CENTER-WIDE MASS MEETING CANCELLED
DELEGATES NOT RECOGNIZED F. FUKUI AMONG NINE
REPORTS COMMITTEE IN CUSTODY OF ARMY

Feeling that there wasn't any necessity for a mass meeting, the sixty odd block delegates present at the representative meeting held yesterday afternoon at mass 18 voted unanimously to cancel the meeting scheduled for this afternoon at the community stage.

The negotiation committee had planned to make a detailed report to the entire residents as to the proceedings of the conferences. However, with the temporary termination of the negotiations with the Army officials, the committee members felt that there wasn't any report to be made to the center at such a meeting.

The committee reported to the elected delegates present that the negotiations with the Army had been cancelled because the Army did not recognize the committee as true representatives of the people. According to the committee, the Army felt that they knew how many workers were needed in each division and that the WRA having worked with the Japanese should know who should work in each division.

The entire congregation expressed unanimous accord that there wasn't any necessity for negotiations if the Army had taken such an attitude.

NO MORE COLD SHOWERS!
COAL PILE IS REPL Enlished

After a period of brief idleness brought about by the recent incident, the former coal crews are back on the job delivering tons of the "black diamond" to the 64 odd blocks within the center. Drilling supplies of the precious fuel have been built up. Many boiler-room chimneys again throw long, oily black smoke to the sky, and colonists are now streaming back to their shower rooms.

Fred Fukui was taken from this center because of his attitude against the Army and WRA, according to the Army officials.

Nine persons, instead of the previously announced six, are held by the Army and their whereabouts is unknown.

In the future, the Army states that they will take a person if necessary without an explanation.

"KOKUMIN GAKKO" IS OFFICIAL TITLE OF JAPANESE SCHOOLS

Choosing the name "Kokumin Gakko," the center Japanese school committee was officially established last Sunday when the central committee on Japanese Education met to discuss the organization of the language schools.

The board which consists of two representatives from each ward, will govern the schools within the center. Meeting every Tuesday, the newly elected officers were as follows: Aida, chairman; Shoshoro Sato, vice-chairman; Kyushu Usui and Akichi Onnko, treasurers; Hajime Mori, secretary; and Yasuno Naka, business manager.

The textbooks for the students will closely follow the official Japanese language books according to the committee.

Instructor's salary will be $16 plus the clothing allowance and the principle's salary will be $19 plus the allowance. Each ward will select their own teachers and the respective classrooms and the representatives.

Students must attend the schools in their own ward, announced the committee in describing the enrollment plan. An age limit of six years or over was set for the grade schools.

The board stated that tuition charges will be left up to the individual ward, and that maintenance, expenses will be assessed in proportion to the enrollment.

United We Stand...

In the minds of the Army officials, there seems to exist a doubt in regards to the true representative character of our negotiating committee. One of our officials, Colonel Z., states: "Let's squash this "brain child" of the Army!"

Our future welfare and well-being is being decided; our hopes and destiny are at stake. Whether we succeed or fail rests entirely upon our collective action. Let's stand shoulder to shoulder and defy the world to find a faulty link in our strongly forged chain of unity.

Let's show the world that we, whose hearts are firm and whose conscience are clear, are a symbol of unity!
