Chicks Killed, Building Destroyed Monday Morn

Tule Lake Project suffered the second major fire disaster in its history early Monday morning, July 5, when a fire of unknown origin broke out in one of the poultry farm buildings, killing 5,760 chicks and destroying more than half of the structure. Loss was estimated at approximately $2,000, $3,000 of which includes the cost of the chicks and brooders, and an estimated $2,000 for the building.

The blaze was discovered about 4:30 a.m. by the night watchman. Since there is no telephone connection between the project and the poultry farm, it was necessary for him to come to the Project to report the fire. By the time the Fire Department arrived at the scene of the fire, most of the damage had been done.

About 50 chicks, from 3 to 20 days old, were suffocated by the smoke. The building was one of many on the Project poultry farm; fortunately the others were out of range of the blaze.

First major fire was recorded at Tule Lake on the morning of August 14, 1942 when a blaze caused a $4,000 damage to the structure. Loss was estimated at $2,000 for the chicks and $2,000 for the building.

The greatest amount of water is used in the showers. Colonists are urged to use the water for a shorter period of time and to turn off all faucets in the washrooms after making their ablutions.

EUGENE OKADA'S
OUR TOWN

Festival of July...was successfully celebrated over the week-end with thousands of persons participating in the various events.

Softball continued to draw huge crowds as the evenly matched ward teams battled it out for the City-wide softball championship. Every game turned out to be "you never can tell until the last man's out" thrillers with plenty of fire added to it.

Mexican delicacies like hot tamale and tortilla proved quite popular, being sold out as fast as it could be served. Gallons and gallons of ice cream and soda found its way into the never-to-be-satisfied stomachs of the Tuleans. Other items that were sold out are ice cream sodas, pie-a-la-mode, watermelon, peanuts, etc. No doubt the lunch that was handed out was insufficient, or was it touched all at once?

Sunday evening saw THE biggest crowd ever to witness a talent show, which was held at the newly renovated outdoor stage. It is estimated that about 8,000 persons watched the program that was designed largely for the issei.

Bon odori on Saturday evening proved to be quite hilarious as scores of boys donned the colorful ondo-decked in weird costumes. Art Morimitsu's emcee-ship was an unexpected highlight. You'll make Camp Savage yet, Art. MEN VS. WOMEN...forum should prove to be quite exciting as Jobo Nakamura, Harry Mayoda, and Corky Kawasaki vie against such feminine representatives as Joan Mri, Masako Tanigawa and Mrs. Sada Murayama. Jobo, Harry, Jean and Masako a taking great risks as their future matrimonial blessings (?). Both teams are ready to "fire away", it was revealed.
OUTSIDE COOPS OFFER JOBS

Mr. Bolo Lassek, Business Enterprise Superintendent of the National Education Authority in Washington, D.C., in his letter to Mr. Don Etibarson, Chief of Community Enterprises, writes that Mr. Ben Achalsman, Manager of the Eastern Cooperative Wholesale in Philadelphia, says, "We need capable produce workers in the retail outlets, men from the camps, where they could do general work or odd jobs. When an opportunity opens we could move them into retail produce job. The starting salary in the warehouse, would range between $30 and $35 a week."

The local Co-op Management states that, "Through the efforts of these men, real opportunities for work in cooperative organization are continually being presented to the colonists and an expanded chance for advancement is provided. Opportunities in cooperative organization offer a chance for the Japanese Americans to identify American Society. It would be very seriously thinking young men who are planning to enter a stable and progressive cooperative to contact Mr. Don Etibarson at 717-A immediately.

BI v. FOURTH GAME
U
NATIONALS NOSE OUT 12-11
VICTORY OVER AMERICANS

The National League All-Stars nosed out a 12-11 victory over the American League All-Stars last Sunday in a holiday encounter as over 3500 faithfuls witnessed the contest. Both teams squandered hits, committed errors, and seemed to get tangled up in their own feet, but nevertheless the game turned out to be a thriller to the end.

National took an immediate lead in the first two innings by slamming Seibo Fujii’s deliveries for six runs. Johnny Nakao started on the mound for the National and loaded the bases on walks and wild pitches, and was relieved by George Goto to atomize the rally at the end of the first two innings.

Taking advantage, the American desperately tried to retaliate but was held scoreless.

Being held scoreless in the first two innings, at the third frame, three hit spree and base on errors contributed to the American’s five runs.

The score at the end of the third inning was 6-5. But at the beginning of the fourth, the National started a spirited merry-go-round with Nakao getting on with an error, followed by a walk issued to S. Horio. After R. Horio grounded out, Makimoto took base being hit by a wild pitch and advanced to second on a hit to center field by S. Horio who was on the mound.

Makimoto was picked up by Tomita, over-anxiously trying to score the tying run but was cut off at the plate when a slight over throw to third by catcher Nakakura was picked up by shortstop Nakao and immediately relayed home.

At this crucial time, with base full and no outs for the American, Horio who was on the mound then for the National was relieved by Masanori Tomita, over-anxiously trying to score the tying run but was cut off at the plate when a slight over throw to third by catcher Makimoto was picked up by shortstop Nakao and was immediately relayed home.

A hit to center field by S. Horio scored Makimoto which turned out to be the winning run for the National.

The score at the end of the first half of the ninth frame was 12-10 with National leading.

The American came up in the last half of the ninth with desperate hope of overtaking the lead. This hope seemed to be fulfilled when Kurahara took first base on a walk and proceeded to second base on an error on the first throw to second, a hit by Tomita, and advancing run to second, a hit by Mayeda loaded the bases.

Then Tanaka drew a walk which forced in a run.

At this crucial time, with base full and no outs for the American, Horio who was on the mound then for the National was relieved by Masanori Tomita, over-anxiously trying to score the tying run but was cut off at the plate when a slight over throw to third by catcher Nakakura was picked up by shortstop Nakao and immediately relayed home.

Although the Ward 2 All-Stars scored a spark of life in their half of the sixth when R. Kurahara caught one to his liking and bolted it into deep left for a four-bagger, after Sam Kinoshita got on base on an error. However, their rally died then as only Uchikura was able to reach first base. They tallied once more in the seventh with a walk and a sacrifice by G. Nakao’s hit double.

Both Sanjo and Kurahara were awarded one dollar in cash, presented by Peter Osuga for all home runs hit during that specific game. Kurahara also had a perfect day at bat, hitting three for three.

Tonight’s final between the slugging Ward 3 All-Stars and the rugged Ward 2 All-Stars for the Tule Lake Ward Softball Championship should prove to be quite an exciting game.

Although the Ward 2 team is a slight underdog, the Hawaiian studded team should not be underestimated. The game will be held at field 17-26 from 6:45 p.m.

Ward 3 WINS. MEETS WARD 2 IN CITY FINALS TONIGHT

WARD FIVE DRUBBED BY 12-4 COUNT

Slamming out 3 runs on 4 hits in the very first inning, the Ward 3 All-Stars proved to be too much for the hard fighting Ward 5 All-Stars and walked away with a 12-4 victory. Although allowing ten hits, southpaw Tom Kiyama kept them well scattered while his pitching mates raked hits.

The score at the end of the first inning was 6-4 in favor of the Nationals.

For the Century crowds who witnessed the contest. Both teams squandered hits, committed errors, and seemed to get tangled up in their own feet, but nevertheless the game turned out to be a thriller to the end.
