Lavender Graduation

MAY 6th, 2015

What is
Lavender Graduation?

Lavender Graduation is a supplemental graduation ceremony intended to recognize the accomplishments of students who identify as LGBTQIA and/or have been involved in the community during their time at Pacific.

This involvement can take the form of leadership in an organization, academic research or interests, or purely social. One of the key features of Lavender Graduation ceremonies is the recognition of the graduates, which includes highlights of their involvements and the impact that they have had on others and the Pacific community.

This year marks the 9th year the UNIVERSITY OF THE PACIFIC has hosted a Lavender Graduation ceremony honoring our graduates.
