My Dear Brother John:-

Herewith I hand you Mr Cony's letter which just now came, I find that the interest and taxes have run up more rapidly than I had thought but I owe you a large sum for out which I shall pay for all of the time which you have owned it besides the notes which I got in the trade just as soon as I possibly can but I can do nothing now for money is so very hard to get here now owing to Bank failures and other disturbing elements just now. We had the house thoroughly fixed up last fall so the property is in good shape, and rented to a first class tenant, though the rent is not as much as I wish it were, but times are so dull in Kansas City - that nothing will now bring full value.

Hastily - Yours
 Walter Brown
