but more. I think there is much more
now here than in R.
ahem! ahem!

I am considering the subject of "cloning up" that dictionary. but do not "feel to know" whether to do it on St. Patrick's day or not. Ahem! ahem!

I have not yet had the courage to present that prescription to the druggist - but feel that I must not procrastinate much longer as my pumpkins now
amount to the aggregate sum of 7. Ahem! ahem!

David says that if you Dan & Emma come to Portage to make a visit he will favor you with a rendering of the appropriate song entitled "When the Kie come home." Ahem! ahem!

Dear Daniel

I hope this will find you all well, and your patient still improving - I have this day received a letter from Dunbar and I do consider it my duty to send you some money -

Please find enclosed a Post Office order for thirty Dollars -

I wish you would make out your bill when convenient and send it to me - as I can send you some more bye & bye - Emma got home safe and well - since she got home we have had another great snow storm and all the trains were stopped yesterday - and so you have received

I hope you will like your new home - I suppose you have all the business you can attend to and when you get tired I hope you will come here to recruit and rest -

I hope Emma and baby if that ^{the} Postal ^{did} will be able to pay us a visit. Look so bad, I did reach ~~this~~ summer it would give some very rich of the us much pleasure road without any injury

I hope Joanna (visible at least) to ^{with} will improve so that she will ^{very} leave or safety. ^{when} be able to walk out when I found all our usual fine weather comes - we are healthy with the exception all in our usual health - ^{time} of John Reid Jr. and all write with me in which was quite sick sending you all much love last week but is now from your affectionate ^{card} ^{sent} - ^{afraid}!

Mother I went out into the country on Monday to visit my Calabrian friends and was storm staid, returning only
