Chapter 374 redesignates police judges of municipal courts¹ as municipal judges.² Existing law requires that municipal judges be chosen by the electors of their respective cities.³ Chapter 374, however, provides an additional method for selecting a municipal judge.⁴ With the enactment of Chapter 374, the governing body of the city, acting with the consent of the Board of County Commissioners and the justice of the peace, is authorized to designate a justice of the peace as ex officio municipal judge of the city.⁵
