THE GAME

By JIM KING
Athletic News Director

Marquette makes its second invasion of Stockton tonight with memories of the 27-27 deadlock still fresh in the minds of the newly-named Warriors.

Coach Frosty Ferzacca's squad will be out to edge into the win column against the Tigers and add some lustre to the 1954 slate. If the California elements are right, the Warrior team may accomplish the task.

Fourteen members of the Marquette squad were here as sophomores two years ago, including Halfback Ron Drzewiecki, who paced the great second half comeback here at that time.

The flashy Marquette halfback hopes to make a repeat performance of his feats that year and add more to the damage he inflicted on the Tigers in Milwaukee last year when he rolled up 128 yards on the ground and scored two touchdowns, one on an 81 yard punt return and another on a 56 yard sprint from scrimmage.

Drzewiecki heads the roster of Marquette seniors into the fray tonight and while the men with the experience are the most dangerous on the Warrior squad, the Tigers also will have to contend with a few sparkling sophomores and juniors, all making their initial west coast appearances.

Halfback Lee Hermsen, a high school protege of Ferzacca's when both were at Green Bay West high school, appears to be the likely successor to Drzewiecki, who completes four years of varsity football this year.

Hermsen powered his way for 79 yards in just six tries against Boston College last week and has averaged six yards for each effort this season. He's a powerful runner with good inside and outside running ability.

The Tigers will have to keep their eyes on Quarterback Jere Carmody, another sophomore, who stepped into the signal calling role to replace the injured Dick Shockey.

In the line, Marquette will insert sophomore tackles George Kovacik and Bill Clancy, who have done commendable jobs in spelling veterans this fall.

A one-two fullback tandem of Bob Girman and Dave Donarski, both juniors, gives Marquette real punch at the No. 4 backfield post.

A victory for Marquette tonight would put the Warriors in the right mood for another big assignment next week against Michigan State in the season's finale.

Ferzacca's boys go into this contest with a double motive: to break the Pacific jinx and establish a winning incentive for the final game. It will be interesting to see how Marquette makes out.

THE GAME

By CARROLL R. DOTY, Athletic News Director

Tonight's windup to the 1954 football season, pitting Marquette University against the College of the Pacific, is one of the more important battles of the year for the Tigers. A win over the Warriors from Milwaukee will land Coach Jack Myers' crew on top of the season with a five and four mark. A loss will reverse those figures.

The Tigers and Warriors are in the midst of one of the nation's closest rivalries, admitting the series has been rather short. Where else can you find two schools who have played three times with two of the contests ending in ties with one school averaging 29 points per game and the other averaging 25?

That's the way things have been going since Marquette and Pacific picked up their series and tonight's clash shapes as another one of the same variety. The Bengals opened relations between the two schools with a sterling performance to upset a favored Warrior gang in 1951, 39-27, with Tommy McCormick and Eddie Macon both gaining over 100 yards. The following season in Stockton Roy Ottoson pitched the Tigers to a 27-7 halftime lead but Ron Drzewiecki paced Marquette to a second half comeback and a 27-27 tie. Last season COP pulled a major upset by tying the Warriors, 20-20, in another heart-stopper.

For the 1954 Tigers this will be farewell for but seven seniors tonight. Captain and Center Jim Timms, Quarterback Milt Adair, Left Tackle Jack Meeks, Right End Ed Griffith, Right Tackle Bing Downing, Right Guard Jim Fleming and Left Guard Frank DeParsia are the Bengals who are running out the string. All of which means that Myers will have a solid veteran crew on hand in 1955 to meet that rugged schedule.

By all yardsticks 1954 has turned into a fine season for the Tigers since the disaster of three losing starts at the beginning. Myers and his staff of John Nikcevich, John Rohde and Chuck Melick have brought the Tigers along in fine fashion, winning four of their last five. Two of the four were "revenge" wins, 20-7 over Texas Tech and 13-7 over San Jose State. The young Tiger mentor smarted for a year after 1953's 34-7 licking at the hands of the Texans and wanted that one badly. He also wanted to knock the Spartan "jinx" for a loop and that he did.

One of the real stories of the 1954 Tiger season has been the play of the Bengal line. From end to end, playing the toughest schedule ever for a Pacific team, it has averaged 198 actual pounds and held the combined competition to an average of but 138 yards per game rushing. The development of such sophomores as Laack, O'Rourke, Montabana and Lee on the second unit along with Nisby on the first is a real feather in the cap of Nikcevich.

College football is on the way out for another year but 1955, with prospects for a fine team and a rugged schedule already lined up, is just around the corner. We hope you are looking forward to it as much as we are!

ROUNDBALL IS COMING

The sounds of rubber clad feet hustling up and down the Pacific Pavilion floor signals the beginning of another collegiate basketball season. It is just around the corner for the College of the Pacific Tigers, who will open their 1954-55 season December 1 against Chico State in Chico and make their first home appearance in Civic Auditorium on December 7 against Fresno State.

Hope is running high in the Bengal camp that this might be the year for a big comeback. Coach Van Sweet has an experienced team with plenty of height, plus several outstanding newcomers. But the schedule is a rough one, topped by 12 California Basketball Association games and contests with Duquesne, Louisville, Dayton, Cincinnati and Western Kentucky on a pre-Christmas road trip.

Returning from last year's squad are the big three —Nick Romanoff, Clyde Conner and Al Mangin— plus Ron DeVight, Cece Ciatti, Ron Stark and Vince Gomez. Up from the freshmen of a year ago are Johnny Thomas, Galen Laack, Stan Love and Stan Pedder. Junior college transfers include Don Brownfield, Britt Vail, Don Zumbro, Bob Badger and Tom Welch. A. D. Williams, like Laack a footballer, will join the team next week.

In the chase for the CBA bunting, the 1955 race seems like the closest one in the three year old legue's history. Where Santa Clara dominated things the past two seasons, this year there is no one standout team. The Broncos, with Kenny Sears returning, will be tough again. USF is carried by Big Bill Russell and a host of veterans. San Jose State has pony guard Carroll Williams and tall forward Bud Hjelm back. St. Mary's, with a young team last year, shapes up a rugged crew with several service returnees adding to it.

It should be a great basketball season. You'll enjoy it even more if you make all of the home games!

THE COLLEGE OF THE PACIFIC-STOCKTON
COLLEGE MARCHING BAND

HAS A SURPRISE AND A TREAT
IN STORE FOR YOU
AT HALFTIME TONIGHT
BE SURE AND WATCH IT!

The 77-piece College of the Pacific-Stockton College marching band has paralleled the gridiron Tigers in their rise to "big-time" status. It was not so many years ago (1946-47 to be exact) that the marching band had less than forty members. Because of its meager proportions, the band was forced to limit its half-time stunts to simple "block letters" and standard march tunes.

Since those embryonic times the band has increased both numerically and in its scope of operations. It is one of a handful of Western states' college bands to play continuously while on the field. Once a performance has started there is no pause in either movement or sound until it reaches a dynamic conclusion.

In 1952 the "Marching Bengals" were greatly enhanced by the arrival of their youthful, energetic, and highly talented director, Mr. Arthur Corra. Along with his assistants (all of whom are student members of the band), Mr. Corra has spent countless hours in preparation for these half-time shows. All of the music must be specially arranged for the band. Charts of the formations are mimeographed and given to each member of the band so that they can more readily find their proper places during rehearsals.

All of this requires an enormous amount of work; but if you, as patrons of the sport, find it enjoyable the band considers it well worth the effort.
