MILITARY ORDER UNDER QUESTION

(Editors note)

The military evacuation order as applied to the American-born Japanese on the western coast of the United States was halted in a judgment handed down by Federal Judge James A. Fox, Portland, Oregon, according to an International News Service appearing in the Nov. 16th issue of the San Francisco Examiner. Officers in the War Department were reported to have withheld action "Until they have an opportunity to review Judge Fox's full ruling." The New York Post, from Portland, dated Nov. 16, follows:

Validity of Army orders affecting citizens of the Pacific coast, including the evacuation of American citizens of Japanese ancestry, was placed in question today by Federal Judge James A. Fox.

The orders of Lt. Col. Elmer L. Shirell, project director.

ARMY SCHOOL TO RECRUIT CANDIDATES FOR SERVICE

Speaking to a group of prospective enlistees for the army Japanese school at Savage, Minnesota, Colonel Rasmussen, who is in charge of the school, gave an outline of the school program, Wednesday morning. Without mincing words, the general said: "The Japanese problem did with our co-operating they are bound to succeed." Brink added.

There are many people on the outside who are deeply concerned with the problems of the evacuees," Brink reiterated. "They are trying to find ways and means of solving the Japanese problem did with your co-operating they are bound to succeed," Brink added.

The distinguished visitor wrote a series of articles for the Monitor on the Santa Anita Center. He expects to write a series on the Tule Lake project soon.

WEEK NOTICE REQUIRED FOR TERMINATION OF COLONY JOBS

Effective this date Nov. 12, colonist personnel who desire to resign from their position must give one week's notice before the resignation can become effective. Any exceptions to this will have to be approved by the Chief of Employment.

REPRESENTATIVES TO BE NOMINATED

The machinery for the election of city councilmen will start rolling this week with nominations in each block of five representatives it was reported today.

FAMED EDITOR VISITS PROJECT

R. L. Brink, Pacific Coast Editorial Manager of the School Christian Science Monitor, was a visitor to this project Wednesday and Thursday.

Brink, whose offices are in San Francisco, stated that his purpose in visiting the URA projects was to understand the treatment the evacuees were receiving and to also get a line on their point of view.

"There are many people on the outside who are deeply concerned with the problems of the evacuees," Brink reiterated. "They are trying to find ways and means of solving the Japanese problem did with your co-operating they are bound to succeed," Brink added.

JUNIOR LEAGUE
BUCKET ENTRIES
Opening day for Junior league basketball has been set for Saturday morning. All games will start at 10:00 a.m. Managers are asked to have the teams on the courts before that time.

Teams entered are Spur­tans, Devils, Frosh, Pat­tersons, Cards, Tornitos, Goobs, Rattler Jr., Zip­pers, Block 52 and Ward 7 Sunday School.

PENALTIES AND SUSPENSIONS
1. Penalties will be imposed by the Basketball Committee for all unsports­manlike conduct on the playing court.
2. Suspensions will be made by the Basketball Commissioner.

NEW 1942-43 CASADA RULES

Now additions to the 1942-43 basketball season is as follows:
1. Free throw on a tech­nical foul may be waived.
2. In any game in which the playing time is 60 minutes and which goes into overtime because of a tie score, any player who is eligible to start the extra period will be allowed four personal fouls; if, he will not be disqualified until he makes his fifth. If a player makes his fourth personal foul on the last play of the regular playing time, or during the intermission prior to the extra period, he is dis­qualified immediately, and is not eligible for the extra period.

SCORPIONS MEET GULLS IN SENIOR CRUCIAL

PANTHERS HAVE BREATHERS IN JR.

Saturday's football menu will dish up two extre­mities in the Senior League. In a crucial for the top of the round robin loop will be the undefeated, untied Scorpions against the undefeated, once tied Seahawks. Block 52, with place teams, and the Sun­sets, setting in last place at the moment, will battle it out for the cellar position.

Junior League 6-Man Football will see the first place Panthers engage the bottom team, Clark­sburg, in a midseason brother. They will meet the potent­ially powerful Termites in a Sunday game.

Another tail-end game will be the Clark­sburg-Thunderbolt contest. Both are tied for last place with the Elites and Road River.

PROTEST RULES FOR BASKETBALL

Following steps must be taken in the case of a protest in any league basketball game:
1. Protest must be made to referees or umpires at the time of the dispute or at the end of the game; the protest will be ruled upon by the respective managers and brought to the Rec­reation Center 1008, addressed to Lester Mc­matt, Basketball Coordi­nator, within twenty-four hours after the game.
2. Protest must be made to the Basketball Commissioner, with written complaint, within twenty-four hours after the game.

Basketball Committee will handle all disagreements, decide all league questions, and conduct all other league affairs. The Committee will be assisted by managers of the Recreation Basketball Committee.
JUDICIAL COMMITTEE ACQUITS

MEN CHARGED WITH GAMBLING

The verdict of not guilty was reached by the Judicial committee of the City Council after trying 31 persons on the charge of gambling.

The evidence indicated that at one apartment a 25 and ten cents coins were on the table, while those at the other apartment admitted they were playing rummy for five cents. No evidence was confiscated during the visit.

The committee recommended that an order be made to prohibit those residents from congregating for the purpose of participating in games of chance with or without money consideration.

JUDGE FEE

Gen. John L. De Witt, Western Defense Commander, are valid when they apply only to aliens but void as they affect citizens, Judge Fee declared.

The West Coast is not under martial law or formally under military rule, the judge pointed out.

"The civil power is supreme in this country," he said in a thirty page decision. "Neither directly not indirectly can the military power become dominant."

CIVIL WAR PRESIDENT

Judge Fee quoted from the Milligan case of Civil War days, in which a citizen was sentenced to death by military court, the United States Supreme Court ruled several years later that he should have been tried by a civil court.

The magistrare had only praise for General De Witt's motives, however, and said:

"The American officer does not desire to found a military dictatorship but to protect his country from the perils of war. It is certain that he has no inclination, even though faced with a serious situation, to violate the fundamental law of the country." JAP LAWYER'S TEST
