

1891-01-13

Letter from John Muir to Dan[iel H. Muir], 1891 Jan 13.

John Muir

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence>

Recommended Citation

Muir, John, "Letter from John Muir to Dan[iel H. Muir], 1891 Jan 13." (1891). John Muir Correspondence (PDFs). 49.

<https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence/49>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the John Muir Correspondence 1856-1914 at Scholarly Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Muir Correspondence (PDFs) by an authorized administrator of Scholarly Commons. For more information, please contact mgibney@pacific.edu.

Martinez Jan. 13, 1891.

Dear brother Dan.

Break it Break it - Your silence I mean, You dumb sinner. - You are busy You say I know You are but neither your patients, nor Church nor state, man or beast, will suffer to any great extent should you take the time to write me a letter once a year. I wish You & Your family a happy New Year, & trust that as soon as you receive this greeting you will seize your pen & say "The same to you & yours". however many of your patients may,

2
If he is suffering from gout, toothache rheumatism spinal meningitis etc I calling for the doctor.

I have not had a line from you to these many years, not even on business. Let me know how our account stands. John Reis has been trying to borrow two or three thousand dollars more this year to pay on that unlucky land of his & Sarah's, & some of the family are I fear in need of assistance also.

I suppose you have heard of the death of Dr Streitzel my father-in-law. I have now to manage two large ranches, besides settling the estate as administrator & silence. Ever cordially Your brother John Reis