SCRIP BOOK ON SALE FOR CO-OP PURCHASES

The immediate sale of scrip to colonists for the purpose of recording individual purchases, to serve as a basis for the payment of patronage dividends to Co-op members, was decided at the meeting of the Board of Directors.

The reason for the immediate sale of these scrip books is to protect the Cooperatives from the payment of taxes on profits made from member purchases hereinafter. Taxes may be levied against the past profits of Community Enterprises.

The first scrip issued will be the ones used for clothing allowance. As soon as a colonist becomes a member of the Co-op, these purchases will be credited to his membership number for use in the future in his patronage dividends. The scrip is now on sale at the Civic Organization Office, #1503 in denominations of $2.25, $3.25 and $3.75 and will be honored for all purchases at all community enterprises.

Colonists are urged to purchase scrip as soon as possible so that money which would go for income taxes will remain in the colonists’ hands.

SPORTS LIGHT... TKO FUJII!

Initial meeting to organize basketball activities was held last Monday night. Although nothing specific was decided on, several interesting conclusions were drawn from the random discussions.

The divisions decided on were A, B and C. In the unlimited class everything was rosy except for one thing: it will not be a race. Everything points to a runaway for the all-powerful I.I. Kings.

Against this star-studded array of maple-wood performers will be pitted the rest of the league. Thus far, the youthful Waksans are the closest thing to competition that the I.I.s will have to face. To Waks were beaten twice last year by the first mentioned Miks—minus Akiname, Hara, and Watanabe. The loss of pivot man Ron Yoneoka, Jo Nakada Reorganization Center, and Men Watanabe leaves the Waks with but a few veterans in Bob Isakov, and Yosh Matsumura.

If the crippled Waksans are not expected to give the favorites much competition, what will the rest of the loop do? Texans Bosed, Clippers and the like are not even near the I.I.s in experience and ability. The only other team capable of pulling off an upset is the Marysville outfit. Peach Bowl Twin Yasumoto and Takahashi have never been a big aggregation in the last couple of years although we may see a turnabout, other than that—all but rather remote possibilities considered—the pennant race is all but decided.
