AQUILA' CHOSEN YEARBOOK NAME

"Aquila", chosen by eighth-grader Betty Hiyashida, will be the Tri-State High School yearbook name, announced Mollie Yasutake, annual editor.

Although the Latin name meaning "eagle" was the choice of several students, an elimination drawing by the name contest committee under the chairmanship of Min Machimori, determined the winner who will receive a free yearbook.

Climaxing the yearbook sale campaign, the final Aquila orders will be taken by homeroom representatives and at Hill-C-C accordingly. Staff editors for the annual include: editors-in-chief—Mollie Yasutake; assistant editors—Andrew Sugiyama and Marvin Urate; art editors—Ken Yonezawa; Tom Fujimoto; Ken Hyosaka; chief photographer—San Keishima; Betty Hayashi, Mary Makemura, and Helen Sugiyama; drama—Tom Fujimoto, Henry Matsuoka; administration—Mrs. Elma Shirrel, Tom Sasaki; sports—Bob Inouye; girls' sports—Bob Hayashida; girls' sports—Juan Ishikawa; pictorial—Min Machimori; music—Miyoko Inouye; business manager—Miyuki Inouye; publicity and circulation—Jerry Enomoto; technical editor—Marianna Tamura.

NEW SCHOOL BUILDING TO BE COMPLETED BY JULY 10

"We expect the new school building to be completed by July 10, 1943," stated Martin P. Gunderson, Tri-State High School principal.

The new building with a maximum capacity of 2,000 students will be 40 feet in width and 30 feet in the floor. Included in the new building will be science rooms, equipment and health rooms.

There are 50 classrooms on the 4th floor, 50 on the 4th floor, and 60 on the 3rd floor. There are 50 rooms on the 3rd floor, and 60 on the 2nd floor. Each room will have a fire alarm system, and automatic sprinklers will be installed. Rooms have also been constructed for the gymnasium and another for the auditorium, and these rooms will be completed by July 10.

NYA TO ACCOMMODATE NEEDS IN MIDDLE WEST

Dr. Joseph Samler, head of the present national youth administration who was on the project last weekend, announced that NYA industrial training centers in the Middle West are to receive large numbers of Japanese-American boys and girls.

Movies of NYA training were shown last Monday afternoon and evening. Hops, girls between the ages of 16-23 are now being trained for and placed in defense jobs. Trainees will be given food and transportation costs, by July 10, and will receive $15.90 monthly from the NYA while being trained.

In the first quota the NYA is taking 25 boys and 15 girls. The girls will go to St. Cloud, Minnesota, and the boys to Chaska, Minnesota. Train instructors act as counselors to girls and boys. Living accommodations and food are good. Democratic procedures are emphasized.

Elsie Shirrel, of the W. R. A. regional office, will take over the responsibility of placing those trained by the NYA.

PEP RALLY HELD FRIDAY

The first of the series of the three pep rallies, which featured the introduction of original songs and yells and the presentation of the basketball trophy, during home-room period Monday, an election of queen and king was held. The results of the contest with the "Blue and White" at the St. Cloud "Tracy" and the "Clipper"-St. C.

EDITORIAL:

GO EAST YOUNG MAN

Some months ago, a representative of the Student Relocation Program was here on the project helping to relocate students, who were interested in the furthering of their education.

You, the graduating seniors, will have to face the problem of "What am I going to do after graduation," and so I challenge anyone of you to sincerely ask yourselves that question. If you were asked tomorrow, "What do you intend to do after graduation," what would your answer be?

Jobs after the war will be difficult to obtain and the average high-school student will not be qualified for the positions that will be open. It will be those students who have had some college training that will be considered for the position. This is all the more reason why you should relocate and relocate now.

What in a Name?

Asa Shintaku...physician...we won't try to guarantee this.

Eleanor Sadamori...light; bright as dawn...and typical of this on the campus.

Ben Murata...son of the right hand...we'll put our faith in you.

Rosie Kinosita...a symbol of love...and glamour too.

Tom Hatemiya...a twin..."Fate" will this one always be right.

Roselind Ipckawa...one of the world's last, and the rose of our own Tri-Stater.

Louis Sato...safeguard of people...of girls in particular.

Hank Kato...home ruler, a brave powerful lord; ever wealthy...hummm...sorry, we'll take him.

Ruth Nishikawa...vision of beauty...the living proof.

Edward Yoshikawa...guardian of happiness...now we ask you is this happiness?

In the recent city-wide talent shows, some hidden talent among Tri-Staters were discovered.

Doing a fine job of harmonising were Michi Ishii, Kiyo Nakawara, and Sally Ishii. Good vocalisers were Bunby Kurokawa, who sang at the pep rally, and Yukie Hayashi. Among the baton twirlers were Myrtle Yamashita, Shako Nakawara, and Aki Nakamura. Bonnie Yoshikawa was exceptionally good in giving a reading.

Flanked by two girls, both about three years old, Mr. Raymond Cheek was seen dutifully leading the baton twirlers last Friday afternoon. Miss Billings is planning to take the "Fate" stop next month.—Who's the lucky man?

Some recent departees from this school were Edward Miyoshi, Kasumi Nakawara, and Frank Hori. In the very near future, Arusa Shingomori, assistant yell leader, will leave us to accept a position in Chicago.

NEWS BRIEF

All announcements from student organisations, clubs, or classes should be approved by the sponsor before it is submitted to the office.

On May 10 Miss Florence Welling's eighth-grade class went on an outdoor tour in connection with their study of rocks. On the trip they encountered a rattlesnake, which the boys in the class killed, and they also visited the hog farm.

With 426 graduates, commencement exercises will be held on July 16 in the form of a program with students divided into English, Art, and Social Study classes. The last two days of school for the senior high school pupils will be half day sessions, while junior high will be dismissed on July nine.

A All school events must be approved by the Administrative Council at least one week before the event is held. The Council meets on Monday at 3:30.

All students are requested to bring written excuses signed by parent or guardian when returning to school. Readmission slips will not be issued to those who do not comply with this rule. Those lost in securing the excuse will automatically be entered on the student's record as truancy.

From The

The past few weeks around Tri-State have been pretty busy.

We liked the well-dressed at the assembly last Thursday. That little crowd certainly seemed to give Tri-State a visit.

D. you realize what goes on behind the scenes of the Tri-State? This is a brief story about the assembly of Thursday night one Friday morning. May 13 and 14, 1945.

Thursday, May 13, 1945---7:00 P.M. Start of work on the paper.

7:30 P.M. Editor arrives.

8:00 P.M. Miss Y. cutting headlines on page 4.

9:30 P.M. Editor goes home.

Friday, May 14, 1945---1:00 A.M. Miss Yoshiko Kato arrives at the editor's desk.

2:00 A.M. R. and H. Terada arrive at editor's desk.

3:00 A.M. All soldiers must have some nice recreation.

4:00 A.M. Start for home.

All soldiers, except the ones who were working on the paper, went home and enjoyed much recreation.

The May little theater productions--"Time's," "Air Time," and "The Variant" were the best yet. Among the Tri-State's performing group, Betty Jordan, Nancy Nakano, and Fumiko Hayashi are to be particularly mentioned.

Naturally, the Junior High School is going to be a very much easier place you're going to be.---Mykyouse

ACCOCCDNTS HAPPEN

1:00 P.M.

"Car out center field
---1 mile, 3/4 mile, block is "turning off to avenue"

"Kruger"! You're moving the wrong way! No, that's not the right way. Get into the wrong lane, that kind—well, that's tickling your funny bone. "Kruger".

"Phipp, Bob, oh, man. you didn't think he'd tie a sweater around his back for a vacation, did you? So, he's half---it ripped every smoked out that sweater.

COUNCIL LIMELIGHTERS

Sally Kiyoko Inouye

Miss Siberia, as a person who posseses all the vim, vigor, and vimosity that a typical 21st century individual has.

"Pope-backed" or "Hobbe", as soon as he had his hair cut, was regarded on May 13, 1945 statistically in Seattle, Washington.

The journalism career started during her school days at Highwood High in Washington, and she has continued as the editor of the TRI-BMARK.

Before coming to Newell, she was a member of the Cherry School Band, the Highwood Camp Band, Girl's and the Runa Girls' Drill Team. Right now she has the band as a working organization.

The Junior High School Council has a new editor-in-chief, Kathleen Hsieh.

Before moving to Newell, she was associated with the new school's basketball, in which the graduating seniors have definitely future.

The students get the paper, the school gets the paper, the newpaper gets the news, the student gets the blame, the Jeffersonian Portland, Oregon.
DUST FAILS TO HALT PRELIMINARY MEET, SUPPORT FOR FINAL GREATLY NEEDED

The interclass track preliminary meet was held yesterday afternoon, although continuous dust storms handicapped many contestants.

Students will be dismissed after third period today to witness the finals which will be climaxcd by the relay races. Music furnished by the band will be an added attraction.
