CRIME IS SUBJECT OF FORUM TONIGHT

Tonight at the outdoor stage the forum on "How Should Criminal Offenses Be Handled?" will be held from 7 p.m. With quite a few recent criminal incidents, this forum should prove to be one of the best yet.

School Bell Tolls Today

CLEAR GROUND FOR HOG PENS.

Ground is being cleared—half mile Northeast of the Colony for a hog ranch which will provide 5000 fattened porkers annually. The hogs will be fed on grain and vegetable scraps from the farm. Requisition for lumber has already been placed and construction of pens will begin as soon as the first herd arrives. As many as possible number of pigs will be obtained locally and the complement will be requisitioned from outside districts.

"If everything runs smoothly and a slaughter-house is constructed, cattle-raising may be started," said Scott Warren, assistant farm supervisor.

BOARDING ON two Mt. Hood stages, 49 colonists left here for Utah beet fields this morning.

TOKYO FEELS NECESSITY OF ENGLISH LANGUAGE

EDITOR'S NOTE: The following news items were released by the office of War Information, Washington, indicating that efforts are being made to impose the English language upon the occupied territories.

Japanese language textbooks have already been issued, and dictionaries of Japanese and Malay, Hmong, Burmese, Annamese and Thai are being prepared. The process will take time," the broadcast added, "and English must be used in the interim.

WORK CORPS IS DISRUPTED

Closing of the City school system and the recruiting of beet workers as "volunteers for victory" have cut deeply into the ranks of those capable of being gainfully employed. Of the 3810 students returning to school, only 2360 workers leaving Tule Lake are left in the working machinery of the Project.

Two editors from the staff of THE DISPATCH have already resigned in favor of being teaching assistants in the English department of the Tule Lake high school. Hard hit will be the recreation staff. Sugar beet workers, teaching openings In the school system have already reduced the staff considerably. Although the process will take some weeks, all vacancies and needs are expected to be adequately filled.
DEMOCRACY IN ACTION, as the trite saying goes, is an intangible, moving fluid which has been causing a great deal of embarrassment as to its explanation. True, democratic methods are slow and sluggish but could the other alternative, totalitarianism offer a better substitute?

Democracy is not dead when the bewhiskered Project farmer in a musty overall got up impromptu on the platform at the mass meeting last week and expressed his laments; when thousands of letters flow out of the Project daily untampered and uncensored; when religion of all denominations are unrestricted and uncensored, and evacuees are permitted to worship as they please, and when some 4000 Colony children flock back to school this week at government's expense.

The very existence of Japanese wardens within the colony instead of armed white guards, and the Colonists' right to govern themselves and conduct their own trials are sufficiently indicative that democracy is very much in action.

Soon as this serious realization is brought close to us, our participation in community activities should be more avid, and our interest more enthusiastic, and our support more wholehearted and cooperative.

Of the assembly centers only Fresno, Stockton, Santa Anita, and Tuleford are thriving.

Residents of Santa Anita's vast center are being sent to various relocation areas, the first group having gone to Poston and the second slated for Wyoming. A super-duper souvenir edition is in the making as in all other centers.

GRAPEVINE...

Basketball, boxing, and marble tournament are the sports highlights in Fresno. Musical comedy "What's Cooking with Gloria Jean and a musical short "In The Groove" was enjoyed by centerites.

RESIDENTS of Stockton center will have undergone an army inspection for contrabands. Too much camp life leads one column to reminisce of the good old conferences and social v. Itis the present free world. Can one blame her? "Gay Desperado" was enjoyed.

PRESS PRESS...

Manzanar's old folks will soon have peace and rest, with the ringing of school bells. Basketball takes the limelight as baseball fades away. 2500 Sears' catalogues swamp the post office, much to the mail carriers' chagrin.

PRESS BULLETIN...

Poston's fast-improving paper can proudly claim a "first" in its Sunday comic section. Population there has passed Palo Lake, numbering 17,828 as of August 28. On Sept. 1, the R.B. rolled off its 100th issue. Congratulations.

TANFORD...

Totalizer is supposedly still rolling off the presses but we have no word from them. 'Tis said that a big souvenir edition is coming out there soon, too.

PROJECT HAS NO CONTROL OVER MEDIC-STAFF TRANSFER

The question of transfer of the medical staff of the Tule Lake Base Hospital has recently arisen. For general information it is appropriate to outline the plans of the Regional Health office, which Dr. G. D. Carlyle Thompson heads.

A balanced staff, that is a certain number of doctors with special skills such as surgery, pediatrics, diseases of women, and other such specialties is planned for each project. There may be then, transfers from this staff to other centers, and we shall expect to receive additional doctors on the Tule Lake staff.

The local project and its administration has no control over such transfers. This is all done from the San Francisco regional office by Dr. Thompson and his principal assistant.

It must be emphasized that Dr. Thompson is responsible for the care of 110,000 Japanese of which we are but a fraction. He must therefore use the limited number of professional people with greatest efficiency to accomplish this task.

There has been no notification that any transfer is imminent.

By special request of Elmer L. Shirroll, project director, Susan Nac-Ko Inshino has arrived to head the staff at #1606. She is a trained social worker and has been working with the I.C.C.A.

MONTGOMERY-WARD
AGENT HERE

Ray Flood, assistant manager of Montgomery-Ward Co., for the Klamath Falls area, expressed the willingness of the Mail Order House to serve the need of Tule Lake Colonists with every household articles and winter apparel.

A new 1000-page 1942-1943 Fall and Winter catalogs are now available free of change to those who write to 9th and Pine Street, Klamath Falls, Oregon.

15-YEAR-OLD CARL NWA
BRINGS EM BACK ALIVE

Skinning rattlesnakes or scorpion hunting is an afternoon of pleasure," says 15-year-old Carl Niwa, son of the Reverend and Mrs. Niwa. That along with collecting snakes, lizards, bugs, and scorpions are Carl's hobby.

At his residence at #5004-A, he has three live bull snakes, which are non-poisonous. Although he has trapped many scorpions, only one live sample is among his collection. He brought 13 lizards from Medford and expects to collect some Tule Lake lizards before they hibernate.

He has killed two rattlers since coming here. "The only trouble with rattlesnake hunting is I don't seem to be able to meet up with many of them," added Carl.

In his adventures one afternoon, he trapped a jack rabbit but released it as rabbit towns developed after close contact with them.

Carl is interested in insects and animals developed while studying biology at the Stadium high school in Tacoma.

"My mother doesn't like my bringing snakes in the house," explained Carl, concerning the attitude of his parents.

Fire Prevention Measures Told

Fire prevention measures, numbering three, are to be effective hereafter throughout the City in an announcement by Ernest Rhodes, fire protection supervisor, reveals.

All residents who have added sections of pipe to the chimney above buildings are requested to remove it immediately. The addition constitutes a serious fire hazard, it was disclosed.

Indiscriminate piling of coal and wood throughout the blocks has been banned. Wood should be piled not less than 18 inches away from the buildings. Stacks of coal should be three feet away from buildings. The only coal piles should be near mess halls, hot water boilers, and in the central stock pile for the block.

NATIONAL LEAGUE CHAMPIONS:
ROYAL FLUSHES DRUB HILLMAN, 15-0

Powerful Royal Flushes again showed their class as they disposed of the strong Hillman nine 15-0 in the playoff game for the championship of the National hardball league. Although Hillman was beaten by the Flushes in the first game of the season, RF's two ties at the hands of Riverdale and Violets put the two teams in a tie position due to the point system of standings.

The game was a pitching duel between John Horio Hillman ace pitcher, and Yamamoto for the first four innings, but in the last of the fifth the Flushes broke through to score 2 runs on hits by Kawasaki, Takagishi and J. Nakahama.

The winner countered one each in the sixth and seventh innings and scored ten, big runs in the 8th, knocking Horio out of the box.

Sum Takagishi, Royal Flush shortstop, slapped the horsehide for 3 safety hits while Enambo, Matsumoto and Yamamoto also hit hard for the victors.

WE BEG YOUR PARDON

In last week's All Star game writeup it was erroneously reported that catcher Inaba's peg on a bunt hit by American Loop runner, which accounted for the two winning runs. J. Inaba, centerfielder, did not enter the game till after that inning and played errorless ball for the rest of the game.

Due to misunderstanding postponement of the West Sacramento-Bellevue game, Saturday's Haptoch Sport page carried an inaccurate statement eliminating the West Sacramentans from the pennant scramble. The West Sacramento was still tied with the leaders and their game with Bellevue will decide their standing.
