Civil Procedure; judgments—interest rates

N.R.S. §§17.130, 37.175, 99.040, 108.237, 147.220 (amended).
AB 68 (Price); STATS 1981, Ch 739

Prior to the enactment of Chapter 739, the interest rate on money due on any judgment, on certain contracts,¹ or on claims filed against the estate of a decedent was eight percent per annum unless a different rate was set by law or a contract.² The interest rate for money due under a lien was seven percent per annum.³ Chapter 739 raises the interest rate due on judgments in these situations from the previous rate of seven or eight percent to twelve percent per annum.⁴
