My dear Muir:

Thanks for your letter of the 10th and the notes, newspaper cuttings, etc., all of which will be useful.

I am going to Washington tomorrow and shall organize the Forestry Commission on Tuesday. The appropriation has passed the House all right but is still hung up in the Senate. I do not, however, feel now any great anxiety about it.

I still expect to be in California in the early autumn and I count on your assistance, advice and companionship there.

Always faithfully yours,

C. S. Sargent

John Muir, Esq.
