WORKERS MAY RETURN HERE

CONTRACT GROUPS INCLUDED IN RULING

Anyone contracting or working either in the beet fields, railroads or other group contract work may return to the Project upon the completion of their contract. In fact, anyone taking a position on indefinite leave may, if they so desire, return to the Project, providing no other job is available or in the event that conditions warrant their return. This, however, is not anticipated excepting in rare emergencies.

HIGH SCHOOL HI-Y MEETING FRIDAY

The newly organized Tri-State Jr. Hi-Y will hold its regular weekly meeting tonight, Friday, Feb. 19 at 7:30 p.m. in Canteen 4, to discuss plans for a father and son banquet.

SCHOOL PROGRESSES

Student organizations at the high school are now effectively taking shape. On Feb. 5 the Student Forum, which is composed of presidents of each class, representatives of the 38 homerooms and the presidents of 27 clubs, held their initial meeting.

The executive committee reported on all action taken so far and future plans were discussed. The function of the Student Forum will be that they will act as the liaison group between the executive committee and the school on all matters and problems for action.

PATROL

In conjunction with the Wardens, a Student Patrol has been established by the Student Council for the purpose of maintaining respect for and observance of school regulations.

The three most important rules being: 1. No smoking. 2. No defacing of property. 3. No snowballing on the school premises.

This group was carefully selected to sustain effective service of this sort. Awards for this patrol service are now being planned by the faculty committee.

CLASSES

The various classes elected their respective officers for the term. They will plan the class social affairs, inter-class athletic programs, and in the case of the seniors, graduation activities.

Tom Eaji was elected Senior president. George Arima was named boys' vice-president; Ruth Hikikata, girls' vice-president; Suriko Washino, secretary and Samuel Koshita, treasurer.

JUNIORS

BOXING...NAME CONTEST TO CLOSE SATURDAY

With the contest to close this Saturday afternoon, Feb. 20, the Tournament Name Contest committee is urging all those who would like to have ringside seats to all of the ward and championship bouts to send as many entries in to $1800 by this weekend.

The contest is being held to select a suitable name for the coming Project-wide boxing tournament to be held jointly by the Recreation dept. and the Tule Lake Athletic Association.

"GOOD THING I WORKED IN A MESSHALL AT TULE LAKE!"
Walter Tsukamoto, former attorney in the Legal department and JACL leader, has volunteered his services to the United States Army in a telegram to the War Department, according to the Feb. 11 issue of the Pacific Citizen.

We have requested immediate active duty and assignment to my commanding general five times since the war but was advised my Japanese ancestry precluded such assignment. I have been a registered alien for more than a year, and the sole reason for becoming an officer was, of course, to serve my country in time of need. May I beg of you to bring about my immediate assignment to my command and attach me to the War Department, recommending the national security.

Tsukamoto holds a resident commission as a captain and is now in Chicago.
