Dear John

Your birthday
letter long delayed
I hope will now reach you with all the blessings and comforts and love to you and your family that our loving Saviour is willing to grant

The dreadfull Grippe
has been upon me for three weeks - but I am now able to sit up for three or four hours in the afternoon and hope to get well

Sarah took the Grippe too but is now getting better she has a good
from the country taking care of her and to help Grace with her work.

Both David and Elke has been very kind often sleeping with us until twelve at night.

I hope Mary &
John & family are all well now.

I do not like to send you this tale of compliments but will hope to send you
tidings before long
of much happiness.

Amie Mum waits upon me and does all she can for my comfort
although she is not very well herself.

I do send sincere
love to all and will hope for a letter
before long.

Affectionately
Mother
