U Dear Mr. Muir,

Your letter and express package reached me on Saturday and I thank you for both, - but I did not want you to send so much as to make me to such an extent your debtor.

Tell the children I had hoped to spend next Sat. with them, that I am somewhat to see them, but that this evening comes a letter from some G. J. cousins, Col. & Mrs. Hough, who have asked me to go to Meulo Park with them next Saturday, and as it is my only opportunity for a visit with them, I must go. Tell

Helen that teachers are very tempting, but the two little girls who have found a place in my heart are much more.

I hope whenever you are in Oakland you will not pass by the McKinney mansion.

The Alexanders are just back from their summering on Lake Tahoe, drawn an Anti.
Their home is a dear place for me.

A stack of papers awaits correction, so I must bid you good night with gratitude.

With love to the family, I am
Yours sincerely,
Katharine Graydon

Some pleasant remembrances have come from Miss Tilton bearing on Grecian interests just enough to fire my repressed Hellenic affection. I am taking private instruction from a native, in the modern tongue, and first thing you know I will be conversing with you in the language of Plato!

Dear Mr. Muir:

Your letter and express package reached me on Saturday and I thank you for both - but I did not want you to send so much as to make me to such an extent your debtor.

Tell the children I had hoped to spend next Sat. with them, that I am homesick to see them, but that this evening comes a letter from some N. Y. cousins, Col. and Mrs. Hough, who have asked me to go to Menlo Park with them next Saturday, and as it is my only opportunity for a visit with them, I must go. Tell Helen that peaches are very tempting, but the two little girls who have found a place in my heart are much more. I hope whenever you are in Oakland you will not pass by the McChesney mansion. The Alexanders are just back from their summering on Lake Tahoe, brown as nuts. Their home is a dear place for me.

A stack of papers awaits correction, so I must bid you goodnight, with gratitude.

With love to the family, I am,

Yours sincerely,

Katharine Graydon

Some pleasant remembrances have come from Miss Felton bearing on Grecian interests, just enough to fire my repressed Hellenic affection. I am taking private instruction from a native, in the modern tongue, and first thing you know I will be conversing with you in the language of Plato!
