THE UNIVERSITY OF THE PACIFIC EMERITI SOCIETY

February 15, 1989, Newsletter

CONSTITUTION - We are pleased to report that the Society is now officially organized. Thirty-four members responded to our January 9th communication and returned ballots on the adoption of the Constitution. With 33 votes in favor and one abstention, the Constitution was formally adopted on January 23, 1989.

PRESIDENT ATCHLEY - The Executive Committee has kept President Atchley informed concerning the formation of the Society and its plans. He has been supportive of our efforts and has expressed continued interest. In a recent letter he stated, "Our emeritus faculty and staff have made significant contributions to the University and I want to consider them continuing members of our campus community. I am certain that the Society will be helpful in keeping some of Pacific's most dedicated retirees informed and attached to the University."

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE - The Executive Committee has met several times to conduct the "business" of the Society and to move it along. Sy Kahn, Secretary, has undertaken the drafting of a document listing (for want of a better title) "the rights and privileges of emeriti personnel." In a few days we will discuss the draft with the Vice Presidents and the Chair of the Academic Council. Once the draft has reached general consensus, it will be presented to the Society at a luncheon meeting for discussion.

MEMBERSHIP - A current list of all emeriti professors is attached. Please let us know of any changes in address. Also, please keep us informed of items of interest about yourself or your colleagues. We want to publish such items in future Newsletters.

NEWS RE MEMBERS -

Ray McIlvenna - has recently had a book published entitled, The Pleasure Quest: The Search for Aphrodisiacs.

Malcolm Moule - has been made an honorary member of a similar organization at the University of Oregon.

Dick Reynolds - Won a prize for a sculpture in the 37th Annual Art Exhibition at the Haggin Museum; received Honorable Mention for a watercolor and ink painting at a show in Lexington, N.C.

Fay Goleman - Was the recent recipient of one of ten Susan B. Anthony Awards presented by the San Joaquin County Commission on the Status of Women.

LUNCHEON MEETING, MARCH 13TH - The Society's first luncheon meeting is planned for 12 o'clock, noon, on Monday, March 13th, in the Patio Room of Grace Covell Hall. The cost is $8.00 per person, including tip and tax. Reservations must be in by March 8th. We have invited President Atchley to be our first speaker and to give an up-date on UOP. Please use the attached form for your reservation. We hope for good attendance.

NEWS AND IDEAS - The Executive Committee is interested in receiving information from members concerning emeriti organizations at other colleges, and the ways emeriti and their universities benefit each other. Also, please feel free to suggest ways that the members, individually, or the Society, itself, can be useful or provide services to the University of the Pacific. Other ideas or suggestions are also welcome.
