Dear Louis. We arrived here Robinson & I last evening after a delightful trip. & this morning start for the Valley with no trouble of any sort in sight.

A bridge is being built in the Valley nearly finished

Tell Charley to sulphur the vines.

I saw the S. F. Latcher & told him to make the check payable to me.

Tell Bennett to deliver the calves.

Had a pleasant visit with Mr Moore Wish you could all be here. The air is delightful & my appetite is already wonderful. Be doubly careful of your health - & lie down much as possible watch the eating business of the two babies & tell them I'll bring them something Soon to all Tell Grand Ma I can eat Goodbye The glorious mountains are calling Come up higher Ever yours John Muir
