My dear Prof. Munni,

I have just returned from Atlantic City where I took Mrs. Reid & her son to enjoy for a while the salt air; I find your letter of May 15th awaiting me. Your former letter was also duly received.

Thank you very much for your good offices in seeing Mr. Perkins & securing for me the reductions you men-mention. I am busily engaged preparing for the summer; and look forward with hopes of seeing you. Expect to take two camp hands & possibly one companion with me this summer, & shall make further & longer excursions than I did two years ago.

I should be delighted to have your company.

With kind regards

Very sincerely yours

Harry Fielding Reid.
