5. See generally Note, Regulating the Sale of Human Organs, 7 VA. L. REV. 1015, 1017 (1985) (examines the organ supply system and suggests amendments to existing statutes and guidelines for future organ sale statutes).

6. Human organ includes the human kidney, liver, heart, lung, bone marrow, and any other part of the human body, except blood. 1987 Nev. Stat. ch. 641, sec. 1, at ___ (enacting NEV. REV. STAT. § 201.____).

7. Id. Valuable consideration does not include the reasonable payments associated with the removal, transportation, implantation, processing, preservation, quality control, or storage of a human organ or the expenses of travel, housing, and lost wages incurred by the donor in connection with the donation of a human organ. Id. Compare 1987 NEV. REV. STAT. ch. 641, sec. 1, at ___ (enacting NEV. REV. STAT. § 201.____) (prohibits the sale of human organs) with National Organ Transplant Act 42 U.S.C. § 274e (1984) (prohibits the sale of human organs only if the sale affects interstate commerce) and CAL. PENAL CODE § 367f (this statute prohibits the brokering of organs, but permits two-party sales such as where individuals purchase an organ for their own transplant or sell an organ to a recipient).

Crimes; sale and use of controlled substances in commission of a felony

NEV. REV. STAT. § 200.____ (new); § 453.333 (amended).

AB 516 (Dubois); 1987 STAT. Ch 612

SB 360 (Committee on Judiciary); 1987 STAT. Ch 677

Existing law prohibits the unlawful possession and administration of controlled substances.¹ Existing law also provides that if the death of a person² is proximately caused by a controlled substance sold illegally to the deceased person the seller is guilty of murder.³ Chapter

1. NEV. REV. STAT. § 453.570. The amount of a controlled substance needed to sustain a conviction is that amount necessary for identification as a controlled substance by a witness qualified to make such identification. Id. See id. §§ 453.375 (authorized possession and administration of controlled substances); 453.041 (definition of controlled substances).

2. NEV. REV. STAT. § 193.0205 (definition of person).

3. Id. § 453.333 (amended by 1987 Nev. Stat. ch. 612, sec. 1, at ___). See id. § 200.010 (definition of murder). See also id. § 200.030 (definition of first and second degree murder).

677 provides that any person who administers⁴ any controlled substance, anesthetic, or intoxicating or emetic agent for the purpose of committing a felony⁵ must be punished by imprisonment.⁶ Under Chapter 612 a person who has given, traded, or otherwise made available a controlled substance which causes death is guilty of murder.⁷

Crimes; trespass

NEV. REV. STAT. § 41.____ (new); § 207.200 (amended).
SB 588 (Committee on Natural Resources); 1987 STAT. Ch 781

Existing law declares that an owner of land is deemed to have given sufficient warning against trespass by conspicuously posting legible signs not more than 700 feet apart on each side of the land near the boundaries, or by fencing¹ the area.² Under Chapter 781, painting posts or natural objects, not more than 200 feet apart on each side of the land near the boundaries, with at least fifty square inches of fluorescent orange paint is a sufficient warning against trespass.³ Also, a duty to warn a trespasser about an existing dangerous condition on the premises is discharged if sufficient warning against trespass is posted.⁴
