Prof. John Muir.

My dear Sir.

President Eliot of Harvard is expected to be in this City next month, and the Harvard Club will entertain him at dinner probably on Tuesday March 15th. - Certainly about that date.

If you can arrange to be in town at about that time, we shall hope to have the 01555 pleasure of seeing you on that occasion. and I will send you a more formal and exact invitation when our arrangements are perfected.

If you can come, you will,
I hope, be willing to address the Club on any subject you may prefer.

Hoping for a favorable reply. I am yours very truly
