My dear Papa.

When are you coming home?

I hope it will be soon
for it seems as if it was a long time since you were here.

I hope you are well and that you had a pleasant Easter.

I will be very glad indeed to have a letter from you, for we have not heard yet.

I am learning a little
piece which begins,
"Wee, modest, crimson -"

tipped flower, Thou's met me in an
evil hour;
and which I think is pretty. Do you like it?
Aunt Margaret is not very well, but is better than she was.

Cousin Anna and Jessie
expect ~~to~~ to start home next week.

Miss Graydon, Helen
and I went over to the other place, and had a pleasant little visit.

I can not write a long letter, because Mamma
is ready to start to Martinez.

With much love,
Wanda.
