HONOR SOCIETY INDUCTEES

Alpha Sigma Lambda

Alpha Sigma Lambda is the national honor society recognizing excellence among nontraditional students, meaning those who have returned to college later in life and who achieve academic excellence while also fulfilling adult duties of work and family life.

Jennifer Smith

Phi Kappa Phi

Among honor societies that induct members from all academic disciplines, Phi Kappa Phi, founded in 1897, is the nation's oldest, largest, and most selective. Invitation is extended to graduating seniors and graduate students in the top 10% of their class, and to juniors in the top 7.5% of their class. The mission of the society is to recognize and promote academic excellence and to engage the community of scholars in service to others.

*Cum laude Magna cum laude Summa cum laude

The list of names as it appears in this program includes actual and potential graduates for the 2017–2018 academic year. The above “graduation with honors” distinctions are contingent upon final grade point average calculations at the completion of all relevant degree requirements. The official list of graduates and honors awarded for each graduation date of the 2017–2018 year is maintained by the university registrar.

HISTORY OF UNIVERSITY COLLEGE

While University of the Pacific was founded in 1851, University College (UC) is relatively new, having been established in 1972. Over the years, the UC has not wavered from its original purpose, which is to provide a pathway for adult re-entry students to attain their bachelor degree from University of the Pacific. University College has offered the Organizational Behavior bachelor's degree since 1999. In previous years, our graduates were included in the College of the Pacific's ceremony. This year, we start a new tradition as we welcome the first graduates of the revitalized University College.

MISSION OF UNIVERSITY COLLEGE

University College is committed to developing innovative, alternative pathways and modalities to help non-traditional learners achieve their educational goals. University College offers personalized learning opportunities to Pacific faculty, staff, and students as well as to otherwise unaffiliated regional, national and international lifelong learners. We achieve this by working collaboratively with university stakeholders and external partners to create and deliver relevant, high-impact and accessible educational experiences in a flexible, supportive environment.

PACIFIC HAIL!

Words and Music by Lois Warner Winston '23

From o'er the rugged mountains standing high;
From out the broad low valleys, 'neath the sky;
Our alma mater calls, We cannot fail,
Our voices blend in praise, Pacific Hail! Pacific Hail!

Long may her flaming torch give out its light;
Long may her spirit guide us in the right;
To her we pledge our hearts, We dare not fail;
To her we raise our song,
Pacific Hail! Pacific Hail!
