Four Japanese Americans die in crash of Army Transport at Airfield Near Osaka

Tokomasa Yamazaki, former California newspaperman, among 22 victims of Air Tragedy; WO Mori, Sgts. Ota, Hirano identified in War Department Report

Tech. Sgt. Tokomasa Yamazaki, former California newspaperman, was one of 22 persons identified last week by the War Department as among those who were killed in the crash of an Army transport plane which went down Dec. 10 shortly after leaving Osaka, Japan.

The other Nisei reported killed in the crash were Warrant Officer Shigeki Endo, 21, of O Box 436, Rl. B, Sandy, Utah; Master Sgt. Frederick M. Hirano, formerly of the Granada relocation, 21, of San Francisco, Calif.; and Sgts. Daniel C. Ota, 21, of San Francisco, Calif., and Masatoshi Hirano, 21, of Los Angeles, Calif.

The crash of the C-46 transport was reported by the U. S. Fifth Air Force teil the list of persons included one woman identified as Mrs. Phyllis A. Hirano, Missoula, Mont.

Tech. Sgt. Yamazaki volunteered for Air Force intelligence service after serving as a language instructor at the Navy school in Boulder, Colo., where he and his wife, Masako, have lived for four years. Los Angeles, gone with them in the evacuation order, was the same year of the Manic, the man who had served as a language instructor in many of our missions.

Mr. Yamazaki, formerly was a member of the Nisei staff of the United States, served in the 442nd Regimental Combat Team was attached during one tour.

He recently returned to Japan to attend several months furlough in California. Born in Los Angeles, he attended the Japanese American group. Besides the JACL delegates and boosters guests at the convention included prominent civic, business and political leaders from southwestern Idaho and eastern Oregon.

Mr. Yamazaki is survived by his wife, Mrs. Hiromi Hirano, 24, and three brothers, Tetsu, 21, Santa Monica, Calif., and Akin, 20, and a sister, Lilac, 17.

Sgt. Yamazaki is survived by his wife, Mrs. Enrice Hirano, 27, 9338 S. Main, and his mother, Mrs. Kikyo Yamazaki, 48, 7321 W. Magnolia, Los Angeles.

Canadians May Seek Indemnity For Evacuation

Evacuees Conduct Survey on Damages From Evacuation

TORONTO, Ont.—A mass meeting was sponsored by the Japanese Canadian Committee for Defense and Industry for the purpose of discussing steps for restitution of property losses sustained by Japanese Canadians as a result of the forced evacuation in 1942.

The at the time of the evacuation, the government had assigned some 4,000 acres to the Army as a guard worth of equipment has been sold of the Japanese American group. Besides the JACL delegates and boosters guests at the convention included prominent civic, business and political leaders from southwestern Idaho and eastern Oregon.

The Christmas season is a time to be home. This Christmas, 1946, is the first which Niisai will spend at home since the疏散, black-out holiday season of 1941, when the death of Pearl Harbor was still sharp in our memories.

For thousands of Niisais who served with our armed forces, whether in the Pacific and with occupation armies in the lands to which fascist avarice brought ruin, this will be the first Christmas in peace. For those who remained in the foxhole and barack.

Those Niisais who lost their homes in the evacuation and who improvised Christmases and celebrations from the old ones before the evacuation, but they are situated in normal communities and have a sense of permanence which the camps could not provide.

The Christmas season today has a significance beyond religious sectarianism. Its acceptance of the returned evacuees.

The Christmas spirit of peace and good-will will must be incorporated into the daily lives of nations and peoples still meeting bias with varying degrees of intensity.

West Coast Japanese Americans still meet bias with varying degrees of intensity.

As second class matter in the post office.

The Christmas season is a time to be home. The homes bought for 75 cents and the children like because we're home.

The tree won't be too tall, for they come close to $1 per foot this year. The kids in Idaho, where Mr. Martin bought his tree and the teens peeled on those store counters.

The singles of the pre-war role, will be brought out again, and we'll be home with the children like because we've fortified this year for eight extra buds (6 cents at Woolworths, where we used to plant them). Christmas wouldn't be complete without a tree. The lot has one, even if it's only a foot tall. We hope one day we had our tropical Christmases in the tropics.

Already the Christmas cards are beginning to roll in. They really are annual messages of friendship.

ON NICOLLET

Starts longing from wings, now settling on tops, perching, trotting, knowing and: guessing; all on Nicollet. 15 at a time. 32. Also, extending with his white army each step with a smile. Ten white wagons from the south have walked on, like all the others, but the horse and his rider, a Washington native, 'Sevensome Made One' from the cold. It made us feel a hundred years behind the horses. We were looking for something catching sights of cattlemen. It's all true.

5. We almost believe in theKiddes, with whose faces were greeted from television. The romanticism of the Southwest is a romance. It's a romance of cattlemen. It's a romance of romanticism.
