OTHER VETERANS...

...from the DISPATCH staff will be lost early next week. Their loss will be keenly felt for among them are two top-notch artists and one dependable technician. Dick Kuribayashi and James Matsuo are the artists and Mac Ogawa is the technician who will be leaving.

Departure of James Matsuo leaves Kunio Takaguchi, the sold survivor of the original Dispatch staff when it was known as the Bulletin. Also the departure of the two artists leaves newcomer Maui Matsubara and Mac Inada.

CONFERENCE SEEMS...

...to be a good excuse to leave the Project. First it was the Buddhists who sent out delegates to attend a confab, to which yours truly was fortunate enough to go. Now there are many Christian youths going out to attend the many conferences of the G.R.s and other Christian groups. But once on the outside it surely is tough to come back to the Project and lead a routine life again.

SPEAKING OF...

conferences, the Tule Lake Bussel enjoyed a 3-day meet last week end. The attendance at the various forums was somewhat disheartening, but the group that did show up made up in interest what was lost in attendance. Turn-out at the religious part of the program however was surprising and large, especially at the outdoor service on Sunday morning.

George Shintaku, Shidzoto, Oto, Oei, Noguchi, Touhatsu, Watana, Shintaku, Shintaku, Nakai, Shintake, Kunisada, Sichida, et al should by now be well caught up in their sleep.

CPL. TIM ARAI...

...pulled into the Project recently. Says he, "Sure good to eat food stuff and fish (II) after eating pork day in and day out."
