TIME TIME AGAIN

Attention has been called to this matter of defacing school property, but still the writing on furniture and walls continues. Most of the work is done unintentionally by innocent pupils who have nothing better to do. Now as we enter the last quarter of the current school year, try to show your artistic writing ability on paper and not on school property. Keep in mind that old saying, "Wall's names like their faces, are always seen in public places."

NEWS BRIEFS

The senior girls' glee club and the senior orchestra participated in the music program which was presented on the outdoor stage at 8:30 P.M. last Sunday.

THEY CALL IT STYLE!

In the past few issues of The Tri-State's inquiring reporters have been mentioning students as to their views on the appearance and apparel of their fellow schoolmates.

As a matter of fact, when inquiry, the two that interest this curious individual are the "Toes on Interiors" and "Shoes or socks?"

Are we really getting "nothing but the truth" from these fashion victims who expose their wardrobe? In the two weeks that we have "shared" her actually believe that "Shoes or socks?" Well, the "vote" on a common lucidly with "shoes or socks?" shoe is pretty practical, since the girls often have to wear them and often to the dressing rooms. But the male "vote" is, literally meaning, they definitely are not "waste time", as end by "shoes or socks?", for Webster informs us that "waste" means "attractive by reason of finishings or picture-sequences".

FROM HOLLYWOOD

A person of varying experiences in the present instructor in English is Miss Mary Barbul. Before her days in Hollywood as someone of Bouchard, Miss Barbul was acquainted with such persons as Mary Mackey, Mary Cagney, Marion Stack, Marie Oides, and Freddie Bartholomew, as the real-life kids.

Of Mickey Rooney she commented, "As a small boy, he was a pest, just as he is on the screen, but he seems to have turned a "gentle giant"."

Concerning the "Singing Kid" of Broadway, Freddie Bartholomew is a perfect gentlemen; yet Hollywood doesn't create the polite manner which he possesses.

Miss Barbul also reported that Soc- by Jordan of the "Real Kids" was an Italian Midget car which he used to play in softball and on the lawn of the studio school.

Miss Mary Barbul takes the already interesting Hollywood personality doubly into training through her personal views.

WHAT WOULD HAPPEN IF?

1. George Remmert went to Hollywood and secured a studio in Freddie Bartholomew’s ranch.
2. The Tsubij were five feet tall.
3. Ernest, Yoshikura became a statesman.
4. The student who is the administrative secretary? On one way.
5.80.00 was lost by her pet.
6. Spig Tolkien got the job.
7. All the girls in classes in subjects don’t have enough for a day.
8. The Tri-State men books were returned. (A.S. They're not, so why then?)

DOROTHY AREDAS

She’s rubbing eyes with a condominium, chart and all of the other things she has to do to complete her plans.

Dorothy Aradas, Tri-State’s social worker, states that, among others, and others...

This quick look at this girl, five feet two inches, 17-year-old daughter of Mrs. X, indicated, we find an air of non-conformity about her but she states that she likes to talk.

Shoestring director of Dorothy Aredas, Miss Aradas, has announced that she is going to be back in her element in her next assignment.

Side from her active participation in and clubs as the "Singing Kids," Speakers Bureau, ping pong club, Tri-State, Francesca, etc., she is, as Miss Aradas, took the leading role in "The Little Theatre production," "Sonnecusen.

When asked if she did cook she said, "yes, ready with baking in her trilling eyes, I love to, too, of course. I would like to wear a dress coat. It's just doesn’t wear well on me."

Her present worry is in finding a summer place, however, her future plans, "any kind of job or in a school as it is not any other thing."
With the advent of the track season at Tri-State over 70 track enthusiasts are entered in the preliminaries of the interscholastic sports program to be held next Thursday and Friday afternoon.

Letters, medals, and gold track shoes accorded at former high schools by various Tri-Staters give evidence that the club meet will see evidence of which any one might well be proud. Veterans expected to figure prominently next week include the following: JIRO MAACKI-

Sprints. An able student along the cinder path at Sacramento high school during his junior year. At Davis he defeated all other entrants in the 100 and 200 yard dashes; he competed in the same events in competition against Jesup, Stockton and Mcclatchy high schools.

KAWAI YASUT-

Football Throw. The class considers him for the first time this season. He is a quiet, even-voiced fellow taking news of 220 yard dash course at Placer high school in Auburn, California. GORIO COTO and KENJI YAMAGUCHI-

Broad Jump. Both hold the record this spring for their respective classes in the event. Their marks were 40 ft. and 43 ft., respectively.

JANUS KUBARBA, track mentor, has not ventured to predict the outcome of the finals. According to him, "It’s a tossup."

TRACK MENTOR GIVES MARKS CINDERMAN SHOULD STRIVE FOR

"Since we are considered a class "B" high school in track, we have to work distances which I have given below may be considered very good." Wearing Janus Kubarba, track coach. He adds, "This classification is probably due to physical aspects and environment rather than personal ability."

If the marks listed below are approached by Tri-Staters, Coach Kubarba feels that Tri-State would compete favorably with schools outside of the project area.
