WEEK LONG SHOW OF TULE LIFE

Photographs of the Project taken during Labor Day week by Francis Stewart, WRA photographer, will be on exhibit in The Tulean Dispatch Annex, #1608, beginning today.

These pictures show many phases of Project life, including the Labor Day parade, open house exhibits, farm scenes, packing shed, etc.

Colonists may order any of the pictures on exhibit. They will only be required to pay the nominal cost of printing. Orders may be placed with Miss Hilo Hasegawa, documentarian.

This exhibition of pictures will continue throughout the week.

CITY LIBRARY CLOSED FOR SHEETROCKING

City library, #1708, will be closed until further notice due to the sheetrocking of the building, it was announced by the Community Activities.

AN EDITORIAL

A YEAR AGO TODAY

A year ago today Pearl Harbor was attacked. Since that time, this country has undergone a mental, moral, spiritual and physical transformation beyond anything the world has ever known.

Although America was not in the war, her sympathies were definitely committed to the Allied Nations. Billions of dollars have been spent in their behalf for those countries fighting aggression.

Since December 7th, this country has geared itself to total war -- mentally, morally and physically. Five million men are now under arms, more than a million of whom are on foreign soil.

And how does this affect the nisei?

Nisei are affected just as much as any other American. Proof of this is in the number of young Japanese Americans who have enlisted in the Army -- some five thousand.

Only last week, 34 young colonists volunteered for the intelligence school at Camp Savage.

Before that, and with only limited ways of showing their willingness to cooperate, they bought defense bonds, went to the best fields. Young Japanese Americans are, and have been demanding a right to bear arms for their country.

If this is total war then it is total war for every American.

We are asking the same right as other Americans -- total participation in total war. This should give us our rightful place when peace is won.

CITY PREMIER TONITE

Theater goers in Ward will have the first opportunity to see the three one-act plays to be presented by the Little Theater tonight from 8 p.m., at #408.

WHITE CHRISTMAS IN THE MAKING:

Santa Claus will see to it that none of the evacuated tots will be left out of his plans for a white Christmas, it was revealed in the Pacific Citizen.

More than 40,000 little Japanese Americans in the 10 relocation projects will be cared for by the various Christian denominations, service groups, JACL, and other organizations interested in the welfare of the Japanese evacuees.

The presents are being supplemented by a Community Christmas Party Fund to insure complete coverage. Seventy-four American soldiers, mostly nisei, but including six Caucasian and one Chinese American, stationed at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, have contributed a dollar apiece or $74 in all to swell the Christmas fund.

Japanese living in the free zone have not forgotten those in the projects with whom they were once friends. Nearly all have contributed to the fund.

Of the quota of an estimated 47,600 children, 46,075 have been accommodated.

Projects whose quotas have not been met as yet are Colorado River (Poston), Central Utah (Tule Lake), and Jerome.

Tule Lake's quota of 6,400 has been met by the following organizations: Disciples, Evangelical Reformod; Methodist; and Advisory Committee for Evacuees, Presbyterian, U.S.A., has agreed to be responsible for all of the Heart Mountain's quota of 4,000.

Joe Kanazawa, eastern JACL representative, at P.O. Box 1924, Washington, D.C., is assisting in correlating this Christmas program of sending gifts to children of the different projects.
A THOUGHT IN REVIEW

LITTLE THEATER GROUP

It amazed me pleasantly to discover the genuine histrionic talent inhered in some of our young colonists in Tule Lake.

Viewing the presentations of three one-act plays by the Little Theater Group Friday night in 1942, it came to me that there is a great possibility of developing this sort of group here to entertain the mentally matured residents who are forever seeking escape to the grand reality of their colonym. "Drama always acts as a cathartic of emotions." It makes people weep and laugh. If any play strikes a person's feeling, it has accomplished the first requisite of its medium: drama and "fine art. The Little Theater players did this" to the audience Friday night. And I believe they will continue to turn out the coming two-week performances with greater intensity.

Especially noteworthy was the performance of Grade 9 students as Mrs. Agnes Keene in Eugene O'Neil's "Ah-Birdie." Edna Yamazaki, as learned, has never been on the stage before. But her dramatic quality of self-expression portrayed the role she was "enriched with understanding and appreciation." In a way she surpassed the "Flattering Word," brought the house down with laughter. But the final five minutes were anti-climax. The curtain should have been drawn while the punch was still alive. Five Stars for Dickie Moriyasu for his smooth acting; Four Stars for Hiroshi Kashiyagi. Mr. Kashiyagi, I believe, is destined to shine brilliantly later. "Maker of Dreams," a fantasy by Ollie Christensen, was in need of a larger stage and a better lighting system to inject color to the play that it deserves. But, then, we would be expecting too much from the present small facilities. If we had one, we would have seen more ballet dancing from Yukie Shinpo, the talented terpophorian.

CO-OP MEMBERSHIP CAMPAIGN ON TODAY

With Koso Takeimoto, new executive secretary, in charge of the membership drive, the Co-op announced Saturday that the Co-op has "been set at all per member."

This Co-op membership certificate which grants the holder all rights and privileges as a member of the by-laws. The signatures of two officers of the Board of Directors will make the certificate binding upon the Board. It was added:

The values of these certificates will be computed by the Board upon the basis of a report to be submitted by an accountant about the 10th of the month on the amount of accumulated worth of the community enterprises.

Speaking before the representatives of all the wards, Parker Abbott, manager of the Associated Co-op of Northern Calif., pointed out the workings of his Co-op in a Sunday meeting.

BLANKET OF SNOW COVERS TULE LAKE

Consistent winter weather seems to have come as a blanket of white followed a week of near-weather.

The heaviest snowfall yet started last Saturday noon and piled up over an inch before mid-afternoon.
