

1892-08-12

Letter from Lucy M. Washburn to John Muir, 1892 Aug 12.

Lucy M. Washburn

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence>

Recommended Citation

Washburn, Lucy M., "Letter from Lucy M. Washburn to John Muir, 1892 Aug 12." (1892). John Muir Correspondence (PDFs). 187.

<https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence/187>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the John Muir Correspondence 1856-1914 at Scholarly Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Muir Correspondence (PDFs) by an authorized administrator of Scholarly Commons. For more information, please contact mgibney@pacific.edu.

165-Devine St. [1]

San Jose, Aug. 12. 1892

Mr. John Muir.

Dear Sir: -

When Mr. Allen gave me this letter to you. he suggested that if I would call upon you at your home, it would make you less trouble than to answer any questions by letter; and it was then impossible for me to go to Martinez, and has been since. I am now to have a little time at my command, however, before our Normal School begins its new term.

I have been writing a little paper on the Alaska Summer Term, which I took last year under very favorable auspices. Since I came home, I have studied all I could find about the Muir Glacier: but I find myself very desirous to ask your opinion on one or two points about which there seems a conflict of testimony - I should be glad to know ^{rather than} what you of all others think on the matter; not simply to have my paper accurate, but because the Glacier is to me inexplicably interesting.

01591

[2]

Are you likely to be at home at any time between Aug. 18 and 25? and would it be agreeable that I should

01591

[3]

Call some day between those dates and talk this matter over with you? -

Hoping I am not asking too much.

Very Truly Yours.

Lucy M. Washburn.

01591