MONDAY DECLARED GENERAL POLL DAY

With the proposed City Charter on the docket for ratification, Monday, November 16, has been declared general poll day by Elmer Shirk, Project director. The polls will be opened from 2 to 8 p.m. in each of the mess halls. All Colonists 18 years of age and older are eligible for one vote. The voting will be done by secret ballots and polling will be conducted by the block managers and their appointed committees.

The proposed charters have been printed in both Japanese and English and are available at the block manager's office. Specific interpretations of the document on any clause may be obtained by consulting the block councilman.

LEAVE PERMIT REGULATIONS

Due to general liberalization of the leave and furlough regulations, many Colonists are of the impression that permits to return home to mind up business affairs may be easily obtained.

Robert B. Throckmorton, Project attorney, today clarified the misunderstanding by definitely stating the "leaves." For such purposes can be given only in most urgent cases and then only after they have been recommended by the Morale Property division of the National office.

LANGUAGE BOOKS FOR ARMY STUDY

Six Japanese language books have been forwarded to this project at the request of Lt. Col. Vel R. F. Rauvesen, commander of the Military Intelligence Service Language school, in Savage, Minnesota. Nisei, who are planning on volunteering for the Military Intelligence, will find these books invaluable. For further information inquire at Mortimer Cooke's desk.

PLANS TO MAKE HOLIDAY GREETING CARDS IN CITY

Plans are being made by the Community Activity Department to enable individuals and organizations interested to make their own Christmas and New Year cards for use and for sale to the Colony. Waichi Oyanagi, in charge of the plan, stated that the reason for making these cards in the Project is to keep the money here.

Basketball managers meeting for class A and B teams will be held on Monday, Nov. 16 at 7 p.m. in the Rec Dept. All teams must be represented.

It has always been my ambition to see for myself the "innards" of our great daily, THE DISPATCH. It isn't for nothing that I watch eagerly, day after day for our paper. There are many things I like about it—the sports page; the news section especially when my name is mentioned; the comics (I don't remember where it is but once I know something struck me as humorous); the gossip—I mean the society column where everybody in Tule Lake knows who is going with whom and so forth; but the best ones of all, I think are the columns written by my favorites: Eugene Ohara, Ken Hoyashi, Bryan Hayano and the incomparable Jobo. Everyone knows Jobo's last name so I don't mention it—What's that run—I mean the small fellow with the buck teeth—I mean the protruding teeth—Oh, shucks! Of course, you know who I mean. Any way his column always intrigues me. Where else can you find such Mid-Victorian expressions, such a vocabulary, such inconsistencies—Oops! that slipped. Anyway, who am I to rock the boat of peace and contentment? By the way, that's a pet expression of mine: "Let's not rock the boat"—reason is, I get seasick quite easily. Anyway, today I happened to visit the DISPATCH office. What a revelation; what incomparable efficiency; what synchronisation and harmony; what a—THE DISPATCH? Heck no, I'm talking about the Rec Department.

LITTLE THEATER TO MAKE DEBUT

UC DRAMA PROF.
TO ASSIST

Final plans for the initial performance of the Little Theater Group will be discussed at an important meeting at 408, Sunday 2:30 p.m.

Carver, a drama instructor at Stanford University, has consented to assist the group one night each week on voice and direction. Classes in make-up, stage design, directing, and other phases of theater production are being planned.

Carver was a professor of dramatics at Stanford University and appeared on Broadway as an actor.

Reconstruction of Building 408 into a theater for stage plays has been contemplated.

Miss Jeannette Snyder, Tri-State high school drama instructor, will be present at the meeting Sunday. She and Mrs. Susan Shibayama will read excerpts from the three-act play, "Yes, My Darling Daughter."
