HONORARY DEGREE

Douglass M. Eberhardt '59 BUS

Doctor of Business Administration, honoris causa

Douglass M. Eberhardt '59 is Chairman and CEO of Bank of Stockton. His banking career has spanned more than fifty-seven years, including service as Bank of Stockton's Executive Vice President, Chief Financial Officer, President, Chief Executive Officer and Chairman.

Bank of Stockton, founded in 1867, is one of the nation's leading independent community banks and the largest community bank in San Joaquin County. The oldest bank in the state of California still operating under its original charter, it is known for its tradition of strength, quality products, superior customer service and technological innovation. Pacific owes its location in Stockton in part to the bank, which played a major role in bringing the University to Stockton in 1924.

Mr. Eberhardt graduated from University of the Pacific in 1959 with a major in Business Administration and a minor in Economics. He and his family have had a tremendous impact on the University. A member of the Board of Regents for twelve years, Mr. Eberhardt is the third member of the Eberhardt family to serve on the Board, representing one of the longest legacies for one family in Pacific's history. Adding to that legacy are nine Pacific alumni across three Eberhardt generations. In the late 1990s, the School of Business and Public Administration was renamed the Eberhardt School of Business in recognition of the Eberhardt family's legacy of leadership, friendship and giving to the University. Other examples of the Eberhardt family's leadership and deep commitment to Pacific include the Eberhardt Teacher-Scholar Award, given for exemplary teaching and scholarship, as well as substantial time and expertise generously devoted to various committees, functions and campaigns at the University. In 2014, the family received the Alumni Association Outstanding Family Distinguished Alumni Award.

In addition to giving many years of wise leadership as a Regent, Mr. Eberhardt is also a devoted advocate for experiential learning opportunities for students, including providing the start-up funds for the innovative Student Investment Fund (SIF) in the Eberhardt School of Business. The SIF routinely outperforms Wall Street indicators and is one of the largest student-run funds in the western United States. Mr. Eberhardt and his wife, Margie, are prominent philanthropists, and were inaugural members of the University's 1851 Society honoring Pacific's most generous friends.

Mr. Eberhardt has supported innumerable non-profit organizations throughout his tenure at the Bank of Stockton. In 2005, he was honored by Goodwill Industries of San Joaquin County with the Goodwill Helping Hands Award for his community philanthropy. In 2007, he was named Stocktonian of the Year by the Central Valley Association of Realtors and the Stockton Chamber of Commerce for his numerous charitable endeavors. His most recent professional recognition came in April 2016 when he was named the 2016 Community Banker of the Year by the Western Independent Bankers.

Doug and Margie have two children, both Pacific graduates, and three grandchildren.

Kate Moses '84 COP

Commencement Speaker

Doctor of Fine Arts, honoris causa

Acclaimed author Kate Moses '84, seventh-generation native of San Francisco, graduated in 1984 with honors from College of the Pacific. She majored in English with concentrations in women's studies and art history. In 2010, she was inducted as an alumna into the Pacific chapter of the Phi Beta Kappa Society.

As a senior undergraduate, Moses was hired as a teaching assistant by the chair of the English department, the late Professor Arlen Hansen, to teach introductory courses in poetry and American literature. After graduation Moses became an editor of fiction, poetry and nonfiction at Berkeley's legendary North Point Press, where she worked with notable authors including Kay Boyle, M. F. K. Fisher, Evan S. Connell Jr., Carole Maso and James Salter.

She was promoted five times in four years, rising in the ranks to become North Point's senior acquisitions editor. In 1991 Moses was named the literary director of Intersection for the Arts, San Francisco's oldest literary arts center, where she organized a reading and residency series featuring writers including Denis Johnson, Walter Mosley, Andrei Codrescu, Elena Poniatowska and Patricia Smith.

As a founding senior editor and contributing writer for the groundbreaking website Salon.com from 1997–2001, Moses coedited the popular, pioneering daily feature "Mothers Who Think" and worked with writers including Jayne Anne Phillips, Lydia Davis, Chitra Divakaruni, Joanna Scott, Peter Matthiessen, Susan Straight, Janet Fitch, Ana Castillo and Mariane Pearl. Her own writing for Salon garnered "Best of the Web" citations from Brill's Content for three consecutive years, and two of her Salon cover stories were cited as "Best Stories of the Year" by the website.

Her internationally acclaimed book, "Wintering: A Novel of Sylvia Plath," has been published in 15 languages and earned her the 2003 Janet Heidinger Kafka Prize for fiction by an American woman and 2005 Prix des Lectrices de Elle for best first novel published in France.

She is also the author of "Cakewalk, a Memoir," chosen by NPR as one of their favorite memoirs of the year and a finalist for the Northern California Book Award for Creative Nonfiction.

Moses is coeditor of two bestselling anthologies of essays on motherhood: the American Book Award-winning "Mothers Who Think: Tales of Real-Life Parenthood" and "Because I Said So: 33 Mothers Write About Children, Sex, Men, Aging, Faith, Race & Themselves," both anthologies the offspring of the Salon feature.

In 2012 she was awarded a two-year Lannan Literary Fellowship in fiction. Among her other awards are fellowships from the Djerassi Foundation, the MacDowell Colony, the Lilly Library at Indiana University, and selection by Barnes & Noble for their "Discover Great New Writers" program. She was an Affiliate Artist at Headlands Center for the Arts, 1995–1997.

Moses received an MFA in creative writing from San Francisco State University, where she received the Distinguished Achievement Award for Academic Excellence for the College of Liberal & Creative Arts.

She has been a visiting writer at numerous colleges and universities and is now an assistant professor in the Writing Arts Program, Department of English, at the State University of New York Plattsburgh, where she teaches creative writing and literature and serves as the coeditor of the university's literary journal, Saranac Review. She lives in Essex, New York.

PROFILE OF PACIFIC

University of the Pacific is an independent, coeducational university serving nearly 6,300 students on three campuses in Stockton, San Francisco and Sacramento. It was established by pioneering Methodist ministers in 1851 as California's first chartered institution of higher learning. Pacific has earned widespread recognition for its deep commitment to teaching and learning, its history of innovation, and the accomplishments of its 60,000 alumni.

As an innovator and leader in higher education, Pacific provided the state with its first chartered medical school in 1858 (which later became part of Stanford, and today is California Pacific Medical Center); its first coeducational campus in 1871; and its first conservatory of music in 1878. It was the nation's first to offer an undergraduate teacher corps program, the first to send an entire class to an overseas campus, the first to establish a Spanish-speaking inter-American college, and the first to offer a four-year graduation guarantee. With its move from San Jose to Stockton in 1924, Pacific became the first private four-year university in the Central Valley. Shortly after occupying the new campus, Pacific established one of California's earliest schools of education. In 1992 it was renamed the Gladys L. Benerd School of Education in honor of the alumna's endowed gift.

Pacific has enjoyed extraordinary stability in administration. Dr. Pamela A. Eibeck began her service in 2009 as the sixth president since the university's move to Stockton in 1924 and the 24th since its founding in 1851.

The university experienced its greatest growth and an expansion into graduate and professional education under the administration of Dr. Robert Burns (1947–1971). The School of Pharmacy opened in 1955. It is now the Thomas J. Long School of Pharmacy and Health Sciences in honor of the Pacific benefactor and Regent who co-founded the former Longs Drugs Stores. In 1956 the graduate school was created, and in 1957 the School of Engineering was established. The Department of Computer Science joined the school in 2002, and the school was subsequently renamed the School of Engineering and Computer Science.

In 1962, the university acquired the College of Physicians and Surgeons, a school of dentistry founded in San Francisco in 1896. In 2004, the school was named the Arthur A. Dugoni School of Dentistry in honor of its dean of 28 years. It was the first time any university in the United States or Canada had named its dental school for the current dean.

Three new cluster colleges were established at Pacific in the 1960s, in the model of British universities such as Oxford and Cambridge. These colleges integrated faculty and students into distinct living and learning communities. Raymond College, established in 1962, was an accelerated, interdisciplinary liberal arts program in which students shaped their own courses of study. Elbert Covell College, established in 1963, was a unique inter-American college. Half the students were from the U.S. and half from Latin America, with classes taught in Spanish. Callison College, established in 1967, focused on non-Western studies with a year of study in an Asian culture.

The cluster colleges were absorbed into the rest of the university in 1982. Their values, including a close-knit learning community, accelerated and interdisciplinary programs, and self-designed majors, have left a lasting impact on Pacific. Their emphasis on global education continued in the School of International Studies, founded in 1987 as the first university-based undergraduate school of international studies in California. In 2012, the School of International Studies, while retaining its autonomy as a school, became part of the College of the Pacific.

In 1966, Pacific broadened its footprint to Sacramento when McGeorge College of Law, an independent law school founded in Sacramento in 1924, merged with the university as the Pacific McGeorge School of Law. In 1977, the department of business administration in College of the Pacific was reorganized as the School of Business and Public Administration. In 1995 it was renamed Eberhardt School of Business in honor of the Eberhardt family's endowed gifts. Programs designed specifically for adult re-entry students were reorganized and revitalized in 1985 through University College, now the Center for Professional and Continuing Education.

Over the last 20 years, Pacific has advanced its legacy of innovation and leadership. Under the leadership of President Donald V. DeRosa (1995–2009), the university invested more than $200 million in facilities renovation and construction projects on all three campuses. Pacific also increased distinctive accelerated programs that enabled students to complete undergraduate studies in combination with professional degrees in pharmacy, law, dentistry and business. The university intensified its commitment to experiential learning, including Pacific undergraduate research, internships, community service and education abroad. Pacific also launched the Brubeck Institute, dedicated to building on the legacy of Dave Brubeck '42, and the Powell Scholars Program, a premier scholarship program for undergraduate student leaders.

Under the stewardship of Pacific's current president, Pamela A. Eibeck, Pacific is expanding its presence in Sacramento and San Francisco and implementing a bold new strategic vision, Pacific 2020. This vision capitalizes on Pacific's highly regarded academic programs, formative student-teacher relationships and multiple locations to position University of the Pacific to become the best teaching-focused university in California — the first choice for talented students who want excellent programs, close working relationships with faculty, a challenging but supportive learning environment, and an exciting future after graduation.

In 2013, the university received a transformational gift of $125 million from the estate of the late Regents Robert and Jeannette Powell. The Powells were ardent champions of the university's educational mission, and great advocates for access and excellence. In accordance with their wishes, their gift has been endowed and earmarked largely for scholarships and academic programs. A large portion of the gift is being used to encourage others to make endowment gifts through the Powell Match Program. Our donors' generosity and passion for Pacific will mean that generations of students will be able to achieve a superior education.

Pacific is leveraging its presence in three of Northern California's most prominent cities. In July 2014, the university opened a stunning new campus in San Francisco at 155 Fifth Street. The campus provides the requisite space and facilities for the Arthur A. Dugoni School of Dentistry to continue defining the frontiers of dental education. It also expands Pacific's educational footprint and visibility in San Francisco in the health, technology and arts and culture sectors. New academic programs in analytics, audiology, music therapy and food studies began in fall 2015, and additional new programs will be added in the coming years. Pacific's Sacramento Campus is also expanding, offering exciting academic programs at the intersection of law, policy, business, education and health. Anchored by the McGeorge School of Law, the campus is adding graduate academic programs keyed to the needs of a metropolitan region, charting a bold future. A Master of Science in Law degree is now available through the McGeorge School of Law. New graduate programs in business and education launched in 2015 and new graduate programs in public policy and public administration, physician assistant studies and analytics will begin in 2016 and 2017.

President Eibeck has made community engagement a priority for the university. In 2010, Pacific launched the "Beyond Our Gates...Into the Community" initiative in order to forge community partnerships that improve lives in our region. As part of Beyond Our Gates, some 50 community partners have united in an effort to improve early literacy. The Beyond Our Gates Reading by Third campaign recently received a grant from The James Irvine Foundation to strengthen early literacy programs in the San Joaquin Valley, while the Beyond Our Gates Community Council, an advisory board comprising local leaders, has garnered national attention. Through the work of the council, San Joaquin County has been designated a Community Pacesetter in the area of early literacy by the Campaign for Grade-Level Reading. San Joaquin County has also been named a GradNation Community by the America's Promise Alliance in recognition of efforts to increase high school graduation rates.

Pacific's schools and programs also serve the community in important ways through health and dental clinics, legal clinics and community service. In the 2014–15 academic year, the Arthur A. Dugoni School of Dentistry provided $10 million in uncompensated dental care to patients; students at the Thomas J. Long School of Pharmacy and Health Sciences volunteered an estimated 30,000 hours to provide health-related services to the community; the McGeorge School of Law legal clinics provided free services to hundreds of clients; and student volunteers on the Stockton Campus gave more than 7,600 hours of community service.

On July 1, 2013, University of the Pacific rejoined the West Coast Conference. A founding member of the conference, Pacific shares its sister institutions' long tradition in intercollegiate athletics and their dedication to high-quality academics and athletic success.

Pacific continues to enjoy national recognition for its leadership in higher education, consistently ranked among the best national universities and as a "Best Value" by U.S. News & World Report and Princeton Review. U.S. News also ranks Pacific very high (No.15) for ethnic diversity. The Economist and The Brookings Institution have ranked Pacific the No. 3 best value college or university in California. It is among the top 10 schools in the nation whose graduates exceed expected earnings, according to an analysis by the Georgetown University Center on Education and the Workforce.

The university remains deeply committed to its personal, student-centered approach. Faculty and staff are dedicated to excellence in teaching. Close faculty mentoring, a rich blend of liberal arts and professional education, and a broad array of experiential learning activities that prepare students for lasting achievement are hallmarks of the Pacific experience.

SCHOOL AND COLLEGE BANNERS

School and college banners signifying each of the academic units of the University precede a unit's faculty in the procession and are displayed during the ceremony. The color of the banner symbolizes the academic discipline.

College of the Pacific — The golden yellow field of this banner represents the sciences, while the white letters signify the arts and humanities. Founded in 1851, the College of the Pacific is the largest and oldest academic unit.

University Library — This banner's lemon-yellow color represents the library sciences. The Library has supported teaching, learning and scholarship since Pacific's founding in 1851. It is home to many special collections, including the papers of naturalist John Muir and musician Dave Brubeck.

Conservatory of Music — The tradition of representing music with the color pink originated at Oxford University. Pacific's Conservatory, established in 1878, is the first university-affiliated school of music in the West.

Arthur A. Dugoni School of Dentistry — The lilac color of dentistry forms the field for this banner. Founded in 1896 as the College of Physicians and Surgeons, the School became part of the University in 1962. It is named in honor of the alumnus who served as dean of the school from 1978 to 2006.

Pacific McGeorge School of Law — Purple, a color traditionally associated with royalty and governance, represents the law. Named in honor of its founder, Verne Adrian McGeorge, the School opened in 1924 and merged with Pacific in 1966.

Gladys L. Benerd School of Education — The light blue field signifies disciplines related to education. The School is named in honor of the distinguished alumna who bequeathed the school with an endowment. It was founded in 1924 when the University moved to Stockton.

Thomas J. Long School of Pharmacy and Health Sciences — Pharmacy is represented by olive green, a color associated with healing herbs. The School, established in 1955, is named for the benefactor and Regent who, with his brother Joseph, founded Longs Drugs Stores.

Research and Graduate Studies — Red-orange signifies this division, which was established in 1956 as Pacific expanded its graduate degree offerings.

School of Engineering and Computer Science — This banner's orange represents the engineering and computer science disciplines. The School was founded in 1957 from a department that dates to the 1930s.

Eberhardt School of Business — The School's banner features an olive brown field. Founded in 1977, the School was renamed in 1995 in honor of the Eberhardt Family's endowed gifts.

School of International Studies — Peacock blue symbolizes the field of international studies. The School was established in 1987 with a gift from George and Isabelle Wilson.

HISTORICAL SIGNIFICANCE OF THE UNIVERSITY MACE

Originally a weapon used in medieval warfare, the mace evolved by the 12th century into a symbolic device used on ceremonial occasions and borne before monarchs, mayors and parliaments. The mace, as an academic symbol, dates back to the 15th century at the University of St. Andrews in Scotland. The use of maces as symbols of academic authority spread to other universities in the British Isles and from there to America.

Robert E. Burns, Pacific president from 1946 to 1971, asked Stuart Devlin, an internationally-known London silver designer, to create University of the Pacific's mace. It was commissioned in recognition of the University's transition from a college to a university and was first used at a Founders Day ceremony on March 6, 1966. Constructed entirely of silver with a gold plated seal of the University in its head, the mace weighs 15 pounds and is approximately four feet long. It was a gift from Mrs. Winifred Olson Raney, a Regent of the University. The mace is displayed at all official University functions, including Commencement and Convocation. It is traditionally carried by the chair of the Academic Council to symbolize the role of the faculty in university governance.

SIGNIFICANCE OF ACADEMIC REGALIA

Distinctive academic dress can be traced back to the universities of the Middle Ages when university students and faculty wore the robes of the clergy. Today three ranks of degrees are distinguished through variations in the robes, which also indicate the discipline and the university that awarded the degree.

In the United States, gowns generally are black. The color of the edging of the hood and occasionally the color of the facing and crossbars on the doctoral gown indicate the field of learning in which the degree is awarded. The colors of the lining of the hood are those of the institution awarding the degree. Generally, bachelor's and master's tassels are black, and doctoral tassels are gold. After graduation the tassel is worn on the left side of the Mortarboard. An individual's degree is revealed by the type of gown and width of the edging on the hood.

Bachelor's gowns have full, pointed sleeves with no trimming. Hoods have a two-inch edging. Master's gowns prior to 1960 had full, closed sleeves with the arm emerging through a slit at the elbow. In 1960, the gown was modified replacing the elbow slit with an opening at the wrist, and the gown was made to close. Hoods have a three-inch edging. Doctor's gowns are of silk, have rounded sleeves, velvet facing down the front and three velvet crossbars on each sleeve. Hoods have side panels and a five-inch facing.

Pacific Hail!

Words and Music by

From o'er the rugged mountains standing high;

*From out the broad low valleys,
'neath the sky;*

Our alma mater calls, we cannot fail,

Our voices blend in praise,

Pacific Hail! Pacific Hail!

Long may her flaming torch give out its light;

Long may her spirit guide us in the right;

To her we pledge our hearts,

We dare not fail;

To her we raise our song,

Pacific Hail! Pacific Hail!
