

1891-12-01

Letter from Louie [Strentzel Muir] to John Muir, [1891 Dec 1].

Louie Strentzel Muir

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence>

---

Recommended Citation

Muir, Louie Strentzel, "Letter from Louie [Strentzel Muir] to John Muir, [1891 Dec 1]." (1891). John Muir Correspondence (PDFs). 130.

<https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence/130>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the John Muir Correspondence 1856-1914 at Scholarly Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Muir Correspondence (PDFs) by an authorized administrator of Scholarly Commons. For more information, please contact mgibney@pacific.edu.

[Dec. 1, 1891]
Wednesday

deal better.

Elfie is getting
very fat, and her
eye is alright now.
Dampstead has gone
home.

Elfie sleeps down al-
lar now.

Lillian is very lame
some with out you.
I am tired sitting up
so good-bay

Annie Wanda Muir

871

How about the Potrero
lots? Will Magee pay
the taxes?

01543

Dear John

Wanda is a little better, but the rest of are complaining
more or less. A wild wind blew last night
& this afternoon is cold,
so cold. Helen and I took Aunt Margaret to ride this morning and it
was warm & delightful in
the upper vineyard.

Mrs. Cornwall died
last night from pneumonia, & Mr. C. & John
are both very sick
with "la grippe"

I hope your new
room is comfortable

~~and I have been~~
I draw money from Bank

We will be at the train for you Saturday
evening.

When we told little Helen that you were coming Saturday, she said "But just the trouble of it that I have to wait till night
it's so long."

Let us hear about
Mr. Kennan.

A letter from R. W.
Johnson about the letters you sent him. He likes Nicholas Brown's plan. Wants to know
if possibly Stow may need
watching.
Louie Muir.

You forgot about the Japan

Martiney

1891

December 1,

My dear Papa

I hope you are well. I am a little better than when
you left. Dr. Bragdon
was here yesterday.
I write this letter
propped up in bed.
Lillian says she is going to write a letter to you.
We are all well
but me. Grandma's eye is a great

Wednesday, [December 1, 1891]

Dear John:

Wanda is a little better, but the rest of [us] are complaining more or less. A wild wind blew last night and this afternoon is cold, so cold. Helen and I took Aunt Margaret to ride this morning and it was warm and delightful in the upper vineyard. Mrs. Cornwall died last night from pneumonia, and Mr. C. and John are both very sick with "la grippe."

I hope your new room is comfortable. We will be at the train for you Saturday evening. When we told little Helen that you were coming Saturday, she said, "But just the trouble of it that I have to wait till night, it's so long!"

Let us hear about Mr. Kennan. A letter from R. U. Johnson about the letters you sent him. He likes Nicholas Brown's plan. Wants to know if possibly Stow may need watching.

Louie Muir.

You forgot about the taxes. How about the Potrero lots? Will Magee pay the taxes? I drew money from Bank and paid them.

Martinez, December 1, 1891.

My dear Papa:

I hope you are well. I am a little better than when you left. Dr. Bragdon was here yesterday. I write this letter propped up in bed. Lilian says she is going to write a letter to you. We are all well but me. Grandma's eye is a great deal better. Elfie is getting very fat, and her eye is all right now. Dompeadro has gone home. Elfie sleeps down cellar now. Lilian is very lonesome without you. I am tired sitting up, so goodbye.

Annie Wanda Muir

[Both letters written on same sheet of paper]