ESSAY CONTEST ANNOUNCED

To discover new writing talent and to give everyone one an opportunity of expressing his or her own views, a short essay contest is being held under the joint sponsorship of the Creative Writers’ Club and THE TULEAN DISPATCH. The contest will be open to anyone except the members of the writers’ club and THE TULEAN DISPATCH staff. All manuscripts must be turned into #1608 to either Frank Hijioka or Art Miyurimiti before October 3.

Entries will be divided into high school and out of high school classifications. A prize will be awarded to the winner of each of the two divisions.

Topics released are: "The Nisei and the Post-War Period"; "When Peace Comes Dawn"; "This Is the Colony"; "The Colony’s Need for a Spiritual and Moral Revival"; and "What Can We Gain From the Nisei Experience?".

Manuscripts must be typed and in double space and only one side of the paper shall be used. The length of the composition shall be no longer than 700 words. No pen and ink, cursive, or school last attendance, and the last place of residence prior to evacuation must be listed.

Winning essays will be featured in the October 15th issue of THE TULEAN DISPATCH; messages may be sent to Japan.

MESSAGES MAY BE SENT TO JAPAN

Through the home service branch of the American Red Cross, it is now possible to send concern concerning family members to other countries.

Since the Red Cross is a national organization, it is able to deliver messages there, whereas regular mail channels have failed.

Any resident desiring further information regarding this service should contact Geno Sano, 12345, chairman of the Tule Lake Project, or the American Red Cross.

NEW TEACHERS COLORFUL

THOMAS E. BRESEE attended Universities of Missouri, Chicago, California, and is a Harvard graduate; taught English for 30 years at Taing Han College and Yenching University in Peking, China. True, in a truth, a record of another instructor, a teaching missionary, he came to Tule Lake to see what he saw a challenge and an opportunity. "But since coming here, that impression has grown manifold," he added.

Dramatics pupils will learn the art of acting from GARRETT STARMER, Stanford and Northeastern alumnus. "who taught speech, and "dramatics at Stanford University. In 1908 Starmer played in Broadway stage success "Growing Pains" and later wrote the melodrama "Foot Nights in a Barroom" which played in a Santa Cruz summer theatre.

Starmer, who is writing a thesis on Japanese education, came to Tule Lake to test the challenge which existed here. He is especially interested in student-written plays. "Tule Lake reminded me of the Yosemite plains where I spent my "Growing up" days," commented JEAN McCAY who previously worked with the National Student Relocation Council. Miss McCay, a U.C. graduate taught science in Berkeley and Sacramento State College. College students who plan to attend school are welcome to consult Miss McKay at #125.

Music instructor MAY-EUN LEE spent 24 years teaching music at the Brainard Academy, a girls high school, in Peking, China. She is also interested in her plans to go back. Miss LEE collected Chinese children’s songs and published a book, "Songs of Chinese Children."

Students shall we go to school? ******

BY ELMER L. SHIBAE, PROJECT DIRECTOR

Each day for a while I want to tell the people some of the worries of the Project Director’s office.

Yesterday the following things gave me ample cause for headaches:

1. RUMORS

...Each day I am concerned about the number of idle rumors. The number of people who believe these without investigating the source and the number of people who proceed to act on such rumors.

2. RUMORS

...Yesterday the farmers were lined up in trucks, loaded for return home at 6 p.m. They and many other divisions worked a seven hour day when a full day is eight hours.

3. DENTITY THEFTS

...From railroad cars, warehouses, trucks, mess halls, food, which belongs to all the colonists was stolen by selfish individuals for their own uses.

REVEREND TANABE RETURNS TO CITY

The Rev. Shigoo Tanabe returned to this City after an absence. Rev. Tanabe had been visiting his mother who is ill at the Pierce County hospital, in Tacoma, Wash.
