue from the research portion of the Behavioral Sciences course. Under the supervision of a faculty member, students will pose and answer a clinical question on a practice topic of their choice by completing a critical review of the medical literature, and will write a paper suitable for publication on the topic.

MPAS 219. Advanced Clinical Skills. 4 Units.

This will be a continuing course throughout four semesters of the clinical education phase of the program, which builds upon the basic clinical skills coursework. Instruction and application of advanced clinical and procedural skills. Integration and application of clinical reasoning and a comprehensive patient centered approach through simulation and standardized patient encounters.

MPAS 221. Behavioral Sciences I. 2 Units.

This is the first of a three-semester course that covers human biological and psychological development, social influences on health care, health literacy, evidence based medicine, and mental health disorders. This semester emphasizes basic psychology concepts, biological and psychological development across the life span, social determinants, and health literacy.

MPAS 222. Behavioral Sciences II. 2 Units.

This is the second of a three-semester course that covers human biological and psychological development, social influences on health care, health literacy, evidence based medicine, and mental health disorders. This semester emphasizes research design and methods, evaluation and application of clinical research, and clinical decision-making driven by evidence based medicine.

MPAS 223. Behavioral Sciences III. 2 Units.

This is the third of a three-semester course that covers human biological and psychological development, social influences on health care, health literacy, evidence based medicine, and mental health disorders. This semester emphasizes evaluation and management of behavioral and mental health disorders.

MPAS 225. Primary Care/Pediatrics. 4 Units.

Students will be placed in an outpatient and/or inpatient setting to obtain exposure to pediatric primary care medicine. The written examination for this rotation will focus on pediatric medicine.

MPAS 231. Professional Practice and the Health System I. 1 Unit.

This is the first of a three-semester course that explores the healthcare system from a professional, legal, economic and patient care perspective. This semester includes the history and status of the PA profession and professional organizations, the physician-PA team relationship, PA scope of practice and legal regulations. An introduction to healthcare delivery systems, health policy, and related governmental agencies. Exploration of team based patient care through interprofessional education activities.

MPAS 232. Professional Practice and the Health System II. 1 Unit.

This is the second of a three-semester course that explores today's healthcare system from a professional, legal, economic and patient care perspective. This semester emphasis is on medical ethics, legal aspects of health care, patient-provider interactions, confidentiality, risk management and malpractice. Exploration of team based patient care through interprofessional education activities.

MPAS 233. Professional Practice and the Health System III. 1 Unit.

This is the third of a three-semester course that explores today's healthcare system from a professional, legal, economic and patient care perspective. This semester emphasis is the economics of health care, including billing and coding, utilization review and electronic medical records (EMR). Exploration of team based patient care through interprofessional education activities.

MPAS 235. Primary Care/Women's Health. 4 Units.

Students will be placed in an outpatient and/or inpatient setting to obtain exposure to women's health care. The written examinations for this rotation will focus on women's health and reproductive health.

MPAS 241. Clinical Skills I. 4 Units.

This three-semester course focuses on four main topic areas: history and physical examination, diagnostic studies, application through case based learning, and procedural skills. This semester builds a foundation of student knowledge in the four topic areas through focused study in the following areas: communication, documentation, history and review of systems, fundamentals of diagnostic studies, medical microbiology, external anatomy, and utilization of diagnostic equipment. Case based discussions emphasize clinical reasoning through knowledge application.

MPAS 242. Clinical Skills II. 4 Units.

This three-semester course focuses on four main topic areas: history and physical examination, diagnostic studies, application through case based learning, and procedural skills. This semester presents the concepts in an organ system approach congruent with Clinical Medicine. Case based discussions emphasize clinical reasoning through knowledge integration and application. Organ system specific procedures are covered.

MPAS 243. Clinical Skills III. 4 Units.

This three-semester course focuses on four main topic areas: history and physical examination, diagnostic studies, application through case based learning, and procedural skills. This semester presents the concepts in an organ system and discipline specific approach congruent with Clinical Medicine. Case based discussions emphasize clinical reasoning through knowledge integration and application. Organ system and discipline specific procedures are covered.

MPAS 245. Primary Care/Behavioral and Mental Health. 4 Units.

Students will be placed in an outpatient and/or inpatient setting to obtain exposure to behavioral health care. The written examination for this rotation will focus on behavioral health.

MPAS 255. Internal Medicine. 4 Units.

Students will be placed in an outpatient, inpatient and/or long term care setting to obtain exposure to primary care and chronic disease management. The written examination for this rotation will cover internal medicine and geriatrics.

MPAS 265. Surgery. 4 Units.

Students will be placed with general surgeons and/or surgical specialists to obtain exposure to surgical principles. Student will obtain intraoperative experience during this rotation. Pre- and post-operative care concepts may be addressed in this rotation or any other rotation. The written examination for this rotation will focus on general surgical principles, including pre- and post-operative management.

MPAS 275. Emergency Medicine. 4 Units.

Students will be placed in a hospital based emergency room to gain exposure to urgent and emergent care. The written examination for this rotation will focus on emergency medicine.

MPAS 285. General Elective I. 4 Units.

Students in good academic standing will have the opportunity to complete elective rotations in a desired area of specialty or Pathway Track, if available. Elective rotations may occur in any healthcare setting in any field in which PAs are allowed to practice within the state where the practice is located. The Program reserves the right to utilize elective rotations in the best interest of the student to address knowledge and/or skills deficiencies.

MPAS 286. General Elective II. 4 Units.

Students in good academic standing will have the opportunity to complete elective rotations in a desired area of specialty or Pathway Track, if available. Elective rotations may occur in any healthcare setting in any field in which PAs are allowed to practice within the state where the practice is located. The Program reserves the right to utilize elective rotations in the best interest of the student to address knowledge and/or skills deficiencies.

MPAS 287. General Elective III. 4 Units.

Students in good academic standing will have the opportunity to complete elective rotations in a desired area of specialty or Pathway Track, if available. Elective rotations may occur in any healthcare setting in any field in which PAs are allowed to practice within the state where the practice is located. The Program reserves the right to utilize elective rotations in the best interest of the student to address knowledge and/or skills deficiencies.

MPAS 293. Special Topics. 4 Units.

Rose Wong, Program Director

Program Offered

Master of Social Work

- Traditional Sequence
- Advanced Standing Option Sequence

Mission Statement

The mission of the Pacific's MSW program is to provide a graduate level, student-centered social work program that integrates inter-professional education and innovative supervised practice field placements so that students become skilled and compassionate professionals who provide comprehensive and culturally sensitive clinical care using an evidence-based approach. The program prepares students to practice in an increasingly complex healthcare environment with the purpose of improving the quality of life for people and enhancing human potential for full, productive participation in society. Graduates will be prepared to be agents of change with excellent client care skills, to value diversity, and advocate and work to promote economic and social justice for individuals, groups and communities.

Program Overview

The MSW program is an accelerated hybrid (classroom and online) program offering two different sequences. Students with a Bachelor's degree and foundation in the liberal arts/social sciences are eligible for admission to the traditional sequence, which can be completed in four trimesters (16 months) with a new cohort starting each Fall trimester. Students with a Bachelor's degree in social work from a program accredited by the Council on Social Work Education (CSWE) are eligible for admission to the advanced standing sequence, which can be completed in three trimesters (12 months) with a new cohort starting each Spring trimester.

The MSW curriculum complies with CSWE standards and align with the competency-based education framework introduced in the 2015 Educational Policy and Accreditation Standards. The design of the foundation curriculum centered on the nine core generalist competencies to identify and assess the student's abilities to practice within the field of social work. The design of the advanced curriculum centered on our extension of these generalist competencies to practice within the specialized area of healthcare social work.

The MSW program offers one area of specialized practice: healthcare social work. The healthcare social work specialized practice curriculum enhances and extends the core generalist practice competencies and the values of the social work profession that are introduced, reinforced, and mastered in the generalist curriculum. The specialized practice curriculum builds on generalist practice in three ways. First, knowledge, skills, values, and cognitive and affective processes acquired in generalist courses are further developed and applied to more complex and specific areas of practice. Second, students, with generalist level knowledge and skills in hand, are given the opportunity in the 30-week intensive specialized practice internship to face a range of medical and health related challenges, in inpatient and outpatient healthcare settings and in the community, for providing service to individuals, families, groups, organizations and communities. Thirdly, after mastering the generalist competencies, students will be prepared to learn the importance of multidisciplinary knowledge and further develop their interprofessional teamwork skills via interprofessional education and field learning opportunities during the final two trimesters of the program.

Accreditation Status

The MSW program launches in Fall 2020 and is in Pre-Candidacy for Accreditation by the Council on Social Work Education's Commission on Accreditation. The program is going through the 3-year Candidacy Process with CSWE and expects to be fully accredited by Fall 2022. Students who enter in Fall 2020 will be retroactively recognized as having graduated from a CSWE-accredited program once the program attains Initial Accreditation. More accreditation information can be found at: CSWE's FAQ on Accreditation; <https://www.cswe.org/Accreditation/Information/Frequently-Asked-Questions> (<https://www.cswe.org/Accreditation/Information/Frequently-Asked-Questions/>)

Admission Requirements

For the most current information regarding the application process and requirements, please visit the website (<https://www.pacific.edu/academics/schools-and-colleges/school-of-health-sciences/programs/social-work.html>).

Program Learning Objectives

This program is designed to prepare students to practice competently in an increasingly complex healthcare environment and gain the skills and knowledge to be innovators in social work. Graduates will:

- 1. Critically analyze and use evidence to guide decision-making and clinical skills to promote best practices.
 - 2. Use knowledge of social work practice theories and policy frameworks and evidence-based practice to develop strategies to promote high quality care, innovation, and organizational change, targeting social justice and promotion of human rights.
 - 3. Work in inter-professional teams to develop a compassionate and culturally sensitive, patient-centered approach to healthcare.
- Course Credit Not Granted For Life and Work Experience

The MSW program does not grant social work course credit for life experience or previous work experience. Both life and work experience, past and present, cannot be a substitute for field education experience or any generalist or specialized practice courses.

Master of Social Work

The program's hybrid curriculum is designed with two options: a 16-month sequence for students with any other undergraduate degree totaling 55 units, and a 12-month advanced standing sequence for students with a Council on Social Work Education accredited BSW program totaling 32 units.

Social Work Courses

SOCW 201. Social Work Theory & Practice I. 3 Units.

This course introduces a range of prevention and intervention methods grounded in generalist social work theory and the person-in-environment framework. A unifying framework of micro, mezzo and macro level practice for working with individuals, families, groups, organizations and communities is introduced. The framework includes the practice phases of engagement, assessment, planning/contracting, intervention, evaluation, termination/referral, and follow-up. Students will gain a foundation upon which they can continue to add and build social work practice skills. Prerequisite: Admission to the Master of Social Work program. Students in other University of the Pacific graduate programs may take this course as an elective with the permission of the instructor. This course is taught in a hybrid format.

SOCW 203. Research-Informed Practice. 3 Units.

This course introduces students to social work research. It focuses on understanding quantitative and qualitative research methods in advancing the science of social work and evaluation of social work practice. Prerequisite: Admission to the Master of Social Work program. Students in other University of the Pacific graduate programs may take this course as an elective with the permission of the instructor. This course is taught in a hybrid format.

SOCW 205. Policy & Advocacy in Social Work Practice. 3 Units.
