The city has a long history as a cultural, literary and media mecca, the birthplace of the civil rights movement, and home to over 20 colleges and universities. The conference hotel is the Grand Hyatt Atlanta, centrally located in the uptown boutique shopping district of Buckhead, the "Beverly Hills of the South." Enjoy the hotel's well-equipped 24-hour fitness center, beautiful Japanese gardens, and an on-site restaurant with Southern cuisine, then take the adjacent metro Atlanta light rail train that will make exploring Atlanta simple.

Welcome...

...to the new California Chapter of the Music Library Association!

After several years of planning and hard work, we officially merged the Southern California Chapter and the Northern California Chapter this past spring. As a merged group, we will have more members and thus more energy to make an impact on music librarianship issues within our state. I am very excited to be the first Chair of the new MLACC and I hope you'll join me by participating in any way you can to ensure that our chapter will thrive!

Why Migrate?

Before

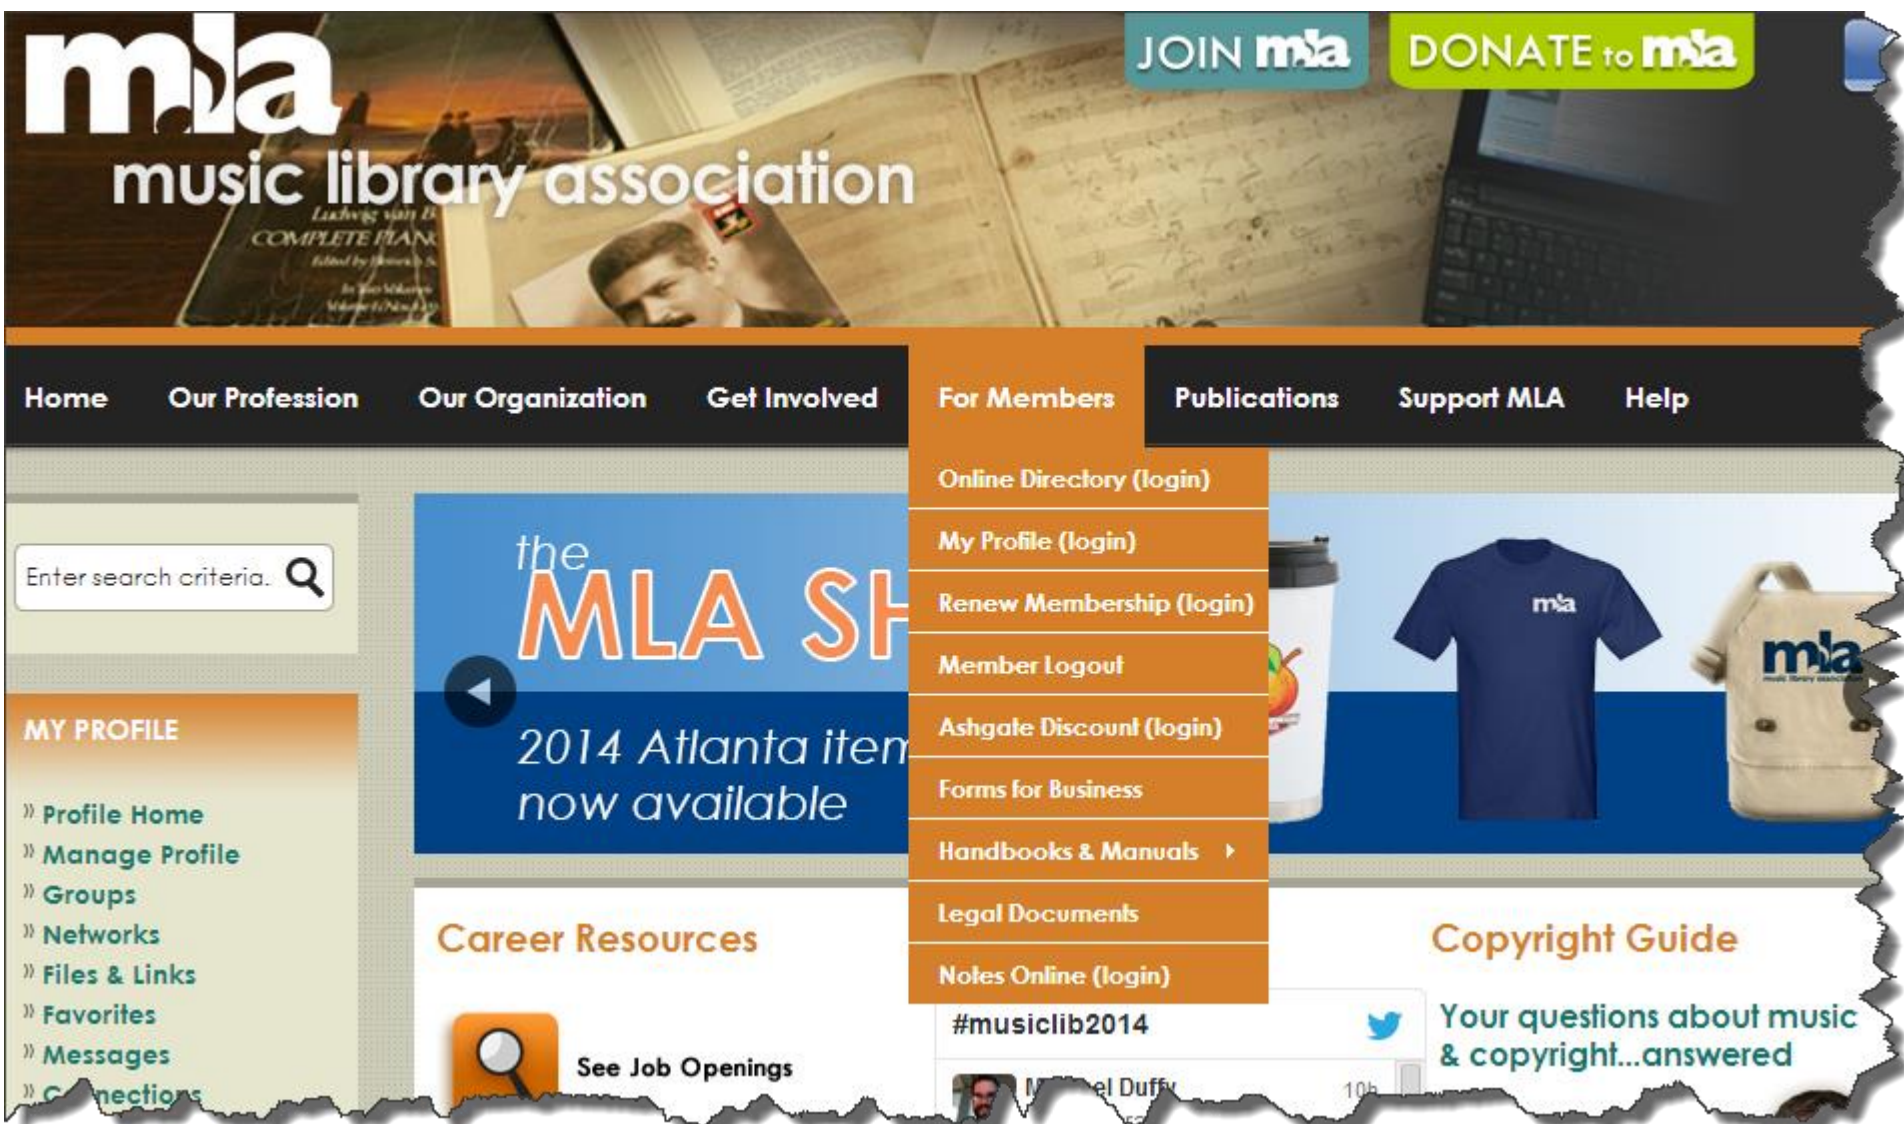

The old website has a cluttered layout. The header features the 'mla' logo, navigation links (Home, About MLA, Member Resources, Publications, Employment & Education, Awards & Grants, Copyright Guide, Contact Us), and buttons for 'JOIN MLA', 'GIVE TO MLA', and 'site map'. A search bar is located in the top right. The main content area is divided into three columns. The left column contains a 'Welcome to the Music Library Association' section with a paragraph about the organization's history and a 'Read Our Blog' section. The middle column features a 'FEATURED CONTENT' section with a 'NEWEST PUBLICATION' (MLA Basic Manual Series) and a 'MLA NEWSLETTER' section. The right column has an 'ADVERTISERS' section with a logo for Alexander Street Press. The overall design is dated and lacks a cohesive visual theme.

After

The new website has a modern, clean design. The header features the 'mla' logo, navigation links (Home, Our Profession, Our Organization, Get Involved, For Members, Publications, Support MLA, Help), and buttons for 'JOIN mla' and 'DONATE to mla'. A search bar is located in the top right. The main content area is divided into three columns. The left column contains a 'SIGN IN' section with fields for 'Username' and 'Password', a 'Remember Me' checkbox, and links for 'Forgot your password?' and 'Haven't joined yet?'. The middle column features a large banner for the 'Attend our 83rd Annual Meeting' (February 26th - March 2nd) with a date range and a location tag 'ATLANTA 2014'. Below the banner are sections for 'Career Resources' (See Job Openings, Resume & Cover Letter Review Service) and 'MLA 2014 Tweets' (a tweet from Hannah King). The right column has a 'Copyright Guide' section with a 'Your questions about music & copyright...answered' tag and a photo of a man. The overall design is professional and user-friendly.

Task Forces: Social Media

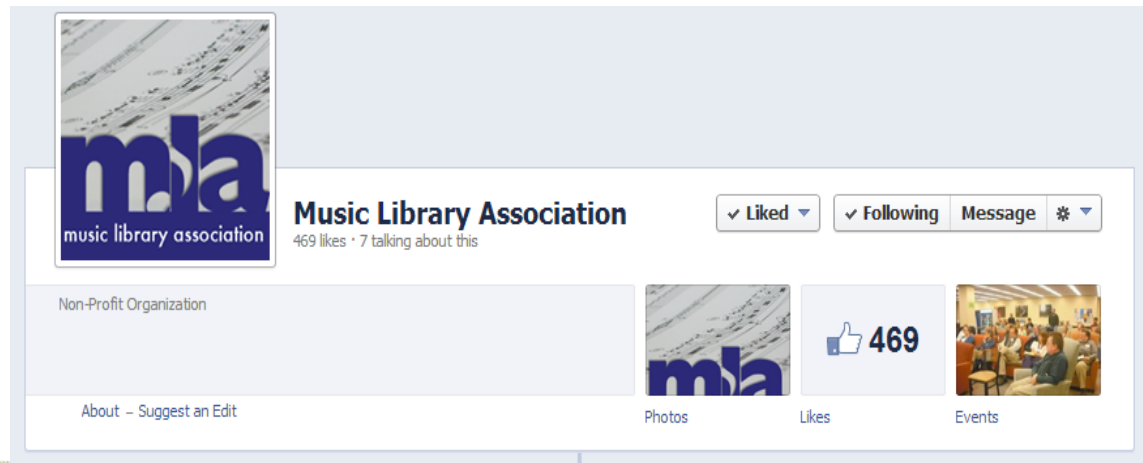

+ Directory & Features

Charge

The charge of the task force is to explore existing and emerging social media tools in order to develop a comprehensive plan for their utilization by MLA. The task force will seek to identify ways by which Facebook, blogs, Twitter and other social media tools can help to increase visibility of the association and improve its outreach efforts. The task force will also make recommendations on the coordination of social media content with the MLA web page. Recommendations will be due to the Board by December 2013.

The screenshot displays the MLA Music Library Association website. The header features the MLA logo, navigation links (Home, Our Profession, Our Organization, Get Involved, For Members, Publications, Support MLA, Help), and buttons for 'JOIN mla' and 'DONATE to mla'. A blue arrow points to the 'Help' link in the navigation bar. The main content area is titled 'Help' and includes a search bar, social media sharing options, and a list of links under 'General Help'. A second blue arrow points to the 'Best Practices' section, which lists various resources for members.
