EDUCATION WEEK:
OPEN HOUSE AT COLONY SCHOOLS

In observance of American Education Week, which has been set for the week November 8 to 15, the Tale Lake Project's elementary schools will hold an open house Thursday to Friday.

The schools invite the parents to visit the classes during this week.

For those parents who cannot come in the daytime, each of the third grade elementary schools will be opened from 7:00 to 8:30 p.m. one night of the week.

Although the pupils will not be there, the teachers will be in their rooms.

The open house schedule is as follows:
Thursday night, Nov. 11, Washington School, Block F92.
Wednesday night, Nov. 12, Rock School, Block F93.
Tuesday night, Nov. 13, Lincoln School, Blocks #24, 26, 28, 27 and 28.

RETURN SUGAR RATION BOOKS

Sugar being sent into the Colony from the outside has been withheld. It will be released only when it is proven that the person has their ration book on file here and the reason for mailing is favorable.

Sugar ration books will not be issued to those outside at present.

DISPACH STAFF DISS, POTATOES AND CARROTS ON THE FARM AND LIKES IT

A little bit tired, a little bit weary, THE DISPATCH staff, nevertheless come here, happy after spending a day on the farm. 24 men and girls helped pick potatoes and dig carrots and enjoyed a hot lunch out in the open, Friday.

"I didn't think I'd have so much fun," said Reporter Nora Schloer. "It's come out here more often."

It is hoped that other departments will follow the same suit in helping the farmers harvest the crops. Acorns are gathered by the Indian girls and boys.

On the back of the Dispatch, a stock of block managers wait to the farm Saturday.

"More than 100 reservations will kill the farmers tomorrow."

LAST CONTINENT LEAVES
FOR IDAHO BEET FIELDS

Twenty-five young men comprising the last contingent to leave the Project for the beet fields departed early Thursday for Caldwell, Idaho. Three women were included in the party.

Tom Yego of the community council, who returned from Caldwell Saturday, after a survey trip left again on the bus Thursday to continue his inspection. He stated that at least 90 per cent of those who left for beet work will begin returning in steady stream. The rest will secure employment on the farms during the winter doing routine farm chores.

"Two days here are enough," said Stanley Sugiyama who also went back to Caldwell with Yego. "I'm going back there. Carrots and potatoes are good money makers."

"We slept in well-reinforced tents with electricity and we had loads of fun. We visited Minidoka center and found it incomplete!"

"Sugiyama was formerly named Turner."—THE DISPATCH.
