My dear Mr Johnson.

I am pezzing away at Alaska. I am trying to make a lot of telling pictures of the glaciers, forest Indians etc together with bits of adventure narrative etc.
It is not easy to write to order, & no doubt I will write much that you don't want but you can take what you do want & leave the balance.

I send you herewith a lot of photographs & in a few days will send copies of some of the best of my sketches taken when cameras have not yet reached. Also a map of the M. Glacier.

I have been sinfully busy of late so the M. S. would be already in your hands.

I congratulate you most heartily on your Copyright honors. You deserved them all & more. Ever Cordially Yours

John Muir.
