

1893-02-18

Letter from J[oseph] Worcester to John Muir, [1893] Feb 18.

Joseph Worcester

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence>

Recommended Citation

Worcester, Joseph, "Letter from J[oseph] Worcester to John Muir, [1893] Feb 18." (1893). John Muir Correspondence (PDFs). 240.

<https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence/240>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the John Muir Correspondence 1856-1914 at Scholarly Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Muir Correspondence (PDFs) by an authorized administrator of Scholarly Commons. For more information, please contact mgibney@pacific.edu.

prints - that she must make clear, but they much and justly fear that Miss Butler's repressed manner will chill rather than warm her auditors. So it - is your own way, with the drawing, the rest, anything in your hand, and consume from twenty to thirty minutes.

Excuse, and believe me yours sincerely
Jas Macomber

1030 Valley St. S.F.
Feb. 18th

Dear Mr. Miner,

I understand that Miss Butler has written to you, making a request of you. I do not know what she said in her letter, but I have a real fear that she does not make it clear how important - to us all her undertaking is, and how much she needs help.
She has charge of the results of the California flora, and she has done much and excellent work not only in drawing the flowers in their habitat, but in gathering the plants and seeds with the purpose of making a field of flowers around the California Building. She cannot carry out the well-devised plan for this without help, and she has found it very difficult to interest the men in it, so she has appealed to some of the ladies of the Century Club.

They will do what they can, and have set apart an afternoon in which Miss Butler's drawing will be shown and her plans unfolded, but they much need help in the way of informal talk from one having some ledge and enthusiasm in the matter of our wild-flowers, and no one has them as yet here. Miss Hamilton and Mrs Jackson will support her in drawing from her the