Portage April 22^d 1892

Dear Wanda

Your nice letter of Feby 20th came safely & I was much pleased to have a letter from you and will hope to hear from you quite often

I think you would enjoy a visit to Portage and I am sure your many relatives here would be delighted to meet with you and your sister Helen too
You have a good many Aunts and Cousins here

06167

that would be pleased to meet you -

If you should go to the Chicago Fair of course we will expect you in Portage

I hope your Grandma Strutzel is quite well and all the rest of the family

Your Aunt Annie joins me in kind love to you and all the family. Hoping you will soon write again to

Grandma Muir

I expect your Papa's birthday was celebrated at home yesterday. I felt sorry he could not be with us on that occasion

Grandma
