Pres. of S. Club he appoints me on committee

Martinez, May 4, 1896.

My dear Lukens.

At the last election of the Sierra Club I was reelected president & I appointed Jane a member of the Standing Committee on Publications & Communications. I hope Jane will be able to give some attention to the articles in our bulletins & above all have a good long one of Your own on Your travels in the Sierra.

We all enjoyed your visit ever so much & hope it will not be long ere Jane & Your wife make us another visit. & if Jane could bring the rest of the family especially Lollie I would be glad.

I mean to start soon for Alaska

Ever cordially Yours

John Muir
