Monday Morning.

Dear Mr. Muir,

Will you
and Mrs. Muir run your eyes over this M.S. to see if there is anything objectionable in it? Please speak plainly, cut anything you wish, and add also what it lacks. I know it is unworthy, my pen is so stiff and awkward and untrained.

I must ask you to return it - at once. I must have it by Friday or the editor will get after me.

Love to all.

Hastily
Lathrine M. Graydon
