Dear John,

"Drip, drip, the rain is falling; patter, patter, the tin-roof manuling; cheep, cheep, the birds are calling!" and so on, and so on, but the dust still dominates the road, and the skies are not yet very black.

Arthur has a large quantity of grapes under cover at the other place.

Wood sent a check for a thousand dollars.

Received a letter from Mrs. Lemon at Lisson, Shasta, where the
