

1944

"There once was a lady named Rene..." [humorous limerick about staff]

Tulelake Colony

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/cook-nisei>

---

Recommended Citation

Tulelake Colony, ""There once was a lady named Rene..." [humorous limerick about staff]" (1944). Guy and Marguerite Cook Nisei Collection. 217.

<https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/cook-nisei/217>

This Ephemera is brought to you for free and open access by the Japanese-American Internment Collections at Scholarly Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in Guy and Marguerite Cook Nisei Collection by an authorized administrator of Scholarly Commons. For more information, please contact mgibney@pacific.edu.

There once was a lady named 'Rene
The silliest gal ever seen.
She knew she was wise
So tried to advise
But now she retires from the scene

Irene, that crazy young Swede
To her mother's advice gave no heed.
She camped at Tulalake
Till now, for our sake,
Gundy has ordered her freed.

There is a young gent named Ray,
Whose music has made us all sway.
When he plays his violin
The pupils all grin
And our worries all vanish away.

There is a young spriggins named Cheek
Who looks most exceedingly meek.
But his looks he belies
Whenever he tries
Does this clever musician Ray Cheek.

There is a young woman of parts
Whose charm has stolen our hearts.
Now she's going away
From W. R. A.
Who will take care of our charts?

Two persons of some great renown
Are leaving this darned project town
And if they don't shirk
But stick to their work
They'll earn a new star for their crown.

Here once came two persons of fame
Jaderquist and Cheek by name
Too late do we learn
Our dust they now spurn,
While we in great sorrow remain.

