Martinez, Cal. Nov. 28, 1892

My dear Mr Johnson

Let me hear a word from you as to the reestablishment of your health & general welfare.

I have heard indirectly faint news of you through Mr Armes & Robinson.

Committee bill reducing the area of the Yo. National Park needs watching.

I have been desperately busy & barren this summer. My foreman left me all the ranch work to do & the Stuntzel estate had to be settled. Hope for some leisure hereafter. Have first draft of Alaska articles only.

Ever cordially Yours John Muir
