Dear Mr Muir,

I see by the evening
papers that you are in town.

Both Mr & Davis & I are anxious to see you. Can you not take tea with us to-morrow evening? I have been quite sick but am much better today.

We all have a very pleasant remembrance of you & will be much disappointed if we do not see you.

Yours friend

Bettie K. Davis

If you should be engaged to-morrow
