FIRST VOLUNTEER GROUP LEAVES

The first group of volunteers for the Japanese-American Combat Unit, six in number, left the Project yesterday morning on a Reno bus for Salt Lake City for induction.

Induction will take place at Fort Douglas near the city. It is believed that they will get a seven-day furlough before they are sent to Camp Shelby.

T.S.O. MAY ASK AID FROM USO

Once the T.S.O. is organized, application for affiliation with the national USO will be made. It was indicated at the T.S.O. organizational meeting held at #2008 Wednesday.

It was brought out that such an affiliation will greatly widen the organization's scope of activity since the help of the national USO headquarters will be made available.

The temporary office of the service men's head-quarter at 2008 is open and soldiers on furlough are urged to make use of the service available.

Marines Wounded At Guadalcanal Visit Here

Four marines who have been seen at Guadalcanal visited the Project yesterday afternoon; in company with Leslie Rogers, Klamath Falls business man and host to some of the boys.

The marines, all of whom were wounded and who have been recuperating in a Mare Island hospital since November, were Fred Kromer, Roscoe Reed from Florence, Andy Nolan from Camden, N.J.; Pfc. Sammy Irwin from Sisters Villa, West Virginia; and Pvt. Pat Molloy from Long Island, N.Y.

These young marines saw services at Guadalcanal from August to October, 1942.

After being discharged from the hospital at Mare Island, they, like others, accepted invitations to further recuperate in various homes throughout the country. These young men are being entertained in Klamath Falls homes and were driven in cars to the Project by Klamath Falls Commandos.

The marines said they were looking forward to seeing the Project. They spoke enthusiastically about the hospitality shown them by their Klamath Falls hosts. They said they were "having a wonderful time."
ROVING REPORTER:

COAL UNLOADING IS HARD WORK SAY VOLUNTEERS

The recent arrival of numerous carloads of coal resulted in the necessity for volunteer coal workers to help out. Our roving reporter went to interview these volunteers whose usual jobs are as office workers, janitors, block managers, etc., and asked them what they thought of unloading coal. Here are the answers:

Richard Murado, "Composition of coal is very tough."

Tom Kubo, Garage: "It is a cinch this isn't no work for sissies."

It isn't for me either."

Timmie Takagi, Storekeeper: "Leading the 39 volunteers amazed me for their whole hearted cooperation."

Johnny Kinot, Blk. Mgr. 35: "I'll take a Blk. Mgr. job any day."

Shig. Sakamoto, Canteen: "If it's for the benefit of the community I'm willing to pitch in."

Jimmie Itozama, "This is one time in my face is black as the ace of spades."

Isa Tsutsai, Food Warehouse: "Now my wife can have plenty of hot water to wash my clothes."

CHANDLER REPORT ON EVACUEES

KLAMATH FALLS ELKS PLAYS LOCAL ALL-STARS ON MAY 30

HAND IN SCORE SHEETS

All softball managers, both girls' and boys', are requested to hand in the scoresheets at once.

A history making event in Tale Lake, sports will take place in May 30, as plans have definitely been arranged to have the powerful semi-pro Klamath Falls Elks play a picked team of local ball players, it was announced by the Recreation Department.

This game was made possible through the efforts of Jiggs Yamada, well-known sports enthusiast, and Mr. Melhorn of the Internal Security, who lives in Klamath Falls and has connections with the Elks team. Harvey M. Cowperly, Project Director, has given his okay to hold the contest.

If the game turns out to be a success, it is hoped that more outside teams of the same caliber can be lined up.

First practice session for the project team has been called for this coming Saturday afternoon, May 22, at 2 p.m. on the field opposite Block 9. Coaches Shig Tamai and Yamada have issued an open invitation for players from any camp team to try-out.

In all fairness to everyone, it was reported that the squad will be selected from the persons who turn out regularly. Just because a player was an all-star last year does not mean that he is on the squad, it was added. Those making the best showing in practice will get the starting posts in the line-up.

Turn-outs will be held every Tuesday and Thursday evenings at 7:00 and on Saturday afternoons at 2:00 p.m. when there is no game on Sunday.

Since the hope of having future games with outside teams rests on this first game, everyone's cooperation is requested in making it a success.
